TROPHIES WON BY ATHLETES

Members of the Faculty Complete Plans for Vacation—Banquet to Dr. Newkirk of University of Southern California

Pasadena Agency, 114 East Colorado Street.

Special to The Herald.

PASADENA, June 9.—The exhibit of the work of the students of Throop institute attracted more than ordinary interest today. One of the chief exhibits includes all the trophies won by the various athletic teams of the school.

The art exhibit is shown in Stickey Memorial hall, which was the attraction for many visitors tonight. The art display consists of sculpture and sketches from nature, some of the latter being excellent likenesses of California flower gardens.

FACULTY'S VACATION PLANS

Members of the faculty of Throop have about concluded plans for their vacation. Dean Chamberlain leaves Sunday for the east, where he will visit the Eastern Manual Training association at Newark, N. J.

Prof. Ernest Batchelder will go to Portland, Ore., to look after the educational exhibit, and after that he will make a short tour of Europe. Prof. Clarence Quinn will go east. Miss Virginia Pease will remain on the coast visiting the beach resorts.

BANQUET TO DR. NEWKIRK

At the Casa Grande last night the faculty of the University of Southern California gave a banquet in honor of Dr. Garrett Newkirk, who has retired as dean. An informal program of remarks by those present made up the entertainment of the evening.

MASONS FROM ALL SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COMING TO LAY CORNER STONE OF TEMPLE

Special to The Herald.

OCEAN PARK, June 9.—The hearing of W. C. Morton, the man charged with throwing red pepper in the face of George Draesher and then robbing him, was continued this forenoon and adjourned to get word from the auditor's office of the Santa Fe relative to a ticket sold from Manvel to San Bernardino on April 5, the day previous to when the assault is alleged to have occurred.

MORTON, THOUGH VERY POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED BY DRAESHER AS HIS ASSAILANT, HAS PROVEN QUITE CONCLUSIVELY THAT HE WAS IN MANVEL THE MORNING OF APRIL 5, BUT THERE REMAINS A BLANK AS TO HIS WHEREABOUTS FROM THAT TIME TO THE MORNING OF APRIL 7, IN WHICH PERIOD IT IS SAID HE COULD HAVE COME TO SAN BERNARDINO, COMMITTED THE CRIME AND RETURNED TO MANVEL.

ON APRIL 5, ONE TICKET WAS SOLD TO SAN BERNARDINO AND NOW THE OFFICERS ARE AWAITING THE PRODUCTION OF THE TICKET FROM THE SANTA FE AUDITOR'S OFFICE, AS IT MAY BE MORTON'S NAME, THOUGH IF HE DESIRED TO CONCEAL HIS MOVEMENTS AT THAT TIME IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE THAT HE USED A FICTITIOUS NAME ON THE TICKET, IN WHICH CASE IT WILL RESOLVE ITSELF INTO A QUESTION OF IDENTIFYING HIS WRITING.

IF IT SHALL BE PROVEN THAT MORTON IS NOT THE GUILTY PARTY IT WILL BE A CASE OF A REMARKABLE DOUBLE, AS HE ANSWERS IN EVERY DETAIL THE DESCRIPTION OF THE WANTED MAN AND IS POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED BY THE VICTIM AS HIS ASSAILANT.

The Pioneer A STIRRING NOVEL OF CALIFORNIA in the Early Seventies. By Geraldine Bonner, Author of "To-Morrow's Tangle." Illustrated by Harrison Fisher. A SAN FRANCISCO BOOK—BY A SAN FRANCISCO AUTHOR—ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO PEOPLE. Perhaps the best thing in this new novel, "The Pioneer," is the intimate view it gives of a side of Californian nature which has been recognized as its best—that tenderness bound in roughness which blossomed here in the early days. It is the most distinctly Californian book that has come from the press in many a day.—Oakland Herald. To those who have known and felt the charm and romance and tumult of California "The Pioneer" will be especially interesting, as the picture it presents of the exciting bonanza days is drawn with a skilled hand, which brings into prominence the people and conditions in one of the most spectacular periods of California's history.—Toledo Blade. "The Pioneer" is a good love story in three great "scenic panoramas"—one might well call them—the foothill country which ends in the Golden Gate, San Francisco, and the Nevada desert land of the bonanza days of the 70's.—Boston Globe. The binding is unusual. The illustrations are in Harrison Fisher's best vein. AT ALL BOOK STORES THE BOBBS-MERRILL CO., Publishers, Indianapolis
