SUSPECTS TAKEN TO IDAHO STRONGLY GUARDED

Officers Are Searching for Another Man in Oregon Wanted in Connection With Steunenberg's Assassination

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 19.—Charles E. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, William D. Haywood, secretary, and G. A. Pettibone, a former member of the executive board of the federation, were arrested in Denver Saturday night charged with complicity in the assassination of Frank Steunenberg, former governor of Idaho, arrived at Boise, Idaho, today in custody of a strong guard of Idaho and Colorado officers.

The train took water at obscure tanks and the necessary changes of locomotives en route were made at suburban sidings, so that no stops were made in cities or large towns.

VERIFY ORCHARD'S CONFESSION Bomb and Bullets Dug Up—Workings of "Inner Circle" Exposed

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 19.—Orchard's alleged confession purports to give details of the plot to assassinate former Governor Steunenberg from its inception. It gives the names of other men alleged to be implicated, tells where Orchard met them and the circumstances of the meetings.

One of the statements is that Orchard was selected to assassinate one of the justices of the supreme court of Colorado a year ago. He says he buried a bomb at the judge's gate, but when he pulled the string the explosion failed to explode.

Inner Circle

Orchard has the officers claim, told of the workings of an "inner circle" of the Western Federation, maintained in Denver, giving details of plots that led to the killing of a number of men in the Telluride district in Colorado, and information about various outrages at Cripple Creek. He implicates Jack Simpkins and a man named Adams in the Steunenberg conspiracy.

FORESTALL HABEAS CORPUS

Federation Officials Directly Charged With the Murders

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 19.—Publication was made here today of the complaints on which Governor Gooding of Idaho based requisition for Charles E. Moyer, president, and William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, and G. A. Pettibone, former member of the executive committee of that labor organization.

charged the bomb by means of which Steunenberg was killed at Caldwell, Idaho, December 30, 1905. The specific charge of murder was made, it is explained, in order to forestall all habeas corpus proceedings on behalf of the accused men, but no attempt will be made to prove that they were in Idaho at the time of the commission of the crime.

The atrocious murders committed during labor troubles in the Cripple Creek and Telluride districts in this state which have been shrouded in mystery, the earlier Cour d'Alene murders and the more recent Euenberg assassination form a chain of crimes with which efforts are being made to connect the officers of the Western Federation of Miners on a confession said to have been made by Harry Orchard, who is charged with the Steunenberg murder.

This confession, it is asserted, disclosed a plot to kill former Governor James H. Peabody of Colorado, William H. Gabbert, chief justice of the Colorado supreme court, and John Campbell, former chief justice. Orchard is said to have confessed that wholesale assassinations were planned at the headquarters of the Western Federation in Denver, chiefly by refugees from the camps at Cripple Creek and Telluride.

Orchard's confession gives a history of the explosion at the Independence depot near Cripple Creek on June 6, 1904, which killed fourteen men and injured others.

James McFarland, head of a detective agency which was employed by the Idaho authorities, declared that more arrests are yet to be made.

URGE BATTLESHIPS IF BUILT BY GOVERNMENT

ORGANIZED LABOR IN EAST GOES ON RECORD

Resolutions Passed State That Actual Experience Has Shown Better Results Accrue When Uncle Sam Builds His Own Ships

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The attitude of organized labor on the subject of increasing the size of the United States navy was reflected last night in the discussion of a resolution presented in the Central Federated union, urging the building of more battleships.

A resolution was adopted with the important proviso that the ships be built in government yards instead of by private companies.

Not all the delegates were agreed as to the advisability of increasing the navy, a representative of the Amalgamated Wood Workers' union making the assertion that his "conscience forbade him to sanction the manufacture of machinery to murder human beings."

Another delegate said his feelings were just as sensitive in the matter, but so long as "murderous machines" are to be built he agreed that union men ought to be employed in the work.

Resting at Anchor

A delegate from the Seamen's union said that the battleships the government now has are resting at anchor. He said he did not see the use of building more vessels, because union men are not employed in them when they are finished.

Action at this time is particularly desired because the battleship Connecticut, now building in the Brooklyn navy yard, will soon be completed. It was affirmed that 20 per cent. of the employes already have been thrown out of work because there are no more battleships now ordered.

It is believed that in the neighborhood of 20,000 barrels a day is the delivering capacity.

Southern Pacific Company to Complete One at Truckee Costing $10,000,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—The chief engineer of the Southern Pacific company has finished the supplementary system of plans and reports in connection with the six-mile tunnel to be bored in the Sierra Nevada mountains a short distance west of the town of Truckee. The object of the tunnel is to cut down the present mountain climb of 7017 feet by fully 2000 feet, and thereby eliminate many of the present curves and much of the grade.

It is estimated that the tunnel will cost $10,000,000 and that among other things it will cheapen the annual expense of operating trains over the mountain division by fully $100,000.

Trial Begins of New York Girl Who Killed Fellow Who Enslaved Her

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The trial of Berthe Clache, a 22-year-old French girl, on the charge of shooting and killing Emil Gordon July 20, was set for today in the court of general sessions.

Berthe Clache claims that Gordon, who was a young giant, standing over six feet and weighing nearly 350 pounds, had made her his slave for six years, during which time she said he beat her and forced her upon the streets to earn a living for him.

Although the girl admitted she killed Gordon the circumstances were so unusual that they have given rise to charges that members of the police had secretly urged the girl on.

BUSIEST CITY IN UNLIVE STATES

ADOLPHUS BUSCH SO TERMS LOS ANGELES

Predicts a Population of a Half Million in Ten Years and a Million in Twenty Years

Los Angeles has a greater future before it than any other city in the world.

Commercially it is the busiest city in the United States today. A spirit of enterprise has a grip on this city which it is impossible to excel.

This is my fourth visit to Los Angeles. During that time I have watched its growth with no little interest. I freely state that I have never seen it equaled.

Adolphus Busch, father of Wilhelm Busch, her apparent to the Budweiser millions, and the prospective father-in-law of Lieutenant Eduard Scharrer of the German army, was a visitor in this city yesterday and host at a dinner in the new Hotel Alexandria, at which one of the guests was Lieutenant Scharrer.

Following the dinner Mr. Busch was shown through the hotel by General Manager Whitmore. As the St. Louis millionaire strolled in an elegantly appointed apartment on the eighth floor, overlooking the city from one of the spacious windows, he declared:

"Upon what do you base such a glowing assertion?" was asked by one of his guests.

"Upon my knowledge of what Los Angeles has been in the past; upon what Los Angeles was a few years ago when I paid my first visit here; upon the hustle and bustle of the business streets; upon the remarkable number of big business blocks that are going up, and upon the tremendous increase of population. The growth during that time has been nothing short of wonderful."

"Within ten years the population of Los Angeles will have reached the 500,000 mark and I do not hesitate to say that in twenty years it will have reached 1,000,000."

"As I look out of this window down on the street and see the congestion of street cars, vehicles and pedestrians, I cannot help but admit that it is equal to that of any one of the larger eastern cities. Even busy St. Louis does not excite it. Any child who starts to what it will be within a few years."

"Los Angeles is what might be called a playground for the rich. Wherever you go you hear persons tell you they are coming out here and they do come, if not immediately they come later. Everybody wants to come, and it finally results in their arrival. History shows that a great per cent of the visitors 'go land and build homes.'"

"No city in the United States more clean and more thoroughly metropolitan. The business men are wide awake, up-to-date and appreciative of circumstances. Take for instance this city of Los Angeles. It is rapidly approaching the most modern improvements. The furnishings are of the most expensive, most comfortable and most convenient. Besides, if you take into consideration the time in which it was built, there is only one conclusion that can be drawn from it. The conditions of the city demanded it and the supply must be made equal to the demand."

"The character may be expensive, but the business men of Los Angeles have learned that they can almost place whatever price they choose on their wares, and it is ten to one they will do it. This could not be the case if there was not a tremendous influx of people."

"Commercialism in its present stage in Los Angeles is at the top notch. My own business in this city alone has increased 100 per cent every year for the last three years. Every business man to whom I talk agrees with me."

"There can be no question of the wonderful future that is in store for Los Angeles. It is rapidly approaching the point where it will be the greatest city in the southwest. The world wants to come here—the world will come here. Wealth will pour into Los Angeles in streams; there is nothing that can stop it."

"The climate of Southern California is the finest in the world, and the people at large will go where they like the climate. The wealthy will come here first, the man of moderate means will naturally follow him. It is the natural sequence of things. There is a future in store for the City of Angels that is hardly hard to estimate. Pasadena is not far distant when Los Angeles will be one of the largest cities of the world."

"At the dinner given yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Alexandria Mr. Busch's guests were: Lieutenant Eduard Scharrer of the German army, Carl Conrad, the millionaire's private secretary; F. A. Helm, one of Mr. Busch's representatives; A. Magnus and Z. C. Fisher, another of the millionaire's representatives.

"As the party left the spacious dining hall Mr. Busch was asked by a Herald reporter what the outcome of the rivalry between his daughter, Wilhelmine Busch, prospective marriage to the German lieutenant would be. Mr. Busch replied:

"As yet no definite arrangements have been made. My daughter, Mrs. Busch, who arrived in Pasadena a few days ago, said yesterday that she would remain here for three months. He declared that his health had never been better in his life. Most of his time will be spent in Pasadena at his palatial winter home on Orange Grove avenue."

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, even criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and debility which are aggravated by many household cares, and the hard and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that the cause of many of the troubles of this class of maidens is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits.

ANOTHER BLAZE ALARMS POLICE

CHILD NEARLY CREMATED ON WEST THIRD

Further Evidence of Incendiarism Alleged in Mysterious Restaurant Fire Which is Attributed to Pyromaniacs

More work of the gang of incendiaries infesting Los Angeles during the past few weeks, was evident in the $500 blaze that originated rear of a restaurant at 723 West Third street last evening.

Though F. Hukley and a waiter were in the cafe, they do not know how the fire started.

B. Furrer was passing along the north side of Third street when he noticed flames in the rear. Furrer rushed to a box at Third and Figueroa streets and the alarm was turned in at 8:05 o'clock. Within three minutes one company was on the scene.

The building in which the fire was raging was occupied by the Hukley restaurant, the Otto Keeney barber shop, Fred Woods' candy store and tenants on the second floor. All the occupants sustained loss from the flames, smoke and water.

As the alarm spread over the building, J. B. Brown and his family rushed from their apartments. As they passed along the hall they were blinded by smoke and heat.

Saves Her Grandchild

Once on the pavement Mrs. Brown discovered that her 4-year-old grandchild, Anna Mae Stoner, had not reached the ground.

Back through the clouds of smoke in the narrow hallway Mrs. Brown plunged. Once inside the apartments above the store in which the flames were raging she saw the child was playing on the floor. Her grandmother snatched her up and made her way finally to the ground. A minute later the passage was cut off by flames.

Ever since the flames were brought under control they had destroyed the interior of the restaurant, and had leaped to the Glenvista lodging house just west of the burning building.

About $500 damage was sustained to the two-story building in which it started and its contents. Nearly all the loss was covered by insurance. The building is the property of the Hewitt Real Estate company.

Positive of Incendiarism

Though the police made a thorough investigation of the premises they were unable to find any traces of incendiaries. They say they are positive that the fire was the work of incendiaries.

All day yesterday they searched for evidence against those believed to be guilty of firing the building near Fifth street on Main and the Standard building on Commercial. Richard Egan, appointed by the Medico-Legal society of the District of Columbia to investigate the condition of affairs at St. Elizabeth's government asylum for the insane, located near this city, has made a report to the society, in which serious statements are made regarding the management at that institution.

A copy of the report will be sent to the president of the senate and the grand jury may be called upon to make an investigation. The committee disclaims any desire or intention to reflect upon the personal integrity or ability of Dr. White, the superintendent of the hospital, but says it would appear from complaints made to the committee that straight jackets, handcuffs, etc., are in frequent use; that the "feeding tube" has been upon occasion thrust through the nostril down the throat as a method of punishment and discipline as well as of alleged necessity.

Many other like occurrences are reported. The committee is of the opinion that the conditions surrounding many of the ex-soldiers and sailors confined in St. Elizabeth's reflect no credit upon either the hospital authorities or the government. Reference is made to the "bull pen," where, it is said, some 600 are confined.

The committee refers to the report of the superintendent of the hospital regarding autopsies and makes this comment: "A like proportion of autopsies (114 out of 226 deaths), occurring in our city hospital, would necessitate a large staff of deputy coroners, especially at the hours of the day when the body was still warm, as has been authoritatively stated as has been done at St. Elizabeth's."

The report also says it would appear from complaints made to the committee that "grinding out" by the
