FEARS OF A BREACH

Apprehension That Joint Conference May Suddenly Terminate

KARLSTAD, Sweden, Sept. 2.—The Swedish and Norwegian delegates who are here to discuss the dissolution of the union between Sweden and Norway continued their deliberations today.

The session lasted until 5:15 p. m. Absolute secrecy was observed in relation to the proceedings. It is said that at the session of September 1 the Swedish delegates took the stand that they were treating with the Norwegian delegates, not in their capacity as representatives of the government in existence, but as representatives of the cabinet appointed by King Oscar, thus recognizing Norway's claim that the union has already been dissolved. This is denied by Norwegians here, but the report is published by the Afterposten of Christiania.

The Swedish delegates are assisted by three military experts. The feeling here this evening is that if the conference fails to reach an agreement within a week, the negotiations are likely to be suddenly broken off. The Norwegian delegates are not as optimistic as they were on their arrival here.

Premier Michelsen of Norway predicts that the negotiations will perhaps last for weeks.

PLEADED PITIFULLY FOR DELAY IN DEPORTATION

THE IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES MAKE EXCEPTION

Son of Well-to-Do Irishman Who Arrives in the Celtic is Ordered Returned, as Suffering From Tuberculosis, by the First Steamer

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The machinery of the immigration law at this port is to be stopped in the case of a young Irishman who has been ordered sent back to his island home because he is suffering from tuberculosis. This unusual procedure was taken so that the man's brother, en route from Indianapolis, might see him for the first time and probably last time.

Patrick Kilroy, a well-to-do old Irishman, who for nearly a quarter of a century has made his home in North Salem, Ind., decided a few weeks ago that the climate of Indiana was the thing to restore the health of his son Thomas, whom he left in Ireland when he came to the United States in the early eighties. Accordingly he sent a check to his son to cover the young man's expenses across the ocean. He also wrote that Thomas would be met at the Indianapolis station by his brothers and sisters, several of whom he had never seen.

Young Kilroy arrived in New York last Sunday morning on the Celtic. The marine hospital doctors who boarded the Celtic at quarantine soon took notice of his condition and he was ordered deported, according to law, on the first available ship of the line which brought him in. This happened to be the Celtic.

Thursday afternoon Kilroy was ordered to prepare for the voyage on Friday morning. A few minutes later a telegram arrived from Kilroy's brother, who said that although he was coming east on the fastest train he could get, he would be unable to reach New York until fifteen minutes after the Celtic sailed.

In a broken voice Thomas pleaded with the inspectors that he be allowed to remain until the next sailing. They were much affected by the unusual nature of the case and telephoned the steamship company's officials. The latter agreed to foot the bill and Kilroy was allowed to remain behind a few days.

His brother arrived at Ellis island yesterday.

TOOK TICKETS FROM DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Clerk in Washington Postoffice Department Thought Their Revenue Should Not Be Wasted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Charles G. Moore of Colorado, for ten years a clerk in the postoffice department, has confessed to taking railroad tickets from letters in the dead letter office and has been dismissed.

Besides taking railroad tickets Moore also is accused of taking foreign stamps from letters and selling them. He was in charge of the minor branch of the dead letter office and received a salary of $1400 a year. Many letters which reach the dead letter office contain railroad tickets. These are kept on file for a certain time and then destroyed. In his confession Moore said there was no chance of

ALMOST READY TO SIGN TREATY

SAKHALIN QUESTION SETTLED AMICABLY

TROOPS WILL BE WITHDRAWN

Interrupted Communication With Japan, Owing to Recent Typhoon, May Perhaps Occasion Some Slight Delay

By Associated Press. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 2.—The "treaty of Portsmouth" will consist of 17 articles, preceded by a short preamble in which, it is asserted on good authority, no allusion will be made to the action displayed by President Roosevelt in bringing about the peace conference which led to the conclusion of the treaty.

The last point in dispute was arranged at a meeting of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries which ended at 11 o'clock tonight. As the plenipotentiaries emerged from M. Witte's room Baron de Rosen was asked if a final agreement had been reached. He did not answer. "Will there be a meeting tomorrow?" "No," he replied. "There is no necessity for one; the clerks can do the rest."

The articles relating to the non-fortification of the island of Sakhalin and La Perouse straits and the evacuation of Manchuria were settled. Both parties bind themselves not to fortify the island. La Perouse is to be "open" and Japan agrees not to erect works to command the strait.

The article relating to the evacuation of Manchuria provides that the troops, immediately upon the exchange of final ratifications, are to be withdrawn respectively to the lines of Mukden and Harbin.

The number of railway guards in ordinary times is limited, but provision is made for the dispatch of troops for the protection of the line in case of disorders, upon condition that they are immediately withdrawn when their mission is finished. There are said to be four "annexes" to the treaty covering matters which could not be elaborated in the treaty itself.

No Word Comes From Japan

The interruption of communication with Japan may delay slightly the signing of the treaty. The Associated Press can state definitely that no messages have reached the Japanese envoys for four days, and they are now proceeding under their general instructions.

A cable has been received from the Japanese consul at Hongkong saying that he could not tell when communication would be restored. The typhoon which interrupted communication was very severe, but it is not known whether it affected both the land and submarine lines.

Baron Komura has not yet decided whether, upon the engrossment of the treaty, he will assume the responsibility of signing it without direct authorization. If he does not, however, the delay would be only a matter of two or three days, as a special steamer could go from Shanghai to Nagasaki in fifty hours.

The Japanese say the emperor's failure to send a message of thanks to President Roosevelt is undoubtedly due to the interruption.

MOBILIZATION GOES ON

Men and Supplies Still Being Shipped to Manchuria

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2.—The Associated Press was informed at the war office at 4 o'clock this afternoon that no formal orders have yet been given regarding the armistice, that no steps have yet been taken to terminate the movement of troops going to the far east and that the recent mobilization has not been discontinued. In fact, no steps whatever have yet been taken toward putting an end to the regular work of shipping men and supplies to Manchuria or any other business connected with keeping the Manchurian army on a war footing. The explanation was that no orders would be given to these ends until the details of the formal announcement of an armistice are fully understood.

A LETTER TO OUR READERS

83 Cottage street, Melrose, Mass. Dear Sir: Jan. 11, 1904. "Ever since I was in the army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition. I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am "Very truly yours,"

"L. C. RICHARDSON." You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DENVER SWARMS WITH VETERANS

Honor of Grand Army of the Republic Call Forth Unstinted Praise

By Associated Press. DENVER, Sept. 2.—Arrivals of civil war veterans and of tourists who have taken advantage of the cent a mile rate made by the railroads for the forty-ninth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be held in Denver September 4 to 9, were very heavy today on all lines entering the city. Commander in Chief John P. King and party, who came west in a special train over the Burlington road, arrived at 9 o'clock today and were escorted by a band and the local reception committee to the Brown Palace hotel, where official headquarters were opened.

"From reports I have received," said General King, in an interview today, "I believe the Denver encampment will be one of the most successful and memorable in the history of the Grand Army. Thousands of comrades are on their way from all parts of the country and the Denver reunion will be one of the greatest ever held."

One of the most important works of the encampment, in which the G. A. R. and all its auxiliaries are equally interested, is the revival of the plans for a new national soldiers' and sailors' home at Washington, D. C. The most enthusiastic supporters of the movement are members of the department of the Potomac.

Nearly 10,000 strangers arrived in the city during the twenty-four hours ending at midnight tonight, and the arrivals during the last three days are estimated at 20,000.

The decorations and illuminations of the city's main streets in honor of the old soldiers are said by the visitors generally to be the most elaborate and handsome ever witnessed in any American city.
