LOS ANGELES GIRL WEDS PHYSICIAN

MISS VIRGINIA C. BRADLEY IS MARRIED

Home of Bride's Mother Elaborately Decorated for Affair—Many Social Events for Today

Miss Virginia C. Bradley, daughter of Mrs. Lulu Warrenton of 1422 West Eighth street, was married yesterday at 1:30 o'clock at her home to Dr. A. S. Zimmerman, Rev. Baker P. Lee of Christ's Episcopal church performing the ceremony.

Dr. J. S. Cook and Miss Viola Talamoni were the attendants and the ring bearer and flower girl were Miss Gilbert Hertzler and Madeline Easton. The rooms were elaborately trimmed in pink carnations and smilax. White organdie and point lace, made over white mull, formed the bride's gown.

After the service a wedding breakfast was served and the bride and groom left for Santa Inez, where Dr. Zimmerman is practicing.

Wednesday Morning Club Reception

The Wednesday Morning club gave its annual reception to new members yesterday in the East Side Congregational church. An elaborate color scheme in pink and green was worked out in pink chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax. Refreshments were served and a program of music was given by the following: Piano solo, Miss Anita Burchell, Mrs. Harriet B. Best, M. W. King, Miss Ozelle Dawson, Mme. Gordon-Norman, Miss Edna Sutton. The hostesses were Meses. Owen McAleer, R. C. P. Smith, J. S. McLean, W. C. Bush and A. M. Foster.

For Eastern Friends

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton are entertaining some eastern friends today with a Thanksgiving dinner at Alpina tavern. The party consists of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wood and Miss Wood of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Church of Minneapolis, Miss Alice Forbes, Miss Florence Wakefield, Hector Downey and Wilber M. Brown.

Engagement

The engagement is announced of Miss Grace L. Harrison, daughter of Assistant Postmaster W. H. Harrison, to Joseph M. Brown. The wedding date will not be set until the return of Miss Harrison from Chicago, where she is studying music.

Bridal Honors

In honor of Miss Alice Gwynne and Frank Gillette, who are to be married next week, Charles Hopper entertained a special dinner at the club last evening and the California club. The decorations were in the Berkeley colors, blue and gold, reminiscent of Mr. Gillette's college days, chrysanthemums and violets being employed to carry out the color scheme.

Sorority Meeting

Miss Juanita Lane of 951 Grattan street was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a jolly meeting of the Kappa Nu Sorority girls. Ferns, smilax and flowers were used in the table decorations. The menu was particularly attractive, decorative scheme, yellow and green being the predominating colors. Domino whist and hearts were played and pretty prizes awarded.

Luncheon for Ten

Mrs. J. S. Brooks of 138 Avenue Fifty-eight gave a pretty luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Marion George and Mrs. Henrietta Kyle, who were also her guests at the meeting of the Highland Park Ebell earlier in the day. Covers were laid for ten and the table was trimmed in pink, with a centerpiece of pink roses. The place cards were in rosebud and of the same tint. The bonbon boxes were rose-shaped. Those at table included Mrs. Emma Greenleaf, Mrs. M. T. McNeish, Mrs. Adelaide Ritchie, Mrs. Mary G. Osmond, Miss Isabelle Grant and Mrs. Jane M. Beatty.

Social Notes

The Ladies' Aid society of the Boyle Heights Christian church will hold a bazaar December 7-8. There will be a display of fancy and useful articles, all handmade. In addition to these there will be potted plants, candy and home cooking for sale.

Miss Mary Schenck, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Schenck of South Pasadena, was married last evening at her home to Henry Clarence Wilson. The attendants were Miss Susie Schenck, the bride's sister, and Ralph Wilson, brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Braun of 15 Chester place have as their dinner guests today Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggins. Mrs. Nelson Walker gave a tea yesterday in honor of her guest, Miss Cora Wood of Chicago.

BREAKS FRIEND'S ARM WITH HEARTY HANDSHAKE

Overjoyed at meeting an old friend whom he had not seen in five weeks, Tom Rollo, proprietor of the Union bar at Fifth and San Pedro streets, last evening grasped F. E. Chin's hand, but in shaking hands in a violent manner Rollo broke Chin's right forearm with a single twist. Chin felt the sting of pain, but did not wince and when Rollo let the hand fall from his grasp it dropped limp at the mechanic's side. Upon examination it was found that Chin's forearm was broken. He was at once sent to the receiving hospital and later taken to his home by friends.

Daily Lectures With Views Planned by Secretary Wiggins of Chamber of Commerce

Daily lectures on California, illustrated with lantern slides, will be instituted in the assembly room of the chamber of commerce building soon. Secretary Frank Wiggins suggested the plan yesterday and it was referred to the house committee with power to act. Miss Lloy Galpin, who lectured on Los Angeles county at the Portland fair, will probably be selected to give the lectures.

The chamber will be closed all day today on account of Thanksgiving. A carload of representative newspaper men, which is coming to Los Angeles from the east about the twentieth of December, will be entertained by the chamber, which will also entertain a number of members of the Portland Commercial club, who will arrive in Los Angeles in January.

The following were elected to membership in the chamber: Max Roth, Joseph Engert, Capital Carriage company, James H. Woods, California Furniture company, William Burness, Jr.
