

HANLEY FUNERAL PLANS UNCERTAIN

BODY OF UNFORTUNATE ACTOR MAY BE SENT SOUTH

FRIENDS TO RAISE A FUND

Miss Lemmert, Who is Playing at the Belasco Theater, is Placed in an Embarrassing Position

When the newspapers told the story of the death of Lawrence Hanley, the once famous tragedian whose life ended Monday in a cot at the county hospital, the last word had not been said about the unfortunate actor. There is much uncertainty about the funeral arrangements, for the man, once a successful player, had been for a long time penniless and financially dependent.

Friends who did much to make his last days comfortable have united in an effort to gratify the wish of Mr. Hanley's aged mother that her beloved son's body be sent home to her. Mrs. Hanley lives in Savannah, Ga., and there her other children rest in the Catholic cemetery. While the actor was dying, he asked frequently for his little daughter and he spoke often of his mother. Inasmuch as he failed to see his child, his friends feel a special desire that his unspoken wish to go home be complied with.

Miss Lemmert's Trying Ordeal
Miss Lemmert, the wife from whom Mr. Hanley had been separated for ten years, is playing a leading role at the Belasco theater, and she finds it so necessary to conserve her strength that she is compelled to leave all plans for the funeral to friends.

Mr. Hanley was an Elk, but it is said that his dues had not been paid for some time. Yesterday Mrs. Louisa Evans, who has been living for the last five years in the home of Miss Lemmert and her father, Paul H. Lemmert of Menlo avenue, went to the secretary of Los Angeles lodge No. 99, to learn if anything could be done. The subject will be taken up by the lodge and the body may be cared for by the Elks.

"If we are unable to send the body home to Savannah, it will probably be buried here with the Elks conducting the service, to be followed by the mass for the dead at St. Vincent's church," said Mrs. Evans last night.

Money Instead of Flowers
Mrs. Evans knew Mr. Hanley well for many years and had a sincere appreciation of his splendid talents. She will do all in her power to obtain funds for sending the body to Savannah. It has been suggested that persons, who wish to pay tribute to the memory of the actor, send, instead of floral pieces, the money that would be paid for emblems and bunches of blossoms.

POLICE ESCORT REMAINS OF FELLOW PATROLMAN

Local Department Honors Former Chicago Officer—Funeral Party Has Narrow Escape From Death

The funeral of Patrolman August Busse of Chicago was held yesterday afternoon from St. Joseph's church with a police escort from the local department.

Busse was a member of the Chicago police force twenty years and was commended for his bravery in the railroad strike during President Cleveland's first administration.

The patrolman had been in ill health for five years and until a year ago when he came to Los Angeles was working under Inspector Nicholas Hunt of Hyde Park as special messenger for the department.

While returning from the funeral Patrolmen Harrison, Boyd, Henderson and Mack narrowly escaped death at the railroad crossing at Third and Alameda streets. Their carriage barely cleared the track as the Pasadena accommodation swept past, their lives being saved by the frightened horses, which started to run away.

TERMINAL ISLAND MAY BE ANNEXED ONCE MORE

Judge Bordwell Refuses to Issue Restraining Order Against Election Called for Thursday

Judge Bordwell yesterday refused to issue an order restraining San Pedro from holding an election Thursday to annex Terminal Island and East San Pedro and the election will be held.

Long Beach held an election a few days ago and annexed Terminal Island and East San Pedro.

It is believed that the annexation election of Thursday will result in favor of San Pedro, as Terminal Island citizens are evenly divided in their preferences for the seacoast cities, and the saloon question will favor San Pedro with saloons as against Long Beach without saloons.

Should San Pedro win Terminal Islanders will be "up a tree" to decide to which municipality they really belong. The little orphan seemingly wants to be adopted, but its desires to be accommodated and favor each fair suitor presents the probability of twice voting within a month to annex to two separate and distinctly envious cities.

HANLEY'S FORMER WIFE, NOW PLAYING AT LOCAL THEATER

MISS EDITH LEMMERT, FORMERLY MRS. LAWRENCE HANLEY

SAY NEWSPAPER EXPLOITED 'FAKE'

GIRLS CHARGE INSINCERITY TO EXPRESS

SNEERINGLY SCORE MR. HYDE

Three Young Women and Witnesses to Scene With "Sullivan" Refer Scornfully to Journalistic Advertising Scheme

Three young women are wondering how many besides themselves succeeded in the discovery of Mr. Hyde of the Express before Cooley "found" him. Incidentally, a number of other people, after reading in yesterday's Herald the story of how the Misses Lillian Pendleton, Florence Alderman and Bonnie Darr tracked him to his lair, and wondering if they too did not identify Sullivan as Hyde before the Express had sold enough copies to raise it, for the time being, out of the class of a country newspaper.

Miss Darr yesterday characterized the scheme as a "fake." When she made the statement, she was speaking for her two companions. "I do not know whether or not it is the Express or 'Mr. Hyde,' but we certainly identified him three days after he started out on his rambles," she said.

"He admitted Monday that he had seen us before," said Miss Pendleton, "but he claimed that in accepting him we did not use the right expression. I asked for him at the New Hampshire hotel, where he was staying, and when he appeared I said: 'Is this 'Mr. Sullivan' (his right name). 'Yes,' he answered. Then I repeated the words which were supposed to be the proper ones. Sullivan lost his coolness, but denied his identity."

"When we went to the Express office the day after Cooley had 'captured' Hyde, the managing editor said that it did not make any difference how many witnesses we had, he would accept Hyde's word for it.

"I do not know whether or not we shall take the case into court to prove our claims, but it is certainly to be regretted that a newspaper, no matter how small, should stoop to such a thing or employ a man of such a kind, in the event the paper itself is blameless."

MISSOURI PROFESSOR TO BE RETURNED FOR TRIAL

Governor Pardee Honors Requisition for Jesse A. Oakes, Charged With Abduction

Sheriff J. D. Hall of Henry county, Mo., will arrive in Los Angeles this morning with requisition papers for the removal of Jesse A. Oakes from the city jail to Clinton, Mo., where he will be arraigned on a charge of abduction.

Oakes, who was employed as principal in the public schools of Urich, Mo., is said to have deserted his family and eloped with Opal Kaus, a 15-year-old girl, who was a pupil in his school.

He was arrested in Los Angeles about two weeks ago by Detectives Jones and McNamara and has since been held at the city jail waiting his return to Missouri.

WOMAN IS CHARGED WITH HARBORING YOUNG GIRLS

Police Accuse Mrs. Clara Portun of Complicity in Enticing Children From Home

Mrs. Clara Portun was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of renting a house owned by her at 14 Olivera street to two unprotected young women, barely 16 years old. Captain Aulse made a personal investigation of the charge with the aid of Patrolman Mack.

"This harboring young girls and profiting by their youthfulness and inexperience will not be tolerated in Los Angeles, and any such case that comes to my knowledge will be taken up and personally investigated. When I procure sufficient evidence to assure their conviction I will prosecute them to the fullest extent of the law."

"I will say that Los Angeles has thus far been free of such crimes against morality and humanity by heartless women who make a business of enticing young girls from their homes. The case of Mrs. Portun is the first that we have had for some time, and I hope to be able to make an example of her when the case is called for trial."

Mrs. Portun was released on $100 bail to appear in the police court this morning.

STOMACHS ON STILTS

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels taller. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

"In the year 1899 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my home doctor said he could not do me any good," writes Mr. G. Trent, of Gordonville, Texas. "I wrote to you and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, so I bought six bottles, and when I commenced using it I had used one bottle my stomach and bowels commenced to heal. There were strips of the lining of my stomach or bowels (I don't know which) as large as a man's two fingers passed and I had a good deal of misery in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum especially. I could not eat anything without having much distress afterward, but by the time I had taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was sound and well, and could eat anything I pleased without suffering in the least. Could also do as much work in a day as I ever could. I have not suffered from the trouble since, and it was four years ago that I was so sick."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

MAKE READY SKY CRAFT FOR RACE

THREE-CORNERED CONTEST IS PROMISED

WELSH AS AIRSHIP MANAGER

Final Papers Are Signed for Novel Competition to Take Place on Sunday, September Tenth

"Rube" Welsh, in addition to teaching chorus girls the "don't you know" look and the "don't you care" kick, is to appear in the lime light as an airship manager. By arrangements made yesterday he will supervise the advertising department of the sky races which are to take place probably at Chutes park Sunday, Sept. 10.

The final papers will be signed by the contestants this morning. It is more than possible that the only entries will be Charles La Brue's "City of Paris," Trombly's "Bullet," and the machine of Alva Reynolds. By the terms of the contract all machines will be required to leave the ground in order for the owners to participate in the division of the stake money and the gate receipts.

Reynolds will ship his "Man Angel" to Topeka, Kansas, today, and will exhibit it as one of the attractions of the Kansas state fair. He is now hard at work on a new machine, which he says will be completed in time for the race of Sept. 10. It is built along the same lines as the Man Angel, but is said to include a number of improvements over the first flyer which Reynolds constructed.

Trombly will bring his "Bullet" to Los Angeles from Playa del Rey tomorrow and will start to work putting it together either at the aerodrome at the Chutes or at Agricultural park. "I shall have it ready for flight by next Wednesday or Thursday," said Trombly last night, but I will make no preliminary flights. I have perfect confidence in the machine and I think Reynolds and La Brue will get a good rear view of it when we go sky chasing."

The race was to have been on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 9, but by the new arrangements the succeeding day has been decided upon.

We Can't Buy Groceries of Local Wholesalers—Why?

The Broadway Department Store

An Army of Eager Buyers

Took Possession of Our Grocery Department Yesterday. We Did Our Best But Many Customers Were Slighted. Today We Are Better Organized

Though we expected a crowd in our grocery department on the opening day, we were not prepared to cope with an army. Fifty salespeople were unable to serve the throng of eager buyers that surged from counter to counter the whole day long. To those who did not receive the prompt service to which Broadway trade is accustomed, we humbly apologize and beg that you will be lenient. Today we will do better and tomorrow still better, until we have our grocery department as well organized as our other departments. Come today and share in the feast of bargains. You can cut your grocery bill in two by buying Broadway Department Store Grocery Specials.

We Are Called Unfair by the Trust, Why?

NOT YET DECIDED.
Broadway Department Store Has Not Placed Order For Grocery Stock.

It has not yet been definitely determined whether or not the local jobbers and manufacturers will sell the Broadway Department Store their remaining stock of groceries.

As predicted in the Bulletin last week, the jobbers have signified their willingness to sell to the Broadway or to any other department store provided the purchasers will agree to maintain the retail price card as established by the manufacturers and endorsed by the retail grocers' association.

The Broadway Company has not yet consented to maintain the card prices.
