"He gives twice who gives quickly," remember.

Now will the local street car companies give us owl cars?

Only one thing can be done now for stricken San Francisco—Give!

Now is the time when true charity indeed is "the greatest thing in the world."

Even the Vesuvius suffering dwarfs into pettiness beside the awful misery here at home.

Of course we had a little little shocks here; we do, every little while. But why be excited over them?

God reigns and has given California much to be thankful for, under any and all circumstances. Think that over!

Only a ghoul would use such an occasion as this to vaunt his own personality and make capital of others' dire distress.

The damage by earthquake was only a fraction compared to that caused by fire. The lurid flame is still the greatest terror known to man.

Yes, we had our temblors, thank you; so did every other city in the United States that had an instrument to record them. "Don't worry!"

Resuming the subject interrupted by the earthquake, give Los Angeles an owl car service and take this great city entirely out of the village class.

John D. Rockefeller gives $100,000 to suffering San Francisco. That's the sort of money that is not tainted, and it will go a long way toward making friends for the Standard Oil king.

No matter how much money other cities give to help San Francisco, the Los Angeles million in money and provisions should get there first. The people of San Francisco are our brethren.

Seventeen carloads of provisions were shipped north last night. It was a great offering, but how far will it go toward feeding 300,000 homeless people? Keep the good work going in that direction.

It is a source of great satisfaction to find that the buildings of the University of California at Berkeley are intact. There is still much to be thankful for.

Calm is the supreme quality demanded of Los Angeles right now. Even charity would be useless were panic to ensue. Keep a cool head and an open pocketbook.

Every report from the stricken cities brings fresh stories of horror. The magnitude of the calamity which has overtaken Central California is beyond conception, and it grows every hour.

Besides being a splendid horse show, that great function deserves the heartiest patronage for another and nobler reason. All its net proceeds go to the relief of San Francisco sufferers. Go and help out.

People who are inclined to be timid because one part of California has been shaken by an earthquake should remember that this is the longest state in the United States, and one end might be wiped off the map without the other feeling a jar.

Santa Rosa, San Jose and Salinas should not be overlooked in the distribution of food, shelter and clothing, if these cities are found to be in distress. Their needs may be proportionately great.

The appropriation of $1,000,000 by congress in aid of the San Francisco sufferers was an act of prompt and helpful generosity that is appreciated by all California. Los Angeles is just as grateful as is San Francisco for these noble deeds in behalf of the stricken metropolis.

Last night's relief train to San Francisco is only one of many to follow. Los Angeles never does things by halves, either in distress or prosperity. This is the "pull together" city on all occasions.

EVERYBODY KEEP COOL

Will everybody in Los Angeles pause to recall the fact that Los Angeles is 500 miles away from San Francisco and completely outside the natural pathway of earthquakes?

Will they not also stop to consider how senseless it would be to indulge in fears that may not be realized in a thousand years, if ever?

There has been a great tragedy in San Francisco, it is true, but we are their neighbors and it is our business as a courageous and brave people to stand on the edge of the battlefield with provisions and good cheer, supplies, money and encouragement.

A tremor or two doesn't indicate an upheaval, any more than one swallow makes a spring.

LET US BE MEN AND WOMEN!

Pull ourselves together and let us appreciate again the delicious sunshine, the green trees and the rose-embowered cottages of beautiful Los Angeles.

There is work for us to do. Half of San Francisco will be coming into this city of ours this week, expecting to find us happy, grateful and contented. Expecting to find us at the stations smiling and extending greetings of welcome.

Their expectations must be realized. They shall not be disappointed.

Cool heads and brave hearts are greater than an army with banners.

Therefore let every man, woman and child in Los Angeles at once shake off all natural feeling of apprehension—natural by reason of relationship with San Francisco—and stop jumping at every sound and staying up nights to hear the news.

Let every man return to his usual avocation and thank God he lives in this splendid city of the Angels!

GET BUSY—EVERYBODY!

There is no panacea for nervousness quite equal to work. If you haven't anything special to do, make something that will occupy all your time.

Quit thinking of the horrors of our neighboring cities up the coast and pitch right into making Los Angeles what the Lord surely intends it to be—the greatest and best city in this country.

And particularly remember this one fact:

EARTHQUAKES ARE NOT CONFINED TO CALIFORNIA!

They are common throughout the world. They are felt in St. Louis and Chicago, Charleston and New York just as often as they are in Los Angeles.

An official report of the weather bureau, issued last night from Washington, expressly stated that all the seismic instruments in the government service, in almost every city in the United States, indicated disturbances on Wednesday, while a distinct shock of earthquake was felt yesterday at the national capital itself, away on the other side of the continent.

There is no scientific or any other reason to apprehend trouble in Southern California. Wise men believe the worst is over in all parts of the country.

And don't worry about the future of business in this state. The earthquake at San Francisco and neighboring towns is destined to be a blessing in disguise, for those cities will all be immediately rebuilt—even as were Chicago, Charleston and Galveston—on a grander, cleaner and better basis.

In the meantime Los Angeles will be the city of refuge of all California cities that have been sorely afflicted, and our duties are at once so numerous that we cannot fail to find instant employment.

Let every man in Los Angeles, therefore, steady his nerves and cool his head and the natural course of our affairs will quickly be resumed.

Don't worry! It doesn't pay!

A SAGACIOUS PASTOR

The time passed years ago when the eastern states could claim a monopoly of Yankee ingenuity. Some of the brightest, most original and useful ideas of late years have sprung from southern brains. If any one is inclined to dispute that point let him note a church feature introduced in Knoxville, Tenn.

A great variety of schemes for filling church pews have been noted in The Herald, but for common sense method and effectiveness none approaches the plan of a Knoxville pastor. It was based on the observation of success in business affairs attendant upon liberal advertising. This sagacious minister argued that if advertising will accomplish such wonders as he noted in drawing people to shops and stores, why should it not be equally efficacious in swelling the congregation of a church?

Why not, indeed? The general purpose of advertising is to attract the attention of the reader. Even if the reader's interest is not excited his curiosity may be aroused to the point of investigation. In church affairs, as in those of a business kind, it is important to court the public. Believing in that theory the Knoxville pastor, backed by his church trustees, "decided to try a page ad. in two local morning papers." The result, as stated, was an increase of one-third in the congregation.

That pastor was simply following the admonition of the Savior: "And he said unto them, 'Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel or under a bed, and not to be set in a candlestick?'"

CHURCHES ALL WORK TOGETHER

UNITE TO RAISE FUNDS FOR RELIEF WORK

Sunday to Be Devoted to Collections Among All Denominations—Calls for Aid Issued by Bishops Conaty and Johnson

Churches, regardless of creed, are working together to alleviate the sufferings of the victims of the great disaster so far as it is in their power. All differences are forgotten in the general horror of the calamity, and Sunday will be set apart as a day of collections for the victims in all the churches of Los Angeles as well as throughout Southern California.

Bishop Conaty of the Catholic diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles has issued a call for contributions from his churches. It is thought that great damage has been done in the northern part of this diocese.

Bishop Johnson of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles yesterday issued a call for collections Sunday. So far as is known none of the Episcopal churches of this section has been damaged.

The Church Federation, composing the Protestant Evangelical churches of the city, will act tomorrow and it is expected that the collections taken up Sunday will be turned into the general relief fund.

BISHOP JOHNSON ISSUES PASTORAL TO HIS DIOCESE

Rt. Rev. Dr. Johnson, bishop of Los Angeles, has issued the following pastoral to the churches and people of his diocese. Its recommendation will be followed by all the Episcopal churches of Los Angeles and it is believed liberal response will be made thereto.

The Letter

Bishop's Office, 523 South Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.—My Dear People: In the presence of such an event as within the last twenty-four hours has brought suffering and sorrow to the hearts and into the homes of thousands of our brethren and fellow citizens of this state, I am calling you to prayer for those "under affliction" and to a devout remembrance of those who suddenly taken out of the activities of this life, God has in His dispensation some wise purpose to serve. Let us humbly, as we kneel in His presence, ask Him to disclose that purpose to us and by it lead many souls to a realization of the "shortness and uncertainty of human life."

This event emphasizes the claims of brotherhood and I am therefore requesting the clergy throughout the diocese to ask from the members of their respective parishes and missions gifts for the sufferers in San Francisco and adjacent cities. A special collection will be made on Sunday next in every church in our communion in Southern California. And I request that every person who by baptism has been made a member of the church of God should either contribute to this offering on that occasion or before Tuesday by a remittance through the mail to the parish treasurer.

The clergy are requested upon the closing Sunday of the Lenten season, before the offering is collected, to say the Lesser Litany, as a special act of devotion. At the same time using the prayer for those "under affliction" and the collect in the visitation office. "O God whose days are without end."

The offerings may be sent directly to Bishop Nichols, diocesan house, 731 California street, San Francisco. Commending you to the loving care of Almighty God.

Sincerely yours, JOSEPH JOHNSON.

SALVATION ARMY AND VOLUNTEERS IN THE FIELD NOW

Maj. Percy Morton, head of the local branch of the Salvation Army, left for the doomed city with nine assistants Wednesday evening. Funds will be raised by the army to be forwarded to the relief party. Commencing this morning boxes will be loaded on the streets to receive contributions. Mrs. Maj. Morton is left in charge of the local work.

Adj. Hughes of the Volunteers of America left last evening for San Francisco and will return to send instructions for further relief work. Funds will be raised to be at the disposal of the adjutant after he looks over the field and decides on a plan of action. Mrs. Adj. Hughes is in charge of the local work.

REV. A. S. PHELPS IS NOW IN PORTLAND AND IS NOT HARMED

Word was received yesterday from Rev. A. S. Phelps, pastor of the Central Baptist church of Los Angeles, that he left the ill-fated city before the disaster and is now in Portland, Ore., attending the Baptist conference. His friends here are much relieved as they were apprehensive for his safety.

No word has been received at the Sisters' hospital as to the fate of the Sisters of Charity in the north, where they have several institutions. The temblor yesterday was felt slightly at the local hospital but did not alarm the patients.

HIGHLAND PARK IS STARTING IN ON A NEW RELIEF FUND

The Highland Park Presbyterian church is raising additional funds to be sent north, already having raised a good sum at the prayer meeting Wednesday evening. The subscriptions are being turned in at Poor & Wing's office, 5124 Pasadena avenue.

A special meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the noon hour today to arrange for relief to be sent to the stricken city.

MINISTERS TO MEET SATURDAY TO PLAN SUNDAY COLLECTIONS

The ministers of Los Angeles will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A., when every minister is expected to be in attendance. Plans will be made for the collections to be taken up at all the churches

Sunday and the manner in which they will be distributed. Rev. E. P. Ryland, president of the federation, has issued a personal call for all to be present, including the members of the federation council.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Conaty has canceled all engagements and is engaging in the work of starting funds from his churches throughout the diocese. Last evening the bishop had received no reports as to the damage in the diocese, but it is known to be considerable.

B. FAY MILLS WILL TALK ON DISASTER SUNDAY MORNING

"The Occurrences of the Week in San Francisco" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Benjamin Fay Mills, permanent minister of the Los Angeles Fellowship, at Blanchard hall, 231 South Broadway, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Helen Tappe, soprano, will sing "Peace and Rest," and Alfred E. Walker, violinist will play "Meditation." The doors will be open at 10:30 o'clock. All seats are free and the public is cordially invited.

No evening service will be held, but the Sunday school will be conducted by Reynolds E. Blight. Sunday and Wednesday meetings of the Fellowship will hereafter be held at Blanchard hall instead of the Masonic temple.

CALL FOR WOMEN TO MEET AND HOLD ALL-DAY SEWING BEES

Mrs. Walker, wife of Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, is actively engaged in securing relief for the sufferers of the doomed city and has suggested the idea that the women of the different churches of Los Angeles gather for all-day "sewing bees" to make garments for the sufferers, many of whom are without sufficient clothing.

Mrs. Walker has suggested the project in a timely and thoughtful way and is working in harmony with the city pastors, all of whom approve the idea. It is expected that the women of Immanuel church will take immediate action and that other churches will follow.

BISHOP CONATY TO MAKE APPEAL TO CATHOLICS

Rt. Rev. Bishop Conaty has postponed the confirmation service at the Sacred Heart church which was to have occurred Sunday morning. He will preach the sermon at the cathedral of St. Vibiana, where he will make a personal appeal for funds for the northern sufferers. It is expected that he will administer confirmation at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's church, as originally announced.

ARMY LEADER GOES NORTH TO AID SUFFERERS

Adjutant Hughes of the Volunteers of America will leave this morning with money and help to aid Col. Duncan in San Francisco. All of the donations which are received at local meetings will go to aid in the San Francisco relief work. Adjutant Hughes will draw on the local volunteers for any aid that is needed and can possibly be given.

ENTOMBED ALIVE FOR FIVE HOURS

One Man Only Escapes from Hotel at Santa Rosa—More Than Half the Entire Population Perishes

By Associated Press. OAKLAND, April 19.—C. A. Duffey of Owensboro, Ky., who has been in Santa Rosa since last October, was the only one out of several scores to escape from the floor in which he was quartered in the St. Rose hotel of Santa Rosa.

Mr. Duffey says when the shock came he rushed toward the stairway but the building was swaying and shaking so that he could make no headway and turned back.

Dresser Saves Him He threw himself in front of the dresser in his room, trusting to that object to protect him from the falling timbers.

This move saved his life. The dresser held up the beams which tumbled over him, and these in turn protected him somewhat from the falling mass of debris.

"I was imprisoned five hours," said Mr. Duffey, before finally being rescued.

Imprisoned Five Hours "Three times I tried to call and the rescuers heard me but could not locate my position from the sound of my voice, and I could hear them going away after getting close to me.

Finally I got hold of a latrine from the ruins around me, and I looked through a hole left by the falling of a steam pipe and waving it and yelling at the same time finally managed to show the people where I was.

Three Hundred Perish "There were about 300 people killed in the destruction of the three hotels, and not less than 500 in the whole town.

The whole business section of the place collapsed at once and was leveled to the ground almost inside of five minutes. Then the fire started and burned Fourth street from one end to the other, making it through and through in the middle, thus sweeping over the ruins and burning the imprisoned people.

Frantic Appeal for Help "I saw two arms protruding from one part of the debris and waving frantically. There was so much noise, however, that the screams could not be heard. Just then I looked, and flames swept over them and crushingly finished the work begun by the earthquake. The sight sickened me and I turned away."

MILLIONS GIVEN FOR RELIEF OF THE SUFFERERS

NATION RESPONDS TO CALL AT ONCE

Corporations, Millionaires, Weekly Wage Earners and Even the School Children Unite in Lending a Helping Hand in California's Hour of Direst Need

(By Herald Staff Correspondent.) SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—"In the midst of life we are in death."

Never before in the history of the stately and majestic San Francisco of forty-eight hours ago has the reality of those few words been more mightily emphasized.

Assembled in all the little parks throughout the city are encamped the sufferers. The wailing and crying is pitiful to those who look upon the scene of the hundreds of homeless men, women and children. It is rendered all the more sorrowful to the spectators who are wholly unable to give them assistance.

Skies Are Blackened From all sides seems to come the crashing roar of the miles of devastating fire. The skies are blackened with the pall of the gigantic volumes of smoke as they roll on toward the sea to be lost forever.

Innately from all parts of the ruined Golden Gate city come big flashes of red fire, telling the tale of the wrecking of another home by dynamite; another effort to abate the fury of the raging flames.

But it seems to be all useless. San Francisco is surely destined to be wholly wiped out.

Sufferers Are Not Forgotten Above the crying and wailing of the thousands of homeless come the echoes of prayers of thanksgiving from those whose lives have been spared; prayers of thanksgiving for the hundreds of thousands of people throughout the United States who have so nobly contributed out of the fullness of their hearts toward their relief.

On the streets the Sisters of Mercy assailed about their pastor are kneeling in prayer. "To Thee, O Lord, we give thanks," they say; "thanks that our lives have been spared so that we may render what service we can to our stricken brothers and sisters."

Whole Nation Responds With the awful grief, horror and death about them, when at each turn of the eye they see nothing but the ruins of once grand stately buildings, whose steel girders have been mangled in a shapeless mass with costly stone blocks and pillars, the homeless have been deeply affected by the response of the nation to their cries of pain and sorrow.

Throughout the entire country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts, from Canada to Mexico and from far away Europe words of cheer and comfort have reached the ears of the thousands of suffering San Franciscans.

It is for these millions that the stricken are praying tonight—praying that a similar fate may never befall them—that the tremendous catastrophe that has raged San Francisco may never again be repeated.

Among the notable contributions that have been made to the homeless and maimed in San Francisco are: John D. Rockefeller, gift of $100,000. Appropriated by congress, $1,000,000. Portland, $50,000. Sacramento, $50,000.

BERKELEY OPENS WIDE ITS DOORS

SUFFERERS TO HAVE EVERY ATTENTION

Students, Clergymen, Business Men, All Are Doing Their Utmost to Assist the Homeless Thousands

By Associated Press. BERKELEY, April 19.—Extraordinary relief work for the benefit of the vast population which was rendered homeless by the San Francisco earthquake is being accomplished by a local citizens' committee headed by Rev. E. L. Parsons, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The work of providing meals and sleeping accommodations for the large numbers who are pouring into Berkeley by every train from San Francisco is being joined by university and townspeople alike.

President Wheeler has thrown open the grounds of the university to the weary refugees from the burning city across the bay and the churches have undertaken the task of supplying great quantities of food.

Meals in Large Tent Meals will be served from a great tent, which has been erected under the campus oaks, while sleeping accommodations will be provided by strewing the baseball field with a deep layer of straw. If the weather proves inclement the homeless will have the opportunity of sleeping in Harmon gymnasium. Tents will also be placed on the campus.

All the parish houses of the Episcopal churches of the city have been given over to the use of the needy, and many charitably inclined citizens are giving their extra home accommodations to those from across the bay. A special request has been sent to the women of Berkeley to bake all the bread they possibly can as there is a distressing bread famine on the other side of the bay.

No Bread to Be Had This is accounted for by the fact that all the bakeries that have been left standing are not allowed to build fires under their chimneys on account of the danger of starting other fires through damaged chimneys.

The Native Sons and Daughters and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks kept open house last night for the relief of the poor.

Medical attention for a large number of persons injured in the San Francisco earthquake and subsequent fire is being provided in Berkeley.

All Hospitals Open The local hospitals have been thrown open and the medical men of the university town are bending every effort to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate.

Among those who are believed to be fatally hurt are William Cunningham, whose skull was crushed in the collapsing walls of a hotel, and C. W. Harris, a lumberman, of 908 Howard street, San Francisco, who was badly burned about the head.

While every attention is to be given by the citizens of Berkeley to the homeless San Franciscans, care will be placed on the relief of the earthquake victims during the time that the university grounds and homes of the college town are thrown open.

To provide adequate protection all the student cadets of the University of California were summoned to report at the army tonight and detailed for guard duty.

A large number of special deputies have been sworn in by the chief of police to prevent thieving.
