

CITIZENS READY TO ARBITRATE PASADENA DISPUTE MAY YET BE SETTLED

City Council to Be Asked Tomorrow to Refer Question to Impartial Committee for Recommendations

Pasadena Agency, 11 North Raymond Avenue, Telephone 1417. PASADENA, Jan. 22.—The recall petitions were being circulated a portion of this afternoon and it is reported that considerably over 100 names are the result of the day's canvass.

Mr. Webster will be at the office every evening to receive reports of the fact that all who sign the petition must be qualified voters and registered in the precincts where they now reside.

Compromise May Be Effected But while the recall campaign slowly gathers headway efforts are being quietly taken looking to a definite settlement, which, if successful, is likely to make the recall unnecessary.

The plan is to have the city council at its regular meeting tomorrow authorize the appointment of an impartial committee which is to review the water proceedings to date and report to that body.

At least one of the councilmen, it is stated, shall be placed on this committee. If formed this arbitration committee will undoubtedly take additional legal advice in passing upon the situation.
