CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The wheat market was strong almost the entire session today. Influenced by higher prices in the northwest, the market opened firm with May up ½@ ½c to ½@ ½c at 89 @ 59½c to 89 %c.

For May the highest point of the day was reached at 90 ½c. The market closed strong, with May ic to 1½c higher at 90c.

Moderate demand from commission houses and shorts created a firm tone in the corn market. The light movement from the country and the poor grading of local receipts also lenu excellent demand from exporters furnished additional encouragement to bulls. The market closed firm with May ½@ ½c higher.
Active general demand caused strength in the oats market. Enormous clearances reported at the sea In the Market

Ranch eggs were reported casy at the new official price, 40c a dozen. There appears to be an oversupply at the present quotations.

Good butter is plentiful at quoted prices, with steady demand for all grades.

Cheese is firm, with 30,000 additional pounds from the east placed in storage. Postoes and onlons are plentiful. In the vegetable market trading was active; tomatoes sold at 35640c. In poultry and fish the supply was sufficient to meet the demand.
