At the opening of the stock market yesterday 4000 shares of Reading sold at 122 1/2 to 123 1/2, compared with 122 1/2 Thursday.

Declines in many of the standard stocks were precipitous and losses showed from 1 to 2 1/2 points. Reading reacted to 120 1/2, and Union Pacific to 100 1/2.

At different times the market was extremely dull and showed a lack of confidence of support, New York Central, and O. & N. Great Northern preferred, to name a few, class issues, recording material declines.

Forecasts of the weekly money movement show an apparent loss by local banks of about $300,000, scarcely more than one-half of the previous weekly drain.

The preliminary crop demand continues, however, $200,000 were transferred to Chicago and $200,000 to New Orleans.
