

SAYS JAPAN WANTS TO END THE WAR

FORMER CONSUL BELLWOS
TALKS OF TRADE

TIME TO STUDY NEEDS

If Americans Desire to Compete With Other Nations They Must Better Understand Conditions in the Orient

E. C. Bellows, late consul general at Yokohama, Japan, appointed under the administration of President McKinley, has returned to the United States and after a two weeks' visit has decided to make his home in Japan.

For five years a close student of American trade in the Orient, and occupied during that period in furthering the interests of the United States, its merchants and its manufacturers, General Bellows has returned to this country convinced that a great future awaits American moneyed interests in the Orient, if they will but seek it in the right way.

"One of the most reticent nations on the earth, Japan's demands upon Russia for the settlement of the war will not be known until the peace envoys begin their sessions," said General Bellows last night at the Hinman, where he is staying with Mrs. Bellows. "I believe the demands will be generous enough, so that Russia may be willing to end the war, if she so desires."

"Japan is not asking for peace at any price, of course, but wishes the war to end on terms which will protect her safety."

"It will take Japan a long time to get over the war from a financial standpoint. Putting aside the money view of the situation, the mikado's kingdom is anxious to see a cessation of hostilities because the Japanese are not naturally a warlike people."

Not Greedy for Territory

"All past assertions to the contrary, Japan has no desire to build up a Japanese supremacy in the Orient. The country is not aggressive and does not seek territory. Within the territory that is to become hers the ports will be opened on equal terms to all nations."

"Japan does hope, however, to reign supreme in the Orient as a manufacturing people and there are strong reasons to believe that she will see her wish gratified. Cheap labor will here play its part. With the coming of peace Japan will do a great deal of manufacturing for Manchuria and Korea. This, in fact, is already under way."

"The westerner will not find it a fruitful field in this regard. The ebb in the amount of imported manufactured articles is already apparent and the flood of imported raw materials grows larger with each succeeding month."

"Japan looks to the United States with only the highest regard. Two years ago, acting entirely upon their own incentive, the Japanese erected a monument to Commodore Perry, who first opened up the ports of the kingdom to foreign trade."

"We are selling them at this time about 97 per cent of all the flour they consume, most of their engines, machinery, oil and raw cotton, and in return are taking 75 per cent of their silk and tea."

"If the United States is to see its merchants hold the upper hand in the contest with German and English competitors, it will be necessary for our merchants to send representatives to the country to study the needs and conditions of the people. Other nations are doing this. The same proposition holds equally good with China, where the possibilities for trade within the next twelve months will be simply enormous."

"Granting that for some time to come Japan will need our manufactured goods in large quantities, particularly those made in the New England states, I see the great necessity for the growth of factories on the Pacific coast. Now it is almost as cheap to send the goods around by the Suez canal to Shanghai as it is to send them across the American continent by rail to San Francisco and from there by ship to the Orient."

Bar to Manufacturers
"Westerners will not find Japan a fruitful field for the manufacture of their goods. The question of land ownership at once arises, as it is contrary to the law of the land for an alien to hold real estate. The country needs foreign money to develop its factories, mines and other natural resources, but capital will not go where it cannot attach itself to the soil."

"As a nation, the country's commercial honor is low and the sacredness of contract does not appeal to any but the larger and more powerful firms, the owners of which have come in contact with the western idea."

"The Pacific coast states will find a broad field in the Orient for the disposal of canned fruits and meats, lumber and iron. Japan has some iron deposits, but the country will find it cheaper to import the raw material than to produce it. A government foundry is now almost completed and the way is open for the American mine owner to sell Japan large quantities of iron. If there are large deposits of the metal along the route of the new Clark road, as I have understood, it could be brought to the seaboard, I have no doubt that Southern California would profit greatly, as a tremendous business could be quickly worked up."

RUSH WORK ON BIG LAGUNA DAM

CONTRACTORS BEGIN GIANT
TASK NEAR YUMA

SUPPLIES ARE BOUGHT HERE

Representatives of the J. G. White
Company Come to Los Angeles
to Spend Half a Million Dollars

American enterprise of the most strenuous variety was shown last week, when the building of the Laguna government dam was begun on the Colorado river near Yuma, before the ink on the contract had time to dry.

The contract was awarded to the J. G. White company of New York last Thursday noon. Six hours later, in the presence of Engineer Lippincott of the reclamation service, operations were begun on the work, and yesterday the engineers of the company arrived in Los Angeles for the purchase of $100,000 worth of materials, delivery to be made within the next thirty days.

Representatives of the company who are now at the Angelus are: A. S. Crane, hydraulic engineer; C. G. Young, constructive engineer; H. J. Slifer, business manager, and George F. Seymour, assistant superintendent, who will be in charge of the work.

Los Angeles companies have been asked to furnish equipment of various sorts, including derricks, engines, boilers, drills, locomotives, flat cars, a distillation plant and materials for an electric lighting system.

The dam, which is to be a mile long and of varying height, will require 305,000 cubic yards of rock fill, 27,000 yards of cement and 280,000 cubic yards of earth excavation. The White company was awarded the contract for $800,000, with two years to complete the work. Its engineers are desirous of finishing the dam in ten months, and will work night and day to accomplish their purpose.

The company will employ 500 men, who will be fed by supplies furnished by Los Angeles merchants.

The work being done by the reclamation service in the construction of the Laguna and Roosevelt dams will mean over $500,000 in trade for Los Angeles firms.

The representatives of the White company will leave for San Francisco today.

ENGLISHMEN WIN IN THE TENNIS FINALS

Doherty Defeats Larned, the American, After Hard-Fought Contest

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 24.—The final matches for the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis cup drew a good crowd the Wimbledon today. As was expected, William A. Larned gave Hugh L. Doherty a good game. Although beaten, Larned played the best tennis he has shown in this country and it was necessary to play fifty games before Doherty was able to settle matters. In the second match Holcombe Ward was to have played S. H. Smith, but as he had suffered a family bereavement William J. Clothier was substituted. He gave Smith a hard game, but the Englishman was too steady for him. Clothier tried several new curves, but nothing he did could overcome Smith.

In the play at Wimbledon, which lasted three days, the Englishmen won 15 sets to the Americans' 8 and 132 games to the Americans' 101. The all-English tennis club gave a dinner tonight in honor of the international teams. The guests included all the Americans with the exception of Holcombe E. Ward.

The president of the club, in toasting the visitors, praised the Americans for their fine playing.

Paul J. Dashiell, responding on behalf of the American team, expressed his appreciation of the courtesy and hospitality of the British players and the club, and announced that it was the intention of the Americans to come again and make an effort to win the Davis cup.

INTERESTING LETTER WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg of Denver, Color Bearer of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1628 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Colo., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "For five years I was troubled with a tumor, which kept growing, causing me great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope. I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size."

"The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such trouble.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Health is too valuable to risk in experiments with unknown and untried medicines or methods of treatment. Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

which the farce comedy feature was pronounced, New York defeated St. Louis by a score of 10 to 5. Chesbro was struck on the wrist by a liner off Starr's bat in the sixth inning and retired in favor of Hogg. Buchanan was hit freely. Attendance, 1200. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 5 8 1 New York 10 15 2 Batteries—Buchanan and Suggs; Chesbro, Hogg and Powers.

NIP IT IN THE BUD

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market today.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide company, Detroit, Mich.

MEN, DO YOU?

Do you want to be strong? Do you want to feel the vim, the snap and fire of vigor? Do you want courage, energy and ambition to support you in your career and troubles?

I have devoted my life to the development of vigor in both men and women. I've made a great success. My methods are approved by the greatest doctors, and copied. I've proved that electricity is the basis of all animal life and that "weak men," dyspeptics, rheumatics, sufferers from lost energy, weak kidneys, pains in the back, head, chest and shoulders from varicose veins and its allied weaknesses, etc., are weak in electricity. My Electric Belt restores this life in a few weeks and cures every time.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

Describe your case to me, and if I say I can cure you I will guarantee to do so. Drugs won't restore your strength. They only stimulate. If you have to take a stimulant take whisky. Taken in moderation it does less harm than the others.

"Every sign of pain and sickness has disappeared. I appreciate what your Belt has done for me," writes Schwarz Coleridge, Trinity County, Cal. I will gladly send you my book on this subject. It has 32 pages of meat to people who want more "fire." Sealed free.
