Los Angeles, Cal., May 29, 1905

Gentlemen: In reply to your recent query, - Does advertising in the "HERALD" pay? We confidently say, it does. Our business has doubled during each of the last four years. To make this phenomenal growth more comprehensible we are doing eight times the business this year, that we did four years ago. We attribute our wonderful success to two practical reasons: 1st. We always give our patrons the best values obtainable for their money. 2nd. We advertise judiciously. Hence, since we are using more and more space in the columns of the "HERALD" it is proof positive that we are deriving most satisfactory results. Our business grows with "leaps and bounds" and when we consider expenditure and results, we know of no better way to keep our NAME and BARGAINS constantly before the public than through the medium of the "HERALD." Yours truly, EASTERN OUTFITTING CO. Per E. R. Odell, Adj. Mgr.
