

NEW YORK WINS FIRST OF SERIES

MATTHEWSON PITCHES TEAM TO VICTORY

Philadelphia Claimants for World's Championship Shut Out by the Giants—Plank Found for Ten Hits

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Masterly pitching by Christy Mathewson, backed up by glib-edged playing by the team behind him, gave the New York National league champions a victory today over the Philadelphia league pennant winners in the first series of seven games for the world's championship.

New York's great pitcher mowed down the home players in almost one, two, three order. Of the 31 men who faced him, only eight reached first, four of them on hits, three on fielders' chances and one on Donlin's miff of a short fly. Only one man—Schreck—reached third, and he was thrown out at the plate on a close play.

Giants Run Bases Well
New York also excelled in base running, four of the visitors being credited with stolen bases. The only department where Philadelphia played up to the standard of the New Yorkers was in fielding. They gave Plank as brilliant support as has been seen here for a long time.

Monte Cross at short and Captain Lave Cross at third made some phenomenal stops and quick throws while on the run. The quick throw without an error. For New York Dahlen and Devlin were all over the infield, the latter making several hard stops and throws. Donlin made New York's only misplay. He started late on a short fly ball and muffed it. It resulted in nothing, as the runner was doubled up at second on the next play.

Mathewson Gets a Hit
Mathewson singled to second in the second inning, but was forced at second by Bresnahan, who stole second. Browne was an easy out and Bresnahan scored on Donlin's single to left field. McGann was purposely sent to the center field crowd with center fielder McGann on the run.

Mathewson's sacrifice
The visitors scored their third run in the ninth on Gilbert's third hit of the day, Mathewson's sacrifice and Bresnahan's single.

Philadelphia came to scoring was in the sixth inning, when Schreck opened the inning with a beautiful drive for two bases. He reached third on Plank's sacrifice but was thrown out at the plate by Matthews, who gathered in Hartzell's sharp grounder.

Big Crowd on Field
At 1 o'clock, two hours before the game was scheduled to start, the pavilion was crowded. The bleachers were crowded to their capacity, and the late comers were allowed to sit or stand behind the ropes in the outfield or sit on the fence.

There were about 22,000 persons present when play began at 3:05 o'clock. The batting order was as follows:
New York Philadelphia.
Bresnahan, c. Hartzell, 1f.

First Inning

Mathewson soon recovered and resumed his place in the pitcher's box. Murphy struck out, the first man that Mathewson fanned. M. Cross out, Devlin to McGann. No runs.

Sixth Inning

Second half—Hartzell out, Dahlen to McGann. Lord struck out. Davis hit into the right field crowd for a double. L. Cross was thrown out by Devlin. No runs.

While the interest in the series is widespread, the crowd was not as large as that which saw any one of the three games between the home team and Philadelphia when they played their series about ten days ago for first place.

EAST HAS BASEBALL FRENZY

Championship Struggle Attracts Attention of Fans—Excitement at Chicago-Philadelphia Game

Frenzied baseball and nothing less is the condition of affairs in the east at present, and at Philadelphia, where the world's championship series is in progress, the public demonstrations are a cause of amazement to men who have grown old in the promotion of the national sport.

The games immediately preceding the championship contests created practically as much interest as the struggles which are now commanding the attention of the country, and one of the most wonderful crowds in the history of Quaker city baseball assembled to witness the game between the Chicago White Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics September 29.

As early as 9 o'clock in the morning fans were clamoring for admission and by 1 o'clock the grandstands were packed to suffocation. The police seemed so many puppets before the surging throng, which ranged over every available spot within sight of the diamond. When grandstands, bleachers, wagons in the streets and the roofs of near-by houses were black with the populace 10,000 frantic men and women crushed in vain against the closed gates, seeking admission.

The game finally went to Chicago by a score of 4 to 3, but not without a heart breaking struggle that kept the onlookers in a tremble of excitement through one of the greatest exhibitions of the country has ever witnessed.

What some have named the most thrilling demonstration ever accorded in the annals of the game occurred when Murphy, the famous second baseman of the Athletics, raised the ball over the fence. Not a person in the crowd of thirty thousand but begged the player to name what he wished in the way of wordly blessings as he tripped across the plate.

JOHNSON OUT WITH CHALLENGE

WILL PUT ANY MAN BUT JEFF OUT IN TEN ROUNDS

Negro Champ Agrees to Fight Jim in Private or Close Doors of the Pavilion and See Who Comes Out First

Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion, is wrought up over the charges of "yellowism" that have been hurled at him, and declares he will meet any man in the world and agree to put him out in ten rounds, James J. Jeffries excepted. Any division of the purse, he says, will be agreeable to him, and if he fails to put his man away in the aforesaid time he wants nothing more than training expenses.

Johnson is evidently more than anxious to get on with some one, in addition to the agreement which calls for the ending of any heavyweight within the ten round limit, barring the retired champion, in a letter to The Herald yesterday makes the following declaration:
"I will fight Jim Jeffries in private or go to the pavilion, close the doors and see which will come out first. This goes for Jim Jeffries and those who think that I have got a yellow streak."

"ARTHUR JOHNSON,"
Since his go with Marvin Hart there has been nothing doing for him in the way of big game, and the west has let him out of the fighting possibilities.

In the east, however, he took on nine fights after the Hart affair, and in all but one instance scored a knockout. His best record in Philadelphia and Boston ran like this: Jim Jeffries knocked out in three rounds; fight with Jack Munroe stopped in the sixth; Joe Gennet knocked out in three rounds; Walter Johnson knocked out in the fourth; and in Philadelphia he put Joe Graham down twenty times. He received the decision over Ferguson in seven rounds at Boston. Mose Harris and Black Bill were put away in three rounds each during one evening.

THINKS BROTHER A WINNER
Jack Sullivan Believes Mike Can Defeat Gardner and Should Meet Nelson

Mike "Twin" Sullivan may not reach the city in time to assist his brother Jack, who is training for the go with Tommy Burns on October 17. He is awaiting the decision of the northern managers regarding the forfeit which he put up for a match with Jimmy Gardner, and if the articles can be framed he will do his training at San Francisco.

Asked for an opinion of his brother's chances with Gardner should they get together, Jack stated yesterday that he looked for a Sullivan decision.

"In the two draws which they had in Massachusetts Mike had a shade the better of the milling, and I believe that he can stand punishment better than Gardner. At his weight I regard him as the best man in the world."

Should the men meet Sullivan will weigh 133 at 3 o'clock and Gardner's weight is 138. It is generally conceded if Mike Sullivan can concede Gardner five pounds and earn a decision he stands as the man to give Nelson his hardest battle.

The men have met twice. The first fight ended in a fifteen round draw at Lowell, Mass., and the second resulted in a six round draw at Boston.

Jack has taken on Johnson as a snarling partner, and yesterday went through a light four round fight with Duke Hunter at the pavilion. He is down to 154 and doing enough work to keep his wind in condition. Sullivan declares he will weigh 150 at 3 o'clock on the day of the fight and will enter the ring at 154.

NELSON WINS IN COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Battling Nelson won a victory over James Coffey, James E. Britt, the Moco-Photo company and Miles brothers today when Judge Seawell granted his motion for the appointment of a receiver for the moving picture exhibit of the fight at Colma. The receiver, however, will only take charge of the property in this state and will not interfere with the exhibitions to be given outside the state. Judge Seawell denied the application for an injunction holding that the pictures were of great value more from lying idle than from being exhibited. Marcus J. Kast of the Cosmos club was appointed receiver. He is to file a bond for $10,000.

EXPRESS MESSENGER SHOT BY HIGHWAYMAN

ATTEMPTS TO HOLD UP STAGE NEAR REDDING

D. N. Haskell is Severely Wounded, but Robber Falls to Secure Plunder—Possé in Pursuit of Bandit and May Lynch Him if Caught

By Associated Press.
REDDING, Oct. 9.—A single highwayman held up the Redding-Delamar stage today at 11 o'clock and shot and perhaps fatally wounded Wells Fargo & Co.'s express messenger D. N. Haskell. The stage was conveying money from this city to the employes on the Bully Hill mine. The messenger occupied the second seat. At a point three miles west of the Pit river bridge a masked man halted the stage, when Haskell levelled his shotgun at the robber. The latter fired. One bullet pierced Haskell's abdomen and the other hit him near the foot. The sheriff and big posse are now out.

The wife of the messenger with Dr. White and Express Agent Dunn have gone to the scene. Haskell is one of the most popular messengers in the employ of the company and the robber may be lynched if caught. Stage-Driver Durfor outran the robber and the specie was saved.

Known for His Bravery
By Associated Press.
SAN JOSE, Cal., Oct. 9.—D. N. Haskell, or "Dan," as he was familiarly called by his hundreds of close friends in this city, was formerly chief of police of San Jose and he has made an enviable record for fearlessness. It was the reputation made by him here that led to his selection by the express company as messenger over a route which at that time was particularly dangerous. He was the most popular and the most successful chief San Jose has ever had. His name was a terror to all criminals, yet he was uniformly pleasant, genial and thoroughly likeable.

SERAPHS READY FOR TACOMA

Local Fans Hope to See Angelic Team Near the Top at the End of the Series

Opening with Tacoma tomorrow afternoon for a series of twelve games, the Seraphs settle down for the final struggle of eight weeks which is to determine on whose pole the bunting will flutter at the end of the season's second half.

Morley's men arrived yesterday morning on the Owl, and all are in prime condition with the exception of Bernard, who may possibly lay off a day or so.

The usual Tuesday game will not be played by reason of the fact that the tailenders were not able to make arrangements for reaching this city before tomorrow morning.

While Oakland is still in the lead and putting up a winning game of ball, Angel city fans are confident that the Seraphs may find the Seraphs near the top, and the optimistic ones are looking for a first place by the time Seattle arrives for the next series.

Portland will follow Seattle for five games, when Tacoma returns for seven. Seattle will make its last appearance for six and the concluding games will be played with Portland and Tacoma.

The reports of the championship series now being played at Philadelphia and New York are confident that the tailenders were not able to make arrangements for reaching this city before tomorrow morning.
