

LOS ANGELES, CAL., SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 3, 1905.

LEAVES FROM SOCIETY'S NOTE BOOK
BY THE CHATTERER

Mrs. Willoughby Rodman is home again.

This announcement to those Angelenos who know Mrs. Rodman stands for much, and as her fame has spread abroad there is little need to remind anyone of the numerous movements which will soon be set on foot for the betterment of the city.

Mrs. Rodman's associates in the out-of-door art work of the Civic Federation say that her northern trip has not taken away any of her enthusiasm.

"Keep a prodding them," says Mrs. Rodman in her most charming southern manner, and this little motto has succeeded in gaining many improvements in civic affairs.

The fame of the Los Angeles women and their work for civic improvement has gone all through the east, and only the other day one of the members received a letter from a friend in Iowa saying that one of the officers of the Iowa State Federation of Women's clubs, in a public lecture, had cited the Los Angeles Civic Federation as a body of which any state may well be proud.

The time for the awarding of prizes in the garden contest is drawing near, and Mrs. H. C. Terrill, the enthusiastic chairman of the committee is having a busy time.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Terrill entertained officers of the federation, members of the garden contest committee and chairman of the various committees at a pleasant afternoon affair in honor of Mrs. Rodman.

At this time it was decided to hold the first meeting of the Civic Federation Tuesday, September 26, and to award prizes in the garden contest Friday, September 15.

Later in the afternoon the guests went in automobiles to the home of Mrs. George Drake Ruddy on Wilshire boulevard, where they listened to a lecture on "Civic Improvement" by Prof. Charles Zeublin of Chicago.

The Civic Federation is now planning to secure Mr. Zeublin for a course of lectures to be given in Los Angeles.

Musicals and Reception

A delightful musicale and reception was the contribution of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bradford of 126 West Forty-sixth street to the social gayety of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford entertained a company of sixty guests as a farewell to Mr. Bradford's mother, who has been their guest during the summer months. Those who contributed to the program of vocal and instrumental music were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beach, Mrs. J. H. Drummond, Miss Zelline Drummond, Miss Bess Ross and William Kirk. Particularly artistic were the decorations in the home, a different color being in each room. Green and white combined in the reception room, pink and white in the parlors and an arrangement of scarlet and green was effective in the dining room.

Five Hundred Party

Miss Emma Harvey was hostess at a five hundred party one evening during the week, and her home at 1547 West Pico street, with wealth of beautiful blossoms and daintily gowned young women, presented a beautiful picture. Small tables were placed in the parlors and living room, where artistic decorations were arranged. Pink and green were used in parlors and scarlet and green in the living room. In the reception hall and in the dining room, where a dainty supper was served, yellow was effective. The handsome prizes were won by Mrs. C. H. Faulkner, Mrs. Edward Snell, Mrs. George Noyes and Messrs. Harley W. Bundrige, Sens and William English.

Robertson-Hunter Wedding

A quiet wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening in the parlors of the parochial residence of the Sacred Heart church, when Miss Yaneta Marie Hunter was united in marriage to Milton E. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will reside on Downey avenue, near Avenue Twenty-one.
