SIWASHES BOMBARD BAUM
FOR SIXTEEN HITS

Morleyites Lose Their Usual Weekly
Game by Failing to Hit 'Em
Out at Opportune
Moments

Los Angeles 1, Seattle 7

After making a runaway race of the last half of the season's chase for the flag, the Seraphs were brought up with a sharp jerk yesterday and Seattle scampers away with the locals' scalp, tune being played in a 7 to 1 meter.

The Morleyites evidently became so intoxicated with the long string of victories that they didn't care so awful much about one wee game and thought to give the braves from the north one chance. They nabbed it.

However, Morley isn't of a grumbling nature when it comes to losing one game a week and says "we can't win every game." Yesterday's result sets no precedent for the future and the winning streak will be resumed today. It is Dolly Gray's turn to the slab and the upward climb is sure to be started again and then on for the sunning.

The way those Siwash took to Bones Baum was one shame. Sixteen hits, spread all over the scenery, was the way Morley's elongated human machine was treated and the swats were stuck in where they did the most good. Charlie Hall, who was the pie server for his eighteenth cousin, Russell Hall, was put in a pocket several times by the locals, but by hook or by crook, the pride of the bean fields escaped unscathed. No less than three times the Seraphs were occupying three nil lows at once, but in only one instance were they able to send a man over the spot which rings the bell.

Bobby Eager furnished the action for a lot of work by the noisy fans when he nailed a difficult foul back of third base, and sent Bennett back to the shade of the bench. Croll, in the left loft for Seattle, also grabbed a nice one out of the ozone, and brought down the house for a spell.

The Seraphs amused the spectators in the first round by pulling off as fancy a play as most of the fans on the local lot get a chance to see for the money.

With Bennett on third base Walters came through with a hot one that floored Eager after a gallant effort. The ball was fielded home and Eager tabbed Bennett just before the husky catcher went down for the count.

Walters tried to sneak down to second on the play, but Bones Baum was there with the eagle eye and grabbing the ball from the prostrate Eager, sent the sphere down to the keystone station in time to register a put out against the Indians.

That furnished the best part of the excitement and the other eight and a half innings read as follows:

"The ends are our weak position," said Manager Barrett yesterday afternoon, "and that is the reason that Stott, who is the best quarter of the squad, was to have played end."

Just who is to hold down right end will not be known until the arrival of the Stanford team this morning, but evidently there will be a weakness on the Cardinal line.

Hempel Shifts Men

Coach Hempel has shifted his team considerably and the line-up will present a different appearance as the men come on the field tomorrow afternoon.

With Neaphus at quarter the team will be an entirely different aggregation and the defense has been braced by sending Lugo behind the line, Torges goes to right end. With Galt and Magee as the other backs there will be three big men to meet the Cardinal offense.

The following statement from Hempel gives some idea as to the team's condition:

"Our boys were completely demoralized when Neaphus, Magee and Coleman were forced to leave the game early in the first half. That, together with the fact that the Berkeley game was our first hard contest, made it possible for Berkeley to run up such a score."

"We had some minor bruises and slight injuries, but the men will all be in good shape to play the game next Saturday and retrieve the poor showing of last week."

The only man seriously hurt was Loupy Lugo, a star player of last year, who filled in after Magee was kicked in the head. He has three fractured ribs and will not be able to play for some time. Neaphus' injury was only a slight one."

The line-up for the game is as follows:

STANFORD.	SHIRMAN.
Molano, 1b.	c. Coleman
Thompson, 1b.	f. g. Blacktooth
Crawford, 1b.	f. l. Lugo
Horton, 1b.	l. t. Coleman
Pemberton
Prizzle, 1b.	f. e. Scholder
Stanford, 1b.	f. g. Morales
Stott, 1b.	f. e. Kennedy
Chalmers, 1b.	f. l. Neaphus
E. Dole, 1b.	f. h. Lugo
Crowe, 1b.	f. b. Magee

Roesch of the High School has been chosen referee and the remaining officials will be chosen today.

HOLMES DEVELOPS UNIVERSITY TEAM

SQUAD IS SHOWING GREAT IMPROVEMENT

Raw Material Responds Readily to the Magic Touch of the Coach and a Promising Eleven Results

Slowly but surely Coach Holmes of the University of Southern California is rounding the raw material which formed the early season squad at the west end institution into a likely looking football team.

The games thus far have been with elevens whose strength did not warrant a comparison with the heavier teams of the south, but Holmes now declares that he has the team which will bring home the championship.

According to Holmes, the men average 165 pounds, which is not heavy for a college eleven. A glance at the Haigler brothers would lead one to believe that the figures were low, but there are several men whose weight is slight for a varsity team.

Frank Cass at right end is the lightest man on a college team in the south, tipping at 122 pounds. His age, which is fifteen years, also makes him resemble academic material, but Holmes speaks in the highest terms of the form which he has displayed in practice games during the season.

Ochoa at full back has developed into something of a place kicker and has put them over at forty yards.

Capt. Elliott at left end is one of the speediest men on the squad and extremely fast at getting down the field under punts.

Best at quarter is running the men in good style and there is not the continual fumbling that threatened to prove a serious factor against University success at the beginning of the season.

The Haigler boys stand head and shoulders above the remainder of the eleven in stature and are relied upon by Holmes to bear a good part of the brunt in the coming games.

The company F team will line up against the university men Saturday afternoon for another practice game. The former meeting of the elevens resulted in a score of 23 to 0 in favor of the university.

The following have made their positions with a list of others fighting it out for several undecided places:

POMONA TO PLAY UNIVERSITY

Resumption of Friendly Relations to Begin With Football Game

December 9

The game between Pomona and the university has been practically scheduled to occur December 9, as Coach Holmes of the university received a letter from the Pomona management yesterday asking for a game on that date.

Holmes said that he certainly would agree to the time and all that now remains to put the two colleges on a playing footing is to draw articles for the contest.

For several years the institutions severed football relations and local promoters of the sport are pleased at the revival of athletics.

OCCIDENTAL AND HIGH MAY PLAY SECOND GAME

DIFFERENCES AS TO HALVES HAS BEEN ADJUSTED

Coaches Merrill and Roesch Cast Aside Disagreements Over Time Limits and Prospects Are Bright for Another Meeting Between the Squads

The Los Angeles high school football team and the Occidental college eleven in all probability will meet for the second time on the gridiron before the season has closed.

Coach Merrill of the Highland Park team and Coach Roesch of the high school eleven expressed themselves yesterday as perfectly willing to play off the tie of two weeks ago, and the game may occur soon after the Belmont high school game on November 4.

Merrill, in speaking of the proposed game, said: "We are willing to meet high school for any length of time from five minutes to the limit. Roesch declared that two fifteen-minute halves would be acceptable, with the provision that the game is to occur after the meeting with Belmont."

It is safe to assume that a second struggle between the two elevens would be a drawing card, as in the previous contest high school had the best of the argument.

The collegians are steadily improving and have every confidence that they will be able to run an appreciable score on the academics.

The high school men, on the contrary, are anxious to have another try at Merrill's men and the tussle should result in a pretty struggle.

PASADENA HIGH PLAYS YALE

Crown City Eleven Averages 148 Pounds and Is Being Coached by Frampton of Throop

Frampton, the old Throop player, is coaching Pasadena high school and a game with the Yale military eleven has been scheduled for tomorrow at 3 o'clock on the Yale grounds.

The Pasadena eleven, many of whom are in the neighborhood of 148 pounds and line up as follows: Raymond Wheeler, r. e.; Day Evenfield, r
