Pasadena

School affairs of the week were notably enjoyable and elaborate. That at the Los Robles school for girls was particularly interesting, as dramatic performances and a musical program were given by the pupils. One play was written with reference to the school, "The Oaks," and was called "The Daughters of the Oaks." Poetry and symbolism were embodied in the production, which was based on old Druidical rites. "Der Polterabend," adapted from the German by Miss Ludovic. "Le Voyage de Monsieur Perichon," a bright little French dialogue, gave scope for some pretty bits of acting. Those taking parts and furnishing music were Miss Agnes Claypool, Ada Forman, Elizabeth Miller, Geraldine Barry, Marcia Hawley, Elizabeth Watkins, Jane Rowland, Julia Holmes, Marjorie McQuiston, Helen McDonald, Charlotte Ally, Eleanor Orr, Mildred Sherk, Bessie Mathson, Katherine Cook, Elsie Allen, Elsie Bolton, Mabel Siebert, Nellie McDonald, Elizabeth Rust, Ida May Hammond, Olive Williams, Florence Thompson, Helen Hunter and Louise Hawkins.

Prof. and Mrs. Robert Ford entertained "The Gnomes" of Throop Polytechnic Tuesday evening. Popular songs were sung and dancing enjoyed. About eighty Gnomes and friends were present.

Thursday evening the Fin de Siecle club entertained in honor of the Gamma Theta Delta society at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leach on Los Robles avenue. Friday evening, May 26, at the Leach homestead the Washington Heights Study circle held a Lohengrin evening and a large reception.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haynes of Raymond avenue opened their handsome new home to their friends Wednesday evening. The house-warming was attended by about fifty guests.

On Saturday, the 27th, Miss Grace Huntley entertained in charming fashion the young ladies who are to sing the bridal chorus at her wedding, June 1. Miss Huntley, who is to marry Lewis Salsbury, will be entertained by Miss Ida Hahn on Monday. Pomona college girls will be present and assist in this final affair to Miss Huntley, who has been the recipient of many similar honors.

At the Maryland hotel Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pixley gave a dinner party. Covers were laid for eight. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Daggett.

The younger children of the Columbia school were treated to a day in the Arroyo Seco on Wednesday. In shadowy nooks jolly games were played and a delicious luncheon was served on the rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braden were the genial host and hostess Tuesday evening and gave the Pi Psi Sigma boys a royal time. About thirty young men were present. Those present were David T. Gilmor, Newkirk, McD. Snowball, Bruce Hill, Albert Evans, Harry Collier, Le Roy Currier, Faunteroy Compton, Harold Knight, Eugene Kern, Rooney Jacobs, Connie Petrie, Senery Hibben, Ralph Simpson, Harold Ryerson, Sidney Collier, Harold Reynolds, Matthew Slavin, Charles Davis, Norman Pike, Harold Lucas, Harold Pierson, Claude Braden, Clifford Dickson and Harry Gammon. The club presented Mr. Dickson with a gold club pin in acknowledgment of his active services in their behalf. Albert Evans made the presentation speech.

Thursday evening Miss Amy Langworthy and Miss Geneva Swidfefer gave a dinner at Throop. Red and gold were the colors which were used in a decorative scheme most daintily carried out. Hand painted dinner cards were used and delicious viands, prepared by the young ladies, were served.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Minnie Dunsenath to Carl B. Slaughter is announced. The marriage will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers, Maple avenue, on June 21.

A pleasant occasion of the week was the reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Norman Bridge to the members of the faculty and the trustees of Throop. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vaughn of Chicago were the guests of honor. Mrs. Vaughn is the daughter of the founder of

REPEAT CEREMONY THAT TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO MADE THEM MAN AND WIFE

REV. AND MRS. FREDERICK A. FIELD AND THEIR DAUGHTER, MISS BESSIE FIELD

Everything just as it had been twenty-five years before and yet everything just a little bit different. Such was the silver wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Frederick A. Field celebrated Friday evening at their home, 1725 Magnolia avenue. There was the same service performed for two happy people standing 'neath a wedding bell of white—the same service, though Rev. J. M. Schaefer was not the same pastor who had performed it twenty-five years ago. The same man and the same woman stood together though time had sprinkled their heads with gray and time has made them wiser than they were at that other ceremony. There was the ring, but this, too, was different, for it was the bride who presented it to the bridegroom. There was the matron of honor, Mrs. Earl R. Osborne and the maid of honor, but such a different maid from the one who stood with the bride twenty-five years ago. This time it was Miss Bessie Field, Rev. and Mrs. Field's only daughter. In a dainty gown of pink and white organdy, with a bouquet of pink sweet peas, she stood beside her parents, and both voted that she made the silver wedding as precious as the other had been. Mrs. Field was dressed in a handsome gown of silver crepe, trimmed with rich lace, and she carried bride roses. Her matron of honor wore lavender and white mull and her bouquet was of carnations and ferns. Rev. Field was attended by Earl R. Osborne as best man and the wedding march was played by Miss Bess Travirs. A pretty decorative scheme prevailed throughout the home where nearly one hundred guests were received during the evening. Rev. and Mrs. Field have lived in their present home for the past ten years, and both have been prominent in religious work in Los Angeles. Miss Bessie Field is a member of the sophomore class of Occidental.

Throop and is always accorded a warm welcome when visiting Pasadena by those who have educational interests at heart. The colors of Throop adorned the Bridge home, and the letters T. P. I. were emblazoned on a large banner of yellow satin.

The Eastern Star auxiliary was entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Kenyon Warren, North Orange Grove avenue.

Little Margaret Frey, daughter of Mrs. Sara N. Frey, celebrated her birthday Thursday with a charming little party for her girl friends.

Ladies of the West Side Congregational church entertained their pastor and his wife, Rev. John A. Holmes and Mrs. Holmes, in their own beautiful new parsonage on Thursday evening. A large number of the church people were present.

The "Force" of Herpicide.

Even the first application of Newbro's Herpicide (THE ORIGINAL REMEDY THAT "KILLS THE DANDRUFF GERM") shows the hair-saving and satisfying "force" that is in it. This "force" is the sum of two characteristics that are united in no other hair remedy.

Herpicide has the ABILITY to destroy the dandruff microbe, and the QUALITY to delight those who want a dainty hair dressing. It holds the secret of popularity and pleases every one who is discriminating enough to have a preference. It is not sticky. It will not stain the hair.

The curative effect of Herpicide is sometimes little short of marvelous, for after the dandruff germ is destroyed, and kept out of the scalp, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

"Finest Preparation for the Hair"

"We have our third bottle of Herpicide and think it is the finest preparation for the hair and scalp we have ever used." Rye Valley, Ore. (Signed) Mrs. G. H. Rollins.

"As a Dressing Has No Superior"

"I can recommend Newbro's Herpicide as it stopped my hair from falling out. As a dressing it has no superior." Portland, Ore. (Signed) Bertha A. Trulling.
