

Plot Against Life of Witte

Revolutionists Unearth a Conspiracy

Reformers Will Guard Premier—St. Petersburg Excited Over Report That General Massacre of Jews is Planned

succeeds Prince Hillkoff of minister of communications. The constitutional democrats consider that they have won a great victory by preventing any leaders of the constitutional group from accepting office, saying that Count Witte's ministry is thus stamped purely temporary and must give way immediately upon the convening of the national assembly to a cabinet in full sympathy with the parliamentary majority.

Invitation to Tolstoy Count Witte has invited Count Tolstoy, who resigns the position as head of the academy of fine arts, owing to Gen. Trepoff's reserve policy, to take the portfolio of education.

Outbreaks Are Threatened MOSCOW, Nov. 10.—Alarming reports are in circulation that anti-Jewish outbreaks will occur simultaneously here and at St. Petersburg Sunday next.

Russian Sailors Mutiny LONDON, Nov. 11.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Bucharest says that the sailors of the Russian steamer Ismael, bound out from Odessa November 8 with refugees, mutinied at sea and threatened the passengers with death unless they gave them money and jewelry and that those unable to do so were thrown overboard.

ALTRUISM IN MEDICINE Doctor Says Welfare of Others, Not Money, Should Be First Thought

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The importance of altruism in the medical profession was emphasized at last night's session of the American Academy of Medical Science. In his address before the delegates Winfield S. Hall of Chicago said the welfare of others should be the dominating principle of physicians without thought of the pecuniary reward.

HUMAN STONE QUARRY Four Thousand Pieces of Rock Are Removed From a Man's Body

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune from St. Cloud, Minn., says: John Janski of this city, aged 22, is a human stone quarry. Fourteen months ago he was the victim of an explosion in a stone quarry and ever since then the doctors have been prospecting, every time with good results.

BANK ROBBERS FOILED Blow Off Door of Vault, but Are Frightened Away by a Watchman

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Nov. 10.—Safe crackers entered the Farmers Co-operative Union bank in Yuba City some time last night and blew off the outside door of the vault, but were frightened away before completing the work by Officer Nye, who heard the explosion from a distance, and made an investigation but did not see that the glass was broken from the front door and that the bank doors were open. The tools for breaking the combination from the door were stolen from an adjoining blacksmith shop and a crowbar was stolen from the Southern Pacific section house.

PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS Representatives of Countries Concerned Will Decide on Meeting Place December 7

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The diplomatic representatives of the South American republic to this country will meet on December 7, which country will be designated as the meeting place of the next Pan-American congress, which is to assemble in 1907, according to the decision taken in the last congress at Mexico City in 1902.

Natives Beaten by Germans BELLINGHAM, Nov. 10.—Major Count Adolf von Goetzen, governor of German East Africa, reports by way of Cape Town that the insurgents have been beaten in five fights near Songea, and that 4000 Swahili rebels were defeated October 21 near Nyambougou. The German troops had no casualties but the insurgents suffered heavy losses.

Mayor Approves Water Bonds SAN DIEGO, Nov. 11.—The mayor of this city has signed the bonds recently issued for water system improvements. The issue was for $125,000 and they were bought for $100 premium.

MINING MAN MISSING No Trace of J. W. Tisdale, Who Disappeared From a New York Hotel Monday

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—In spite of an exhaustive search continued yesterday for John W. Tisdale, a wealthy western mine owner who disappeared from the Hotel Seville Monday noon, no trace of him was found yesterday. So alarmed has his wife become that her condition is regarded as critical.

RAISED TO THE PEERAGE A. J. Forbes-Leith, Former Resident of Chicago, Given Title by King Edward

LONDON, Nov. 10.—King Edward's birthday honor list includes the raising to the peerage of Alexander J. Forbes-Leith, who was formerly a resident of Chicago and who married Miss Marie January of St. Louis. The honor was conferred for the services rendered by Mr. Forbes-Leith in organizing a system for the providing of volunteers and in providing supplies during the South African war.

DEATH OF MIDSHIPMAN ASKS BONAPARTE FOR REPORT ON THE CASE Secretary Calls Upon Admiral Sands, Superintendent of Naval Academy, for Information Regarding Affairs. Statement is Expected Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president has called upon Secretary Bonaparte for a report on certain features of the case of Midshipman Branch, who died at the naval academy at Annapolis in a glove contest with another midshipman.

DEATHS OF THE DAY John Dixon, Kansas City; Horace Lewis Smith, Brookline; Col. S. F. Scott, Kansas City; KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—John Dixon, formerly private secretary to United States Senator Wm. A. Clark of Montana, was found dead in his room in a local hotel today. Dixon had been ill for some time.

MIKADO RECEIVES RUSSIANS Grants Audience to Commissioner General Daniloff and Suite

TOKIO, Nov. 10, 5:30 p. m.—The emperor gave an audience to the Russian commissioner, General Daniloff, and suite today, and graciously welcomed them as the first Russians to visit his country since the Russian cruiser Bogatyr on October 29 last.

CHICAGO FEARS STRIKE Walkout May Occur in Water Pumping and Electric Plants of the City

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Two departments of the city service, the water pumping stations and the electric lighting plant, may be involved in a strike tomorrow.

Football Player's Injuries Fatal COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Nov. 10.—Herman G. Norgaard, a member of the local high school football team, died today from an abscess of the brain brought on by injuries received in a game at Harlan, Iowa, about two weeks ago.

INDIAN ASSOCIATION MEETS SAN JOSE, Nov. 10.—The Northern California Indian Association met in annual session here today. The following new officers were elected: President, Mrs. T. C. Edwards; vice presidents, Mrs. David Starr Jordan, Mrs. George C. Pardee, Mrs. J. R. Lewis, Miss Jennie Pardee, Mrs. Ed Williams; corresponding secretary, Miss Cornelia Taber; treasurer, Miss S. B. Gilechrist; secretary, Miss S. W. Gilechrist; directors, Mrs. C. W. Gilechrist, Mrs. T. C. Edwards, Mrs. Hanna Bean, Mrs. T. Ellard Bean, Mrs. A. Taber, Mrs. A. S. Bacon, Miss Cornelia Taber, Judge L. R. Lewis, Rev. E. Sydney Williams, Rev. H. C. Meredith and C. E. Kelsey.

Southern Pacific Train Ditched at Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Police Suspect Incendiarism

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

Woman Tells of Mysterious Man Leaving Incomplete Building a Few Minutes Before Flames Were Discovered

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their daily mission work in this city today by an all-day meeting.

THE JAR OF COUGHING Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest cough. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the hard coughing. Consult your doctor freely about this. We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

CONSULS MUST BE EXAMINED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today signed two orders relative to appointments in the foreign service. One directs that all consuls who are appointed must pass the examination that is now prescribed for consular officers receiving salaries of $2500 or less. The order provides for an examination of secretaries of legations, who must understand at least one modern language.

WOMAN TELLS OF MYSTERIOUS MAN LEAVING INCOMPLETE BUILDING A FEW MINUTES BEFORE FLAMES WERE DISCOVERED

Sturtevant by what they believe was a bold attempt at incendiarism the police last evening detailed Patrolman Lenox to investigate the fire that originated in the new hotel which is being built Grand avenue from the Fleur de Lis, on South Grand.

THINK GRAND AVENUE HOUSE WAS SET ON FIRE

Information reached the police that Mrs. Scott, living near by, had reason to suspect incendiaries. An investigation revealed that a man, attired in black, with a black hat, of light complexion, and wearing "sneak" shoes had hastily left the building a short time after the fire had been discovered.

Freight Cars Are Wrecked Southern Pacific Train Ditched at a Crossing in Tropic—Traffic Not Delayed

TROPIC, Nov. 10.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad at this place this morning about ten o'clock near the intersection of Tropic avenue with the Southern Pacific tracks. The flanges on the wheels of a freight car belonging to a southbound train rode the rail, and when the car reached a cattle-guard the truck fell into the pit.

Peniel Missionary Anniversary The Peniel hall missionaries will celebrate the nineteenth