

STRIKES DEADLY. BLINDS DARK. SLEEPING MEN NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH.

Two Victims of Unidentified Assailant Horribly Cut by Ax—Midnight Tragedy Occurs in Boyle Heights Camp

While asleep in their tent on Gillespie's grading camp, C. S. Ziegler, age 50, and Charles Keeling, aged 22, were murderously assaulted by unidentified persons. Both men were beaten into unconsciousness and left to die. An axe was the weapon used. Ziegler sustained a deep cut on the left side of his head and Keeling a cut on the right side of his forehead.

What the motive was for the deed is unknown. Two theories are entertained by the police; one, based upon a recent quarrel with a stable hand, suggests murder; the other, based upon the fact that Ziegler came into possession of a small sum of money several days ago, suggests robbery.

Not the slightest clue that would lead to the discovery of the assailants has been left by them. Only the ugly looking, short handled ax was left behind to tell the tale.

No one in the vicinity saw any one lurking about the men's tents last night. Two days ago Ziegler discharged two stable hands of the camp. The latter, whose names are unknown to the men at the grading camp, became enraged at the time and it is thought they made the assault. The police have been unable to locate either.

Neither Ziegler nor Keeling can give any details concerning the assault made upon them. Both were asleep at the time Ziegler was the first to awaken from the stupor in which he was lying. When he did so he found his companion in an unconscious state, with a deep cut on the right side of his head.

The first news the police had of the affair was when the two injured men called at the police station yesterday morning and asked to have their wounds dressed. When they described the manner in which they evidently sustained the injuries the police at once took steps to investigate the affair. No suspects have as yet been arrested.

Residents in the vicinity of Gillespie's grading camp say that cries for help were heard shortly after 11 o'clock last Friday night. The cries were said to have come from the direction of the grading camp, but, as the men employed there are accustomed to making considerable noise, those who heard the cries thought they were those of some drunk unable to find his tent, and therefore paid no further attention to them.

STURDY FARMERS KEEP OFF ALL CATARRHAL ILLS BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

MR. GEO. H. THOMPSON At Work on the Farm and Feeling Well All the Time.

Geo. H. Thompson, Craft, Miss., writes: "I have been cured of catarrh by your medicines. Peruna and Manalin had been affected with catarrh of the stomach about all my life, and was taken bad every Spring and Summer. I used several kinds of patent medicines, but they did me no good. I then took a treatment under an M.D. which did me but little good. By this time I had come to where I could eat nothing but a little soup. I had severe pains, had lost in weight and could not do anything. I began taking your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I then weighed 125 pounds, but after taking several bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin, I weighed 166 pounds. "I am now at work on the farm and feel well all of the time. I eat all I want to and my friends say that I look better than ever before. I will ever praise Peruna for its healing power."

Peruna is a Systemic Remedy. If Peruna proves efficient for catarrh in one place, it will be equally potent in any other place, because it is a systemic remedy.

The people generally are very much misinformed as to the nature of catarrh. Catarrh is usually believed to be confined to the head, nose and throat. Lately we sometimes hear of catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the bowels. Seldom, if ever, do we hear of catarrh of any other organs.

It is not because these organs are not subject to catarrh, nor that catarrh of these organs is not a very common disease, but simply because it is not generally known that affections of these organs may be due to catarrh.

MR. GUSTAV SCHMIDT

Mr. Gustav Schmidt, Spring Valley, Ill., writes: "I had catarrh of the head and throat for over thirty years. It became worse every year. About three months ago I commenced to take Peruna and Manalin, and now I am entirely cured of that troublesome sickness. Your medicine is surely a blessing to mankind. You can truly say that you have not lived in vain. Doctor, and I thank you for the good you have done me. May you enjoy a long life to help suffering humanity."

MR. W. J. TEMPLE

Mr. W. J. Temple, R. F. D. 3, Delaware, Ohio, writes: "I am a farmer and so necessarily must be exposed to all kinds of weather. About three years ago last winter I was taken sick with bowel and stomach trouble. "One doctor called it ulceration of the bowels, another called it colitis. Another doctor helped me temporarily. "Then a druggist recommended Peruna and I followed his advice. I took altogether five bottles and I consider myself a well man. "Before using Peruna it was utterly impossible for me to do a day's work, but now I can do farm work without the least trouble or fatigue. I consider Peruna the best medicine and tonic on the market. "I had not eaten a meal for five years without distress until I took Peruna. I have recommended it to several friends with good results."

Climatic Ailments Overcome by Pe-ru-na.

MR. J. B. ALEXANDER.

Mr. J. B. Alexander, publisher of the "Fruit and Floral Guide, a Magazine of Horticulture," published in Hartford City, Ind., says of Peruna: "I was afflicted with catarrh of the throat and head for over ten years. I was treated by many physicians, but grew worse until I was seldom able to go out in cold weather. "About one year ago I was advised to try Peruna, which I did, and I am now entirely well of the catarrh. "Peruna is a necessity in our home. With the first symptoms of a cold we use it, and are never afflicted with catarrh. "I advise all who are afflicted with catarrh to try Peruna. There is certainly nothing equal to it as a catarrh medicine." "Dr. Hartman interested in Farming. Notwithstanding Dr. Hartman's busy professional career, he still continues to be interested in farming. He is the owner and manager of one of the largest farms in the state of Ohio, with several thousand acres of the best tilled land in the Middle West, and with hundreds of the best blooded percheron horses ever imported or raised in this country. "Dr. Hartman relies upon Peruna entirely in cases of sickness in his own family.

MR. W. R. CALLAHAN.

Mr. W. R. Callahan, proprietor of Big Hill Farm, and prominent fruit grower and stock raiser, Glenvar, Va., writes: "I write to express my kindness toward you and your good medicine, Peruna. "I had a very bad spell of sickness and could not eat anything at all. My head, stomach, in fact, my whole body ached, and it looked as though nothing would do me any good. I had almost given up. "I decided to try a bottle of your Peruna and before I had taken half the bottle my appetite came to me and my head became all right. In fact, I was all right all over. Peruna cured me." "While Peruna is not confined to any one class of people, yet it is probably true that the farming class more than any other rely upon Peruna for the prevention and cure of all climatic diseases.

Peruna is a Household Friend.

MR. HENRY SCHROEDER

Mr. Henry Schroeder, Estey, Mich., writes: "I suffered for almost ten years with catarrh of the stomach and all doctoring was of no avail. I took nine bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin and am now entirely cured. "I recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this disease. It is my household friend."

SELL ORANGES BY ADVERTISING

PACIFIC AD. MEN TELL HOW IN CONVENTION

Publicity Experts Give Interesting Talk and Practical Advice of Great Value—Officers Are Chosen

"Oranges and How to Promote Their Sale" was an important topic in the discussions of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's association which convened in the assembly room of the chamber of commerce yesterday morning and closed after the third session, which was held in the evening.

A number of representatives from the coast cities attended. The papers related to the best methods of making known the industries of the state, and the advancement of the orange production alone called for three addresses that aroused much discussion.

Officers were elected as follows: H. P. Stabler, Yuba City, president; F. H. Manter, vice president for Seattle, Wash.; R. M. Hall, vice president for Portland, Ore.; A. J. Hill, vice president for Fresno, L. H. Mertz of Los Angeles was elected secretary and treasurer.

The executive committee is composed of R. C. Ayres of San Francisco, S. L. Coles of Seattle and H. C. Ackerly of Los Angeles.

The press committee is comprised of H. C. Ackerly, chairman, Los Angeles; H. J. Berkely, Sacramento; J. B. Beltnicke, Seattle; C. J. Owen, Portland; C. H. Haue, San Francisco.

Mr. Pratt of Astoria read the first paper at the morning session on "Selling Methods That Make Advertising Possible."

Referring to orange publicity Mr. Pratt said: "Probably the most ideal way in which the public is coming to know of oranges could be put into effect would be a great organization of growers who would be stockholders in a mutual cooperative corporation that would control the entire advertising and sale of oranges. Each grower would be assessed so much for his own share, but exist as an investment which would bring back profits tenfold."

J. W. Jeffries of Los Angeles read the second paper, his subject being "Increasing Orange Consumption." Mr. Jeffries said: "No one knows a sure way out of the difficulties that beset the proper advertising of the orange. I believe that the successful promotion work will come only from some general plan of general educational publicity as to the merits of this fruit, with the wide view of increasing its consumption as a staple.

CELLULOID COLLAR EXPLODES SYPHON SOUSES THE VICTIM

FAT MAN WITH CIGAR CAUSES FLARE-UP

Wearer Takes Ducking in Muddy Gutter All Right, but the Mineral Water Was Too Much

Through the combination of an active cigar stub, a celluloid collar and a siphon of mineral water leagued together with an unjust fate, Frank Berklin, a collector, is now spending the greater portion of his time nursing a sore neck.

Berklin is young, good looking and has a host of friends. Late Saturday afternoon he left his boarding house and joined the throng of Saturday evening sightseers.

While walking down Spring street he happened to meet a young woman for whom he had always retained a profound admiration, and the two decided to take a stroll.

Everything was progressing smoothly and the two young people were enjoying themselves as they walked south on Main street until Berklin happened to remember that he had a cigar which needed lighting.

Excusing himself he stepped to a cigar stand and secured a light for the "rope." Then fate and the celluloid collar got busy.

Enter Fat Man As the couple neared Fifth street the two were compelled to halt because of the crowd, and as they did so a florid, fat man came elbowing his way through the throng.

When he reached Berklin he turned sideways and in attempting to squeeze through a place about a foot wide he jabbed his elbow into Berklin's stomach.

The force of the blow was too much for the young man and he promptly coughed, and as he did so the cigar stub fell into his shirt bosom, and in the downward passage the fire caught the celluloid collar.

WARDE BIDS GOOD-BY; DISCUSSES MACBETH

QUEEN SACRIFICES ALL FOR HUSBAND'S AMBITION

Week's Series of Interpretive Shakespearean Readings Under Auspices of Christ Episcopal Church Are Brought to a Successful Close

Los Angeles bid a farewell to Frederick Warde, Shakespearean lecturer and actor, last evening in his interpretive reading of "Macbeth." Mr. Warde gave it as a fitting climax to the week of recitals and lectures which he has given Los Angeles under the auspices of the Men's league of Christ Episcopal church.

As his wont, Mr. Warde prefaced the play with a description of the characters. He put Lady Macbeth in a kinder light than most actors, as he did the Jew in the "Merchant of Venice." He showed not the hard, cruel, bloodthirsty and ambitious woman, but the woman, sacrificing all her womanly attributes for the ambition of her lord and husband, who, knowing his innermost self better than he himself did, knew that he would never be satisfied until he had reached his goal, to be king of Scotland. She knew him too well to be good, and too good to be bad without her influence. Again, he showed one little spark of human kindness, where most overlook it.

As a fitting close, Mr. Warde gave the lines, so full of hopeless despair, though the goal had been won, with murder and bloodshed—on the death of Lady Macbeth, the queen.

AMERICAN GUILD HONOR HORN

Pacific Coast Fraternalists Tender a Banquet at Hotel as an Expression of Esteem

A delightful reception and banquet was given by Harmony chapter No. 2586, American Guild, in honor of Frank D. Horn, retiring Pacific coast manager, at the Hotel Lankershim last night. Those present partook of an eleven-course dinner.

Toasts were given by seven members of the chapter. Dr. H. B. Montgomery acted as toast master. The following members responded: Dr. G. H. Krichbaum, Frank H. Horn, Miss Winifred E. Rogers, Harvey B. Allen, S. Galecki and C. W. Kimpton. Appropriate music was a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Horn is to be the supreme deputy of the Pacific coast. C. P. Dandy, former supreme president of the Fraternal Brotherhood, will fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Horn's elevation. Harmony chapter presented a gold emblem to Mr. Horn.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FINED

George Stidger of Denver Sentenced to Pay $500 for Contempt of Court

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 20.—Judge Frank T. Johnson of the district court today fined District Attorney George Stidger $500 for contempt of court, and committed him to the county jail until the fine is paid.

"The trouble arose over the gamblers' cases, which were begun by Judge Johnson in October and were taken from his court by District Attorney Stidger and removed to the criminal division of the court for trial.

"You have obstructed the due administration of justice in this court, Mr. Stidger," said Judge Johnson, when he imposed the fine. "You have attempted to bring ridicule on this court, in the eyes of the public and to interfere with its duty."

District Attorney Stidger protested vehemently, saying that no notice of an investigation of his action had been given him, and charging the court with unfairness.

"The sentence stands," answered Judge Johnson, calmly. "To the defendants in this case, the men charged with violating the gambling laws, I will say that the court is warranted in discharging them on the grounds of former jeopardy. They may be dismissed, but I warn them these later proceedings in the cases are premature and the court still holds the power to rearrest them."

Judge Johnson intimated that he believes a conspiracy existed between the district attorney's office, the sheriff's office and some of the judges to deprive his court of the administration of justice.

District Attorney Stidger was admitted to bail pending an appeal from Judge Johnson's decision.
