

DELASSE TALKS ABOUT GERMANY

SAYS ENGLAND IS FRANCE'S OBVIOUS ALLY

JOINT FLEETS ARE INVINCIBLE

Emphasizes Value of Securing British Co-operation, and Regards Consent to Kaiser's Conference as Deplorable Mistake

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 12.—Former Foreign Minister Delcasse, in the course of an interview published by the Gaulois today upon the British and French naval armistices at Brest, is induced to discuss his present policy relative to Great Britain and Germany. He said: "The policy of nations nowadays is not based on sentiment or antipathy, but upon their material interests. As between Germany and Great Britain our commercial balance shows where our interests lie. Great Britain is our best purchaser while Germany buys almost nothing of us and tries to sell us all she can."

"Moreover, it is evident that we could not leave open irritating controversies with Great Britain which might precipitate an armed struggle, for Great Britain holds indisputably the empire of the sea. For every warship we build she builds four or five. It is thus well for us to accept these manifest facts and consider the value which British co-operation would give us in certain eventualities. The greatest intrinsic value of such co-operation would be the virtual impossibility in which it would place Germany of making war upon us."

M. Delcasse was asked if he considered the recent menaces in connection with Morocco as being dangerous. He replied: "Not at all. In case of war Great Britain would surely be with us against Germany, and then what would the infant fleet of Germany amount to? What would become of her ports? Of her commerce? Of her merchant marine? It would be annihilation. That is the real significance of the present exchange of visits of British and French squadrons."

Would Secure Peace of World

"An understanding between those two powers and a coalition of other navies would create a machine that neither Germany nor any other nation would risk conclusions with upon the sea."

Continuing, M. Delcasse discussed what would have been the probable effect of his policy if it had been pursued: "The Anglo-French cordial understanding," he said, "is an achievement towards a definite understanding between Russia and Great Britain and this further understanding would have been the work of the French minister for foreign affairs. The success of such a task would have strengthened our influence in British councils and assured for a long time the peace of the world."

In conclusion, M. Delcasse was asked for his opinion of France's accepting a conference on Morocco to which he gave the following textual response: "To go to a conference is a mistake—and such a mistake!"

ADDRESSES ROOSEVELT UPON COTTON SCANDAL

President of New York Exchange Says That Recent Disclosures Have "Greatly Shocked Them"

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 12.—A new and interesting phase of the cotton leak investigation was developed today through the publication of the letter of Walter C. Hubbard, president of the New York Cotton exchange, addressed to President Roosevelt, in which the writer declared the members of the exchange had been "greatly shocked" by the recent disclosures of venality in the department of agriculture, and requested a full investigation of the methods which led to the corruption, with a view of preventing the possibility of its recurrence.

The letter, it is believed here, is the outcome of recent correspondence between Secretary Wilson and Mr. Hubbard, in which the latter called upon the secretary to make him a public apology, since, some years ago, he had called the secretary's attention to alleged leaks and no notice had been taken of the suggestion.

lusion with an outsider, colluded with an insider and thereby had your salary raised to $50,000, and then divided with the other man, the result would have been hurtful to policy holders, but possibly you would not have been at the bar of justice."

WOOD LAUDED BY THE PRESIDENT

the Panama canal. That is a work that only a big nation could undertake or that a big nation could do, and is a work for all mankind. And the condition precedent upon success in that work is having the proper type of medical work as a preliminary.

"That is the first condition upon the meeting of which depends our success in solving the engineering and administrative problems of the work itself. I am happy to say that the work is being admirably done, and I am particularly glad to have this chance of saying it. Now and then some alarmist report will come from Panama. Just a couple of weeks ago there seemed to be a succession of people coming up from Panama, each one of whom had some tale or other to tell. You will always find in any battle, even if it is a victory, that in the rear you meet a number of gentlemen who are glad that they are not at the front, who if they have unfortunately got at the front have come away and who justify their absence from the front by telling tales of how everything has gone wrong there."

Tribute to Wood

"What is being done in Panama is but a sample of the things that this country has done during the last few years, of the things in which your profession has been so prominent a part. Take what we did in Cuba, where we tried the experiment which had not been tried for 400 years, of cleaning the cities. One of the most important items of the work done by our government in Cuba is the work of hygiene, the work of cleaning and disinfecting the cities so as to minimize the chance for yellow fever, so as to do away with as many as possible of the conditions of that old disease."

"This country has never done better work, work that reflected more honor upon the country or for humanity at large, than the work in Cuba. And the man who above all others, was responsible for doing that work so well was a member of your profession, who, when the call to arms came, he himself went as a soldier to the field, the present Maj. Gen. Wood. Leonard Wood did in Cuba just the kind of work that for instance Lord Cromer has done in Egypt. We have not been able to reward Wood in anything like the proportion that services such as his would have been rewarded in any other country of the first rank in the world; and there have been no meaner and no more unpleasant manifestations in all our public history than the feelings of envy and jealousy manifested toward Wood. And the foul assaults and attacks made upon him, gentlemen, were largely because they grudged the fact that this admirable military officer should have been a doctor."

DEATHS OF THE DAY

John L. Foster, New York

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 12.—John L. Foster, one of the most famous inventors in the United States, under whose direction the first good pens were manufactured in New York city, and who was associated with Walter Hunt, the man said to have devised the first model of the sewing machine, is dead at Arlington, N. J. He was 95 years old.

SAN DIEGO HOLDS BIG CELEBRATION

OPENING OF PANAMA ROAD THE CAUSE

OLD TIMERS ARE PRESENT

Razing of Horton House is Begun, the Same Pick Being Used Which Turned Sod for Its Erection in 1870

Special to The Herald. SAN DIEGO, July 12.—This evening the people of San Diego celebrated by mass meeting on the plaza the opening of the Panama railroad to general transportation through the ending of the contract between the railroad and the Pacific Mail Steamship company.

The contract terminated today through notice given by the United States government. Heretofore, because of this existing contract, San Francisco has been the only commercial point to secure advantage by reason of the Panama railroad across the Isthmus. The steamship company having the exclusive right to handle the business from the Panama road, carried all of it to San Francisco and made no effort to develop business at or through any other port. The opening of the railroad to general business will give opportunities to other lines to enter the field and for other ports, particularly those of Southern California, to reap benefit by the existence of the Panama road.

The celebration this evening opened with a salute of fifty guns, followed by a display of fireworks and a band concert. At 8:30 President Akerman of the chamber of commerce took charge of the members and addresses were made by H. P. Wood, M. L. Ward and W. E. Smythe.

An incident of the celebration was the commencement of the destruction of the Horton house, which has so long occupied one of the most prominent locations in the city, and now to be torn down to make room for a $600,000 hotel to be built by U. S. Grant.

When the Horton house was built thirty-six years ago, A. E. Horton, called Father Horton by all San Diegans, former Congressman W. W. Bowers and E. W. Morse were present and turned the first earth.

It happens that all three are still alive, and at the close of the band concert they appeared on the balcony of the Horton house, from which Mr. Bowers made a short address on the history of the structure. At its close "Father" Horton, using the same pick that broke ground for the building on the 1st of January, 1870, began its destruction by tearing out the first bricks.

CAKE KEPT SINCE 1823

Part of Bridal Feast Outlasts Lives of Wedding Guests

From the New York World. In the store window of Andrew Hair on Woodward avenue, Detroit, is to be seen a wedding cake eighty-two years old. With its covering of frosting it differs little in appearance from the common run of dark fruit cakes of the present day.

The cake was baked December 23, 1823, by Miss Eliza Benjamin, afterward Mrs. E. B. Day of Whitehall, N. Y., for the wedding of her sister, Mrs. Charity Benjamin, who became the wife of William Hannas. It was a rich plum cake, with white frosting, and, in accordance with the customs of the times, several large cakes were made for the occasion, and those that were left were preserved as heirlooms.

This cake was wrapped carefully in linen with a card bearing the date of its baking placed under it. It was placed in a stone jar and reposed there until it was forgotten.

In due time it became the property of Mrs. Trowbridge, widow of the late Rev. L. H. Trowbridge of No. 13 Madison avenue. A few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge went to California for the health of the former, and decided to remain there.

While packing some of their effects to be sent to them the housekeeper found the cake in the place it had occupied for eighty-two years.

Mr. Hannas, the bridegroom of the occasion, came to Detroit to live in 1882 with Mrs. Trowbridge and died in 1886. He was the last survivor of the wedding festivities.

The wedding cake has outlived every person who attended the joyous ceremonies.

His Bad Night

H. E. Buermeyer, the president of the National Amateur Skating association, was describing a banquet that he had once attended in New York. "I found this banquet interesting," he said, "and I was one of the last to leave. In the cloak room, as I was putting on my hat and coat, I couldn't help noticing the weeboneg look on the attendant's face. The poor fellow appeared worried and sad, and every little while he sighed and muttered to himself. "You seem disconsolate, friend," I said. "I am disconsolate, sir," said the attendant. "What is the trouble?" said I. "Haven't the guests tipped you well tonight?" The attendant answered in an excited voice: "It's not only, sir, that they haven't tipped me, but they've taken the quarter that I put in the tray for a decoy!"—Minneapolis Journal.

LOS ANGELES LEADS IN POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS

Percentage of Gain for June Much Larger Than That Shown by San Francisco

Special to The Herald. WASHINGTON, July 12.—According to the postoffice receipts for the month of June at Los Angeles and San Francisco, the former city beat the latter by five per cent in comparison with the receipts for the same month last year. Portland, Or., made the largest gain of any Pacific coast city, but this is undoubtedly due to the fact that the World's Fair is being held there.

The postal receipts at San Francisco for June were $147,390, against $131,112 for June 1904, a gain of 12.41 per cent. The receipts at Los Angeles were $52,384 last month, against $44,466 last year, a gain of 17.80 per cent. Portland's receipts last month were $39,062, against $29,639 last year, a gain of 32.23 per cent.

MORTON MAKES CUTS IN PAY-ROLL

REDUCTIONS IN EQUITABLE SALARIES

PLAN TO REDUCE EXPENSES

It is Said That This Move Will Be Followed by Reforms in Other Departments of the Society

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 12.—Sweeping reductions in the salaries of officers and employees of the Equitable Assurance society were announced today by Chairman Morton. The decreases will amount to twenty per cent on all salaries over $15,000 per annum; 15 per cent from all annual salaries between $9000 and $15,000, both inclusive, and ten per cent decrease from all salaries above $2500 and below $9000 per year.

These changes become operative on August 1 next and effect a saving of from $150,000 to $200,000 a year. In the first or 20 per cent class will be included Chairman and Acting President Morton and Secretary and Vice-President Gage E. Tarbell.

The reduction in salaries is only the first of a series of schemes Mr. Morton has in mind for reducing the expenses of the Equitable's working force, it was said by those in touch with him. It will be followed by reforms in several of the departments, notably the agency department, which the chairman is investigating now. Uniform rates of commission will be figured out for the soliciting agents, it is thought, with a probable reduction for the general agents.

Grover Cleveland, chairman of the trustees, left town today on E. C. Benedict's yacht Onieda with Mr. Benedict. After a time spent in cruising Mr. Cleveland will go to New Hampshire for the summer. The trustees, it is expected, will hold no more meetings for several weeks.

Asked today to make known his salary as chairman of the Equitable society, Mr. Morton said: "The question has not yet been decided. It is a matter for future adjustment."

HIGGINS IS UNMOVED

Declares Action on Part of Legislature Would Be Useless

By Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., July 12.—Governor Higgins remains unmoved in his determination not to bring any phase of the insurance question before the present extraordinary session of the legislature. He reiterated today his belief that any such action on his part would be inadvisable. He said: "It is probably the universal opinion of the state regardless of party that great evils have existed in the manner in which insurance business has been conducted in this state. It is also the universal idea that they should be corrected at the earliest possible moment. But it is one thing to decry evils and another thing to correct them. It would be easy for me to send a message to the legislature calling attention to the situation, but it would be a very difficult task to compose a bill which would surely right the wrongs."

"I am satisfied that there is not a man alive, with our present knowledge on the subject, to draft an effective statute to meet the needs of the situation."

ARMED MEN SEARCH FOR TEMPERANCE FANATIC

By Associated Press. IOLA, Kas., July 12.—Two hundred armed men under the direction of Sheriff Richardson started a search of the country round about Iola today for C. L. Melvin, the temperance fanatic, who has been in hiding since the destruction of the three Iola saloons by dynamite, and who is believed still to have in his possession a great quantity of dynamite with which he has threatened of cause more destruction. Many citizens have joined in the chase, which soon developed into an excited manhunt.

LEA'S FROM SIXTH FLOOR TO AVOID POLICE CAMERA

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 12.—To escape the camera of the rogues' gallery photographer, Samuel Levie, accused of attempted arson, jumped from the sixth story of police headquarters at Brooklyn today, sustaining probable fatal injuries.

MURAVIEFF WILL YIELD TO WITTE

RESIGNS AS HEAD OF PEACE COMMISSION

CHANGE FULL OF GOOD OMEN

Appointment of President of Committee of Ministers Regarded as Certain and as Practically Forced Upon Czar

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, July 13, 2:13 a. m.—M. Muravieff has resigned his position as chief peace plenipotentiary.

It may be regarded as practically certain that he will be replaced by M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, who all along has been considered the Russian statesman qualified to undertake the difficult task of negotiating peace with Japan.

Though the emperor on two previous occasions has flatly declined to accept M. Witte, he has now indicated his readiness to make the appointment. The commission, however, will not be actually signed until Foreign Minister Lamsdorf, who throughout has been M. Witte's warm supporter, has had an audience with the emperor.

To that extent only the matter may be regarded as settled, nothing being certain in Russia, as a prominent diplomat remarked last night, until the emperor's signature has been affixed. M. Witte's selection undoubtedly will be hailed as a practical assurance of peace.

While it would be a mistake to denigrate him as a "peace at any price" man M. Witte earnestly believes that the struggle should be ended and should be succeeded by an understanding between Russia and Japan which would secure peace in the far east for half a century. Indeed, he is personally believed to be in favor of the Russo-Japanese alliance.

The conduct of negotiations by M. Witte, it is felt by the peace party here, would inspire instant confidence in Japan. The only handicap under which M. Witte labors is his lack of familiarity with the English language as the only foreign languages he speaks are German and French.

JAPAN'S DEMANDS MODERATE

Grand Dukes and Nobles Still Dominate Russian Situation

By Associated Press. LONDON, July 13.—The Daily Telegraph in an editorial hints the probable appointment of M. Witte as the best omen of peace it has been its privilege to chronicle, and considers that Japan will welcome it as a proof of Russia's serious desire for a cessation of the war. The editorial further declares that the moderation of the Japanese demands will astonish the world.

The emperor's conversion to the class representation project is attributed to the influence and party leadership of the landed nobility, the views of which were placed before his majesty in an address presented by Count Bobrinski, president of the constitutional conservative party, and Count Sheremetieff in behalf of what is denominated "the patriotic league."

Despite the popular idea that Russia is ruled by the bureaucracy, it is nearer the truth to say that she is ruled by a small oligarchy of grand dukes and about thirty great noble families who have access to the court and make the bureaucracy their tool. With class instead of general representation they say they can control not only the members of the nobility, who are extensive landowners, but also the peasants who live on their estates, and that, thus buttressed, the bureaucracy will have to protect its own interests.

The emperor himself is the largest landowner, owning more land than all the peasants of European Russia and over 850 palaces.

Kruger Will Be Courtmartialed

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—The Nashna Sishn says that Admiral Kruger will leave the service on account of alleged incapacity, as shown by his treatment of the mutiny aboard the battleship Kniaz Potemkin. The admiral will be courtmartialed. At the admiralty he is known as one of the "court admirals." Admiral Avellan's "promotion" to the council of the empire is definite, as in Admiral Birleff's appointment as minister of marine.

The Nashna Sishn also prints a report that Lieutenant General Stoessel has been placed under arrest at Tsarskoe-Selo, in consequence of the revelations made by the commission which has been investigating the defense and capitulation of Port Arthur, and that the sword of honor donated by a number of French admirers of General Stoessel will not be presented.

Japanese Loan List Closed

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 12.—The subscription list for the Imperial Japanese government 4 1/2 per cent sterling loan, second series, was closed by Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the National City bank and the National Bank of Commerce, and agents throughout the country at the close of business today.

The bankers had announced that the lists, which were opened yesterday, would be closed on or before July 17. The applications were so heavy, however, from all over the country that it was soon seen that the $50,000,000 of bonds allotted to the United States had

China Declares Herself

By Associated Press. PEKING, July 12.—The Chinese government recently notified the Russian, Japanese and also the other legations that China would refuse to recognize any arrangement made at the approaching peace conference in the United States regarding Chinese interests unless China was consulted in the matter.

The Japanese replied politely, plainly intimating that the notification received from China would in nowise affect the plan of action adopted by Japan.

No reply has yet been received from Russia.

Korean Outlaws Executed

By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—A story of wholesale execution at a little village of Taikju, a hundred miles inland from Fusan, Korea, was brought to San Francisco last Monday by the Rev. E. F. McFarland, a missionary who came home on the steamer Korea. In less than a week sixty men, charged with being bandits and cutthroats, were hanged by order of the Japanese government. A party of Korean soldiers were the executioners.

For many months bands of outlaws have been robbing and murdering in the country surrounding Taikju. The situation became so serious that the Japanese ordered the extermination of the offenders. The commission was entrusted to a detachment of Korean warriors, who caught the men and hanged them.
