

SAYS HUSBAND WAS VERY UGLY

MRS. ADDIE M. DEWEY SUES FOR DIVORCE

BOTH PARTIES ARE PROMINENT

After Ten Years of Married Life the Wife Decides That She Can No Longer Endure Her Spouse

The final chapter in the numerous troubles of the Dewey family of Pomona is being enacted in the local courts, and when the decision in the divorce suit of Mrs. Addie M. Dewey against M. M. Dewey is handed down by Judge James today relatives of the family are hoping that the unhappy incident will be closed forever.

Dewey, the defendant, is one of the most prominent business men in the southwest. For many years he has been one of the foremost real estate dealers in Pomona, has been trustee in the First Methodist church, director of the First National bank and the Building and Loan association.

According to the allegations of Mrs. Dewey, she married Dewey about ten years ago. At first all went well and the wife proved a good housekeeper. About five years ago, according to the complaint, the family troubles commenced. Mrs. Dewey alleges that since that time her husband has been guilty of continuous annoyance to her and has tried in every way to make life miserable for her. One instance is cited as follows by Mrs. Dewey:

"My husband and I had been to church and he left early. We had arranged to take our dinner at a restaurant, but when I got home my husband was in the kitchen breaking an egg into the skillet, while his sister was bringing him a piece of pie. He said that I would not cook his meals. I remonstrated and he caught me by the wrists and forced me back against the wall. Then I bit his wrist and he turned me loose and gave me fifty cents and told me to buy my meal."

"On another occasion I went home with my sister, and as we opened the back door Mr. Dewey stood before us without a stitch of clothing on and then came toward us. On another occasion, in the presence of my sister, he took off his undershirt and commanded me to sew up a rip in the sleeve. Whenever my sister came to our house he would arise early in the morning and walk up and down the hall, banging on the doors and whistling."

Dewey's evidence will be taken today.

WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE; HUSBAND ON HONEYMOON

COUPLE MARRIED IN 1901 HAVE PECULIAR EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Miriam E. Glass Alleges Spouse Took $3000 of Her Money After the Wedding to Travel in Europe and Has Not Yet Returned

A divorce case, the like of which has seldom been heard in the local courts, was brought up yesterday before Judge Conrey, when a motion for attorneys' fees was instituted in the petition of Mrs. Miriam E. Glass against Neil Glass.

The couple were married in 1901. The wife is over 70 years and the husband over 52. According to the allegation of Mrs. Glass, her husband, who was a blacksmith, took nearly $3,000 of her money, following the wedding and went on his honeymoon trip through Europe. He has not yet returned, but has heard of the petition of his wife and has contested the action. He will arrive in Los Angeles a short time prior to the taking up of the divorce proceedings.

MANY INQUIRIES ABOUT LIQUOR LICENSE GRANT

Special Privilege Accorded Harness Horse Association Question for Speculation

The action of the council in adopting an ordinance granting to the Los Angeles Harness Horse association a special liquor license to sell wet goods in the grand stand at Agricultural park

Do You Know, It's Getting Warmer

But if the beer is good and cold it's all right. We look out for the "good" beer, leaving it to you to see that it's kept cold. Maier-Zobelin Beer is a capital summer beverage, as thousands know.

during the coming race meet, which will last from July 3 to 8, has aroused many inquiries.

City Attorney Mathews stated in answer to questions: "This ordinance will have the effect, legally, of amending the laws governing the number of saloons to be allowed in the city, and also the rule bounding the liquor zone. Agricultural park is away outside this so called 'liquor zone.'"

"The council has the power to change the law relative to these two points, but has no authority to issue a license to sell liquor. That power is vested solely in the police commission by the charter, and the license or permit to dispense liquor must come from that body."

Mayor McAleer states that, as Agricultural park is outside the "liquor zone," the police commission has no authority over the granting of licenses there.

DISGUISED INDIAN MAID ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY

IDENTITY DISCOVERED WHEN SHE WAS SEARCHED

Azusa Officer Turns "John Doe" Over to County Officials, Who Ascertain She is "Susie Doe" Instead, Although Gibberish Is Unintelligible

A woman in disguise was arrested by officers at Azusa on a vagrancy charge and brought to the Los Angeles county jail. When arrested it was supposed that the prisoner was a young Indian boy, but investigation at the county jail revealed the disguised identity of Miss Pocahontas, and instead of John Doe, as she was originally listed on the prison records, she is now known as Susie Doe. Susie is uneducated and the officers were unable to make out the gibberish she uttered when she attempted to pronounce her name.

"I gave her at various times and in various amounts coin of the realm amounting to $916. I further declare that I gave her presents valued at $278.60. And last but not least, my life has been blighted, my pride greatly wounded and I have suffered great mental anguish as a result of the young woman refusing to marry me. For these things I ask $5000 damages."

AUTO POLICE PATROL NOW IN COMMISSION

Machine Given a Satisfactory Trial Yesterday and Is Now Property of the City

An electric patrol wagon, noiselessly speeding down Spring street, whizzing around corners and stopping within its own length, was the object of universal admiration yesterday morning. It was put into commission yesterday and will hereafter serve as the means of transportation of police "pickups" who are too poor to hire automobiles for themselves.

The machine, which is a magnificent vehicle, was turned over to the department by the makers yesterday morning. It was accepted a few days ago, but was returned to the owners by C. L. Johnson, who made a few alterations in its mechanism that will make it easier to handle. The machine is the delight of the police department.

RUN OVER BY TEAM OF FRIGHTENED HORSES

L. H. Bramm Narrowly Escapes Death in a Runaway Accident

L. H. Bramm, a teamster in the employ of Stansbury and company was run over and severely injured by a runaway team at California street and Bunker Hill avenue yesterday morning.

Bramm was standing at the horses' heads while the driver was attending to the load on the wagon. The animals were suddenly frightened by a passing car and started off on the run.

The tongue of the wagon struck Bramm's right shoulder, dislocating it, while one of the horses knocked him down. The wagon passed over his body and it was little short of a miracle that he was not killed outright.

ANOTHER BUSINESS BLOCK PLANNED FOR BROADWAY

Improvement to Be a Five-Story Brick to Cost Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars

O. T. Johnson has decided to erect a five-story brick block on the east side of Broadway, lot 61x160 feet, about 120 feet south of Fifth street. The building will be up-to-date in all appointments and will be provided with elevator service. It is understood that a lease on the proposed building for a term of five years from date of completion has been secured by a wholesale electrical supply firm. The improvements will cost $75,000.

NEW RULING BENEFITS ONLY FEW EMPLOYEES

The recent ruling of the civil service commission regarding the carrying of men in city departments on requisition has worked to the benefit of certain employees in nearly every department of the municipal government.

A new salary ordinance had to be drawn, and with few exceptions salaries were raised. Friday afternoon the council adopted an ordinance governing salaries in the city clerk's office. It now develops that Deputy City Clerk Wilde's salary was raised from $150 per month to $165. The license and redemption clerks were each raised from $100 per month to $115.

CITY HALL NOTES

The assessment district for the improvement of West Seventh street has been laid out and extends from Main street on the east to Benton boulevard on the west, taking in 300 feet of both north and south of each cross street.

A protest was filed yesterday by residents of West Fifth street asking that Griffith J. Griffith, sr., be made to keep his premises in better condition, it being alleged that the same are unsanitary.

WOMAN SUED FOR DAMAGES BY MAN

ALLEGES SHE JILTED HIM FOR ANOTHER

WANTS BALM FOR WOUNDS

Says She Promised to Marry Him but Later Changed Her Mind and Became Bride of His Rival

Jilted by his alleged bride-to-be, who married his rival, C. W. Marks yesterday filed suit for damages for breach of promise against Harriet P. Fitzgibbon, nee Nash, and her husband, Edward F. Fitzgibbon. He asks $6100 damages for the shock to his pride and the wounds in his heart occasioned by the unceremonious "love's awakening" which came to him simultaneously with the news of the marriage of Miss Nash.

Marks says: "On January 10, 1904, in a beautiful little town in Arizona, Miss Nash promised to be my bride. All went well and the prospect of my marriage was very bright to me when September 15 arrived, and I again reminded Miss Nash of her promise to wed me."

"She told me she had made no such promise and two days later married Fitzgibbon. The marriage was a great shock to me, coming as it did after I was expecting to wed the young woman. I therefore ask that damages be allowed me by the court as follows, since the other man has the girl and she has my presents and I have nothing."

"I gave her at various times and in various amounts coin of the realm amounting to $916. I further declare that I gave her presents valued at $278.60. And last but not least, my life has been blighted, my pride greatly wounded and I have suffered great mental anguish as a result of the young woman refusing to marry me. For these things I ask $5000 damages."

YELLOW JOURNALISM DISCUSSED BY WOMEN

Ebell Club Members Handle Whys and Wherefores of Sensationalism of Newspapers

"If we don't want yellow journals, let us demand the other kind," was the statement of Mrs. J. C. McCoy, speaking before the Ebell club yesterday on the subject, "The Effect of the Newspaper on Literary Taste."

It was a literary symposium which the members listened to and the tendency of modern literature, what it is and why, was discussed from many standpoints under the direction of Mrs. W. G. Bartlett.

In speaking of the effect of newspaper work on the person who has literary talent, Mrs. McCoy quoted from letters written to her by Robert J. Burdette and Francis Fisher Brown. Though the two men agree on some points, they differ on others, giving views directly opposite. Mr. Burdette says in his opinion it is almost essential for a writer who would make a success to have newspaper training, while Mr. Brown expressed the opinion that many who might become great in literature have their careers spoiled by drudgery in a newspaper office.

MYSTIC SHRINERS GO AFTER 1906 CONVENTION

Four Los Angeles Delegates Attend Annual Meeting at Niagara Falls

Postmaster M. H. Flint and F. A. Hines left last night for Grand Canyon to meet the California special bearing delegates to the Imperial council of Mystic Shriners, which meets at Niagara Falls.

They, with W. D. Stevens and W. W. Lovett, will be the local delegates to the council, and they go with the determination to bring the 1906 meeting to Los Angeles. Stevens is already at Niagara Falls, having gone a week ago, and Lovett will leave today.

Hopes are entertained by the Los Angeles members that their delegates will be successful in attempting to bring the council to Los Angeles next year, and it is said that in the event of success it will be made the largest gathering of mystic shriners in the history of the fraternity.

AQUATIC BATTLE IS AIRED IN POLICE COURT

EXCITING AND NOVEL DUEL ENDS WITH HONORS EVEN

Judge Chambers, as Referee, Declares It a Draw, and Refuse Arbitrament of California Code, Since Parties Were Ready to Continue

Some of the unpleasant episodes which very often occur between un congenial neighbors were graphically related in Judge Chambers' court yesterday morning, when Augusta Milson told his honor how she had been nearly drowned by John Heyman, who, she says, threw a bucket of water on her. The evidence of the case disclosed that as Mr. Heyman was sitting on the top rail of his fence which separates the two yards he "accidentally" dropped a bucket of water upon the head of his fair neighbor. It "just so happened" that as the bucket fell Mrs. Milson was sprinkling her garden. Thoroughly surprised by the unexpected downpour from the cloudless heavens, Mrs. Milson turned around and at the same time unconsciously turned her hose in the direction of the unsuspecting Mr. Heyman.

The stream struck him squarely in the face, nearly knocking him from his lofty position. Mrs. Milson was so surprised that she stood awe stricken, unable to move or speak, while the wicked stream laughingly played in and around the whiskers of the unhappy Heyman. Mr. Heyman stated that he had often been annoyed by certain noises that issued from the home of his neighbor and in the hope of restoring peace in the neighborhood he posted a large glaring sign upon his fence, facing Mrs. Milson's house, which read "Give us a rest." The court dismissed the case.
