

FAMOUS SCOUT HERE ON VISIT MAJOR MYTON ONCE COMRADE OF MASTERSON HAS MADE HISTORY IN WEST

Six feet in height, brown as the desert sun can make him after years of effort, a shuffling walk like that of a grizzly, a face beaming with the good nature of a country lad, and a voice gentle as a woman's—this is Maj. H. P. Myton, who stepped from the Pullman car of the Salt Lake train yesterday and made a bee line in search of Sheriff W. A. White.

Maj. Myton knows much of the history of the west. He helped to make it. He knows most of the characters, good and bad, who have linked their names with the development of the country west of the Missouri river.

Deputy sheriff under Bat Masterson in late seventies, succeeding him as sheriff of Dodge City in '82, registrar of a United States land office, Indian fighter and agent, prospector and miner, presidential elector, and all in all, a man "pretty much mixed up in politics," is Maj. Myton.

He has been looking over prospects in the Nippeno district for the past ten days and could not resist the temptation to follow the trail into Los Angeles for a meeting with Sheriff White, and a "swapping" of incidents of the time when White was proprietor of a livery stable dealing in bronchos at Garden City, Kan., in the eighties, when Myton was parceling out government land to the hungry immigrants.

He is willing enough to relate incidents of the time when Bat Masterson made air shafts through the bodies of two cowboys who murdered seven companions, held off hundreds of Indians for three days and nights, without food or drink and no protection but the unroofed walls of an Adobe hut, but when it comes to telling what Myton did, he asks his questioner to have a cigar and then hies himself away.

For six years he was Indian agent on the Uintah reservation, and knows more of the resources of the two million acres over which his wards roamed, than does any other white man.

The reservation, the only one in Utah, is to be opened for settlement September 1. Eight hundred Indians will receive their allotment of from forty to eighty acres apiece and the remainder, consisting of agricultural, mineral and grazing lands, will be given over to settlement by immigrants. The reservation is 175 miles from Salt Lake City, which is now Maj. Myton's home.

He went there a year ago. The Salt Lake Lancers found that he had been "pretty much mixed up in politics," so they sent him to Washington last fall as a presidential elector, with a vote for Theodore Roosevelt tucked safely away in his pocket.

No mention is made of his stepping down and out of politics, but at the present time the Nippeno gold district is attracting his attention.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT IN SEASON PLUM CUSTARD TARTLETS One pint of green gage plums, after being rubbed through a sieve; one large cup of sugar, the yolks of two eggs well beaten. Whisk all together until light and foamy, then bake in small patty-pans shells of puff paste a light brown. Then fill with plum paste, beat the two whites until stiff, add two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, spread over the plum paste and set the shells into a moderate oven for a few moments. These are much more easily handled than pieces of pie or even pies whole and can be packed nicely for carrying.

NEW FIRE APPARATUS PURCHASED BY COUNCIL Member From Sixth Ward Opposes Action and Obstructs Transac. tion of Business The council yesterday ordered the new apparatus for the fire department, as recommended by the fire commission. Three engines and combination wagons were purchased, together with 20,000 feet of hose. The hose order was divided among three firms, 10,000 feet of "A" brand being purchased of the Los Angeles Rubber company at 68 cents a foot, 5000 feet of Victor Jacket from Harper & Reynolds company at 75 cents, and 5000 feet of Underwriter's brand from Cass & Smurr at 75 cents per foot. The apparatus was ordered without comment.

In the afternoon the councilman from the Sixth ward arrived and immediately attempted to have the vote reconsidered and the question of purchase referred to the supply committee, of which he was the chairman. Failing in this, he threatened the councilmen that if committees were to be overlooked he would insist on knowing the why and wherefore of everything that passed the council and would so obstruct the operation of the city's legislative body that it would take seven days a week to get through the business. The council will be forced to meet again Wednesday in order to finish the regular week's business.

RAILWAY DIFFERENCES ARE PROBABLY SETTLED Local Officials Believe Conference Between Harriman and Clark Means Peace Instead of War After a week's conference in New York with Harriman, during which time the most important subject under discussion was that of terminal and switching privileges for the Salt Lake road, Senator W. A. Clark will tomorrow begin his journey westward.

With him is Freight and Passenger Agent Gillett of the Salt Lake road, who was called to New York, in company with other officials of the Southern Pacific, to present to their chiefs the situation in Los Angeles as each sees it. They are expected to arrive in Los Angeles a week from tomorrow.

"Have the difficulties between the initial roads and the Salt Lake been settled?" was asked of an official of the latter road yesterday. "We have received no information on the subject," he replied. "but we confidently expect that Senator Clark and Mr. Gillett will be able to announce on their return that such is the case."

MINISTERS' ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION All-Day Meeting at First Christian Church Last Session of the Season "Methods of Sermonizing, or Things Worth Trying," was the topic of Rev. R. P. Shepherd of Pomona and Rev. A. C. Smith of Los Angeles, at the all-day meeting of the Southern California Christian Ministers' association yesterday at the First Christian church.

Both speakers emphasized the necessity of study on the part of pastors, especially of sermonic literature. The speakers placed study as the most important duty of clergymen.

At the morning session Rev. Shepherd delivered the sermon which he gave at the recent State Christian Endeavor convention with an account of the convention.

It being the last meeting of the season the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Rev. A. N. Glover of Orange, president; Rev. W. L. Martin of Boyle Heights, vice-president; Rev. Robert Greve of Glendora, secretary and treasurer.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL HONORED IN SALT LAKE Superintendent H. V. Platt Surprised by Former Employees on Oregon Short Line Men who worked with H. V. Platt on the Oregon Short Line and who have seen him rise from the ranks to the position of superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the Southern Pacific, an appointment of a month ago, have presented him with a beautiful gold watch and fob chain bearing a double Elk's charm.

The presentation was made last Saturday night when Mr. Platt arrived in Salt Lake City from Los Angeles and with his wife went to the Kenyon hotel. After registering as from "Salt Angeles" he was called to the hotel parlors there to receive the token of friendship which 350 of the employees of the operating department of the Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific, west of Green river, presented to him.

And the wife of Superintendent Platt was not forgotten. Following the presentation of the watch a solid silver tea service was given to Mrs. Platt.

SAILS TO ATTACK THE POTEMKINE (Continued from Page One.) They; that the mutineers found about $10,000 in the ship's strong box and that they are fighting among themselves, many being killed or wounded. Mutineers Brought Ashore Sixty-seven mutineers from the Georgi Pobledonosets were brought ashore today and imprisoned in the citadel. The British consul this evening released the five vessels which had been held in readiness to remove British subjects. The consul general considers that all danger has passed. The Cranley incident is ended. The officials, in the presence of the vice-consul, carefully inspected the vessel, found no trace of revolutionists, and apologized to the consul general. Peasant disturbances in the neighborhood of Odessa are giving rise to much apprehension. The peasants are forcibly occupying lands and seizing livestock. Troops have been sent to suppress the disorders. The authorities here are preparing energetically to clean up the town and are giving work to 20,000 persons who have been out of employment as the result of disturbances. Outwardly the center of the city is beginning to resume the normal aspect, although comparatively few persons are seen on the streets. But in the harbor district all is ruin and devastation. Shipping and trade are entirely at a standstill and thousands of dock laborers are waiting round idle. The city continues under strict martial law. Soldiers everywhere cut off the sea front of the city, and there is scant ceremony in stopping persons not provided with proper permits to enter these districts. The lamps are not lighted after 9 o'clock and persons out later run considerable risk from irresponsible soldiers. Social Life of City Dead The consulates, banking houses and public offices are guarded by troops day and night. The social life of the city is entirely dead. The beautiful Nicholas boulevard, overlooking the harbor, which is usually thronged with well dressed people, listening to the military music, is now completely deserted save for a few of the Cossacks and a few officers. The principal hotels on the boulevard are virtually closed, the visitors having all departed. Only those obtaining special military passes can walk the boulevard, which commands a view of the portions of the town desolated by last week's conflagration. In the harbor lie the hulks of a dozen large and small ships burnt, in some instances, to the water's edge. The large warehouses were burned out entirely and there is scarcely a house or other building in the neighborhood that does not bear the marks of fire. It is impossible to obtain accurate estimates of the damage done, but it is variously estimated at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. Anti-Jewish Rising Feared The general situation in Odessa has much improved, but there is still a widespread feeling of nervousness. Those best knowing the conditions are of the opinion that the gravest danger now lies in an anti-Jewish rising. The Jews here number 175,000 to 200,000, and for a variety of reasons, they are deeply hated in Odessa. The fact that they are credited with bomb throwing during the recent disturbances, coupled with the fact that the police found large collections of bombs in the houses of two prominent and wealthy Jews, has served to inflame minds against them and it would not take much to start anti-Jewish demonstrations, the end of which would be most terrible. The dock strikers were fearfully punished, but it can be said truthfully that the military were protecting Odessa against a crazed and infuriated mob of incendiaries and pillagers, and confronted by a situation which demanded the most repressive measures. The stand taken by the troops last week probably prevented the sacking and burning of the whole city of Odessa, countless murders and indescribable terrorism. The conditions in the country surrounding Odessa are very disquieting. The peasants are committing disorders, stealing and burning. Several telegrams were received here Saturday from different points in the government of Kherson, in which Odessa is situated, telling of disorders and the dangers of landed proprietors and asking military protection, but it will be extremely difficult for the authorities to spare any of the 12,000 troops quartered here for service outside of Odessa.

ST. PETERSBURG ALARMED Shipyard Strike General and Labor Circles Much Excited By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, July 3.—The nervousness which pervades all classes is increasing. The government is attempting to keep back the facts, which is resulting in people giving a willing ear to all stories which are set afloat. Many are convinced that the country is already in the throes of a revolution. Although the critical character of the situation can hardly be overstated and while the danger of a general upheaval is undoubtedly real, there is no open mutiny of soldiers, and until some regiments, following the example of their comrades of the navy, go over, the rising has little chance of success. At the same time there is enough discontent among the soldiers here to render it doubtful whether they will stand the test of obeying orders to fire on the people in the streets. Late this evening a rumor was current here that the port of Cronstadt had been closed to foreign shipping and that all commercial vessels there had been ordered to St. Petersburg. No confirmation of the report was obtainable. The strike of the Nevsky ship yards which began yesterday became general this morning. Between 5000 and 6000 strikers held a meeting in the courtyard of the workshop. Subsequently the men attempted to form a procession. Cossacks then dispersed them with whips. There is marked excitement among labor circles.

Military in Poland Powerless Joseph Mandelkern, a real estate dealer in New York, who has just arrived in St. Petersburg, from Poland, where he visited Warsaw, Lodz, Byelostok and others centers, declares that a state of anarchy exists there, which the military and the police are admittedly powerless to handle. He brings startling information about the Bund and other revolutionary organizations. Like similar organizations in the Caucasus they have now forbidden the payment of taxes under the penalty of death, and are levying tribute for the purpose of resistance to the government. He says that the members of the organizations are armed with revolvers and knives and that they defy the police to interfere with them under threats of death. Mr. Mandelkern adds that on Thursday he saw a procession of 60,000 persons at Warsaw carrying red flags with not a policeman in sight. The police having been warned that if they appeared they would be murdered. In Byelostok, Mr. Mandelkern says, the revolutionists are actually wearing a sort of uniform, a blue blouse. The organizations, Mr. Mandelkern says, are not seeking for separation but want a constitution which would give to Poland an autonomous government.

Jews Fleeing by Thousands By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, July 4, 2:35 a. m.—General Karakozoff has been appointed to restore order at Odessa, and his first act was to offer to employ 20,000 idlers in clearing the ruined port. He also took precautions to prevent a Jewish massacre. Jews are fleeing from the city in thousands. Jewish agitators, according to some consular reports received at the embassies here, were prominent in inciting strike riots, throwing the first bomb on Tuesday and firing on the police and soldiers Wednesday. When the Kiaz Potemkine arrived they fanned the flames and, according to these reports, the population of Odessa is disposed to lay much of the blame for the bloodshed resulting from the demonstrations at their doors. Cologne has perhaps the best electric cab system in Europe. The operating cost a kilometer, everything included, is 5 cents. It is expected that electric automobiles will soon be an economic possibility.

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner, American Epicurean, formerly chef to Col. W. J. Cody (Buffalo Bill), now chef at the Rainier Grand Hotel, Seattle, Wash., writes: "I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble until life did not seem worth living. I had tried many medicines but did not get any relief until I took Peruna. It was really wonderful how much better I was after I had used this medicine only a week. I did not expect that it would help me permanently, but as long as it was doing me good I continued to use it. At the end of six months I found to my relief, that it had rid my system of all poisons, and that I was cured to stay cured. You certainly have a splendid medicine and I gladly endorse it."

Catarrh of the Kidneys a Common Disease. Whatever the cause, the kidneys cease to eliminate the urea poisons from the blood and allow the escape of nutritious serum, and a rapid decline in health and strength is the result. Peruna promptly cures the catarrh, when all of these disagreeable symptoms disappear.

Pretty Pasadena Girl Married on Birthday Bride Not Alarmed Because Thirteen Persons Attended Her Wedding in Court House The fact that her wedding party consisted of thirteen people and that she had selected the day of her attainment to the age of 18 years for her wedding day did not disturb Miss Catherine T. Pope, one of the prettiest young women of Pasadena, who yesterday abandoned the life of the school girl for the duties of wedlock. The groom is Sterling W. Price, 23 years of age and a prosperous resident of Moneta. The young couple applied for the license yesterday shortly before noon. When Deputy Watson asked the young woman her age she responded 18 years. "Any older?" asked the deputy, and the girl replied: "Oh, yes, several hours. I was eighteen years old this morning."

When the license had been issued, the couple walked to the corridor of the court house where a portion of the population of Moneta was in waiting. The bridal march resembled a Fourth of July procession, and clerks and stenographers left their work to gaze after it. At the justice's office, in spite of the fact that a baby, which had been brought by some thoughtful mother, insisted upon singing a parody upon the Lohengrin "wedding march," with a series of side howls for accompaniment, the wedding ceremony was said and the party trooped forth and down Spring street for a wedding breakfast.

COMMERCIAL CONGRESS TO MEET AT PORTLAND Sixteenth Annual Meeting Will Be Held August 16-19, and Will Be Greatest in Its History The sixteenth annual session of the Transmississippi Commercial congress will be held at Portland August 16 to 19, and is expected to be the greatest convention in its history. Eighteen subjects of general interest to the Gulf and Pacific coast states, including the Mississippi Valley states, are on the program for discussion. The congress announces its objects to be the development of Oriental trade, accessibility of Pacific coast and Gulf ports to Oriental markets in extension of the trade of the Mississippi Valley states in the far east, commercial supremacy of the American republic in the Pacific ocean and American dominion over the isthmian canal. Daily sessions will be held beginning at 9:30 o'clock and closing at 1 o'clock, giving the delegates an opportunity to visit the exposition and surrounding country. The congress' headquarters have been established at the American inn on the exposition grounds. According to the basis of representation, California is entitled to twenty delegates, Los Angeles is entitled to eleven delegates, and Los Angeles county is entitled to one delegate. In addition, each business organization is entitled to at least one, and not more than ten delegates, according to the membership.
