

LEAVES FROM SOCIETY'S NOTE BOOK BY THE CHATTERER

A wedding of much interest in society circles of Los Angeles, Hollywood and Redondo will be solemnized Thursday evening February 15, when Miss Jane Dorsey, the charming and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Frederick Dorsey of Thirty-eighth street, will become the bride of William Richards. Miss Dorsey has spent much time each year visiting friends at Redondo and she and her fiancé have chosen to be married in Christ Episcopal church of the beach town. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening and the bridal party and relatives will be entertained at a wedding supper by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ainsworth at their beautiful new home on the bluff.

Miss Dorsey has chosen Mrs. Ainsworth as her matron of honor and the four young women who will assist as maids are Miss Mary Belle Elliott, Miss Mary V. Mullins, Miss Isabelle Bulkley and Miss Edith Kirkpatrick. The matron of honor will wear pink silk and the bridesmaids will wear pink chiffon crepe. All the young women will carry bouquets of violets and wreaths of violets in their hair. The bride's gown will be white chiffon and she will wear a long tulle veil and carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. All appointments for the wedding will be in pink and green and the affair promises to be especially beautiful one. Mr. William Richards is from Burlington, England, and is a graduate of Cambridge university. He has chosen W. Preston Smith to attend him as best man and the young men who will serve as ushers are Dr. J. M. Radebaugh of Pasadena, and Messrs. Harry Ainsworth, Joseph Easton and J. Harrison Wright of Riverside.

Rev. Bishop Joseph H. Johnson will perform the ceremony and J. M. Elliott, president of the First National bank, will give the bride away.

A beautiful little bungalow home is being built for the couple at Hollywood and they will occupy it at the conclusion of a northern wedding trip.

Miss Dorsey was guest of honor at a luncheon given Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Squires and Miss Winstanley of Hollywood. Decorations for the affair were in scarlet and green and covers were laid for twelve guests.

Announced at Tea

At a beautiful informal tea given Friday afternoon the engagements of another popular Los Angeles society girl was announced.

She is Miss Edna Bumiller, and the man whom she is to wed is Murray Sullivan of Salt Lake City.

Joseph Frederick Bumiller was hostess at the affair at which the interesting news was made known to friends. The Bumiller home at 711 Rampart street was beautifully decorated with blossoms and ferns in the dining room, where a group of handsomely gowned young women served tea, violets were used in great profusion. The blossoms combined with maidenheads and ferns had been perfected. In the drawing room and reception hall pansies and ferns were used. Receiving with the hostess were the mother and sister of Miss Bumiller, Mrs. Bumiller, Hickey and Paul Burks of Prescott, Arizona. Assisting women included Mesdames William Valentine, Charles Herbert Dick, E. P. Johnson, Jr., A. B. McQuibben, John Crumston, Edwin T. Hill, Glen Spence, Walter Galt Barnwell, E. W. Hughes of Bismarck, N. D., T. A. Poole, E. O. Robinson, Howard Squires, D. T. Alexander, Fred Smith, Miss Edna Bumiller, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Mary Chapman, Miss Helen Worsham and Miss Lida McKnight of Pittsburg, Pa. About 250 guests were entertained.

In Fancy Dress They Dance

Pretty little maids in bewitchingly pretty costumes and dapper little men in attire no less becoming, danced Friday evening at a real fancy dress ball.

Miss Marguerite Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rivers Drake of 2633 Hoover street, was the hostess and she had a group of dainty little assistants, including Adelaide Childs, Mary Marie Norton, Edna Childs and Lucille Gage. Every little guest came in fancy costume representing some character or flower. The hostess and her assistants received the guests in the reception hall, which was decorated with red carnations and asparagus ferns. The same color scheme of red and green was effective in the living room and pink carnations decided the color tone in the large drawing room. Supper was served in the dining room, where yellow blossoms were combined with the greenery and lights were shaded in yellow. Stamm furnished the music for the dancing and programs were dainty affairs bearing sketches of figures in fancy dress. Miss Drake's guests included Miss Alice Childs, Kathleen Carter, Sarah McFarland, Katharine Johnson, Helen Bulkeley, Lulu Lewis, Clara Smith, Helen Thayer, Dorothy Sadler, Adelaide Childs, Eva Bayly, Hazel Ball, Jennie Rollins, Sarah Tupper, Alice Childs, Helen Jones, Dupuis, Rhoda Rindge, Madeline Carter, Kathleen Carter, Masters Eugene Clark, Cosmo Morgan, Jr., Everett Barker, Lawrence Barker, Paul Bulkeley, Craig Lovett, Harry Hooker, Mary Helen, Alice Davis, Lyman McFie, Louis Woolwine, Harold Bayly, Roy Bayly, William Lovett, Monroe Montgomery, Roy Silent, Elton Brown and Rivers Drake.

Give Dancing Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holmes of the majestic First street building, entertained with a dancing party Tuesday evening. Besides the dances a short musical and literary program was given, consisting of a whistling solo by Miss Hazel Bryan, a vocal solo by Mrs. Winters of Denver, a reading by Miss Esquirdge and a piano solo by Prof. Hunter. The reception hall was very artistically decorated with pansies and ferns, while the hall room was done in brown and yellow and was lighted with many electric lanterns. Mrs. Holmes was assisted in receiving by Miss Hazel Bryan, Miss Lela Holmes. About 100 guests were entertained.

Pretty Card Party

One of the delightful affairs of Friday afternoon was a card party with which Mrs. K. Brauer, of 2129 West Twenty-first street entertained a company of friends. What was the game played and scores were kept on cards bearing water color sketches of California scenes. Prizes awarded were handsome pieces of Venetian and cut glass. Card tables were placed in the living room and drawing room. Scarlet geraniums and ferns were used in the living room and in the drawing room pink sweet peas were combined with the greenery.

At the conclusion of the games luncheon was served in the dining room, where the guests were seated at a large table decorated with violets,

POPULAR GIRL WHO WILL DANCE AND SING FOR CHARITY

Miss Mercedes De Luna, Who Will Be the Rag Doll in "The Toy Shop"

Under the direction of Mrs. Stephen W. Dorsey work in the doll-making establishment is progressing rapidly, and those who have seen rehearsals of the quaint dances and heard the catchy songs with which the "Toy Shop" is well supplied, are more than ever convinced that this pretty operetta will be a charming success.

Few charities interest the women of Los Angeles more than the children's hospital, and many of the most prominent society leaders are giving their time to this affair that the life of some little child may be made brighter.

The list of patronesses has just been completed and includes, besides Mrs. Dorsey, to whom all are ready to give credit, Mrs. Randolph Miner, Mrs. Walter S. Newhall, Mrs. M. A. Wilcox, Mrs. George Dennis, Mrs. Homer Laughlin, Mrs. Alfred Solano, Mrs. Frank Hicks, Mrs. J. J. Byrne, Mrs. A.

G. Wells, Mrs. E. T. Earl, Mrs. J. G. Jones, Mrs. Emmeline Childs, Mrs. C. Carpenter, Mrs. Jaro Von Schmidt, Mrs. Charles Monroe, Mrs. Walter B. Cline, Mrs. Margaret Hobbs, Mrs. William T. Johnson and Mrs. John T. Jones. Miss Mercedes De Luna has been chosen as the rag doll, whom the toy maker's daughter loves better than all the Paris creations in the world. Miss De Luna has one of the prettiest dances of the performance, and her petite grace fits her well for the part.

Miss Maud Reese Davies and her Japanese attendants had a rehearsal yesterday afternoon and gave a charming performance. The songs sung by Miss Davies are all beautiful and well suited to her voice.

The comic parts are being brought out with much care, and the children who are being made into dolls have caught the spirit of humor and burlesque in a remarkable way.

decorated with flowers and lanterns and refreshments were served.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Loas, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Haupt, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. John Slesie, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Estes, Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fuller, Mrs. E. Roos, Mrs. D. T. Patton, Mrs. E. M. Edgerton, Mrs. F. Dee, Mrs. John Gertey, Mrs. John Holden, Miss Florence Gertey; Messrs. P. Gertey, Harry Hoffman, F. Plouffe, August Chick, G. Steele, J. Valcity and B. Sutenfuss.

La Malia Club

The La Malia club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Constance Lister in Alhambra. The afternoon was spent playing whist. Mrs. Thaddeus Edwin won the prize. The members who were present are: Ralph Clapp, Mrs. Frank Bourne, E. Cobler, Mrs. Fred Dennis, Mrs. T. Erwin, Mrs. Ed Ewers, Mrs. Ralph Haskins, Mrs. Charles Marston, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Blain Russell, Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mrs. Milson, Mrs. Al Stein, Miss Sophie Lang, Miss Constance Lister and Miss Jessie Whittington. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Marston, Tuesday, January 30.

Philomath Club to Receive

Mrs. W. J. Hole of 1907 West Sixth street will be hostess at a reception and entertainment to be given Thursday evening, February 1, by the Philomath club for the benefit of the Los Angeles Humane society. A parlor talk by Mrs. Wood, who has recently returned from Europe, will be the feature of the evening. Mrs. Wood will talk on the Passion play and will illustrate her lecture with lantern slides. A short musical and literary program will follow and refreshments will be served.

For Mrs. Fessenden

Mrs. A. M. Fessenden of Boston was guest of honor at a card party given by Mrs. Ralph H. Hillers of 3429 West Twenty-third street Thursday afternoon. Score cards were ornamented with sketches of fancy head and fashions.

Superfluous Hair Removed by the New Principle DeMiracle

A revelation to modern science. It is the only scientific and practical way to destroy hair. Do not waste time and money on electrolysis, X-ray and depilatories. These are offered you on the basis of the old-fashioned method of the hairdressers. DeMiracle is not. It is a method which is endorsed by physicians, surgeons, dermatologists, medical journals and prominent magazines. Booklet free, in plain sealed envelope. DeMiracle is available in plain wrapped, for $1.00 by DeMiracle Chemical Co., 1912 Park Ave., New York. For more information, send question (no red tape) if it fails to do all that is claimed for it. For sale by all first-class drug stores, department stores and

See automatic figure display, Store No. 2, 228 S. Broadway. SUN DRUG CO.

Every Woman interested and should know about the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray. The new Tactile Syringe, Injection, from one of the most prominent, successful and reliable manufacturers in the world. Get your drug store to supply the MARVEL, or apply to the manufacturer, 24 E. 25th St., NEW YORK.

similar quotations and the prizes awarded were tickets to "Way Down East" and a pair of gloves. There were present Mesdames Herman Darling, Charles Ensign, Lucien Durrer, Roy Hillman, Dan Laubersheimer, Frank Toustley, Frank Stiff, C. C. Merrill, Louis Garrett, Miss May Hyer, Miss Amy Morrow and the Misses Helen and Katharine Kemper.

Banquet and Reception

A reception and banquet was given in honor of Right Reverend, Bishop Conaty by the ladies auxiliary to the A. O. H. The hall was artistically decorated under the supervision of Mrs. Fritz J. Scholl. Potted plants, palms and cut flowers transformed the hall into a perfect garden. The lights were softened with colored shades that harmonized with the other decorations. A pleasing vignette composed of the center of the table rested a handsome center piece of violets and ferns. The places were marked with dainty cards ornamented with purple ribbon. The toastmistress, Mrs. P. E. O'Brien, introduced the president of the auxiliary Mrs. A. Duggan, who delivered the address of welcome in a very able manner. Mrs. P. E. McCarthy recited an original poem of welcome, after which Miss Merick sang the "Last Rose of Summer." Bishop Conaty addressed the women of the auxiliary, commending them on the good work they are doing in the school, the hospital, at Trinity college in Washington and speaking at length of the progress and work done by religious institutions in this city. The bishop's address was enthusiastically received. Mr. Harnett, Rev. J. J. Clifford and Rev. P. J. O'Riley, were present and made short addresses. Miss Marie Whalen played a violin solo, Miss M. Sullivan of Hollywood made a few appropriate remarks and Miss Mary Thornton gave a reading. The affair was concluded by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. P. O'Brien, Mrs. S. Whalen, Mrs. Roach, Mrs. A. J. Scholl, Mrs. M. Forrester, Mrs. Dunningan, Mrs. Frank and Miss Cody.

Poppy Whist Club

Mrs. H. Whipple entertained members of the Poppy Whist club Wednesday afternoon at her home, 3851 Maple avenue. The first prize, a handsome teapot, was won by Mrs. L. P. Paulsen, and the second, a celery tray, went to Mrs. H. McBees. Miss E. Todd was given a burnt wood picture frame as consolation prize. After the games a dainty luncheon was served. Members who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. P. O'Brien, Mrs. S. Whalen, Mrs. Roach, Mrs. A. J. Scholl, Mrs. M. Forrester, Mrs. Dunningan, Mrs. Frank and Miss Cody.

Students Dance

The students of Woodbury business college gave a dance in the college hall Friday evening. The hall was tastefully decorated with different flowers and greenery and music was furnished by Ford's orchestra.

Members of the reception committee were Mrs. Victoria Smith, Misses Celisa Wing, Garnett Hall, Clara Sullivan, Cora Miller, May Eble and Messrs. Roy Putnam, Ross, Lemuel, Herbert Campbell, Phinocchio Modesti and Deano de Vecchio.

Hermosa Whist Club

The Hermosa Whist club was entertained at the residence of Mrs. C. C. Price, Thursday evening. The house was prettily decorated. Cards were played until 10:30 o'clock, after which supper was served. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. P. Paulsen, Mrs. C. C. Price, Mrs. E. Todd, Mr. W. J. Todd, Mr. L. P. Paulsen and Mr. H. M. McBees. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Lytton, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McBees, Mr. F. W. McDonald, Mrs. E. M. Edgerton, Mrs. E. Todd, Mr. W. J. Todd and Mr. T. R. More. The club will be entertained by Mrs. E. Todd at her residence, 1245 East Twentieth street, Thursday evening, February 1, 1906.

Entertains Ceramic Club

Members of the Los Angeles Ceramic club were entertained by Mrs. B. J. Arthur, 1107 West Eighth street, Friday afternoon.

After a short business session an interesting talk was given by Miss McGill, and one on conventional work in ceramics by Mrs. Perley of San Francisco. A social half hour was spent during which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Baldwin Entertains

Mrs. James V. Baldwin of 2017 South Union avenue was hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightful card party, and this afternoon she will entertain, the affair being a tea in honor of Mrs. Arthur Clark, at present a guest at Hotel Lankershim.

To Give Silver Shower

A "silver shower" will be given next Wednesday afternoon at Christ Episcopal church for the purpose of furnishing silver for the church social functions. The affair will be given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Church. The reception hours will be from 2 to 4 o'clock, following which a recital will be given.

Unique Bridal Party

Miss Maud Brown, who will soon be married to William Goodwin, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given yesterday afternoon by Misses Pearl and Rose Strong of 1025 South Burlington avenue, assisted by their mother and sister, Mrs. O. W. Strong and Mrs. Frank Thompson.

The affair was one of the most unique of the kind given this season, and all appointments were charming. The gifts for Miss Brown were placed in a large fancy trunk ornamented with hearts and other designs suggestive of the season. The trunk was locked and the key was presented to her for whom the contents were intended. When the case was unlocked there was much merriment over the things it contained. A pretty feature of the afternoon was the good luck shower of which the pretty bride-to-be was the recipient. A large Japanese umbrella suspended from the chandelier in the parlor was filled with rose petals, four-leaf clovers, rice and tiny lavender horseshoes, and when the unsuspecting young woman passed underneath the contents of the umbrella came pouring down. In the parlors white carnations and ferns were used in decorating and many tiny red hearts peeping from out the greenery gave a prettily touch of color. Lavender was the color used in the dining-room, where refreshments were served. A dainty little book, hand-painted in a design of violets and ferns, was supplied by the hostesses and each of the seventy-five guests put into it a wish for the honored one.

A unique guessing game, "A Cookery Contest," occupied the guests during part of the afternoon.

Solano Tea

One of the most delightful affairs of yesterday afternoon was the tea with which Mrs. Alfred Solano and Miss Solano of 2306 South Figueroa street entertained a large company of guests.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout with choice cut blossoms and ferns, and assisting the hostesses in receiving and pouring tea were Mesdames Randolph Miner, M. J. Connell, Marshall Hinman, John E. Plater, M. A. Wilcox, Keane, John G. Mossin, J. N. Van Nuys, Stephen C. Hubbard, Homer Laughlin, Arthur G. Wells, Thomas E. Gibbon, Edwin T. Earl, Percy Hoyle, William May Garland, Walter S. Newhall, Mary Longstreet, J. J. Jeffers, Misses L. M. Margaret Hobbs, Dwight Whiting, Hancock Banning, M. A. Briggs, Granville MacGowan, Godfrey Holterhoff, J. H. Utley, Wesley Clark, Henry O'McEvney, George J. Denis, William T. Jeffers, Misses L. M. Margaret Hobbs, Eva Elizabeth Keating, Annis Van Nuys, Bess Millar, Inez Clark, Guendolen Laughlin, Elizabeth Wolters, Helen Wells, Echo Allen, Louise McFarland and Mary Belle Elliott.

Informal at Home

Miss Lizzie Lewis of 1131 Gladstone avenue was hostess yesterday afternoon at an informal "at home," given in honor of her house guest, Miss Lila Lewis of Louisville, Ky. The feature of the afternoon's entertainment was an advertising guessing game for which dainty prizes were awarded. The pretty home was decorated with scarlet blossoms and asparagus plumosus. Young women who enjoyed the affair were Mrs. Alexander Barrett, Mrs. Edwin Masson, Robert Davis Clark of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Harry Robinson, Mrs. Gus Jones, Mrs. Tom Woolwine and the Misses Bera Jones, Evangeline Cope, Frances Cope, Louise Payne, Mary Belle Elliott, Sarah Goodrich, Ethel Anderson, Louise McFarland, Edith Kirkpatrick, Isabel Bethune, Agnes Bethune, Lucile Leovy, Polly Leovy, Bessie Ellis, Lillian Brown, Maria Markham, Lila Lewis, Katharine Thompson and Huston Bishop.

Luncheon and Card Party

Mrs. James T. Neighbors of 1315 West Ninth street entertained Friday afternoon with a card party luncheon, and her guests included Mesdames William McLeod, J. Lee Hagadorn, Thomas Hughes, Thomas Pascoe, Robert Haupt, C. C. Rutherford, W. H. Sutch, Elmer Gardner, D. R. Brown, Higgins, W. E. Pritchard, J. F. Kanst, Willis Dixon, M. Willheimer, R. A. McMillan, J. H. Phillips Miss Maude Brown-Kay and Miss Tilly McAuley.

Whist was the game of the afternoon and prizes awarded were two hand-painted plates won by Mrs. J. F. Kanst and Mrs. Robert Haupt and a salt and pepper set given in consolation to Mrs. D. E. Brown. Scores were marked on bell-shaped cards. Scarlet and green were the colors used in the decorations throughout the house and water color

Robinson Company Boston Dry Goods Store 235-237-239 SOUTH BROADWAY We've a Big Ad. in the Society Section $7.50 White Taffeta Petticoats $5 We own a hundred white silk petticoats of the $7.50 grade at a figure that permits selling at FIVE dollars. But how long do you think a little lot of a hundred will last when, with Fashion demanding white, every woman who pretends to dress in style will feel that she MUST buy one? Made of excellent quality taffeta, with accordion pleated ruffles, daintily trimmed with ruching and with silk under-ruffle; strictly high-class garments. $6.50 Colored Silk Petticoats $5 Something over a hundred in this lot. Very similar to the white ones, except that they haven't the silk under-ruffle. Pearl grays, champagne, reds, browns, greens, blues, black, etc. (Rear of Annex).

Yes We supply the newest and most attractive goods in the drapery line. And we do more than that, we will take the goods to your house and match your color scheme, measure for and give estimates of make and hang your selection. Our furniture stock surprises those not familiar with it and satisfies good judges of styles and values. Broadway Drapery & Furniture Co. 447 South Broadway Not in the Trust

"Dependable Furniture at a Fair Price" The Best Pieces From the Foremost Makers of Fine Furniture Our years of experience in furnishing the best homes in Southern California have taught us to consider only the finest makes when selecting our stock, and at all times you will find our showing complete in every detail. It matters not whether you are choosing from the most inexpensive lines or from our finest specimens of the furniture art, you will find those same marks of superior workmanship and finish that at once show it to be the very best. Our furniture comes from the finest factories in the country—from makers of world-wide reputation, who produce only thoroughly dependable goods. It is furniture that we are sure will give to our customers the greatest satisfaction. We are always pleased to show you our assortment, and feel confident that it will also please you. "All Goods Marked in Plain Figures" Niles Pease Furniture Co. 439-441-443 South Spring Street, Los Angeles