SPEED MAD SCOTT SEEKS NEW RECORD

MILE A MINUTE TO NEW YORK HIS AIM

BARGAINS WITH SANTA FE

Death Valley Miner Has Completed Arrangements With Pennsylvania System and Says He Will Make Trip

Across the continent from Los Angeles to New York City, a distance of 2559 miles to be traveled in as many minutes, this the latest proposition of speed-mad Walter Scott, took form yesterday in an hour's conference between the Croesus of Death Valley and J. J. Byrne, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe railroad.

Should the arrangements be made, "Scottie's" special train, consisting of an engine, a baggage car loaded with sand and two Pullman sleepers weighted with fifteen tons of lead will leave Los Angeles Sunday morning, October 15, at 10 o'clock.

The distance by the Santa Fe between Los Angeles and Chicago is 2265 miles. Mr. Byrne asks "Scottie" $6000 for the train, an advance of $500 over that paid for the first special and will make no guarantee that his road will make the speed asked for by Scott. In truth he believes such to be impossible.

Pennsylvania Makes Offer. The Pennsylvania road has refused to put on a special train as have also all the other roads between Chicago and New York but has agreed to this plan: Officials of the road are willing to run their eighteen hour limited on an open schedule to please Scott's fancy and for the sum of $1500, with an additional $500 for every hour that is cut off from the regular time.

Mr. Byrne refused to give Scott a definite answer yesterday, saying that the question would have to be taken up with the president of the road, E. P. Ripley. As the Santa Fe will be under no contract to make the mile a minute speed which "Scottie" demands, it is probable that the road will be willing to take the chances of the train going into the ditch for $6000 and an inestimable amount of advertising.

In addition it is the desire of the Santa Fe officials to gain the contract for carrying the United States mail, now held by the Rock Island and the Southern Pacific. Another fast run like that of the first special would demand for them a hearing.

To Run His Own Train. Should the contract go through, Scott will run his own train as far as La Junta with twenty-three engines at his disposal. After that the Santa Fe will again take charge of its equipment.

"My only motive," said Scottie last night, "is to make a speed of a mile a minute across the continent. I am spending my own money. I estimate this will cost me over $10,000. That's all right, the money belongs to me. I say, and it is no one's business how I get rid of it. I shall be able to do what I claim is possible, ideas of railway officials to the contrary, and I am willing to bet any amount of money on the proposition."

"Scottie" will take his life in his hands, as the railroads will disclaim any responsibility in case of an accident.

"SCOTTIE" SHOWS NEW TRAIT. Apologizes for Accusing Waiter Unjustly in Bristol Cafe. At the Bristol cafe Tuesday night Walter Scott exhibited a new trait of character. In company with a woman he entered the cafe and ordered a bottle of wine at the same time placing a $10 bill on the table.

A moment later when he looked around the money had disappeared. Scott accused the waiter of having taken the money. This statement was borne out by his companion, but met with a denial by the accused. A bank cashier, who was listening to the dispute said that Scott had replaced the money in his pocket. "I had just $10 when I came in here," said Scott as he pulled out a roll of bills and began to count. There was but $400. The Croesus paid for the wine saying he believed the waiter had pocketed the green back.

When he and his companion reached the street, the woman drew forth the $10 from her right sleeve with the remark, "Here is your tenner." Scott immediately returned to the cafe and walking up to the waiter whom he had accused, made an apology accompanying it with a $5 tip. "I'm willing to hawl out the whole thing right here in public," he said as he dropped the gold piece into the waiter's itching palm, but the latter's anger was already mollified.

Scott will leave Los Angeles today for Barstow, thence going to Death Valley with the expectation of returning to Los Angeles October 2.

THREE IMPORTANT SALES OF BUSINESS PROPERTY

SPRING STREET FRONTAGE GOES AT $3500 A FOOT. Bought by Isaacs Bros.—Large Business Block to Be Erected at Hill and Seventh Streets by Thum Bros. at an Early Date.

Several notable real estate deals were closed yesterday, indicating renewed activity in central business property. Tuesday Abbot Kinney sold to R. A. Rowan & Co. a business lot 40x120 feet, on the west side of Spring street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, improved with a three-story brick building, for $130,000. Yesterday Rowan & Co. sold the same property to Isaacs Bros. for $140,000. This is at the rate of $3500 a front foot.

Isaacs Bros. have purchased from Thum Bros. the millionaire fly paper mill, through R. A. Rowan & Co. and M. B. Merwin, a lot on the northeast corner of Hill and Seventh streets, eighty-five feet on Seventh street and eighty-eight feet on Hill street, improved with a two-story frame. Consideration, $156,000 cash.

Another important deal which means the early erection of a large business block was the purchase by Thum Bros. from E. S. Rowley of the lot on the southwest corner of Hill and Seventh streets, fifty feet on Seventh street and 135 feet on Hill street to an alley, improved with a frame apartment house. Consideration, $135,000. Thum Bros. own the fifty feet on Seventh street adjoining the lot purchased, and it is the purpose of the firm to erect a skyscraper in the near future. The deal was closed by R. A. Rowan & Co. and M. B. Merwin.

FORMER OFFICER IN TROUBLE WITH ENEMY. Charles Schroeder is Arrested Again for Attempting to Assault A. Chamberlain. Charles Schroeder, former deputy sheriff, who was arrested several days ago on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and later released on bail, was again arrested yesterday afternoon on a similar charge.

Schroeder, as soon as he was released, bought a new revolver and when near his home on West Pico street, shot at several boys who were playing in a vineyard. After causing the youngsters to flee for their lives, Schroeder went to Alfred Chamberlain's brickyard and asked for Chamberlain, with whom he has been on unfriendly terms for some time. As Schroeder's first arrest was for attempting to shoot Chamberlain, several of the employes called in the officers to prevent trouble.

Schroeder's friends say his actions have been peculiar for several months and a warrant charging insanity may be applied for.

LOOKS AT APARTMENTS; STEALS WOMAN'S PURSE. Mrs. J. S. Woodward of 847 South Hill street reported to the police yesterday that an unidentified woman entered her house Tuesday to look at rooms, and while she was showing different apartments the woman stole a purse containing $6.

ACQUITS YOUNG WOMAN CHARGED WITH THEFT. "That Goldsboro girl was just jealous over my husband," said Mrs. Agnes Sammis Blair-Mathewson when discharged by Judge Chambers yesterday after trial on a charge of stealing a bracelet. "Probably we will have her arrested now," she continued, "on the charge of false imprisonment. I knew when I was arrested last Wednesday on the charge of stealing her bracelet that the case would go our way, for I did not steal Miss Goldsboro's property. I was disappointed until Mr. Mathewson bailed me out, for fear that we could not be married. But I guess everything is all right now."

OFFICIAL ASKED TO FIND "NICE LOOKING OLD MAN". PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR MCGARVIN IS APPEALED TO BY WOMAN TO AID IN SEARCH FOR HANDSOME HELPMATE ABOUT 78 YEARS OLD. "Has any one seen a nice looking, clean shaven, married man, 78 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches in height and 120 pounds of weight?" is the question Public Administrator McGarvin is asking his friends these days, and numerous old gentlemen of Los Angeles are being puzzled by questions of strangers who mistake them for the old man sought by the administrator.

All the trouble started several days ago, when the administrator received a peculiar letter from a woman living at Carl Junction, Mo. The letter was as follows: "Dear Administrator—I am an old woman, 64 years of age, and am afflicted with nervous prostration."

When McGarvin read the first peculiar sentence he called in his deputy, J. J. Petermichael, and the two carefully reread the first sentence that they might determine whether the woman was trying to propose marriage or simply thought the administrator was a new form of "John D.," with plenty of money to distribute among old people. McGarvin finally continued the letter: "I have been married twenty years," was the next statement and McGarvin breathed easier. "But my husband has left me, and I think he is in Southern California. His name is E. H. Brittain and I think he has quite a little sum of money saved up and I want some of it."

"He has never given me anything in my life and if he is dead I would like to have a little piece of the receipts. A few hundred would do."

McGarvin has given the epistle the attention of a philosopher and has studied the question of the missing husband's location, as learned men have nosed for the missing link, but to no avail. Some of the men selected by McGarvin as the old gentleman in question have filled the description to the last dot and have turned up without the clean shave. Others have had the shave without the height, until McGarvin has at last decided to offer a modest premium for the man who is lucky enough to find the missing husband.
