

AGENT'S TRICK UNSUCCESSFUL

PLAN TO DEFRAUD PASADENA MAN FAILS

PIXLEY ON CONVENTION HALL

Playwright Gives His Views on the Matter, Offering Some Valuable Suggestions—Local News Brevities

PASADENA, June 24.—Smooth picture agents have reached Pasadena and for one of their early victims they picked Col. L. P. Hansen of 968 San Pasqual street. A young man giving his name as Frank Waterman induced Mrs. Hansen to order two enlarged pictures, the work to be done in oil. The contract price was to be $15 and today, when the pictures were delivered, Mrs. Hansen was in Los Angeles and Col. Hansen, knowing nothing of the contract, accepted Waterman's word that he was to be paid $70 for the work. Waterman insisted on collecting the bill when he was sure that Mrs. Hansen was not at home and seemed willing to accept a check on a bank. Col. Hansen wrote him one on a Los Angeles bank and it was not until Mrs. Hansen returned that he learned the price agreed upon for the pictures was to be only $15. Banks were quickly notified not to honor the $70 check. Waterman presented it at a Pasadena bank today and he was turned down. With that he realized that he was in a trap and liable for prosecution, so he hurried to the Hansen home to effect a settlement. Meanwhile the police were looking for the suave picture agent, and when Officer Pierce reached the Hansen home a settlement had been accepted, Waterman returning the $70 check and accepting $15 for his work. Playwright Frank Pixley, since his residence here, has become interested in all movements tending to advance the material growth and attractiveness of Pasadena as a desirable place to live. He is one of the ardent supporters of the convention hall project and in a communication to Chairman C. D. Daggett of the hall committee gives his views and valuable advice summed up as follows:

"First. Spacious grounds well located, well laid out and well cared for, six or ten acres easy of access.

"Second. A main building with a hall capable of seating from 2000 to 3500 people, so arranged that the seating capacity may easily be reduced for smaller gatherings.

"Third. Several smaller halls for lodge rooms, business associations, lectures, recitals, rehearsals, etc.

"Fourth. A fine band or orchestra, composed of good musicians, not tradesmen or mechanics who own musical instruments, and supported wholly or in part by the city.

"Fifth. Band stand, refreshment and restaurant booths, arbors, walks, promenades, cozy nooks and corners.

"Sixth. The organization of a popular lecture course, a series of entertainments, an oratorio society and a local dramatic association.

"The problem is not difficult and I am confident that those who have this matter in hand will solve it. For such an enterprise popular support and satisfactory financial returns are practically assured."

Among the receipts in the French colonial budget there figures a sum of four feet of silk paper, equivalent at the present time to about $143,125, paid by the British Indian government. This money is paid annually in virtue of a treaty made in 1815, by which France conceded to England the exclusive right to buy the salt manufactured in what remained of the French possessions in India.
