Former Financier Is Seeking to Recoup Fortune

Promoter Says Friends Betrayed His Trust

Erstwhile Long Beach Magnate Interviewed at Chihuahua Says He Was Deserted at Most Critical Moment

Henry P. Barbour, former real estate promoter and largely interested in Long Beach property, who fled from the city two months ago to avoid his innumerable creditors to whom he owed about $200,000, has been seen at Chihuahua, Mexico, according to A. M. Stansberry, a prominent Long Beach mining man.

In conversation with Mr. Stansberry Barbour declared that he had been betrayed by men who had promised to back him financially and that he was owing to their desertion that his debts fell through and he was involved to the extent of a quarter of a million dollars.

After leaving Los Angeles Barbour went to Rosanada, Mexico, and later left that little Spanish town for El Rio rancho, owned by a prominent Mexican grandee, Carlos de la Guerra.

Would Settle With Creditors
After enjoying ranch life for several weeks, the former wealthy real estate man has been traveling through Mexico with the view of finding a suitable location in which to begin life over again.

During his absence of more than two months Barbour's local attorneys have been trying to make a compromise with creditors in order that Barbour might return unmolested to his former scene of extensive realty deals.

But so far nothing has been settled, as Barbour's affairs were left in a chaotic state.

Mr. Stansberry formerly knew Barbour and hearing that the missing magnate was somewhere in Mexico, he was not much surprised to come across him in the busy city of Chihuahua. He found Mr. Barbour morose and brooding over the wreck of his once enormous business.

Says Friends Betrayed Him
Barbour blamed his associates for his financial ruin, charging them with withdrawing from his support at the time he needed more capital to float his schemes that promised to make him an American millionaire.

"These so-called friends of mine threw me down," said Barbour bitterly. "They promised to stand by me and that was the reason that I became involved."

He should not have invested so heavily had it not been for their supposed backing. Just at the time I needed their support they withdrew and I had to fail."

One of the principal methods employed by Barbour in his immense schemes was to purchase an option on some promising tract and then sell lots to various small owners. When it came time for him to make good the options he did not have the money and this caused his business to become badly tangled.

According to reports Barbour is not anxious to return to Los Angeles and he may make his permanent home in Mexico.

Although interest has waned in his affairs, the creditors of the big promoter would be glad to know of some means by which they could recover the many thousands of dollars they claim Barbour owes them.

DAUGHTER WANTS MUCH MORE

Marshall Field Estate Sued for Eight Hundred and Fifty-seven Thousand Dollars

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 14.—Mrs. Ethel Beatty, daughter of the late Marshall Field, commenced suit today against the executors of her father's estate, asking that the court direct them to turn over to her stocks and bonds to the amount of $857,000 which her father gave her before his death, but which were never delivered to her.

The suit is of a friendly character and designed to give to the executors legal authority for the transfer of the securities.

Mrs. Beatty inherited in the aggregate $6,000,000 from her father's estate, and the $857,000 is in addition to that amount.

BLOWUP INJURES BREWERS

Explosion of Oil in Stockton Beer Plant Hurts Employees and Starts Blaze

By Associated Press.

The fire department was called out, but brewery employees stopped the blaze without much damage.

The explosion was caused by gas which formed in the boiler, and when some waste was used to start the fire, the blow-up followed.

JOHNSTONE BENNETT ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Woman Who Has Pleaded Thousands With Her Clever Acting Makes Last Appearance on Life's Stage

By Associated Press.
MONTCLAIR, N. J., April 14.—Miss Johnstone Bennett, the actress, died here today, aged 35 years. She had been ill with tuberculosis for the past two years. Miss Bennett's body will be cremated at her own request and the ashes scattered to the winds.

Johnstone Bennett had had a romantic career from the day of her birth. She was born at sea and was of French and Spanish lineage. While still a very young child she was left motherless and then it was that she was adopted by a Mrs. Bennett. She began her life on the stage at an early age and the story of her rapid rise to prominence is an interesting one.

Her first engagement was with an obscure position with a small company, but soon it was seen that she was destined for better things. She became a member of Mansfield's company and her first appearance with him was as Sally in "Monsieur." Later she took part in "Bonnie Brummel" and in several other of the Mansfield successes.

After severing connections with Mansfield, she joined the company of Charles Frohman's companies and originated the titular role of Jane, one of her greatest successes was made in "The Amazon," in which she starred. In "The Female Drummer" she was also especially clever.

To the time of her death she retained the name her adopted mother gave her. She never married.

Operators Make Preparations for Battle and Place Imported Laborers in Several Collieries

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—Despite the optimism with which Mr. Mitchell views the situation in the anthracite fields, the miners' central committee and their men, through the region, express little hope of a peaceful settlement of the differences between the operators and the miners.

Leaders of the miners' organization are in hopes that the operators will accept some of the modifications contained in the last proposition of the scale committee.

On the other hand, officials of the coal companies have since Thursday in various sections been making obvious preparations for an extended suspension of mining operations.

Imported laborers are said to have been placed in several collieries.

GORKY SAYS SHE IS LAWFUL WIFE

REVOLUTIONIST IS INDIGNANT OVER SCANDAL

Declares He and Woman Now With Him Were Legally Wed. Ordered Out of Hotel

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 14.—When Maxim Gorky arrived in this country last Tuesday he stated to the immigration officials that he was accompanied by Madame Gorky. This morning the statement was published that his companion was not his legal wife, who, with his children, remains in Russia.

As a result of this publication Gorky today issued a statement which translated reads as follows:

"I think this disgraceable act against me could not have come from the American people. My respect for them does not allow me to suspect that they lack so much courtesy in their treatment of women. I think that this dirt is conspired by the friends of the Russian government. My wife is my wife—the wife of Maxim Gorky. She and I, we both consider it the lowest to go into explanation about this. Every one may say about us what he pleases. For us remains to overlook the gossip of others. The best people of all kinds will be with us."

Claims Story a Lie
The published story went on to say that the Mme. Gorky who is now with the author is Andreeva, a Russian actress, with whom it is stated he has lived since his separation from his wife, about three years ago. The explanation is that she is not his wife, because of the strong official feeling against him, Gorky secured a divorce in Finland and was married to Andreeva before a notary. When approached on the subject today Gorky said:

"The publication of such a libel is a dishonor to the American press, and I am surprised that in a country noted for its love of fair play and its reverence for women such a slandering libel should have gained credence. She is my wife. No law that was ever devised or made by man can make her more so than she is now. The insinuation that the relations existing between us are illicit, a base calumny. Never between man and woman were more holy and moral than that of ours."

Madame Gorky tried to appease her husband at this point, but he struck the copy of the paper in which the defamatory article appeared and cried: "A lie travels fast, and I must overtake this one before it has gone too far. I will prepare a signed statement for the press and see if right and justice prevail in America."

Madame Gorky sought to have the reporter translate the article in question to her, but Gorky violently tore the papers from her hands, saying: "I forbid you to read this horror."

Later, Gorky issued the signed statement quoted above.

Mark Twain Talks
Mark Twain and William Dean Howells, who had agreed to serve on the committee which Robert Hunter had started to organize to forward the Russian revolutionary cause, were seen by reporters today concerning the matter.

"I do not know," said Mark Twain, "what effect this publication will have on the committee which I have agreed to join. In Russia I am told political and social conditions are more or less interwoven, but here in this country the attitude in which the domestic relations are held are altogether different. I do not intend, anyhow, to take an active part in the work of the committee. But I believe in attacking the libel until everybody else deserts. I will hear the other twelve members before deciding whether I mean to get off the committee."

"Mr. Howells said: 'It is too delicate a matter for me to be quoted on. It would never do for me to discuss or criticize this thing, one way or another in the public prints. I cannot answer any question at present.'"

The Gorky party left the Hotel Belaire today at the request of the prior, and went to the residence of H. Gaylord Wilshire in West Ninety-third street as the guests of Mr. Wilshire.

GORKY FRIENDLY WITH ACTRESS

Alleged He Has Severed Relations With Wife, but Supports Children

By Associated Press.
ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—Madame Andreiva, who is said to have accompanied Maxim Gorky to the United States, is one of the best known actresses in Russia. Up to two months ago no divorce from his wife had been granted Gorky, but it is alleged his relations with her have been severed though he is still supporting her and their two children in St. Petersburg. It is also said that Madame Gorky fully understood the relations existing between M. Gorky and Madame Andreiva, but that nevertheless she was extremely devoted to Gorky.

Fully a score of other persons, principally children, were more or less injured, but none fatally.

A boy's prank was responsible for the accident. While Rev. M. Farnik, pastor of the church, was offering the evening prayer one of a crowd of boys who had been loitering outside the church suddenly pushed open the front door and shouted:

Seeing the serious effect the words had on the congregation the boy ran away and the police have been unable to find him or learn his identity.

FOUR KILLED IN CHURCH TUMULT

FALSE CRY OF FIRE STARTS FATAL PANIC

Easter Services in Chicago Place of Worship Has Tragical Ending. Women and Children Are Crushed to Death

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 14.—During a panic which followed a fire tonight while 400 persons were participating in the Easter service in the St. Ludmila's Roman catholic church, Twenty-fourth street and Albany avenue, three children and one woman were killed, and a score of others injured, several seriously. The majority of the worshippers in the church at the time the false alarm of fire was given were women and children, and in a few minutes all were in a tangled mass, fighting to escape from the supposed danger.

Many persons jumped through the windows, but the greater portion crowded to the center aisle. The extra weight proved too much for the floor and some of the beams supporting it broke. The crackling of the timbers increased the fright of the now terrified women and children and every one in the house became panic-stricken.

The women and children suffered most in the struggle and when the church was finally emptied three children, two women and children fighting desperately with each other in an effort to reach the outside.

TRACES A ROUTE FOR SALT LAKE

Temecula Canyon Right of Way Out of Riverside County Is Being Studied by Secret Representatives

Special to The Herald.
SAN DIEGO, April 14.—From sources that are known to be reliable it is learned that the engineer who was known to be in the city in the interests of the Salt Lake road, left this morning on a reconnaissance survey of the portion of the country through which the line from Riverside to San Diego would probably run if the company used the Temecula Canyon route out of Riverside county into this.

The engineer is supposed to have been sent here to seek out information for the use of the road.

After getting what could be found here he started over this line, which takes him out Mission valley, up Murphy's canyon to Linda Vista, thence into the Poway valley, through it to the Bernardo grant and then into the Escondido valley. From Escondido he will keep northwest to Marana and cross the Montezuma branch to Fallbrook, which is near the southern end of the Temecula canyon.

The engineer was, while here, careful to keep himself hidden from the people, save those whom he particularly wanted to see, and they decline to make public his name though they acknowledge having met and consulted with him.

The line which he is following out of San Diego is very close to the line proposed by H. T. Richards recently, but he denies all knowledge of the man or his movements.

Injured by Fall of Airship
ATLANTIC BEACH, Fla., April 14.—Israel Ludlow of New York, inventor of the aero-plane, was so badly injured by a fall here today that he will probably die. Mr. Ludlow was making a balloon launch in his aero-plane, which is one of the features of the automobile races.

Today, in tow of two automobiles, he ascended to a height of 150 or 200 feet when his aero-plane encountered a strong southerly wind, which was blowing with such force that it broke the bamboo supports and the wings of the aero-plane shot in, pinning him to his seat. With its occupant pinned in the aero-plane fell to the beach.

Two of Mr. Ludlow's vertebrae were knocked out of line, paralyzing his lower limbs. He was taken tonight to New York to secure the attention of a specialist.

LYNCH AND ROAST NEGRO SUSPECTS

Demolish Jail, Take Two Colored Youths Suspected of Assault, Hang and Roast Them in Public

By Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 14.—A mob tonight took two negroes from the county jail here and hanged them to the electric tower in the center of the public square and built a fire under the men as they hung. The negroes were Horace Duncan and James Copeland, both under 21 years of age. They were in jail charged with assaulting Mabel Edmondson, a white girl, last night. Fully 5000 people went to the county jail about 9 o'clock and with telephone poles and sledge hammers literally tore the jail to pieces. Finally the two negro suspects were dragged from the place and taken to the center of the public square and hanged. It is fully a mile from the jail to the square, and the mob marched down one of the principal streets of the town, shouting and firing pistols.

Mabel Edmondson came here recently from Monett, Mo., to obtain employment as a domestic servant. Last night she was riding in a buggy with Charles Cooper, a young man of Springfield. In a secluded part of the city the couple were held up by five negroes. The man was knocked unconscious and the girl dragged from the buggy and into the woods by the roadside and assaulted.

The two negroes lynched tonight were supposed to be arrested, but were only partially identified.

Threatens to Hang Others
The mob threatens to return to the jail and hang four other negroes charged with murder.

Circuit Attorney Arthur Sager of St. Louis was a witness of the tragedy. He slipped down into the cellar of the jail and cut off the gas, hoping to thus confuse the mob and defeat its purpose. He was a second too late. If the mob had secured the negroes, Sheriff Horner tried to argue with the mob, but it was determined and hooded and insulted him.

Jailer King was assaulted when he refused to give up the keys. He finally gave the mob some keys which were not for the negroes' cell, and the mob was forced to smash in the iron bars. Sheriff Wilson Crane of Polk county was present and tried to induce the mob not to hang the negroes.

Two months ago T. M. Kinney, a prominent tailor, was assaulted and two negro suspects are in jail. Later an old peddler was killed, and negroes were accused of that crime. This created a strong anti-negro feeling, and it was in fear that tonight's tragedy would be enacted that caused a delegation of negroes to try to prevent an anti-negro play from being given here.

The play, which was given, intensified the bitter feeling.

Men Hemmed Inside Turret; No Chance for Escape

Tragedy Follows Season of Severe Firing at Targets

Three Sections of Charge for Monitor 13-inch Gun Ignites and Blows Gunners to Eternity. Cause Not Known

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—Two years ago to a day later than the fatal Mis-souri disaster, as every sailor immediately recalled, on a Friday and the thirteenth of the month, seven men were done to death in the forward turret of the battleship Kearsarge by one of those accidents which make additional terror for sailors, because of their obscure origin and almost impossibility of prevention.

The Atlantic fleet had been for weeks engaged in most severe drills in the waters of the Caribbean sea, culminating in the quarterly target practice. This practice was just about concluding with most satisfactory results up to yesterday, and it was confidently expected at the department upon the basis of preliminary reports received that all records would be broken in the matter of rapidity of fire and efficiency of the gunners. But today, just at the close of the week's work at the department, came a cablegram from Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, telling of a dreadful accident on one of his best ships, the Kearsarge. The news came from Caimanera, a little cable station at the mouth of Guantanamo bay, indicating that the Kearsarge itself had arrived at that place.

Immediately upon receiving the cablegram Acting Secretary Newberry carried it to the president at the White House and was authorized to send the foregoing expression of sympathy. He also communicated the sad news to Secretary Bonaparte at his home in Baltimore over the long distance telephone. Meanwhile, by direction of Admiral Converse, chief of the navigation bureau, Captain Potter, the assistant chief, and Commander Wilson were busily engaged in looking up the addresses of the relatives of the victims and sending telegrams acquainting them with the news. Nothing more could be done in Washington until further details were received from Admiral Evans.
