

PASADENA MAN BECOMES INSANE

HENRY KLOECKNER CONFINED IN HOSPITAL

BAND CONCERTS ASSURED

Canvass So Successful That Money For Open Air Music Is Guaranteed—No Couraging at Arcadia

PASADENA, May 14.—Word was received today that Henry Kloeckner of this city had become deranged while at San Bernardino and that the authorities there have confined him in a hospital. The news came in a telephone message from the city marshal of San Bernardino to Chief Pinkham with a request that Mrs. Kloeckner be advised of her husband's condition. A messenger conveyed the news to her at their home, 121 South Chester street and she left for San Bernardino at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The cause of Kloeckner's sudden derangement is not fully known at this time. He left Pasadena last Thursday to work at his trade as an electrician. Mrs. Kloeckner was much affected while waiting for the train. "If Henry has gone insane it is because he has worked too hard," she said, between sobs. "He has not been feeling well but his mind has always been bright." She had no other reason to give for his plight.

The young man has resided in Pasadena for years and has been in the employ of A. T. Dickey. "I have known him for many years," said Chief Pinkham, "and he has always been a steady worker and free from any bad habit."

Saturday Night Concerts
That there will be Saturday night band concerts is no longer doubtful as the merchants have responded to the requirements of the band so far as the canvass has proceeded. Ralph Salisbury, secretary of the Crown City band, said today that about one-third of the business men have been approached with the subscription list and not one has opposed it. Mayor Waterhouse has become interested in the project and he not only heads the subscription paper but is lending his influence in assisting the band officials with their canvass. It is probable that the canvass will be completed and sufficient funds guaranteed to begin concerts with the coming Saturday night.

Pasadena Brevities
Arcadia was quiet and free from couraging today. The promoters of the sport have decided to await the outcome of the cases in court against "Lucky" Baldwin and others interested in the rabbit chasing who are now under arrest at the instigation of the humane officers.

A big revival meeting was inaugurated at the Friends church today. Rev. George W. Willis of Cleveland, O., is the evangelist in charge.

Dr. J. M. Radebaugh visited at Catalina last night.

Miss Mabel Williams will begin her duties as an employe of the Farmers and Merchants' bank of Los Angeles tomorrow morning.

The Senior Carpenters' club of the Y. M. C. A., will give a hayride and moonlight picnic Millard's canyon Tuesday night. The members have invited their young women friends, who are expected to prepare the lunch.

Joseph F. Boynton, a resident of Pasadena for twelve years, died today at his home, corner of Delmar and Michigan avenue. Deceased was 74 years of age. He will be buried at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

SCAB SCARES LOMPOC VALLEY APPLE GROWERS

State Authorities Declare Parasites Can Be Checked Before Serious Damage Results

SANTA BARBARA, May 14.—The growers of the Lompoc valley have had a scare through the discovery of a disease resembling pear scab in an orchard in that vicinity. In another place has been found San Jose scale. One of the orchards is being looked after by state authorities and it is thought that there can be a check placed upon these parasites before serious damage results. The County Horticultural commissioner announces that those trees which are affected will be destroyed if necessary to check the spread of the scales.

Miss Amy Rush of this city found one of the largest star fish that has ever been seen in Santa Barbara. It was alive and clinging to one of the small rocks below Castle Rock. The star fish measures over twenty inches in diameter and is just a little too large to be put in a common wash tub. It is of a dark brown color and is in perfect condition. The fish will be dried and kept in the museum of natural history at this place.

GETS SPACE AT FAIR

Riverside County to Be Adequately Represented at Portland
RIVERSIDE, May 14.—Riverside county will be adequately represented at the Lewis and Clark exposition. The Riverside chamber of commerce has been advised, by Frank Wiggins, that a space 12x42 feet is available for the irrigation exhibit that attracted such favorable attention at the St. Louis exhibition. Steps were at once taken by the directors to send the exhibit to Portland. This exhibit represented a model of Riverside and its water system, including the San Bernardino watershed. Miniature canals, orange groves and homes formed a part of the exhibit. A man will be sent to distribute literature and explain the exhibit.

The entertainment committee of the Riverside chamber of commerce is making plans for the reception of the irrigation committee of the house and senate, who pay Riverside a visit on June 11. They are coming to study scientific irrigation methods and while on the coast will visit Imperial, Redlands, Los Angeles, the Sacramento valley and San Francisco.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church celebrated tonight, by a service of marked interest, the sixteenth anniversary of the organization of the league. Several short addresses were delivered and a musical program rendered.

Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees united in memorial services at 3 p. m. this afternoon. The hall was artistically decorated with flowers, including a number of floral emblems.

ADVANCES PRICE OF WATER LAND

EL CAJON MAN QUADRUPLES VALUATION

SAN DIEGO IS GIVEN OPTION

Six Military Bodies Plan to Participate in Memorial Day Services. Blue to March With the Gray

SAN DIEGO, May 14.—H. D. Williamson, the El Cajon rancher, who on Friday refused to renew the option given on the city on his water bearing lands unless the city should pay him interest on the purchase price from June 1 to September 1, has now decided to grant the extension without any interest. The value of the land two years ago was considered to be $10,000. The option given the city is at $45,000, and Williamson has been advised by his friends that the advance in price is certainly enough without the demand for interest.

Plans for the new Fox-Heller block have been completed and work on the structure will soon be under way. It will occupy the 100x100 feet at the corner of Fifth and E streets.

The San Diego Horsemen's association has arrangements well in hand for the Memorial day races at Coronado race track.

Dow Is Under Arrest

Both Will Dow and Cliff Gilbert, the two survivors of the shooting affray in the lower part of town, in which Rose Hostetter was killed by Dow, who also tried to kill Gilbert and himself, are slowly recovering at the Agnew sanitarium. Dow is under arrest for murder and if he recovers will be placed on trial. Gilbert, who was the only one else in the room at the time, will be the principal witness against Dow.

Six different military bodies besides other organizations will be in line in the Memorial day parade. They are the G. A. R., Confederate veterans, U. S. regulars, National guard, Naval reserve and Y. M. C. A. cadets. Grand Marshal C. C. Pillsbury has issued his first general order regarding the parade which will be through the business portion of the city to the Isis theater, where the Memorial day exercises will be held.

The young men of Pi Delta Kappa gave a dance at their club house on Golden hill last evening, in honor of Miss Constance Restarick, daughter of Bishop Henry Bond Restarick of Honolulu, who is visiting former friends in this city.

Woman Falls From Carriage

The Congregational Sunday school picnic at the old Mission dam yesterday was marred by an accident which came near costing the life of Mrs. Margaret Fanton. On the return trip from the picnic grounds, Mrs. Fanton fell from the rear of a carryall, landing on her head and shoulders. She was rendered unconscious and as soon as she could be brought to the city it was ascertained that her shoulder and two ribs were broken by the fall. She will be confined to the house several weeks.

The new Sunday closing ordinance was in effect today and San Diego was a dry town for the first time in its existence. No infraction of the law was noticed.

Word comes from Sacramento that the Master Plumbers' association which has been in session there has decided to meet in San Diego for its next annual gathering.

SANTA ANA ITEMS

SANTA ANA, May 14.—Students of the Orange County Business college picnicked yesterday at Laguna Beach. A score or more of the young people making the trip. An excursion of teachers of the Orange public schools was made to the same place yesterday. The Pi Kappa Phi sorority of the high school entertained a large number of students and friends at the Elks' hall Friday evening with an informal reception. A banquet was served after games had been played in the large reception hall.

Farmers west of the river are reporting serious trouble from army worms, which are eating young alfalfa and beets on the ranches. The warm weather is expected to mitigate the ravages of the pest.

Louis E. Levy, well known here, where he lived for several years, is dead at his home in Los Angeles.

TWICE MARRIED IN EIGHT DAYS

BOTH CEREMONIES BY THE SAME MINISTER

ELECTRIC ROAD TO RIALTO

Construction of Line From San Bernardino Is Now Practically Assured—Local News Brevities

SAN BERNARDINO, May 14.—To be twice married by the same minister within a space of eight days is an experience that does not come to the ordinary couple on matrimony bent. But such a thing actually has occurred, the second chapter being enacted in this city yesterday afternoon.

The interested parties were Eben R. Hively of Corona and Miss Jessie May Johnson of Farmington, Kas. A little more than a week ago the couple secured a license at Redlands and went to Redlands and were married, the minister performing the ceremony not being in the state long and unfamiliar with the laws of this state.

A few days later the couple were informed that all was not just right, and an investigation convinced them that if they wanted to be legally wedded they had better try it over again, as the marriage performed in another county than where the license was issued was illegal.

Accordingly they drove to Redlands, secured the minister, then came to San Bernardino and secured a license and were again married quietly in a corner of the clerk's office, the ceremony being performed in so low a tone and in so unostentatious a manner that even the newspaper men a few feet away did not realize at the time what was going on.

Electric Road to Rialto

The Rialto people will have that electric railroad to their community from San Bernardino. A meeting attended by seventy-five prominent residents of that community was held last night at which the matter of a right of way and other details were arranged. The whole proposition will be placed in the hands of Seth Hartley tomorrow and it is expected he will leave for the east Tuesday to interest capital in the plan. In fact it is stated that capital is already interested, merely waiting for the details of right of way to be secured.

A strange remedy has been discovered and used successfully by the Highgrove orchardists to defeat the ravages of the cut worm scourge which threatened to entirely ruin the coming crop of oranges. Each tree trunk has been wrapped with common sticky fly paper, which prevents the worms climbing up. In some cases hundreds of worms have been caught on the paper on a single tree, but not one is able to cross the sticky line.

City Water Commission Organizes

The new city water commission, which takes charge of the city's water system tomorrow, has organized by electing A. G. Kendall as chairman. The list of appointments of the water system will include Fred Hison as chief engineer and Charles Hoffmaster as assistant. Will Starke will be superintendent of the system, while M. L. Aldridge will be continued as collector.

Fire practically destroyed the home occupied by the family of William A. Todd, Mr. Todd and wife are at San Luis Obispo on business, there being but two sons at home. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The house was the property of William Guy of this city and was partly insured. The loss is about $1000.

Miss Alberta Rousseau, chief operator of the Home Telephone company in this city, will on Tuesday, June 20, be married to William Whittaker of Los Angeles, where they will make their home. The young lady has a wide acquaintance in this city and is popular in church circles.

Prof. N. A. Naillie of the high school faculty of this city stood at the top of the class of sixteen who passed the bar examination before the appellate court in Los Angeles last week. He expects soon to take up the practice of law in this city.

Highland Bank Names Officers

The First National bank of Highland has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, H. W. Johnson; vice president, L. A. Desmond; cashier, M. C. Taylor. The board of directors is composed of Messrs. Johnstone and Desmond, with W. C. Patterson of Los Angeles, L. C. Waite of Riverside, K. C. Wells and W. S. Brookings of Redlands, M. M. Randall and Alexis Frye of Highland.

K. L. Bernard, who as general yardmaster for the Southern Pacific at Colton and this city has been the subject of a great many attacks by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which threatened to demoralize the service at Colton for a time, has been offered the position of trainmaster on another division of the Southern Pacific and will probably accept. The company refused to dismiss Bernard when he was attacked by the trainmen on the ground of incompetency, a petition being sent to Superintendent Ingram asking for his removal. A thorough investigation followed, with the result that Bernard stayed.

FOUR HIGHLAND MEN KILL SIX HUNDRED TROUT

HIGHLAND, May 14.—The fishing party that returned from Bear creek on Wednesday reports the catch for four days to be 600 trout. John and Fred Linfesty, Horace Lamb and Marion Bagwell were the fishermen. The twenty acres belonging to J. Cleghorn in Base Line, and formerly set to peaches and apricots, was planted to oranges last week. The variety selected was late Valencia.

Lewis S. Steele has been chosen by the California Citrus union to succeed A. G. Stearns as general manager of this section.

Postmaster True left Friday for San Luis Obispo to attend the meeting of the grand lodge Knights of Pythias. Walter F. Grow and T. B. Murray went as delegates.

Mrs. E. J. Burleigh and daughter, Mrs. Roy Campbell, are up from San Diego on a visit.

George Barnes and Claude Yerkes left last week for Daggett, from which place they will leave by team for a prospecting trip of a week or more.

HYDE LED GAY LIFE IN PARIS

GAVE ELABORATE DINNERS

American Colony Gossips of His Lavish Hospitality and Catholicity of Tastes in His Friendships

PARIS, May 14.—The Equitable Life scandal begins to stir public opinion in France, and a letter to the Gil Blas remarks that it is highly undesirable to the interests and security of policy holders that such large funds be at Mr. Hyde's mercy, to be employed in speculations, either personal, such as are venturesome, or in liquidation of such fantastic bills as the famous $125 a head dinner. The writer maintains that this dinner, charged to the public account, had as its sole object to make young Hyde a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, an ambition which was realized a few months later.

The writer also inquires if the numberless dinners and coaching parties offered by Mr. Hyde were also carried to the publicity account.

Calling at the office of the Equitable Life in this city, a correspondent found silence from Mr. Peixoto down. Abundance of gossip floats about in the American colony, all of which reduces itself to the fact that Mr. Hyde lived the normal life of a young millionaire while in Paris, maintaining a sumptuous hotel, with the accompaniment of automobiles, splendid dinners and theater parties, but he was conspicuous among the wealthy by his artistic tastes, his cult of poets, artists and savants, especially his enthusiasm for the propagation of the French language and literature by means of the Alliance Francaise in America, of which he is vice president. You may meet at his table actresses and variety singers, also some of the most serious men in France, financiers, senators and ministers.

HARMSWORTH'S FATAL AUTO

Reward Offered by Newspaper Hits the Proprietor's Brother

LONDON, May 14.—The extraordinary series of fatal and serious accidents to pedestrians caused by motor cars in the Easter holidays has aroused a renewed clamor for severe penalties for reckless driving. On April 19 a 10-year-old boy was killed outright by a car passing through the quiet village of Markyate. The driver, instead of stopping, accelerated his pace, and for five days every effort to trace the car failed, though the Daily Mail offered a reward of $500 for information.

On Saturday last Hildebrand Harmsworth, younger brother of Sir Alfred, owner of the Daily Mail, informed the police he believed that his was the missing car, and his chauffeur surrendered, declaring he thought the car had barely touched the boy, leaving him uninjured. Hildebrand Harmsworth was not in the car at the time, which was occupied by two friends. The Daily Mail announced that under the circumstances the reward would not be paid, and the chauffeur is now awaiting trial without bail.

HEIRESS WEDS CHAUFFEUR

Rich Miss Baldock Remains True Despite Parental Opposition

LONDON, May 14.—A recent cablegram gave the romantic story of the infatuation of Miss Baldock, who is heir to millions, for her father's handsome chauffeur, and the desperate efforts made by her family to prevent her marriage with him. As then announced, the date of the wedding had actually been fixed, but the day before it the intended bridegroom, after being interviewed by the bride's father, consented to wait a few months, being paid, it was then said, a handsome sum by Mr. Baldock.

But Miss Baldock remained faithful to her chauffeur lover, and was married to him on Thursday, though every conceivable inducement was held out to both him and her to break the engagement. Miss Baldock's aunt was the only one of her relatives present. The happy pair went to the seaside for their honeymoon. Mrs. Cyril Bishop, as she now is, has an income at present of $5000 a year, but in two or three years, when she is twenty-five, she will inherit $1,500,000 absolutely.

WILL $500,000 BONDS BE ISSUED?

COUNCIL TO ACT ON THE QUESTION TODAY

GARBAGE MAY BE CALLED UP

Many Requests From Various Civic Departments to Be Considered by the City Fathers

The city council will be asked to call an election to submit the question of issuing $500,000 bonds, with which to build a public library in Central park, at this morning's session.

The library board believes that in so much as the people of the city have voted to put the building in this park that they will be in favor of issuing the bonds necessary for the construction of the building. The library can not long remain in its present quarters, as the room allotted to it is insufficient and is also needed by the other departments in the city hall, which are now so congested that it is hardly possible to transact business which falls to them.

The requisition from the fire commission will also be acted upon today. The fire department wants 20,000 feet of fire hose, three new engines and six more combination hose carts and chemical engines. Chief Lips also wants the positions of two battalion chiefs created in the department.

The Garbage Question

It is probable that the garbage question will again be opened, as the report of Roderick McKay, the engineer sent east by the city to investigate the operation of garbage crematories there, will be received. Three bids for garbage destruction plants of 200 tons daily capacity are now before the council and action upon them has been deferred until the report of McKay is ready.

Bids will also be opened by the council this morning for the city printing contract for the next fiscal year. Councilmen have been investigating the new salary ordinances, which were drawn on account of the new ruling of the civil service commission, and it is considered more than likely that some of these ordinances may be recalled by the city's legislative body for reconsideration.

SHRINK FROM LIBERTY

But It Will Come and Old Time Galantry Will Die

PARIS, May 14.—The question of women's rights before the law is exciting violent passions at this moment, when an official commission is examining proposed reforms in the civil code. Mmes. Hubertine Auclert and Marie Pognon are heading the campaign. They lost on the point of married women retaining their maiden names, but hope to secure freedom of wives from compulsion to follow their husbands to whatever country the latter may choose to live in.

Marcel Prevost, the famous novelist, said:

"It is astonishing to note how the mass of women shrink from reasonable liberty, and this is a proof of how profoundly real their serfdom has been. Equality must come and Old World gallantry will disappear, as it has already in your New York, where woman has to fight man to get a seat on the cars. But women will finally be happier in brave, free relations, and their granddaughters will smile at the pusillanimity of the women of this generation."
