NEWS OF LOCAL CHURCHES

Prominent Eastern Minister Preaches to Congregationalists — Improvement Boom in City Continues

PASADENA, Aug. 6.—William Gaitner, a local carriage driver, announces his intention to go to New Orleans and offer his services as a nurse during the yellow fever scourge. Gaitner is immune, having weathered an attack of the dreaded malady during the trying days when it had a hold on the city of Memphis, Tenn. Gaitner will first go to Memphis where his family resides and will ask some of the members to accompany him, as they are also immune. Gaitner read in the papers that the New Orleans authorities are offering big money for nurses and as soon as he can dispose of his team and carriage he is ready to start for the plague-stricken city.

Afro-American Congress
The eleventh annual session of the Afro-American congress convenes Tuesday morning in the Kinney & Kendall hall, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance of the negro population of Southern California. Mayor Waterhouse will welcome the delegates and Rev. S. W. Hawkins of Los Angeles will respond. The principal speakers will be Dr. McPherson of Sacramento, John Anderson of Monrovia, Walter Simpson of Riverside, Captain H. Crumley and others. A feature of the three days' session will be an industrial exhibit in charge of William Prince of Pasadena. On Thursday the State Federation of Colored Women's clubs will be in session. Thursday evening will be a joint installation of officers of the two bodies, followed by a banquet.

Notes of the Churches
Rev. Henry O. Hannum of Superior, Wis., preached at the West Side Congregational church this morning. He is an eminent divine, having at one time been assistant pastor of Old South church of Boston. Mr. Hanna was favored with a large audience. He is pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church of Superior and is in California on his vacation.
Rev. Mr. Allan of Calexico occupied Rev. Hunter Brink's pulpit at the 11 o'clock service of the Lake Avenue M. E. church.

The Methodists of North Pasadena were afforded opportunity of hearing an able minister in Dr. Lockwood of Kansas, who delivered the sermon at the morning service.

At the United Presbyterian church Rev. J. E. Wishart this evening began a series of sermons on "Great Christian Leaders," and his first subject was "Augustine: Libertine, Saint, Theologian."

Many Improvements Planned
The improvement boom is not only confined to new buildings and residences but many are engaged in repairing, adding to or otherwise beautifying their premises which they have owned for some time. Frank C. Platt has contracted for extensive repairs to his property at 241 North Euclid avenue at an outlay of $1000. The house is to be remodeled.
Dr. F. A. Weir will build a sun room of glass at his home, 201 North Madison. It will cost $200. L. C. Freeman will make repairs to his property at 287 East California to cost $200. S. W. Lemont will build a barn to cost $300 at 786 First street and a barn to cost $350 will be built by George Dilpe at 526 Franklin avenue.

These are only a few of the improving permits taken out for one representing permits taken out for one day, Saturday.

Week's Building Record
In the five days of August last week the building permits issued numbered twenty-five and the total cost of structures to be erected amounts to $15,000. At this rate the August building record should reach the $150,000 mark, which would be slightly in excess of the amount for the same period last year.

NEWS NOTES OF SANTA ANA AND VICINITY

Special to The Herald.
SANTA ANA, Aug. 6.—The funeral of the late H. P. Willard of Tustin was held today from the residence in Tustin with a large number of friends present. Deceased was a pioneer resident of the valley and has made his home here continuously for more than thirty years.

Today was a big day for Newport Beach, crowds gathering there to celebrate the advent of the electric car line from Huntington Beach. Special amusement features were provided, the brass band being in attendance from Santa Ana. Company L of this city went down last night and camped on the sands over night, providing a sham battle yesterday evening.

Ben Luther of Newport Beach is suffering from a broken hip and crushed thigh as the result of a painful accident at the Newport warehouse Thursday. He was hauling a car out of the way with a team of horses when it crashed into a car ahead and caught Luther between the irons. It was more than an hour before physicians arrived and the man suffered great pain.

LAUNCH GONDOLA AT VENICE

First of Fleet of Twelve Boats for Canals is Placed in Water

One of the fleet of twelve gondolas which Abbot Kinney recently purchased for the canals at Venice of America has arrived and was placed on Grand canal yesterday evening. This gondola was shipped from Venice, Italy, to the Portland exhibition, where Mr. Kinney saw, admired and purchased it. He immediately placed an order with the Italian builders for eleven similar boats, for which he will pay $1500 each.

The gondola is black as midnight in color and large enough to accommodate eight passengers in addition to the crew, which will consist of one gondolier and four women musicians. The gondoliers are to be native Greeks and the musicians are to be equipped with mandolins and guitars.

SAN DIEGO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTIVE

MEMBERSHIP TO BE INCREASED TO ONE THOUSAND

Campaign Started With That Object in View—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Alsop of Los Angeles Give a Dinner at Tent City

Special to The Herald.
SAN DIEGO, Aug. 6.—The members of the local chamber of commerce have started a campaign for 1000 members, with every indication that that number can be reached. The active work in connection with the movement is in the hands of the membership committee, consisting of E. E. Shaffer, F. G. Frye and Quince Crane, who report that everything points toward success.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Alsop of Los Angeles acted as host and hostess last evening at a pretty dinner party given at their palm cottage, 1201 Ocean boulevard, Tent City. The house was prettily decorated with carnations. At the conclusion of the dinner the guests enjoyed a musical program at the Tent City club rooms. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alsop, Mrs. A. L. Woodill and Mrs. M. R. Algire of Riverside, Miss Woodill of Los Angeles, Mrs. M. J. Dougherty of Galesburg, Ill.; Louis R. Kirby of San Diego, V. E. Howard and C. F. Patterson of Los Angeles and W. H. Moore of Tent City.

The Federated Trades and Labor council have filed a communication with the city clerk complaining that Howard & Long, the sewer contractors, have broken their contract with the city, in that the laborers have worked overtime and the contractors have not given them extra pay for it.

There is a clause in the contract which provides for its forfeiture for every neglect and dereliction of duty, and the Federated Trades claim that they have sufficient proof to show that the contractors have been negligent in this particular. They state in their communication to the council that they can cite specific instances where neglect was shown if the council cares to hear of them. A thorough investigation of the matter is asked for.

R. C. Allen, the Bonita rancher and lemon grower, returned yesterday from an eastern trip, on which he attended the twenty-fifth reunion of his class at Harvard. The class, 165 strong, graduated in 1880 and there were 120 at the reunion. The class includes in its membership President Roosevelt.

THOUSANDS SWARM TO THE BEACH RESORTS

Great Throngs Visit Santa Monica and Many of the Neighboring Seaside Cities

Special to The Herald.
SANTA MONICA, Aug. 5.—Fully ten thousand persons visited this beach today and when darkness fell the cars continued to arrive well crowded. At Ocean Park and Venice the piers and public thoroughfares swarmed with humanity. At both places the new bathhouses were taxed to their capacities and apparently every refreshment booth, restaurant and bakery doing business anywhere along the beach enjoyed all the patronage they were able to handle. Afternoon and evening band concerts were given at all three resorts and at Venice special attractions were provided. The weather proved ideal, there were no disturbances reported and everybody apparently had a good time.

Work on the three gradual beach approaches is well under way and is being carried on as rapidly as possible. A few days ago Andrew Garland, a workman, sprained a leg while endeavoring to flag a train in danger of being hit by a blast and has since been confined to his home.

The British steamer Baroda, Captain Harris, is at Port Los Angeles unloading a cargo of nitrate consigned to W. R. Grace & Co. The Baroda comes direct from South American export points and was twenty-one days out.

Huge blocks of rock from Chatsworth park are being transported to Venice to be used in the construction of a $100,000 breakwater now building. The tracks of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Los Angeles Pacific railroads are used in making the delivery.

RIVALS ENTER ELECTRIC FIELD

SAN BERNARDINO GETS NEW COMPANY

NEW LINE TAPS HIGHLAND

Southern Pacific to Construct Extension From Riverside to Corona Which Will Rival Kite-Shaped Route

Special to The Herald.
SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 6.—In addition to having rival gas companies in this city, which has resulted in cutting the price of that commodity in half in less than a year the city is now expecting an electric light and power war. The Lytle Creek Power company has been organized by local capitalists and will in a few days let a contract for the building of a modern lighting and power plant. Already there has been a reduction in prices on the part of the old company in anticipation of the fight that is in prospect.

The plans of the Southern Pacific to build a loop line in this valley to tap the Highland district caused a stir here in railroad circles. It appears that the road will not await the completion of the Highland loop to get into the Highland district for business but will this winter haul oranges out to its lines in this city over tracks owned by the San Bernardino Traction company. The latter company has a line entering this city over a private right of way, which will be used by the Southern Pacific.

The construction of the Corona extension from Riverside will be completed this fall, but will not stop at Corona, but extend on to the northwest from that town to Chino, an old roadbed graded up in the early boom days by Richard Gird being used. This will give the Southern Pacific another loop line in the Riverside section and the road will soon be in a position to rival the Santa Fe's kite shaped track.

Sells Copper Mine

A deal has been closed for the sale of a group of copper claims in the mountains forty miles west of Needles to Minnesota capitalists for $75,000, the first payment of $10,000 being made last night. The property was owned by Albert Crase, Henry H. Ahrens, both Santa Fe engineers, and Mrs. Peterson, all of Needles. The purchasers will at once install machinery and begin development the latter part of September. Joseph S. Duffy, for the past sixteen years a cigar manufacturer in this city, passed away this morning at the age of 67 years, blood poisoning resulting from an injury he sustained to his knee while skating on the St. Lawrence river when 14 years of age, being the cause of his demise.

Superintendent John Denair of the Needles division of the Santa Fe while in this city gave out the statement that the Needles-Searchlight railroad will be built and at once, the surveys having already been completed and the steel ordered for the line. The construction will be rapid, as the line runs through a country where but little heavy work will have to be done. The road will tap an immensely rich mining section and is expected to create a rush to that district.

To Fix Tax Rates

The city officials are now wrestling with the fixing of the tax rate for the coming year and the present outlook is that it will be materially lowered from the figures of last year, when it was $1.80. Unless some unforeseen complication arises the rate this year will be fixed at not to exceed $1.70 and it may be lowered to $1.65.

Owing to the knocking out of the county game ordinances the deer season is open here now and hunters report killing a number of bucks in the San Bernardino mountains.

Mrs. Pauline Kip, who was rescued from in front of the special train of General Superintendent Ingram of the Southern Pacific a few days ago near Needles, has been in this city with an officer looking for her husband, Lawrence Kip, who she claims has now deserted her entirely after quarreling with her and cruelly treating her. Kip is said to have been here some days ago but his present whereabouts is unknown.

The mysterious party of surveyors for an electric line from Colton to Riverside has again appeared at Colton and are engaged in work. They give no information as to whom they represent, but it is thought here they are out in the interest of the San Bernardino Valley Traction company.

Special to The Herald.
RIVERSIDE, Aug. 6.—Charles Rowan, for years a barber in Riverside, was enrolled among the regular boarders of the county jail today. He deserted his family here several months ago, and was arrested at Daggett yesterday and brought back to Riverside. He will be arraigned before Justice Stephenson tomorrow.

The members of Company M will give a send-off tomorrow to the four members of the company who are to represent the Seventh regiment in the Seagirt shoot. The members of the shooting team depart at 1:30 for the east, and they will be escorted to the depot by the entire company in uniform. The team is composed of Lieutenant P. J. Bollinger, Lieutenant H. O. Higgins, Sergeant Darling and Private C. J. Darling. Lieutenant Higgins is to be captain of the squad.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Rev. E. A. Powell were held this afternoon in the Congregational church, Rev. E. F. Goff officiating. Mr. Powell is chiefly known here for his work as local superintendent of the Children's Home society, and scattered among the homes of the valley are numerous little waifs placed by the society's representative.

Rev. William Zumbro, head of a Congregational college in India, filled the pulpit of the First Congregational church this morning and gave an interesting address on Hindoo religion, philosophy and system of reasoning.

Articles of incorporation have been filed of the El Dorado Realty company, which is organized to succeed to the interests of the Lynn-Lewis company in the El Dorado tract. The directors are J. F. Dostal and E. A. Taylor, San Bernardino; W. M. Brown and F. U. Nofziger, Los Angeles, and H. S. Roach, Riverside. The capital stock is $37,712. Mayor and Mrs. C. L. McFarland are home from a trip to the Portland fair, where Mr. McFarland officiated as the representative of the city on Riverside day.

Prof. John E. Troy, formerly president of the State Normal Business college of Troy, Ala., has been elected to a position in the Riverside Business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Miller returned last night from San Francisco, where Mr. Miller went to attend a meeting of the Hotel Men's association.

BRINGS SUIT TO BREAK HER FATHER'S WILL

Action Begun by Mary M. Streeter, Daughter of Late Henry Lewis of Carpinteria

Special to The Herald.
SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 6.—Suits has been commenced in the superior court by Mary Mitchell Streeter to break the will of her father, Henry Lewis, a wealthy farmer of the Carpinteria valley who died last July, leaving large ranch interests and also a very large family of married children. The contest is directed against the other heirs of the estate, named as Cora Lewis Wilkinson and Theodore Wilkinson, Delia Lewis, Bessie Lewis Humphrey, F. J. Humphrey, William L. Lewis, Joseph Lewis, Julia M. Morrison, J. D. Morrison, Alena A. Richardson, Walter Richardson, Martha A. Burns, J. D. Burns, Dozier Lewis, Fred Lambert, Norman Lambert, Albert Lambert, Lizzie Smith, Allen E. Smith, Mary Nealy, Alice McKay and John McKay. This long list of defendants are all related to the deceased farmer, and are mostly residents of this city and locality. Only $1 was left to Mrs. Streeter, daughter of the deceased, and she claims that undue influence was brought upon the old man in the time of his feebleness from age and that he was incapable of making a will.

Elmer Julius Boeseke, the 10-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Boeseke, yesterday entertained fifty of his playmates at one of the largest children's parties ever held in this city. It was in honor of Elmer's tenth birthday anniversary.

OLD COTTAGE HOTEL IN SANTA PAULA BURNED

Origin of Fire is Mystery; Proprietor at Point of Death in Hospital

Special to The Herald.
VENTURA, Aug. 6.—The old Cottage hotel and adjoining buildings in Santa Paula were totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The origin of the fire seems to be a mystery, as no one is able to give a reasonable cause. The property belonged to John Kelley, who is at present lying at the point of death at the Bard hospital in this city, with little if any hope for his recovery.

The ladies of the Christian church gave a chicken pie dinner in the old Sewell building on Oak street yesterday, where they fed the hungry automobilists from Los Angeles during their short stay here. A neat sum was realized from the dinner.

Apricot pitting is nearly at an end in this locality and those who were engaged in the work are returning to their homes. Fully 500 people were employed on the fruit on Ventura avenue alone. The crop turned out much better than was expected.

Rev. R. B. Coons and wife have returned from a month's vacation at Matilla Hot Springs, and services were resumed at the Methodist church this morning.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Allan Sharr and Dovie Hamilton, which will take place at the Methodist church next Thursday afternoon.

LAY SERMON BY THE PRESIDENT

MR. ROOSEVELT PREACHES AT OYSTER BAY

HIS THEME IS "CHARACTER"

Addresses Members of a Local Non-Sectarian Organization Known as the Christian Brotherhood

By Associated Press
OYSTER BAY, Aug. 6.—President Roosevelt late this afternoon delivered a lay sermon to the Christian Brotherhood of Oyster Bay. He emphasized especially the necessity of sound character building, holding that high moral character was the real essence of Christian life. The organization before which the president spoke is a non-sectarian body, composed principally of the male members of the several local churches. The meeting was held in the Sunday school room of the Methodist Episcopal church. Several weeks ago an invitation was extended to the president to address the Christian Brotherhood and he promised to accept the invitation at some later time. He notified the committee last night that he would make the promised address today, stipulating that no previous announcement should be made of his intention to speak. About 200 persons attended the meeting this afternoon and practically all of them were surprised when President Roosevelt appeared on the floor.

The president carried his Bible and in beginning his address read selections from the sixth chapter of Mathew, the Epistle to the Corinthians and the Epistle by James. No verbatim report of the address was made, but the president tonight dictated the following as the substance of his remarks:

Mr. Roosevelt's Remarks

"Brother Bowman has spoken of the fact that I have had a large experience. I think that each one of us who has a large experience grows to realize more and more that the essentials of experience are alike for all of us. The things that move us most, the things of the home, of the church, the intimate relations that knit a man to his family, to his close friends, that make him try to do his duty to his neighbor, by his God, are in their essentials just the same for one man as for another, provided the man is in good faith trying to do his duty. I feel that the progress of our country really depends upon the sum of the efforts of the individuals acting by themselves, especially upon the sum of the efforts of the individuals acting in associations like this for the betterment of themselves, for the betterment of the communities in which they dwell. There is never any difficulty about the forces of evil being organized. Every time that we get an organization of the forces that are painfully striving for good, an organization like this, we are doing our part to offset and a little more than offset the forces of evil.

"I want to read several different texts which it seems to me have especial bearing upon the work of brotherhoods like this, upon the spirit in which not only all of us who are members of this brotherhood, but all of us who strive to be decent Christians are to apply our Christianity on week days as well as on Sundays. The first verse I want to read can be found in the seventh chapter of Mathew, the first, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth verses: 'First, judge not that ye be not judged; sixteenth: 'Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes or thorns, or figs of thistles; seventeenth: 'Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit; eighteenth: 'A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.'

"Judge not that ye be not judged—that means treat each of his brothers with charity. Be not quick to find fault. Above all be not quick to judge another man, who according to his, is striving to do his duty as each of us here hopes he is striving to do his.

Judged by Our Acts

"Let us ever remember that not only we have divine authority statement that by our fruits we shall be known, but that also it was true that mankind will tend to judge us by our fruits. It is an especially lamentable thing to see ill done by any man who from his associations with the church, who from the fact that he has had the priceless benefits of the teachings of the Christian religion should be expected to take a position of leaders paid work for good.

"The next quotation I wish to read to you is found in the twenty-fifth chapter of Mathew, thirty-seventh to fortieth verses, inclusive: 'Then shall the righteous answer him, saying Lord, when saw we thee an hungered one and fed thee, or thirsty, and gave thee drink; when saw we thee a stranger and took thee in, or naked and clothed thee? or when saw we thee sick or in prison and came unto thee? and the king shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of my brethren, ye have done it unto me.'

"That is what this brotherhood means, by trying to worship our creator, by acting toward his creator as he would have us act, to try to make our religion a driving force in our lives, to do unto others as we would have them do unto us. The next text I wish to read is found in the first Corinthians, thirteenth chapter, beginning with the first verse: 'Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith; so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing; and though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor; and though I give my body to be burned and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.'

"And each of us exercise the largest tolerance for his brother who is trying though in a different way to lead a decent life, who is trying to do good in his own fashion; let each try to show practical sympathy with that brother, not be too quick to criticize.

"In closing I want to read just a few verses from the epistle of James, from the first chapter, twenty-seventh verse: 'Pure religion and undefiled before God and the father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the world.'

"If a man will try to serve God the father by being kindly to the men around him who need such kindness and by being upright and honest himself, then we have the authority of the good book for saying that we are in honor bound to treat him as a good Christian and extend the hand of brotherhood to him."

At the conclusion of his address the president shook hands with the members of the brotherhood present. After a brief call at the residence of Mr. Bowman, adjoining the church, he returned to Sagamore Hill.
