BY THE CHATTERER

SOCIETY WOMAN WHO PLANS CONCERT FOR CHARITY

The marriage of Miss Katherine Kendall and Lyman S. Trumbull was solemnized last evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wood, grandmother of the bride, at 104 West Thirty-sixth street. Rev. Lewis G. Morris of St. John's Episcopal church officiated. Miss Louise Bates of Santa Barbara played several selections on the piano during the ceremony and while the bride and bridegroom were on their way to the altar, Mrs. J. M. Jones played upon the harp.

Miss Marie Ballou of Crystal Lake, Ill., attended the bride as maid of honor and Miss Frances Bell of San Francisco served as flower girl. The gown worn by the bride was of white mousseline de sole, made en traine and trimmed with lace applique. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried lilies of the valley. For her traveling gown Miss Kendall chose a gray cloth suit with hat and gloves to match.

The maid of honor, Miss Ballou, wore white chiffon and lace and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The parlors of the pretty home in which the ceremony took place were decorated with the smiles, potted palms, ferns and white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Trumbull stood during the ceremony beneath a bell of white flowers.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mrs. Wilson, which attracted the guests. A platform enclosed in canvas led from the residence in which the service was performed to the home of Mrs. Wilson. In the dining room Japanese lanterns, pink flowers and greenery were used with good effect. A program of popular music was given during the supper hour by Mrs. Jones.

MRS. CHAS. WELLINGTON RAND

Affairs for charity are attracting the attention of society more than ever this year, and the children's hospital seems to be the most popular of institutions upon which to bestow the good things. The latest benefit planned is a concert to be given under the direction of Mrs. Charles Wellington Rand during the meeting of the Congress of Mothers in Los Angeles. The idea originated with Mrs. Jefferson D.

Gibbs and she asked Mrs. Rand to take charge. As Mrs. Rand is not only popular in social circles, but a leader in musical circles, the success of the affair is already assured.

Monday evening, May 16, has been chosen as the date and the concert will be given in the Mason opera house.

Undoubtedly the treasury of the hospital association will be greatly enriched.

A luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. McGee. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Paulsen of East Fourteenth street will be host and hostess at the next meeting, March 29.

Progressive Whist Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tibbetts of 1212 East Fourth street gave a delightful card party Thursday evening. The decorations consisted of California poppies and potted plants gracefully arranged about the rooms. Dainty refreshments were served on the small card tables. Those who enjoyed the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Newton, Mrs. Juanita La Rue, the Misses Lizzie Crowell, W. Norton and Messrs Clarence and George Howard, H. P. Coleman and Dr. J. Montague. First honor, a lovely hand-painted picture, was won by Mrs. L. P. Paulsen and the second by H. P. Coleman.

Gives Delightful Luncheon

A luncheon was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. C. B. Woodhead of 52 Buena Vista street, Mr. William Odiorne of Springfield, Ill., and Mrs. Mary E. Gard of Springfield, O., were the guests of honor. White lilies in tall cut glass vases were the decorations, and the places were marked with silhouette cards.

Announce Wedding Date

The date for the marriage of Miss Aroline B. Ellis, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Ellis of 731 West Eleventh street, and Fred Bacon has been announced as Saturday, April 3. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church. ## Josh Billings Said:

"You can't fool a wise man with praise that ain't true."

So much praise has been extended to us on the merits of our new spring styles of both men's and boys' attire by our patrons that it is quite apparent we are altogether too modest in our claims. It rather appears that the praise is "true."

Our window exhibits tell the story of choice furnishings, hats and caps, suits and overcoats, trousers, etc., for men and boys. Right prices and every worry made right.
