

KNIGHTS GET DOWN TO WORK

CONVENTION IS CALLED TO ORDER

BUSINESS IS RULE OF DAY

Games on the Sand and Sea Bathing. Huge Theater Party Last Night. Third Degree Work is Exemplified ering shrubs marked the end of each year.

Following the organ voluntary by Father Raphael, O. F. M., the Rev. D. W. J. Murphy, S. T. B., pastor of the church, with a happiness that he could not conceal, bade the assembled knights welcome.

"As the pastor of the Church of Blessed Sacrament, a church which Archbishop Montgomery as founder of this parish calls his 'valedictory to the diocese,' I bid you welcome," said Father Murphy.

"The welcome which Los Angeles and San Francisco have given you, my brethren, it not warmer because of their size. Hollywood's greeting is just as heartfelt and affectionate to you who form an organization which is today the backbone of the Catholic church of America."

Following Rev. Murphy's remarks, the Right Rev. Charles O'Reilly of Baker City, Ore., delivered the sermon. He took the place of the Rt. Rev. T. J. Conaty who was unable to be present. His words were those of praise for the order whose delegates were assembled to hear him, and in his remarks he spoke feelingly of the good that the order had made possible through its organization. Following this he explained the creed of the church in its desire that all things used in the ritual should be blessed as things set aside for the special purpose of praise for which they were used.

He reminded his hearers of the debt which the American continent owes to the Catholic faith; how Columbus, a Catholic, by his discoveries had made possible the new world, how the money which purchased his ships came from Catholic coffers, and following his discoveries, the deeds of the padres in the new land. He called his brother knights' attention to the tenets of the church which they do and should uphold, and the policy which should dominate the life of the order as the strongest adjunct of the Catholic church.

Following his words, Archbishop Montgomery gave the benediction of the most sacred sacrament assisted by Father Have of Santa Monica and Father Beaudry of Our Lady of the Angels church, Los Angeles.

In the blessing of the window, the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Reilly was assisted by Father Grogan of Ventura and Father O'Reilly of St. Patrick's church Los Angeles.

Succeeding was the singing by the congregation of the "O Salutaris Hostia," and "The Tantum Ergo."

The window which has been admired by thousands, is of three parts, and placed high above the altar, floods that portion of the sanctuary with its light. The scene portrayed is one of historical import worked out in colors of exceeding beauty.

In the central panel, Columbus is seen offering up the first prayer to God given by a Catholic in the new world. Above his head is unfurled the standard of Spain. In the background are discernible the seamen and his followers, while at the right of him is portrayed the figure of a native. There are seven figures in all.

The panels on each side are similar in detail and portray the virgin solitude of tropical vegetation of the new world, with the blue of the sea showing in the background.

Previous to the dedication of the window, the supreme council delegates were photographed on the steps of Paul de Longpre's home in Hollywood.

KNIGHTS AT SANTA MONICA

Dip in Old Ocean a Great Treat for Inlanders

Where over a century and a quarter ago, Padre Junipero Serra and his attendants on an apostolic journey rested for a night beneath the branches of the great sycamore, still standing as a monument of the visit to what is now Santa Monica, 3500 Catholic knights yesterday on a pilgrimage of pleasure, halted, found the place good to look upon and like the Jesuits of old, pitched their camp for the day.

Could the good priest have come to life even if only for an hour yesterday, his hands would have been raised in mute astonishment at the scene which would have presented itself to him.

There were thousands of well dressed pleasure seekers, a band in coats of scarlet, the same games of the early settlers and the newer generation enjoying itself as would the old.

If Padre Serra had not seen fit to visit the beach it is a dollar to a cent that had he gone a-hunting for his attendants he would have found them there. A bevy of California visitors who rivaled the beauty of the Santa Monica maid, with screams of fright or enjoyment tempted Father Neptune to come forth from the deep and catch them playing in the surf. There were other amusements, but the bathing feature caught the crowd and pleasure seekers forsook the ring tournament for the beach.

Santa Monica gave the visitors as royal a welcome as did the Angelenos on their arrival in the convention city. Streets, business houses and residences were bedecked with flags and bunting, while at the North Beach the words now so common to the visitors, "Welcome, Sir Knights of Columbus," greeted them from the banner stretched across the street.

KNIGHTS AMID A GARDEN OF ROSES

DELEGATES PAYING A VISIT TO HOME OF PAUL DE LONGPRE

Preceded by the band of the Holy Cross, some 150 pupils of the Academy of the Holy Names, the boys carrying flags, and the little girls dressed in white with wreaths upon their heads and carrying garlands, followed by the Santa Monica Council of Knights, paraded the main streets of the city.

At the pavilion, the pupils of the academy sang the song of welcome, the words and music of which were composed by Sister Matilda of the school.

Given the City His honor, T. H. Dudley, mayor of the city, put forth the big hand of welcome and the visitors took it. They took everything in sight. The lemonade barrels would have disappeared had it not been that they were securely fastened. The guests simply took Mayor Dudley at his word.

Father Quin in behalf of the visitors responded to the welcome, and offered to take even the pocketbooks of the hosts. An Irishman with native wit in audible tones remarked that no one would get much. Everyone laughed. Father Quin said a lot of nice things about everyone in general and a great deal about Santa Monica in particular and then started toward the beach with the knights at his heels. San Francisco knights expressed some doubt as to whether the water would be good for them but they finally acceded to the wishes of delegates from the Hoosier state who wanted to see what salt water was like and there was a rollicking good time in the surf.

In front of the pavilion where a concert was given by the band of the Holy Cross, the ring tournament, a survival of the sports of the olden days of California was carried out.

Rings were hung from crossbars and half a dozen youths mounted on broncos took their turn at running the rings on the spear which each carried, their animals being driven at break-neck speed.

Swimming contests and surf racing during the latter part of the afternoon formed an interesting diversion.

The visiting knights could not have paid for anything had they so desired. There money was not good. The dancing pavilion was one of the attractions which was thrown open for their exclusive use, as was also the plunge where many who did not care for the surf bathing disported themselves.

During the afternoon, the ladies of the reception committee served refreshments and supervised a lavish distribution of flowers.

A list of winners in the events is as follows:

Swimming race won by Edward Keating, Walter Keating second, Herman Buls third. Distance one quarter of a mile.

Boat race won by Santa Monica Life Saving crew team, Joseph Olivarez and Frank Gomez. Distance one half mile. Ring tournament won by Frank Machado, Manuel Dominduz second, Vincente Howard third.

HONORS FOR ARCHBISHOP

Elegant Reception is Tendered Him at Cummock Hall

"Greetings to Our Beloved Guest." These were the words which welcomed Bishop Montgomery back to Los Angeles last evening when he appeared at Cummock hall as the honored guest of the women's auxiliary of the convent of the Good Shepherd. The words were but the expression of hundreds of hearts, filled with love for the man who has endeared himself to Los Angeles as few men have.

There have been many hands offered in welcome to the one time Angeleno since he arrived in this city with the Knights of Columbus, but it would be hard to find any more graciously extended than those of the enthusiastic company which gathered last night to do him honor.

In every nook and corner of the Cummock building loving hands had wrought miracles, and the crowning touch of one of the most brilliant affairs was added when nearly three hundred hands, some of them adorned with diamonds, Miss Mullin was attired in white silk, with pearls. Mrs. Whitney was attired in gray mousseline, with lace and pearl trimmings and she wore diamond and pearl jewels. Mrs. E. E. Dixon of Montana was gowned in white point lace, with black chiffon trimmings and wore diamonds. Mrs. G. Allen Hancock was attired in a white lace gown over white silk. Mrs. Carpenter's gown was of black crepe, with lace trimmings. Black net with jet trimmings composed Mrs. Daly's gown, with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Desmond wore gray.

The ladies of the receiving party all wore corsage bouquets of purple, in honor of the archbishop. These bouquets were presented by Mme. Hancock to those assisting in the event.

Throughout the reception hours an orchestra furnished music.

Then will come the great barbecue, a la Spanish, served by such experts as John G. Matt, chairman of the committee; Count Bozenta, "Joe" Scott and other famous cooks and chefs. Following this, the affair will be devoted to athletic sports, broncho busting, and Mexican vaquero stunts.

Women are especially invited to go on this trip, and for their care and comfort this committee has been named: Patronesses, Meses. Helena Modjeska, P. G. Cotter, C. T. Whitney, I. D. Mott, W. R. Rowland, Dan Murphy, C. C. Desmond, Edward Chambers, William Enners, Misses S. Lynch, N. Desmond, K. McCormack, N. Reardon, R. Quinn, Casey, Etchermerdy, M. Young, White, Margaret Phillipson.

Of course the League of the Cross band will be along, but it will share honors with the great Banning Indian band and there will be "music in the air" all day.

What promises to be the social climax of the Knights of Columbus week in Los Angeles will come tonight—the reception tendered by the San Francisco knights.

Trimmings and she wore diamond and pearl jewels. Mrs. E. E. Dixon of Montana was gowned in white point lace, with black chiffon trimmings and wore diamonds. Mrs. G. Allen Hancock was attired in a white lace gown over white silk. Mrs. Carpenter's gown was of black crepe, with lace trimmings. Black net with jet trimmings composed Mrs. Daly's gown, with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Desmond wore gray.

The ladies of the receiving party all wore corsage bouquets of purple, in honor of the archbishop. These bouquets were presented by Mme. Hancock to those assisting in the event.

Throughout the reception hours an orchestra furnished music.

Then will come the great barbecue, a la Spanish, served by such experts as John G. Matt, chairman of the committee; Count Bozenta, "Joe" Scott and other famous cooks and chefs. Following this, the affair will be devoted to athletic sports, broncho busting, and Mexican vaquero stunts.

Women are especially invited to go on this trip, and for their care and comfort this committee has been named: Patronesses, Meses. Helena Modjeska, P. G. Cotter, C. T. Whitney, I. D. Mott, W. R. Rowland, Dan Murphy, C. C. Desmond, Edward Chambers, William Enners, Misses S. Lynch, N. Desmond, K. McCormack, N. Reardon, R. Quinn, Casey, Etchermerdy, M. Young, White, Margaret Phillipson.

Of course the League of the Cross band will be along, but it will share honors with the great Banning Indian band and there will be "music in the air" all day.

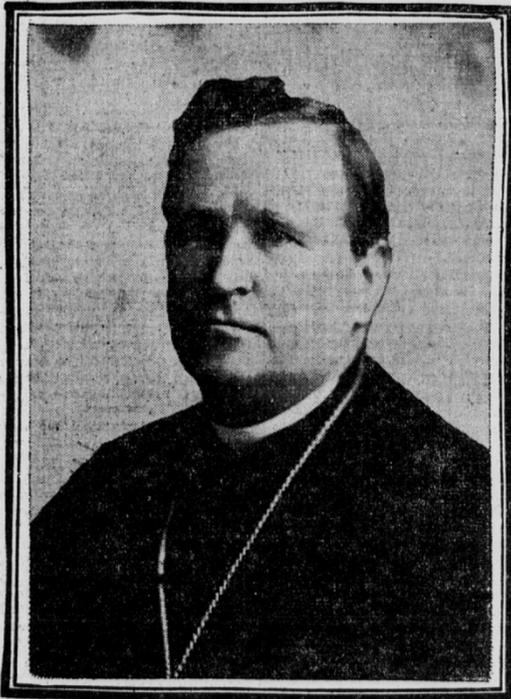

What promises to be the social climax of the Knights of Columbus week in Los Angeles will come tonight—the reception tendered by the San Francisco knights.

THE WEEK'S SOCIAL CLIMAX

The Northern California Reception for Tonight

What promises to be the social climax of the Knights of Columbus week in Los Angeles will come tonight—the reception tendered by the San Francisco knights.

THE BELOVED PRELATE HONORED LAST NIGHT

ARCHBISHOP MONTGOMERY

In the main auditorium, Archbishop Montgomery, Bishop Conaty and Bishop O'Reilly were attired in their official robes. The active members of the auxiliary who assisted in receiving were: Mmes. C. T. Whitney, C. C. Desmond, Adele Ball, P. G. Cotter, Charles Whipple, Philip Forve, Carpenter, Joseph Mesmer, J. T. Fitzgerald, Randall Hutchison, Victor Ponet, L. Brunswig, G. Allen Hancock, C. N. Buckler, Elizabeth Daly, Alexander Bobrick, Miss Lynch, Miss Mullin and Miss Norton.

Mme. Modjeska was attired in a gown of white, with lace trimmings and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Cotter wore an imported gown of white embroidered crepe, cut in train, with lace trimmings and diamond ornaments. Miss Lynch was gowned in white, chiffon cloth with tiny tucks and lace and embroidery trimmings. Mrs. Bobrick wore a spangled net gown over taffeta, with accordion pleated chiffon flounces, a high girle and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Forve was gowned in gray crepe, with real lace trimmings and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Whipple's gown was of white net over pale blue silk. White velvet, with rose point lace trimmings, constituted Mrs. Ball's gown, and with it she wore diamond ornaments. Mrs. Donegan wore a gown of moss green point de Paris, with lace trimmings and diamonds. Mrs. Joseph Mesmer's gown was composed of white peau de sole, with lace trimmings and her ornaments were also diamonds. Miss Mullin was attired in white silk, with pearls. Mrs. Whitney was attired in gray mousseline, with lace and pearl trimmings and she wore diamond and pearl jewels. Mrs. E. E. Dixon of Montana was gowned in white point lace, with black chiffon trimmings and wore diamonds. Mrs. G. Allen Hancock was attired in a white lace gown over white silk. Mrs. Carpenter's gown was of black crepe, with lace trimmings. Black net with jet trimmings composed Mrs. Daly's gown, with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Desmond wore gray.

The ladies of the receiving party all wore corsage bouquets of purple, in honor of the archbishop. These bouquets were presented by Mme. Hancock to those assisting in the event.

Throughout the reception hours an orchestra furnished music.

Then will come the great barbecue, a la Spanish, served by such experts as John G. Matt, chairman of the committee; Count Bozenta, "Joe" Scott and other famous cooks and chefs. Following this, the affair will be devoted to athletic sports, broncho busting, and Mexican vaquero stunts.

Women are especially invited to go on this trip, and for their care and comfort this committee has been named: Patronesses, Meses. Helena Modjeska, P. G. Cotter, C. T. Whitney, I. D. Mott, W. R. Rowland, Dan Murphy, C. C. Desmond, Edward Chambers, William Enners, Misses S. Lynch, N. Desmond, K. McCormack, N. Reardon, R. Quinn, Casey, Etchermerdy, M. Young, White, Margaret Phillipson.

Of course the League of the Cross band will be along, but it will share honors with the great Banning Indian band and there will be "music in the air" all day.

What promises to be the social climax of the Knights of Columbus week in Los Angeles will come tonight—the reception tendered by the San Francisco knights.

Trimmings and she wore diamond and pearl jewels. Mrs. E. E. Dixon of Montana was gowned in white point lace, with black chiffon trimmings and wore diamonds. Mrs. G. Allen Hancock was attired in a white lace gown over white silk. Mrs. Carpenter's gown was of black crepe, with lace trimmings. Black net with jet trimmings composed Mrs. Daly's gown, with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Desmond wore gray.

The ladies of the receiving party all wore corsage bouquets of purple, in honor of the archbishop. These bouquets were presented by Mme. Hancock to those assisting in the event.

Throughout the reception hours an orchestra furnished music.

Then will come the great barbecue, a la Spanish, served by such experts as John G. Matt, chairman of the committee; Count Bozenta, "Joe" Scott and other famous cooks and chefs. Following this, the affair will be devoted to athletic sports, broncho busting, and Mexican vaquero stunts.

Women are especially invited to go on this trip, and for their care and comfort this committee has been named: Patronesses, Meses. Helena Modjeska, P. G. Cotter, C. T. Whitney, I. D. Mott, W. R. Rowland, Dan Murphy, C. C. Desmond, Edward Chambers, William Enners, Misses S. Lynch, N. Desmond, K. McCormack, N. Reardon, R. Quinn, Casey, Etchermerdy, M. Young, White, Margaret Phillipson.

The Quality Store

Smart Summer Suits

In the cool color tones and summery weights and weaves. All the pretty grays in correct plain or plaid effects. Proper browns and tans. Just the right "swagger swing" that makes this summer's clothes distinctive in style. The M. & B. label on each and every garment insures goodness and honesty of price. Really any of the following prices will save you a "V" easily. Let us prove it to your satisfaction.

$15, $18, $20, $25

Negligee Shirts In all the proper shirtings and in comfortable styles. Coat shirts, shirts with collars attached or detached, cuffs ditto, soft shirts, cool and comfortable. Whatever your shirt want we can supply it. $1 AND UP

Straw Hats Every kind of straw; Panamas, Leghorns, Milans, Sennets, split straw, etc., etc., and every one of the correct shape, the product of the best makers only, with our "say so" extra, but not an extra price. 75c AND UP

Mullen & Bluett Clothing Co.

First and Spring Streets

Santa Fe from Le Grande station, the first leaving at 7:30 a. m., and every ten minutes thereafter till 9 o'clock. It is especially urged that visitors take the early trains. The ceremonies do not start till 11 o'clock so there will be ample time for an inspection of the famous old mission.

The program for the day is not elaborate. There will be an address, semi-religious, by Bishop Conaty at 11 o'clock, and probably a few other short talks. At noon, Manuel, an old mission Indian from Pala will ring the Angelus bell, while the service "The Angelus" will be said by the Very Rev. Father O'Keefe, a pioneer Franciscan from San Luis Rey mission.

Then will come the great barbecue, a la Spanish, served by such experts as John G. Matt, chairman of the committee; Count Bozenta, "Joe" Scott and other famous cooks and chefs. Following this, the affair will be devoted to athletic sports, broncho busting, and Mexican vaquero stunts.

Women are especially invited to go on this trip, and for their care and comfort this committee has been named: Patronesses, Meses. Helena Modjeska, P. G. Cotter, C. T. Whitney, I. D. Mott, W. R. Rowland, Dan Murphy, C. C. Desmond, Edward Chambers, William Enners, Misses S. Lynch, N. Desmond, K. McCormack, N. Reardon, R. Quinn, Casey, Etchermerdy, M. Young, White, Margaret Phillipson.

Of course the League of the Cross band will be along, but it will share honors with the great Banning Indian band and there will be "music in the air" all day.

KNIGHTS FILL BELASCO

Large Theater Party Sees "What Happened to Jones"

Fifteen hundred Knights of Columbus found out "What Happened to Jones" last night. They purchased the Belasco theater for last evening's performance, and unless you had a certificate of good character, a visiting card bearing the monogram of the order and a winning smile you did not get past the first door. The knights were the whole works and if there was any laughing to be done they were determined to do it.

Before the performance was half over most of the laugh machines of the delegates were out of order from over-use. "What Happened to Jones" is a comedy, old but ever new. Most of those who saw Richard Vivian as the unhappy Jones, the silent Oberle, and James A. Bliss in the role of Ebenezer Goodley saw the same characters similarly portrayed several years ago, but they laughed and laughed hard just the same.

When they were not laughing the curtain was down between acts and they were chatting and enjoying themselves with all the feeling of good fellowship.

Not being Angelenos and on the short acquaintance with the cast not "worshippers," they were free to criticize as they chose, and from the tone of the remarks in the hotel lobbies late last night the criticism was far from being adverse.

NOTES OF VISITING KNIGHTS

A number of chiefs of fire departments in eastern cities and officials in such departments have arrived in Los Angeles with the Knights of Columbus. To all of these Chief Lips of the Los Angeles fire department has extended the glad hand and the courtesies of the department. The callers at fire headquarters yesterday included Chief Terrence Owens of Denver; Chief Murphy of Buffalo; Battalion Chief Waters of San Francisco and Battalion Chief Doctor James Smith, surgeon to the New York department.

W. B. Teasdale, who heads the Kansas City delegation here, is a circuit judge in his home town. As such, he always has a good story. On the way out, Judge Teasdale met an old negro who one time was up before him on a charge of drunkenness, among other things. "Well, uncle, still got the tantrums?" asked the judge as he saw the negro. "Not me, judge," said the negro, "ain't had no tantrum since Ah been out yere!"

The largest theater party in the history of Los Angeles was that of the knights last evening at the Belasco, where a brilliant scene was presented. The work of the third degree was also exemplified at Armory hall, in charge of State Deputy Joseph Scott. The degree team assisted.

FORMER RABBI ASKS FOR $5000 DAMAGES

Complaint Alleges Case of Misplaced Confidence in Fellow Man

Suit for $5000 damages was filed yesterday in the superior court by L. Wolff against Bernard Harris, alias Bernard Heskovitch, and preparations are being made by both sides for a fierce legal battle.

The case is a peculiar one and from the standpoint of the complaint appears to show the misplaced confidence of a former rabbi of the Jewish church in his fellow man.

Wolff, according to the complaint, was the proprietor of a merchandise store at 148 South Main street. On the 17th day of April Harris, who, it is said, formerly conducted a store in Arizona under the name of Heskovitch, is alleged to have gone to Wolff and opened negotiations for the purchase of the stock of merchandise.

According to Wolff's statement, Harris threw down the agreement and left the store. Wolff, upon investigation, claims that Harris had in the meantime bought out a store in the neighborhood and had simply opened negotiations with him in order that he might learn the business, see the value of his rival's stock, take his customers from him and put him at a disadvantage by cutting off his summer and winter stock, which, according to the agreement, Wolff was not to buy.

Wolff, who was formerly a rabbi, then finding that his trust in human nature did not pan out as he hoped, decided to try law and accordingly engaged Attorney Marion Brooks to settle the case for him. The trial will come up in a few days.

COURT HOUSE NOTES

Suit for $600 damages was filed yesterday by Mrs. L. A. Rexford, widow, against Mrs. I. E. Hopkinson and others. The suit is based on the purchase of a rooming house by the plaintiff, in which purchase she alleges she was defrauded.

Charles Bowland, charged with insanity was discharged yesterday by the commission in Judge York's court. Bowland it is said, had been mentally unbalanced for five years and recently escaped from his relatives and wandered to Whittier, where he astonished the inhabitants by shouting that their heads were falling from their bodies.

Edward S. Leveitt was arrested yesterday on a charge of forgery. He gave the necessary $1500 bond and was released, pending a preliminary hearing.

Alfred R. Ducourt, 21 years of age and a resident of Los Angeles, yesterday filed suit against his mother for $640. The mother according to the complaint, had been acting as the young man's guardian until he should reach his majority and then, according to the allegation, she refused to turn over his property to him.

Public Administrator McGarvin is endeavoring to locate the relatives of Gus Sandquist, formerly a director of the East Main Street Pottery company, who died several months ago. The estate amounts to $8000 and the will asserts that the money is to go to a sister in Des Moines and a mother in Sweden. These relatives have not as yet put in a claim.

E. E. Hutchinson, charged with burglary, was sentenced to ten years in Folsom prison by Judge Smith yesterday. Hutchinson was recently released from San Quentin, after having served a two years' sentence on a similar charge.

Albert Cook was granted a divorce yesterday from his wife, Jennie Cook, on the ground of desertion. Judge Wilbur tried the case. The divorce proceedings in the case of Smart against Smart were also tried yesterday, but the doors of the courtroom were closed to the public.

M. S. Sims of Norwalk, charged with conducting a "blind pig," was fined $150 by Justice Young yesterday and decided to serve sentence in the county jail.

Francisco Gutierrez appeared for trial before Judge Smith yesterday on a charge of attacking his wife with a deadly weapon. He pleaded not guilty and will be tried July 3.

Eighty-nine fishermen of San Pedro filed complaint with the county supervisors against the erection of a marine dock on the waterfront. Their claim being that this would ruin their business bore considerable weight with the supervisors and the matter was taken under advisement.

Petitions for divorce were filed yesterday in the county clerk's office as follows: Jessie W. Lang against Charles E. Lang; William G. McCadden against Carrie L. McCadden; Emma K. Valpey against George C. Valpey; Chauncey D. Mahannah against Daisie Mahannah; Olive V. Knibbs against Norman Knibbs; Florence Bullock against George Bullock; Emma J. Havern against George W. Havern.

Our leather suit cases are just the thing. Full size $5.00 up. Shopping bags, $1.50. Some very handsome fitted bags, $3.00. Very convenient for those good at "forgetting." Sanborn, Vail & Co., 537 South Broadway.

It's like finding money to smoke Las Palmas cigars.

"Woman is man's equal," says a feminine magazine writer. Well, that depends on who the woman is and who the man is. She may be his superior.

Knights of Columbus

Take Notice

If you will call at our office we will gladly give you FREE souvenir booklets on Southern California. Get one yourself and send your friends a copy.

We will also gladly furnish information pertaining to property values, etc.

Golden State Realty Co.

The Largest Realty Firm in California

421 SOUTH SPRING STREET

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine. SAFE, RELIABLE, LITTLE OR DRUGGIST. CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PILLS. KEEP AND GOLD MEDALS. Sold in all drug stores. Take no other. Beware of cheap imitations. Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Bottle for Ladies," in letter by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILA., PA.

SAVE MONEY by having a Sunset Phone in your residence. Costs but 5c a day. Not only saves time and strength, but many a car fare. Really pays for itself. Telephone Contract Dept., Main 47. SUNSET T. & T. CO.

Rambler Touring Cars. Simple in Mechanism, Strong in Construction and Luxurious in Finish. W. K. COWAN, Sole Agent 830-834 South Broadway

Fastidious Diners Enjoy Our Dinners. LEVY'S 117 W. THIRD ST. 263 So. MAIN ST.

J.W. WOLFSKILL FLORIST 210 N. SECOND ST. Beautiful Carnations 5c per doz. and up.