Lightweights Who Will Battle for the Championship at San Francisco Will Both Make the Required Notch

Special to The Herald.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—There has been much discussion among local sporting men as to the respective weights of Kid Sullivan and Jimmy Britt—what they weigh now and what they will weigh on the night of July 21, when they will step over the ropes at Woodward's pavilion to battle for the lightweight championship.

The impression prevails among a great many that Britt will outweigh Sullivan by several pounds, but this can be stated signed articles of agreement calling for both fighters to be at or under 133 pounds at 6 p. m. on the day of the battle.

Should either of the pair exceed this weight at the time mentioned he will pay the penalty to his lighter opponent by losing the usual forfeit posted to assure the rigid observance of this clause in the articles of agreement.

Sullivan Will Make Weight
 But there is really little cause to believe that either man will be overweight. Britt was never in better shape in his life than when he boxed Young Corbett and for that contest he weighed 130 pounds at 6 p. m. on the day of his bout with the Denver boy, three pounds lighter than he will have to do for Sullivan.

By weighing 133 pounds at 6 o'clock will give Britt to weigh about 134 pounds when he enters the ring next Friday night.

With his clothes on and after he had completed a long run on the road, Kid Sullivan hopped on the scales yesterday and raised the beam at exactly 144 pounds. "These clothes weigh eight pounds," said Sullivan, which consequently brings him to the 136 notch.

At Herford says Sullivan will weigh 135 pounds until Wednesday, when he will start the "drying out" process, and when the Baltimore boy steps on the scales at weighing in time he will be perhaps four ounces below the required 133 pounds. Sullivan will then partake of the usual light dinner, and when he squares away from Jimmy Britt he will weigh a trifle more than 134 pounds, thus bringing the two lightweights together in an evenly made a match as far as regards weight as was ever arranged by a local club.

Baltimore Boy's Great Shoulers
 The crowd that journeys across the bay to Alameda to have a look at Kid Sullivan in action will see some hard slugging of the big-bang order when the Kid puts on the gloves with his sparring partner, Joe Kelly. The sparring partners are kept constantly on the alert, looking out for a hard punch at every stage of the game, fearing that the rugged youngster will inadvertently turn loose one of his sleep-producing wallops.

Sullivan has the strongest appearing sweater of any lightweight ever seen in the ring. His strength was shown when he put the durable Dane through the ropes at Baltimore in their six-round affair, and with that hard right hand jab that Joe Gans has taught him the one thing that Jimmy Britt will have to fear will be what may be called afterward that "lucky punch."

It has been some time since the fight fans have seen a lightweight who carried a knockout punch with him, and there is every indication that the latest contender will be the best in the ring in this direction. While Britt is certain to be the favorite in the betting, there will be many who are who will bet on the chance that they will see another star in the fighters' firmament.

FRENCH EXILES SPURN PROFFERED AMNESTY
 Declare It Insulting as Placing Them in Same Category as Ordinary Criminals

By Associated Press.
 PARIS, July 15.—The amnesty proclaimed by President Loubet Friday, which permits the return to France of Paul Deroulede and others condemned to exile, has awakened somewhat of a serio-comic agitation in which the whole country is interested.

Deroulede and his compatriots indignantly spurned amnesty in the form of a pardon, claiming that it placed them in the same category with pardoned criminals, and Deroulede has informed his friends of his intention to go to Austria until his country's peril urgently requires his presence here. Deroulede is a sort of Boulanger, and has a large popular following which seriously believes that, sooner or later, he will rescue France from her present condition.

Count de Lersaluces and Andre Buffet, fellow exiles with Deroulede, have returned to Paris. Each, however, maintained the opera bouffe aspect by addressing to President Loubet an insulting telegram, disdaining pardon and saying that he returned in spite of executive clemency.

MILITIAMEN RESCUE OFFICER FROM CHICAGO MOB
 The Man, While Trying to Escape From His Assailants, Had Fired His Pistol, Wounding Eighteen-Year-Old Girl

By Associated Press.
 CHICAGO, July 15.—Members of the Eighth regiment, Illinois National Guard, rescued a colored policeman from a crowd that was threatening a lynching last night in Thirty-seventh street, near the Rock Island tracks. The policeman was Deed Locke, who was appointed recently for strike duty. In trying to escape from a mob he opened fire with his revolver, shooting Julia McHugh, eighteen years of age. A crowd of several hundred persons surrounded the man, bent on killing him, but the Eighth regiment soldiers came to his assistance.

About twenty of the negro militiamen were on their way to the Eighth regiment armory, preparatory to leaving for their annual encampment at Springfield. They heard the shots that Locke had fired at his pursuers and rushed in the direction whence the sound came. The militiamen were in full uniform and armed with rifles. Under the Rock Island tracks in Thirty-seventh street the policemen was standing off a mob of men and women by flourishing his revolver. There were cries of "Lynch him." He first fired two shots at his pursuers and one of the bullets struck the McHugh girl, who was standing at the curb 100 feet away. Two more shots were fired by Locke, one of the bullets passing through a man's hat. Finally some of the more desperate men rushed in on Locke from all sides and disarmed him. He was knocked down and trampled upon and it was at this point that the militia men appeared with their rifles.

Locke was taken to the hospital, where his injuries were dressed, and later he was locked up.

The girl's injury is not serious. The trouble was due to an attempt by Locke to disperse a crowd that was jeering a non-union teamster.

NAVAL COMMANDER SCOTT IS CONVICTED

Sentenced by Courtmartial to Dismissal From the Service

By Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, July 15.—The court-martial record in the case of Commander B. C. Scott, U. S. N., has been received at the navy department. Commander Scott, who was in command of the cruiser Detroit, was found guilty of drunkenness on duty, suffering a vessel of the navy to be run upon a shoal and placed in great danger, and of neglect of duty. He was charged also with failing to obey a lawful order of arrest, and with conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline, but the latter charges could not be proved. The offenses are alleged to have occurred on board the Detroit at Puerto Plata on May 17. The court sentenced Commander Scott to dismissal from the service, but a unanimous recommendation to the clemency of the reviewing authority was spread upon the record.

Rear Admiral Royal B. Bradford, commander in chief of the naval force in San Domingan waters, however, approved the findings of the court and referred the case to the secretary of the navy for transmittal to the president for his action.

Gustav Hueter, Formerly of San Francisco but Lately Resident Near San Jose, Instantly Killed, the Perpetrator Pleading Self-Defense

By Associated Press.
 SAN JOSE, July 15.—The intelligence was received this morning that Gustav Hueter, one of the most prominent residents of the county, had been shot to death at 11 o'clock last night by his wife.

The tragedy took place at the Hueter home, three miles from Alma, on the Santa Cruz road, and after the shooting Mrs. Hueter telephoned the son, who conducts the ranch but resides a half mile away, that she had shot his father. He hurried to Los Gatos for a physician, but Hueter was dead when the latter arrived. The son then came to San Jose and notified the sheriff's office.

Hueter was a retired capitalist, who for many years conducted a paint and oil business in San Francisco. He purchased a large mountain ranch near Alma fifteen years ago, upon which he made many improvements, and has since resided. The woman who shot him was his second wife, and is only 30 years of age, while Hueter was 70.

He had no children by his second wife, but had five by his first, four of whom reside in San Francisco, while the eldest conducts his ranch. Mrs. Hueter's maiden name was Kate Utthig, and before marriage with him she resided in San Francisco.

A coroner's jury has exonerated Mrs. Hueter, finding that she shot her husband in self defense. No one witnessed the shooting. Mrs. Hueter testified that they engaged in a quarrel over private matters; that Hueter, who was addicted to liquor, in a rage grabbed a shotgun in the room with the intent to shoot her; that she pulled out his pistol from under a pillow and fired one shot, which took effect in his head.

"I have no first hand knowledge of the facts, but if they are as given they are ugly facts. Taken with the experience of previous librarians they will, unless disproved, put Los Angeles in a category by itself among library cities. No librarian of professional training or professional spirit would consider an offer from such a board of trustees, or care to work for a community that permits its public officials to be treated in such a manner."

"Mr. Lummis is not such a person. He is not a librarian. He is a writer, but the writers of books are very infrequently good administrators of libraries. From the professional standpoint there is needed, I fear, no more conclusive evidence of his unfitness for the place than the fact that he was willing to take it under the circumstances—to serve, in fact, as the instrument by which Miss Jones was forced out. HERBERT PUTNAM."

Father of Noted Army Officer Gets Into Trouble With Policeman at Iola

IOLA, Kas., July 15.—E. H. Funston, ex-congressman from this district and father of General Frederick Funston was placed on trial in the city court here today charged with carrying concealed weapons and disturbing the peace. Following the dynamite explosion in Iola recently, when a temperance crank wrecked three saloons, Mr. Funston stated on the street that if the officers had done their duty the explosions would never have occurred.

A crowd was drawn to the scene and when an officer requested Funston to desist in his talk the two clinched and Funston, it is alleged, attempted to draw his revolver. A verdict is not expected until Monday next.

WILL EMPLOY GREEKS IN PLACE OF JAPANESE

TOSSES CAR OFF TRACK AND GOES ON ITS WAY

Passengers Do Not Even Know There Has Been an Accident, and Only Person Injured is Engineer, Who Jumps on Seeing Obstruction

By Associated Press.
 HARRISBURG, July 15.—Train No. 28 on the Pennsylvania railroad, known as the Pennsylvania flyer, the new eighteen-hour train from Chicago and New York, met with an accident today a mile west of Port Royal, which fortunately did not result seriously.

A westbound freight train near Port Royal tried to stop suddenly, the engineer applied the air too quickly and a car buckled and was thrown over the track No. 1, on which the flyer was speeding east. An attempt was made to flag trains, but the break occurred almost simultaneously with the arrival of the flyer, and the train plunged into the wreck. The momentum threw the wrecked car from the track, but the flyer did not jump the rails.

Engineer Calvin Miller of this city, when he saw the obstruction on the track, jumped from the engine and was hurt about the head and back. He was the only one injured on the train. Fireman Garman brought the train to a stop.

The passengers, all of whom were in their berths, did not know there had been an accident until after the train had been stopped for some time. They were not even shaken up and none of them was injured.

A wreck crew from Milfin cleared the track and Fireman Garman brought the train to Harrisburg.

Beyond the damage to the engine, which was slight, and the smashing of the platform of the combination baggage and smoking car, the train was not damaged. It arrived here at 8:28 and left at 8:33, two hours and forty minutes late.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson returned yesterday from Ocean Park, where they have been spending a couple of weeks.
