

SAVING INDIANS ARE DESPOILED

FRIENDS OF DEPENDENTS IN CONFERENCE

Dr. Lyman Abbott Points Out Evils of System in Vogue Where the Whites Exploit Thrifty Tribes

By Associated Press. LAKE MOHONK, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The Lake Mohonk conference of Friends of Indians and other dependent peoples was opened today by Alfred K. Smiley.

Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, was introduced as the presiding officer. He delivered the principal address, saying in part:

"It is the American conscience that creates the Indian problem. The American conscience asks not 'What shall we do?' but 'What ought we to do?'"

"How shall sixty millions of people, themselves imperfectly civilized, civilize three hundred thousand men, women and children, foreign in race, in language, in custom and in religion?"

"I received last week from Miss Annie Beecher Scoville a letter describing certain conditions, as she found them, at the Winnebago agency in Nebraska. It said:

"This tribe fifteen or twenty years ago was considered one of the thriftiest, hardest worked tribes in the country, so we got their land allotted and the Dawes bill gave them citizenship. At once a system of leasing and buying their land began to grow and the people were weakened by a worse system than rationing."

"Ten years ago an order went into effect that healthful land could be sold, and since that all work ceased. Drink and gambling run riot."

Self Liquor to Indians

"The evils here described are aggravated as a result of the direction of the United States supreme court that the Indians who have received their allotment of land and become a citizen can no longer be prevented from purchasing liquor under reservation regulations."

"This triple process, essential to civilization and to free institutions, results in an illustration in our own dealings with the negro race. The country is beginning to see that to make the negro safe to his neighbor and to himself, to make him a civilized human being, moral development must keep pace with the intellectual culture and with the political emancipation."

Dr. Abbott was followed by Miss Emily S. Cooke of the Indian office, who spoke on the "Resume of the Year's Work of the Indian Bureau."

Ready to Rob Indians

Miss Cooke said in part: "The enrollment of Indian pupils in schools during the year ended June 30, 1905, exclusive of the New York Indians and the five civilized tribes, has aggregated 30,196, about 600 more than during 1904. Of the 2400 persons employed in Indian schools one-third are Indians."

"From the sale of inherited lands the Indians are to gain large revenues, of which their white neighbors stand ready to despoil them forthwith. The leasing of Indian lands, allotted and unallotted, assumes larger proportions each year. This gives money to the Indians and work to the agents, but has little tendency to forward the Indians' civilization."

"The decision of the supreme court of the United States in the Heff case that it is not illegal to sell liquor to an Indian allottee when he is off a reservation added vastly to the difficulty of keeping Indians away from liquor, and a fund to be used in obtaining evidence and prosecuting those who sell liquor to Indians, is more seriously needed than ever."

DENY BOMBARDMENT ORDER

French Officials Say Cruiser Was Not Sent to Attack Venezuelan Cities

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 18.—The French armored cruiser De Saix, understood to be bound for Venezuelan waters, did not put into Brest after leaving Cherbourg October 16, as it was announced she would do.

The ship headed for the French Antilles, where she will join the cruisers Troude and Jurien de la Graviere. For the present the other two cruisers will be held at Brest, as the situation may not require their presence in West Indian waters.

The officials say that the published report that the French squadron intends to bombard some coast point or else seize Venezuelan shipping is an exaggeration of the strike. The decision arrived at to have ships in readiness, the nature of the demonstration being determined on later if the attitude of Venezuela requires a resort to force.

Shaw Has a Scheme to Save Miss Roosevelt From Paying Tolls on Presents

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington, D. C., says: Secretary Shaw said yesterday an offer will be made to the president to seek authority from congress to refund to Miss Alice Roosevelt whatever amount may be collected from her in the way of duties when she returns.

This course is prompted by what he considers an injustice of the law in her special case. He points out that money in presents were not only not collected but she had no desire to receive them.

She was compelled to do so, however, or else offend those who offered them and thus make enemies for her country. The secretary said there were no laws under which Miss Roosevelt was exempt from paying the duty on this great accumulation of unsought gifts. DEGRAS BATTLE WITH ARMOURS

INTERSTATE COMMISSION IS INVESTIGATING

Private Car Lines Will Be Involved in Legal War—Railroads Give Lower Rate for Refrigeration

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—What promises to extend into a legal and legislative battle among private car lines was precipitated by the interstate commerce commission by the course chosen today at the beginning of the hearing instituted to show the connection between refrigerator lines and railroads.

Counsel for the commission directed every effort to bring out the fact that great railroad systems operating their own refrigerator lines give to their shippers a much lower rate for refrigeration than is obtained on roads that are compelled to operate in connection with private car lines. In this the railroads, notably the Illinois Central and the Pennsylvania, through their traffic and freight managers, who were in the stand the greater part of the day, apparently aided the commission.

As a result there were many sharp tilts between the counsel for the commission and the attorneys for the Armour car lines and other private car companies.

The action of the commission in instituting the prosecuting of the complaints has the double purpose of establishing its jurisdiction over private car lines and correcting the evils complained of. The chief contest expected to develop on the point of jurisdiction.

Armour's Attorney Objects

Chairman Knapp open the hearing by reviewing the proceedings instituted against the Armour car lines, which was directed against practically all of the roads of the southeastern part of the United States and the Armour car lines.

Frank Barry, who represented the interstate commerce commission in bringing out the evidence and examining witnesses, stated that several roads had not filed contracts existing with car lines and a list of these were called for by Chairman Knapp.

Mr. Knapp, on the other hand, objected to proceeding until the commission had announced the general scope and purposes of the inquiry and indicated whether this is to be a concrete finding on which some subsequent proceeding could be had.

The commission after consultation announced that formal complaints had been filed against specific companies to ascertain whether their charges are reasonable or if discriminations are made against any person or company. It was not prepared to say what its subsequent course would be.

Chairman Knapp said he presumed it would be the duty of the commission to make a definite order against any defendant in any person or company. The regulations or to dismiss proceedings in specific cases where the proofs sustain the denials of any one or more railroad or carlines. The hearing will be continued tomorrow.

Imperial Edict Instructs Viceroy and Governors to Stop the Movement

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Mr. Rockhill, American minister to China, has sent to the state department the translation of an imperial Chinese edict, published on August 31, 1905.

The edict states that whereas it has been shown that the American government in the future is willing to give the most courteous treatment to all Chinese students, travelers, teachers and merchants, there is no reason why the people should go on with their boycott against American goods.

And on account of this the viceroys and governors of the present provinces will be held responsible for any disturbance and are ordered to arrest any person making himself guilty of such.

QUARREL OVER ESTATE

Alleged Heirs to Property in Litigation Sue for $500,000 Held by Reuben Lloyd

By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Persons alleging themselves to be heirs at law of the late Isabella Levy filed suit today to set aside deeds to property valued at more than $500,000 now held by Reuben H. Lloyd. The property in question was conveyed to Mr. Lloyd, who is among the most prominent attorneys in the city, by Mrs. Levy.

Now come Sylvia, Leon, Samuel and Leopold Levy, Mithildis Veiller and Françoise Correz who assert that they are co-heirs of the deceased, and ask that the court set aside the deeds and place them in possession of what they allege is legally theirs.

They charge Mr. Lloyd with having taken advantage of his position as attorney and confidential adviser to Mrs. Levy, and assert that he worked upon her mind, weakened through disease.

Lloyd says it is all blackmail and that he can prove it, defining his position in the case in the following words: "The stand the greater part of the day, apparently aided the commission by the course chosen today at the beginning of the hearing instituted to show the connection between refrigerator lines and railroads."

"The gift was an expression of the gratitude Mrs. Levy felt for the many acts of assistance I had bestowed upon her, and I am confident that she would have given me this property, and I shall keep it, as I have the lawful right to do. This suit has been filed by persons who sought by every means to compel me to yield to their demands. I have steadfastly refused and intend to continue to do so, believing that in the first place it is my duty as a citizen to resist the efforts of blackmailers and second that as an individual it is my right to keep that which is mine."

FIGHTS FOR HER CHILDREN

Mrs. Grace Taggart Will Try to Maintain Possession of Her Boys

By Associated Press. WOOSTER, O., Oct. 18.—That Mrs. Grace Taggart will make a long fight for the custody of her sons, Culver and Fiddie, was made plain tonight. Capt. Taylor, one of the attorneys for Mrs. Taggart, gave notice of appeal from Judge Eason's decision as to the custody of the boys, and a bond of $4000 was furnished, so as to take the matter to the courts for trial.

The Ohio law which gives a child of 10 or over the right to elect with which parent he prefers to live is to be made the basis of the appeal. This action was taken by Mrs. Taggart sending word that he wanted Culver ready to leave with him tonight for Columbus, although he had not intended taking the boy away until Saturday.

SHONTS SAYS CANAL CONDITION IS IMPROVED

MANY SANITARY MEASURES IN PROGRESS

Works Being Completed Which Will Be of Great Assistance in Handling Freight—No Definite Information Regarding Level or Lock Plans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Chairman Shonts of the isthmian canal commission made this statement of his observations on the isthmus of Panama during his recent visit:

"The most encouraging feature of affairs on the isthmus, observed by every person who has been there previously during the last six or eight months, was the feeling among the men, Chief Engineer Stevens' methods and personality are making a strong impression and creating confidence in his measures."

"I found that substantial progress has been made in the repairing and construction of houses. A large dock at Cristobal, which has 28 feet of water, will be ready for ships in a very few weeks. Repairing progress is being made on dock 14, also at Cristobal. Work on the new dock at La Boca is also being hurried. These docks will be equipped with modern machinery, which will largely facilitate the loading and unloading of the ships. When these docks are all accepted and in operation we shall be able to handle all the commission material and large part of the Panama commercial freight from these docks, leaving the old docks largely for the use of the private car lines."

"General health conditions are illustrated by the fact that notwithstanding we have increased the laboring force to nearly 4000 men during the last four months; the number of patients in Ancon hospital was lower than for many previous months."

"In addition to the fumigating of the houses at Panama and Colon, the isolation of the patients and the cutting of grass and vegetation all around the camps, the department is now thoroughly cleaning the cities of Panama and Colon, draining swamps near towns and camps, filling the lowest places and thus eradicating breeding places for mosquitoes."

Respecting the opinion of the engineering department on the relative merits of the tide level and lock canal plans, Mr. Shonts said that he did not know for what the members stood, nor had they indicated that they had reached any conclusion.

ANOTHER CLAIMANT APPEARS

Careaga Case Is Still Further Complicated by Possible Suit of Mrs. Galbreith

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 18.—There is the possibility of another contest in the Careaga estate that will further tangle up the title to rich oil and ranch lands left by the late Juan B. Careaga. Two actions are now pending in the superior court and the recent sensational case of Mrs. Sammann in which she established her right to one-fourth of the estate by proving that she was a child of Careaga, has been completed.

Another action similar to hers may be brought to prove the right of a minor child, Dora Galbreith to a one-third interest of the Jose Careaga share of the rich estate.

Mrs. Galbreith is a former McDougall of San Juan. She asserts that Jose is the father of her child and that she has the written acknowledgment of Jose to that effect. Jose's interest in the estate is represented by his widow, Molly Dana Careaga, the guardian of her minor child Modesta. It is understood that the new claimant will be represented by the same attorneys who successfully conducted Mrs. Sammann's case. The complications of law that are involved in this estate and the peculiar family relations brought out in the recent trial are attracting wide attention. It is believed that the estate will be settled in a few days.

DECIDES AGAINST A STRIKE

Russian Railway Employes in National Congress Vote to Remain at Work

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.—Though the suspension of work at the factories today on account of its being the name day of the heir to the throne, the infant Grand Duke Alexis Michaelovitch, caused large gatherings of workmen in the streets in the industrial quarters, no disorders were reported up to 6 o'clock this evening.

Along Schlussenburg avenue, where the disorders of yesterday occurred, there was a great display of military force, which overawed the disorderly spirits. The feeling of tension was very evident.

In the center of the city the streets were quieter than usual. The students did not attempt to make the planned demonstration in front of the Kazan central.

The National Congress of Railway employes has decided against a general strike.

This evening crowds near the Pahl and Nevsky works emboldened by the absence of the gendarmes for the street cars. The sidewalks were cleared by Cossacks, who used the flats of their swords.

RENO, Nev., Oct. 18.—In defiance of the laws of the United States a mob estimated at five hundred persons gathered at Sparks, four miles east of here, at 9 o'clock tonight and by force tore the fixtures and lock boxes from the postoffice building, piled packages, letters, papers and other contents in the street, and then moved the building to a better location in what is known as the Courtland building, nearer the center of the town.
