

LOS ANGELES, CAL., SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 13, 1905.

LEAVES FROM SOCIETY'S NOTE BOOK

BY THE CHATTERER

Huntington-Green Wedding

The wedding of Howard E. Huntington and Miss Leslie Thayer Green of Berkeley, which is to take place next Wednesday at the home of the bride is probably the most important social event of the week. Mr. Huntington, accompanied by Hugh Stewart, who is to act as his best man, left for the north last night, where he will meet Princess Hatzfeldt, formerly Miss Clara Huntington, who has come from Europe to be present at the wedding.

Shortly after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Huntington will leave for Europe on their wedding journey, and on their return to Los Angeles will be the guests of Mrs. Harry L. Bixby of St. James park, until Mr. Huntington's new home is completed.

Collins-De Mund

A brilliantly appointed wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house when Miss Alice M. Collins and Sylvester H. De Mund exchanged their nuptial vows in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. Donohue conducted the service, the music being rendered by Mrs. H. P. Ferris.

Two little flower girls, Misses Gladys Truscott and Genevieve Hayner, in dainty white dresses and carrying baskets of pink rosebuds, led the procession, then came the bridesmaids—Misses Margie Walters, Ethyl Goodwin and Alvah Hopkins—gowned in pink mousseline de sole over taffeta, each carrying bouquets of pink and white carnations; the maid of honor, Miss Florence Collins, a sister of the bride, wore green mousseline de sole over silk and carried ferns. Lastly came the bride, gowned in soft white silk over taffeta made en traine and trimmed with lace. Her long tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The groom was attended by Fred Collins, brother of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Cecil White, Alfred Johnson and Enoch Van Pelt.

The couple stood under a canopy of white ribbons and ferns, from which was suspended a large wedding bell of white tarleton. The club house was decorated under the direction of Miss Waite, pink and white flowers being used.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Collins of 604 North Belmont avenue. On the bride's table were baskets of pink gladioli, while wedding bells of various sizes were used as place cards.

Mr. and Mrs. De Mund are now in San Francisco. They will return to Los Angeles for a couple of weeks and then proceed to Phoenix, Ariz., where they will make their future home.

Native Daughters Entertain

Los Angeles parlor, Native Daughters, entertained last Monday evening in honor of Mrs. R. G. Bussenins, grand vice president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, at Native Sons' hall, West Second street. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. D. L. Clappitt and Mrs. A. K. Prather, and the banquet room was transformed into a perfect bower of green and white. In the center of the tables tall vases filled with white carnations rested on round mirrors, while from the middle of the room hung a ball covered with tiny American flags. In the corner of each place card was painted a poppy, emblematic of the order.

Miss Anna Stoermer acted as toastmistress and the following toasts were responded to: "The Pioneers," Mrs. S. C. Brown; "California," Miss Maude Smith; "Our Order," Mrs. R. G. Bussenins; "Our President," Mrs. A. K. Prather; "Our Parlor," Miss Anna L. Dempsey; "The Native Sons," Mrs. Paul Robinson.

Vickers-Crawford Engagement

Another Stanford wedding will take place next Wednesday at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Anna Vickers becomes the bride of Clarence Harrison Crawford. Miss Vickers, who was a prominent Delta Gamma of the university, will be attended by her sister, Miss Clara Vickers, who will act as maid of honor, and by her sorority sisters, Miss Sue Carpenter, Miss Anne Scott and Mrs. Anne Smedley of Denver. Arthur Cooley of San Francisco, a Delta Upsilon fraternity brother of the groom, will act as best man.

Next Tuesday evening Miss Vickers will give a dinner to members of the bridal party and this will conclude the long list of entertainments given before the wedding. The engagement, which was the outgrowth of a college romance, was announced some time ago at a dinner given by Miss Gertrude King of 903 Westlake avenue. After a short wedding journey the home of the bride will be in La Grande Ore.

Social Notes

Mrs. D. J. Allen of 261 East Thirty-first street entertained Ladies of the Maccabees on Friday. Luncheon was served on the vine-covered veranda, which had been decorated in the colors of the order—black, red and white.

Miss Nellie Oakley of 2656 Hoover street entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Clara Louise Garbot, whose engagement to George Nathan Turner has just been announced. The drawing and dining rooms were tastefully decorated with red and white hearts, and during the evening a heart confessional was established, at which all were

HAS BECOME BRIDE OF FAMOUS SCENIC ARTIST IN EAST

MRS. ROBERT BRUNTON

Mrs. Clara Bowring (the beautiful "Jane Holly") was married to Robert Brunton, the famous scenic artist, Wednesday afternoon in Toledo. Mrs. Brunton is well known in Los Angeles and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Flash of South Flower street. The bride was dressed in a white forced to confess. Many lurid tales of love and blood were disclosed as a result. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. O. P. Roller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macnab, Mr. and Mrs. Callender, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Melville Breese, Mrs. Isaac Garbutt, Misses Della and Emma Bates, Lena Turner, Frances Thompson, Sarah Miller, Meriam Cook, Bess Didson, Book, Paul, Blanche Guilbertson, Kate Woolner, Winifred Healy, Grace and May Hagar, Margaret Garbutt, Carrie Buley, Messrs. Albert Paul, R. C. Arnold, Ray Cowan, John Bloeser, Arthur Kemper, Cleves Harrison, A. M. Buley and Dr. E. Leslie.

Mrs. Charles Reynolds of 1221 Westlake avenue entertained with a theater party and supper Friday evening in honor of Miss Blanche Brooks of New York, who has been spending some months in Los Angeles. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Calderwood, Mrs. Laura Kellogg, Mrs. Elmer Barber and Charles Brooks of Pasadena. Several affairs complimentary to Miss Brooks are planned for next week, among them an "at home" with which Mrs. Elmer Barber of 817 South Hill street will entertain Monday afternoon and a tea to be given by Mrs. Charles Reynolds Wednesday.

The Misses Sarah and Elizabeth Pepper of 847 South Flower street start on a northern trip today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Drew have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at 137 West Seventh street.

The engagement of Alfred A. Dove and Jennie D. Woodruff, both of Los Angeles, is announced. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Miss Florence Harper and Judge James Carroll were quietly married yesterday morning at Christ church, Episcopal, by the Rev. Baker P. Lee.

Members and friends of the Union Avenue Methodist church tendered a reception to the Rev. W. C. Botkin and his bride, who have just returned from their honeymoon, at the church last Tuesday evening. The parlors were elaborately decorated in red and white, the Epworth league colors.

Frank Murphy and his bride returned from their two months' wedding journey in the north yesterday. Until the completion of their new home they will reside at Hotel Southern.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morton of 563 South Hope street leave Tuesday on a six weeks' vacation trip to Michigan, the Thousand Islands and New York. The return will be made by way of the south.

Mrs. Marshall Stimson of 823 Kensington road gave a tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Louie Erskine of Memphis. Miss Anna Gordan assisted in receiving.

Miss Maude E. Parlin will become the bride of Homer H. Sharp at a quiet little wedding at the bride's home, corner of Johnson and Baldwin streets, next Wednesday evening.

The engagement of Miss Bessie M. Rawntree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Rawntree of Loma drive, to Willard Arnett is announced. The wedding will take place in the early autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Moore were the guests of honor at a charming little dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Mooers of Ocean Park last evening at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoddard of 921 West Fourth street have returned from a six weeks' trip to San Francisco, Portland and Seattle.

Vida D. Moore and George M. Harrison were married quietly at the residence of Rev. E. P. Ryland, 849 South Grand avenue, on the evening of August 8.

Mrs. Samuel Eberly Grosse of Chicago was one of those present at the meetings of the Los Angeles club women during the past few weeks. Mrs.

Store Closes Saturdays at 1 o'Clock Until September.

N.B. Blackstone Co.

Let Us Mail You a Line of

DRY GOODS
SPRING AND THIRD STS.

Samples

Special Silk Values

$1.50 Surah Silks 85c

Heavy, soft, wearable Surahs, full 24 inches wide, in shell pink, lavender, Nile green and turquoise; suitable for evening gowns or waists, petticoats or linings. You've not seen its equal under $1.50; choice, yard, 85c.

$1.25 Crepe Pongees 75c

One of this season's best silk novelties, deeply crinkled; handsome for either street or evening costumes. Cream, champagne, French gray and reseda green; full 27 inches wide. Worth $1.25; per yard, 75c.

$1.50 Silk Sackings 85c

Very heavy, coarse weave for tailor suits, coats and wraps, and every thread the purest silk; one of this season's most favored silk novelties; 28 inches wide. Now, yard, 85c.

New Fall Dress Goods

For the new long coat suits we will show this week the latest things in mannish suitings—the hard twisted, smooth finished Worsteds; plain or indistinct plaid effects in the popular grays; 56 inches wide. $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 the yard.

French Broadcloths $2.50

All sponged and shrunk ready for the scissors; in the new browns and blues, greens, champagnes and modes; 56 inches wide. Yard, $2.50.

Silk Eoliennes $1.25

For street, evening or carriage costumes, in navy, reseda, leaf brown, gray, lavender, cream and black; new, crisp and fresh looking. Yard, $1.25.

50-Inch Cream Serge $1.00

Cream, so Fashion says, will be even better this Fall than ever, for all occasions. We're showing a new one—a regular $1.25 grade for, yard, $1.00.

Bargains in Cloth Suits

This week we shall finish with all Suits of the past Spring and this Summer's buying; going to dispose of them even if we have to sacrifice a portion of the cost—to say nothing of profit. There are upwards of a hundred and not a bad or passe style among them. Some are marked two-thirds, others only a half their former price.

$18.00 Suits for $12.00

$37.50 Suits for $25.00

$60.00 Suits for $37.50

$30.00 Suits for $20.00

$45.00 Suits for $25.00

$100.00 Suits for $50.00

And in a like manner through the entire lot of Summer Suits.

New Cloth Suits

You'll keenly enjoy looking through these new arrivals in Fall and Winter Suits. They are most pleasing in style, in material, in workmanship and in coloring, and in price they are surprisingly low for garments of so high an order. Many long coats are shown, Prince Alberts and coachman styles, tight fitting, with velvet collars and cuffs; balloon or tailor sleeves, deep cuffs, silk lined. Materials are Scotch tweeds in the heavy wale; mannish looking worsteds, plain or plaids, and plain, smooth cloth effects. Gray is the favored color. Prices: $25.00, $27.50, $32.50, $35.00, $40.00 and $42.50.

NOBBY NECKWEAR

The present exhibit of Neckwear is most extensive. A hundred late Fall novelties are here from those famous creators of neckwear fashions—Parker and Finn; tailor-made affairs that defy description. Another positively modern idea is the lace chemise, single or in combination with the lace cuffs to match. You should see this line of neckwear, and see it tomorrow.

SEASONABLE GLOVES

White silk gloves in all styles, all prices. 12 to 16-button lengths at $1.25, $1.00 and 75c pair.

LATEST RIBBONS

The new ribbon styles are here for Fall uses. Plaids, Ombres, Dresdens and Pompadour warp prints and Persian effects, all widths for all purposes. Special values in embroidered dots and rings and Dresden styles tomorrow, from 4 to 5 1-2 inches wide at yard, 25c.

HANDSOME TOWELS

Just received some of the handsomest and finest towels we've ever shown, most appropriate for gifts. Extra large sizes for dresser scarfs. They come in fancy figured huck or double satin damask with hemstitched borders 50c each to $1.25

General Stock Reducing Sale

This Week

And Your Credit Is Good Here

No matter what you desire in the way of furniture this week it will pay you to examine into our goods and prices before you see any other stock in Los Angeles. We have made sweeping reductions, amounting to fully 20 per cent off our already low prices, and challenge the production of any bargains equal to this week's money-saving offerings.

A Hint of Rocker Prices

Four items showing the character of the cuts we make on rockers. Every home has a spare corner for a rocker. Select one of these, or see a variety of others equally reduced in price:

$5.00 Rattan Rocker

$4.25 Oak Rocker

$3.95

$3.25

Our own regular $5 rattan rocker. Solid bent frame and full back and arms. A very handsome piece of furniture, greatly reduced in price.

Built of full quarter-sawn oak in golden finish. Graceful long-spindle back and rounded arms. Saddle seat. Made to wear as well as it looks. A very special bargain.

$5.25 Roll Seat Rocker

$20.00 Morris Rocker

$4.25

$15.00

A choice bit of the newest fancy in parlor rockers. Highly polished, quarter-sawn oak. Very solid and substantial and a bargain at the original price. Our price, this week, $4.25.

Latest Morris chair and combination rocker. Popular mission style. Padded back and seat covered with Pantesote. We need the room or we could not afford to reduce this line.

Couch Reductions

Pleasant reduction in the price of couches. Our line is complete, embracing everything new and popular now. Just a sample price. A pretty velour couch in any shade desired; steel springs and graceful, fashionable shapes. Well worth our regular price of $10.00. Choice, now, $6.75

Corresponding reductions on all goods to make room for new stock now on the way. Remember that $1 down and $1 a week pays for any stove in our stock, and that you do not have to pay for credit in higher prices.

Eastern Outfitting Co.

544-546 S. Spring St.

Los Angeles, Cal.

READ HERALD LINERS TODAY