HEIRS SEEK JOHN W. LOGAN

Woman Asks Aid of Los Angeles Police to Locate Missing Boilermaker

An application by letter was made to Chief of Police W. H. Auble by Mrs. Mae Weber of South Oil City, Pa., yesterday for assistance in locating John W. Logan, formerly of Pennsylvania, but now supposed to be in this city, in order that a large estate left by his father might be settled.

From the letter it was learned that Logan is a boilermaker and a tank builder, and has been employed in factories in Niles, O., until recently. Local authorities ask that any information be directed to them or Mrs. Weber of 606 East Fourth street, South Oil City, Pa.
