Witte Powerless to Cope With Situation in Russia—High Officials Ask Permission to Retire

a threat against any new arbitration act. Country's Credit Threatened

The immediate danger confronting the government is a concerted attack on the country's credit. The public fear that the government can be forced to suspend gold payments increase daily.

Both the runs on the banks and demand for foreign exchange were accelerated by circulars which the strikers and revolutionaries are spreading broadcast.

Fifty Million Withdrawn At the ministry of finance it is estimated that about $50,000,000 have been thus far withdrawn from the state banks.

The government perfectly understands the purpose of the assault upon its credit. At the ministry of finance the Associated Press was authoritatively informed that the situation of the government has not greatly changed, financially or economically.

All depends," continued the official, "upon political development. If the government possessed of such its present reserve it would not suffice to prevent the present scare, which, like all habits, must run its course. But we have ample resources to meet our obligations and the present demands. It is unnecessary to talk of the government's defaulting the January coupons and of its inability to take up the short term treasury bonds sold to the Mendelssohns, which are due in February.

Much has been made of the possible inability to collect taxes in many provinces. As a matter of fact the entire direct taxation in the cities and country is $67,500,000 and the tax on industries $35,500,000. If both were altogether lost it would be less than one-tenth of Russia's total income."

The only break in the ranks of the telegraphers is reported from Kazan, Middle Russia. Elsewhere all the government's attempts to resume telegraphic communication have been unsuccessful. In this city there was a partial resumption of mail delivery by means of volunteers, but it requires two policemen or two soldiers to escort every carrier. In the postoffice the officials who can be spared are working in other departments with volunteers, some of whom are of high rank. Princess Oibenski, Princess of Huebin, Countess Merinoff and Countess Ozeroff are sorting letters in the mailing room.

At one mail station the strikers stole a march on the military. The guard of soldiers had gone to dinner, leaving their rifles stacked outside. The strikers raided the station and hammered off the breech blocks of the rifles before they were discovered. At Moscow over 20 carloads of letters are undistributed. At Kharhoff it is reported that 6000 soldiers have agreed not to fire on the people and at Rostoff the Third Grenadier artillery, consisting of 400 men has held a meeting and formulated service demands. Similar action, it is rumored, has been taken by the military engineers at Odessa and by troops in several places in the Baltic province. The Russ demands the trial by court martial and the removal of the colonel of Sedomonovsky regiment, at whose invitation Prof. Nichelesky, the noted reactionary, who is boycotted by the regiment warmly praising the men for firing on the people.

FLEEING TO AUSTRIA

Large Numbers of Refugees Arrive at Lemberg

By Associated Press. VIENNA, Dec. 7.—Dispatches received here from Lemberg say that large numbers of Russian refugees are coming in daily. There are 800 of them at Cracow. They all give excited terrified accounts of the occurrences in Russia. Many of the refugees formerly were men of considerable wealth and standing, but they left everything behind and now are almost reduced to beggary.

The people of Lemberg declare that murders and rioting continue at Kieff. The refugees who have arrived at Podvoloczyska say that excesses against the Jews have occurred at Schernyanka and Serbinowow. No details are given. Trains from Odessa and Kieff are now arriving at Podvoloczyska on time. Refugees and telegrams are being forwarded by the railroads.

An official statement shows that 8000 persons have been killed at Odessa since the beginning of the revolution. Advice from Bucharest says the people of Moscow and Nikolaiief are suffering from lack of water, bread, light and meat. Almost all the factories and Jewish homes in Rostoff have been destroyed.

In a recent encounter at Odessa between students and troops many students were killed. Funeral services for the students slain were held at the university building.

The latest arrivals at Jassy, Moldavia, declare that killings and plunderings continue at Odessa by day and night.

POLISH LEAGUE FORMED

Thirteen Unions of Professional Men Complete Organization

By Associated Press. WARSAW, Russian Poland, Dec. 7.—Thirteen unions of civil engineers, lawyers, teachers, physicians, clerks, etc., have formed a Polish League of Leagues as an annex of the Russian League of Leagues.

The local police have petitioned the chief of police for better pay, housing and treatment. They require a favorable answer during the week, otherwise they threaten to strike. Advice from Odessa, Kieff, Rostoff and Kharhoff say that many merchants of those cities are finding it impossible to transact business and are sacrificing their interests and leaving the country.

SAKHAROFF'S BRUTALITIES

Many Stories Told of Horrible Treatment of Peasants

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 4.—Wednesday morning, via Eydtkuhnen, East Prussia, Dec. 7.—The news of the assassination of Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff, former minister of war, who was shot in the governor's palace at Saratoff most horrible stories of the manner in which Sakharoff had been repressing the agrarian disorders. He corraled peasants with Cossacks and then had them beaten with the soldiers' whips. In so doing Sakharoff pursued the system adopted by Prince John Obolensky, former governor general of Finland, in suppressing the agrarians in the vicinity of Kharhoff several years ago, when the prince caused the peasants to be whipped by rays of Cossacks and compelled them in turn to beat their comrades. The assassin of Sakharoff has not been identified. When the woman who committed the crime was arrested she declared that she had executed a de-

Bond Proposition Opposed A provision which would operate to reimburse the treasury for the $10,000,000 already expended in the construction of the canal from the sale of the canal bonds was proposed by Mr. Overman of Indiana. Vigorous opposition to this was made by Mr. Williams of Mississippi, who declared dramatically: "Take this step, if you dare! The Democracy challenges you. There is a drop of water somewhere which will overflow the cup. What excuse are you to offer the American people for borrowing money at 2 percent when you already have abundant funds in the treasury and deposited in national banks?"

The signatories to the appeal ask where there is to be found the $250,000,000 required, at $250 per head, to transplant the first million Jews from Russia, not to say anything of the total of 4,000,000 Russian Jews for whom the schemes hitherto proposed had been quite inadequate, while the formation of such an autonomous Ghetto state, even if a territory large enough could be obtained, would be open to many grave objections. On the other hand, it says $250 would emigrate six persons to Argentina or Canada. In conclusion the pressing necessity for the immediate assistance of the actual sufferers is emphasized.

REBELS SEIZE ARSENAL

Mutineers Capture 16,000 Rifles at Ekaterinodar

By Associated Press. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 6, via Eydtkuhnen, Dec. 7.—It is alleged that the strikers are securing information from the military authorities. Dispatches published today are said to have been received by the Council of Workmen's delegates. According to these dispatches mutineers have seized the arsenal at Ekaterinodar and secured 16,000 rifles. It is also said that a revolt has broken out at Elizabetopol and insurgent troops are masters of the situation at Novorossiysk. The situation at Kieff is described as being very serious. Some accounts say that a massacre has taken place in which 1500 persons were killed.

TELEGRAPHERS STILL OUT

Government's Measures Fail to Induce Them to Return

By Associated Press. MOSCOW, Dec. 6, via Eydtkuhnen, East Prussia, Dec. 7.—The elaborate measures taken by the police and military for the protection of men who are willing to return to work have failed to induce any of the striking telegraphers to resume employment. A meeting of 2000 strikers today unanimously protested against yielding. The English delegates declared that all the telegraphers of Finland were ready to enter the union and support the strike. Three hundred strikers have already been dismissed under the decree of Interior Minister Durnovo.

PREMIER UNSUPPORTED

High Officials Ask Czar's Permission to Retire

By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 8.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at St. Petersburg in a dispatch sent by way of Eydtkuhnen says: "Prominent military commanders everywhere are requesting permission to resign. The minister of war himself (Lieutenant General Rudiger), has asked the emperor to allow him to retire. The minister of the interior (Durnovo), and others have followed the example of the minister of war Count Witte stands alone, but even he is losing heart."

GETS BIG PRINTING ORDER

Public Appreciation Causes Cincinnati Concern to Capture Enormous Contract

Special to The Herald. CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Chas. W. Shivel, representing the United States Printing company of Cincinnati, O., is in the city today and states that he has recently closed a contract with the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. for two hundred and fifty million Budweiser beer labels.

This is the largest quantity of labels ever bought at any one time by any one buyer, and yet it represents but a portion of the total quantity required by that company during the ensuing year.

The great and growing public appreciation of a fine product is responsible for this tremendous order.

Bond Proposition Opposed A provision which would operate to reimburse the treasury for the $10,000,000 already expended in the construction of the canal from the sale of the canal bonds was proposed by Mr. Overman of Indiana. Vigorous opposition to this was made by Mr. Williams of Mississippi, who declared dramatically: "Take this step, if you dare! The Democracy challenges you. On the other hand, it says $250 would emigrate six persons to Argentina or Canada. In conclusion the pressing necessity for the immediate assistance of the actual sufferers is emphasized.

TALKS OF DISASTER

In arguing for the necessity of maintaining a surplus in the treasury, Mr. Payne referred to what he contended was the "possible disaster of Democratic rule," and added that "one of the cycles of depression which Mr. Williams had often argued about might arrive."

"Then," interrupted Mr. Williams, "I understood that the $61,000,000 surplus in the treasury over and above that $75,000,000 declared necessary as a working balance by treasury officials, and $5,000,000 of which is on deposit in national banks, is sufficient to enable us to guard against the recurrence of Democratic rule or one of Mr. Williams' cycles?"

The amendment was defeated. An amendment striking out the bonding provision of the bill was next moved by Mr. Williams. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 152.

Mr. Williams offered an amendment making it discretionary instead of mandatory for the secretary of the treasury to reimburse the treasury by the bond sale for the amount carried in the bill. This amendment was also lost—89 to 131.

An amendment giving the secretary of war authority to fortify the canal at each terminal was offered by Mr. Burgess of Texas.

The fortification amendment was lost. Amendments requiring detailed statements of canal expenditures and estimates of canal expenditures were introduced at the beginning of each regular session and were submitted by Mr. Tawney of Minnesota, Mr. Fitzgerald of New York and Mr. Mann of Illinois.

MANN AMENDMENT ADOPTED

The Mann amendment prevailed. It provided as follows: "That the president shall annually and at such other periods as may be provided, either by law or by his order, require full and complete reports to be made to him by the persons appointed by him in charge of the construction of said Panama canal and the operation of said Panama railroad, including an itemized account of all moneys received and expended, which said reports shall be by the president transmitted to congress. And any of the persons appointed by the president in connection with the said government or the said work of construction or operation shall give to congress or to either house of congress such information as may at any time be required, either by act of congress or by resolution of either house of congress, in relation to their respective acts and doings, and the receipt and expenditure of money. The president shall annually cause to be made, by the persons appointed and employed by him, in charge of the government of said canal zone, and the construction of said canal, estimates of expenditures and appropriations in detail as far as practicable, which estimates shall be submitted to congress, and no money shall be expended for any of the purposes named in this act except in accordance with appropriations hereafter made by congress, except that the moneys received in the ordinary course of business from the operation of the Panama railroad and the property and rights appertaining thereto, may be expended, so far as necessary, in defraying the expenses of such operation, including maintenance of the Panama canal, and the treasury of the United States, and such moneys are hereby appropriated for such purpose and monthly reports of such receipts and expenditures shall be made to the president by the person or persons in charge."

The bill was then passed without opposition and it was stated today that the house, at 3:35 p. m., adjourned until Monday.

DISCUSS CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Senators Talk of Contributions of Insurance Companies

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The subject of campaign contributions by insurance companies occupied the major portion of the time of the senate today. It came up in connection with Mr. Tillman's resolution calling for an investigation of the national banks and in politics, and was exploited by the South Carolina senator in a speech of some length. The address dealt with the president's recommendations for the punishment of bribery in elections; with the testimony of the secretary of the New York investigating committee, and various pertinent matters. It was couched in characteristic language and attracted much attention. The resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to report whether the reports of the national bank examiners show that the banks have made campaign contributions in recent years

On the other hand, it says $250 would emigrate six persons to Argentina or Canada. In conclusion the pressing necessity for the immediate assistance of the actual sufferers is emphasized.

RESULTS NOT YET APPARENT

"Ah, Mr. President," responded Mr. Tillman, "all the Turvedrops and Pecksniffs are not dead yet, although I would not for a moment be understood as comparing our occupant of the White House with those characters. What we want is results and those do not seem to have been procured so far."

Quoting the testimony of Senator Platt before the New York committee, Mr. Tillman congratulated Senator Platt upon his straightforwardness. "There was no dodging," he said, "and I do not believe that a dollar of the money ever stuck to his fingers." He added his conviction, however, that the contributions had had the effect of controlling the New York legislature in the interest of the insurance companies.

Mr. Tillman quoted the charges made by Judge Parker in the last campaign, connecting the Republican campaign contributions with the fact that Chairman Cortelyou had recently retired from the office of secretary of the department of commerce and labor.

He also quoted the president's reply, which he said was "red hot," and added that not a dollar had been used to elect the president. "Nevertheless," he said, "it had been shown that $1,900,000 had been contributed for that purpose; that is, if the newspaper men may be believed, and he added: "They are about as reliable times as we do, and occasionally they get orders that such and such a man shall be typhoid. They then proceed to plant the microbes, but upon the whole, they may be depended on."

He also made reference to the charge that large expenditures had been made by the Democrats in the Cleveland campaign, saying it would have been fortunate for the Democratic party if Mr. Cleveland had never been elected.

He closed with an appeal for a more thorough investigation, saying such a course was necessary to restore the confidence of the public.

The resolution was adopted without opposition.

The senate at 2:33 p. m. went into executive session and at 2:18 p. m. adjourned until Monday.
