Girl on Whom He Turned Garden Hose Becomes Bride of Lawrence

Eley—Beautiful Tea—Social News and Gossip

At a beautiful little early morning wedding Miss Julia Edna Boettcher became the bride of Lawrence W. Eley yesterday. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's mother...

The ceremony was the culmination of a pretty little romance which began in the early school days of the couple. Lawrence Eley, then a small lad, played a prank on little Miss Julia one day by turning a garden hose upon her.

The young woman failed to act in the manner which her would-be-tormentor supposed she would and he became so interested in her that he at once started to make up for his trick. Since that time he has been a devoted attendant and yesterday he claimed her as his bride.

Mr. Eley is an employe of the First National bank and both he and his wife have a host of friends. Upon their return from a wedding trip they will make their home in Los Angeles.

Gives Beautiful Tea

One of the most beautiful affairs of the week was the tea with which Miss Florence Hunt of 810 West Thirtieth street entertained one hundred guests yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Dunning, and her cousin, Mrs. F. Percy Hale of New York, who are her house guests for the winter.

Receiving with the hostess were Miss Frances Cotter and Miss Irene Kelley, while the assisting young women included Misses Edith Campbell, Cynthia Fay, Marie Gavigan, Inez and Pansy Whittaker.

The room was elaborately decorated, a different color scheme being used in each room. The rooms were all canopied with smilax and flowers were used with a lavish hand. In the reception hall the color scheme was green and white, while the dining room was decorated with the foliage. Scarlet carnations decided the color tone in the drawing room and the dining room was in pink and green.

A beautiful canopy of pink satin ribbon and ropes of pearls was arranged overhead and pink carnations decorated the tea tables and buffet, where the daintily gowned young women presided. Pink shaded candelabra cast a fairy light over the whole. The De Nubilia orchestra gave an array of popular music during the afternoon.

Miss Hunt wore a charming gown of pale yellow crepe de chine. The guests of honor were both gowned in white. The white carnations being the lace. The young women who received carried pink carnations and those assisting wore large bouquets of violets. Mrs. Dunning will be remembered as Miss Mary Hunt and a host of friends are glad to greet her again.

Toy Shop to Be Success

If there were any naughty little fears in the minds of the promoters of "The Toy Shop" as to the success of the opera, they must have been driven to the four winds of heaven or some other such place yesterday afternoon. Every child seems to have learned how to be a doll without the least bit of trouble, and the grown-up children who are going to be the big dolls are all charming. VAGRANCY CHARGE DISMISSED

Ministers and Associated Charities Figure in the Trial of Invalid Father

W. E. Bowden, arrested for vagrancy, was given a lengthy trial yesterday before Police Judge Chambers, who ordered the man discharged from custody. Several clergymen and physicians were in court as witnesses, and Mrs. Bowden was present with two tiny tots who did not realize that their father was in danger of being sent to jail because he was too ill to work.

Rev. A. G. L. Trew, Rev. W. H. Doggett and Miss Carver of the Associated Charities told what they knew about the defendant. They said he had come to them for work and after investigation the case they believed that he was a fraud.

Several doctors, however, testified that the young man was suffering from consumption, and Willis I. Morrison, who volunteered to defend the man, introduced enough testimony to show that Bowden, while not over-anxious for work, was not a vagrant. After the trial the kind-hearted clergymen went to Bowden and told him that they would try to secure work for him.

ENJOYS LIBERTY BUT A MOMENT RELEASED BUT REARRESTED IMMEDIATELY

Local Authorities, Unable to Make Case Against John Schumacher, Will Return Him to Chicago on Requisition

John Schumacher, arrested recently by Los Angeles officers on descriptions furnished by Chicago authorities and concerning whom there has been some doubt as to identity, will be returned to Chicago, according to information received from Springfield, Ill., last evening.

Schumacher appeared in the superior court in the morning with his counsel, Earl Rogers, and was ordered released by Judge Smith on habeas corpus proceedings. He was arrested Tuesday on a fugitive warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. It was alleged that he was indicted by the grand jury of Cook county in 1905 and then left the state without standing trial.

Mr. Rogers stated that it was merely a method of using the criminal law as a collection agency and that the whole thing should be fought out in a civil action. Schumacher was released and immediately after was rearrested. The affairs of Schumacher & Waddingham, manufacturers of staff and stucco at 1260 East Seventh street, are in bad shape and a receiver was appointed in the superior court to take charge of the business. Schumacher and his partner are at odds and Mr. Waddingham claims that his partner has involved the firm's credit.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

KING OF ALL DISEASES

To Contagious Blood Poison rightfully belongs the name King of all Diseases. It is the most powerful of all human ailments—corrupting every part of the body and wrecking and ruining the lives of those unfortunate enough to contract it. When the first sign appears in the form of an insignificant sore or ulcer, few persons realize that the deadly virus has entered the blood; but so potent is the poison that one drop will vitiate and pollute the purest and healthiest blood, and in a short time the degrading and horrible symptoms begin to appear. The mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the neck and groins swell, the hair and eye-brows fall out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and in the latter stages of the disease the poison even works down and destroys the bones. No other disease is so highly contagious, and many have contracted it and suffered its awful consequences through a friendly hand-shake, handling the clothing of one afflicted with it, or drinking from the same vessel. S. S. S., The King of Blood Purifiers, is the only cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of the virus. It is nature's antidote for this peculiar poison, and cures the disease in all its stages, and cures it permanently. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up any of the poison to break out in future years, but so completely eradicates it from the blood that no signs are ever seen again. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, we offer $1,000 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral of any kind. Book with instructions for home treatment and any medical advice you desire will be furnished by our physicians without charge.
