

OCCIDENTALS ARE VICTORIOUS

DEFEAT THE POMONA BOYS AT CLAREMONT

Highlanders Give Clever Exhibition Despite Numerous Errors Which Marked the Diamond Contest

After one of the fastest college diamond contests ever played in Southern California the Occidental team yesterday defeated the Pomona nine by a score of 3-1 on the Claremont campus. The Occidental aggregation proved that they are capable of fast fielding, and yesterday's exhibition was probably the best which the Highlanders have given during the past few years. A member of the Stanford team who witnessed the contest said that the Presbyterian team compared favorably with the Cardinals.

The game was started with a rush, and Spaulding of the Occidentals, after lining out a two-bagger, scored in the first inning on Beal's drive to Moorman.

Occidental scored again in the fifth on a hit by Spaulding and a wild throw to first, which allowed B. Merrill to take second and put Spaulding over the plate. A pretty unassisted double by Moorman retired Merrill and Beal, and Irwin retired the side by striking out.

Occidental scored in the eighth on an error, a steal and a hit.

Y. M. C. A. METEORS ARE BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

DEFEAT TURNERS IN FINAL GAME OF SERIES

Dutton and Faithful Throw Baskets for Victors—Maroons Conquer Whittiers

The well known yell of the victorious Meteors was heard above the wild cheering of the basketball fans who filled the Turner gymnasium, 1345 South Figueroa street, to its doors last night. After the Turners had run up a score of 8 to 0 in the early part of the first half, the Meteors awakened and by the repeated basket throwing of Faithful and Dutton, soon passed their opponents, winning the game in sensational style by the score of 27 to 17, and also capturing the championship pennant of Southern California.

The Y. M. C. A. Maroons were in championship form, defeating the Whittier team by the score of 33 to 24.

The feature of this game was the fine pass work and accurate basket throwing of Loomis, Mow and Stanley Mitchell. The local Y. M. C. A. won first and second place.

The match game between the Rushers and Whittier Pirates was won by the Rushers by the score of 18 to 5.

SAINTS DEFEAT UNIVERSITY

Holmes' Men Give Champions a Scare in Latter Part of the Game

The champion St. Vincent's college nine defeated the University of Southern California team by a score of 5 to 4 in the game played on the Vincentian campus yesterday afternoon.

The result was somewhat of a surprise, as the Grand avenue boys have been playing league ball during the preliminary contests of the season. While holding the university men safe at all stages of the struggle, the Saints were given a scare in the latter portion of the game, when Holmes' men edged up and threatened to make things uncomfortably interesting.

ROUGH RIDERS WILL APPEAR

Champion Busters to Exhibit Wild West Prowess at Fiesta Park

Another wild west show is scheduled to occur at Fiesta park, May 5 and 6, when O. L. Grimley and his band of rough riders will participate in what is promised to be a real exhibition of the border sport. Grimley won the championship of the west at the tournament held in Denver two years ago, and in company with some of the riders who competed with him is traveling about the country giving exhibitions of the prowess that reigns supreme on the plains. It is said that the horses which appear in the show are among the roughest bronchos in the country, and not of the sort which has characterized many of the "broncho bustings" held in Los Angeles.

SENATE MAY CUT SALARIES DEEP

CANAL OFFICIALS' PAY TO BE PRUNED

Probable Candidates for Government Jobs Decreased by Committee

Expected Shonts Will Resign

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 28.—In considering suggested legislation for the government of the canal zone, the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals today discussed the question of salaries of canal commissioners and incidentally the nominations pending.

It was argued that the salary of the chairman was too high, and several senators favored reporting a resolution fixing the compensation of various canal officials at considerably less than they are now receiving. In the event the salary of the chairman is decreased, it is expected Theodore P. Shonts, the present chairman, will resign. He now receives $30,000 annually. The chief engineer, John F. Stevens, receives the same amount, but it is the intention of the committee not to disturb his compensation. Governor Magoon of the canal zone is a member of the canal commission, a member of the executive committee and minister to Panama. The committee is said to be at unit against one man holding so many positions.

LAYS RUIN TO A CORPORATION

Cleveland Man Says Wife Married Him as Part of Conspiracy Made by It

Special to The Herald. CLEVELAND, April 28.—"They got the woman to marry me to find out my business secrets," said Peter Milloy, electrician, to Judge Strimple today. Milloy, in resisting an application for alimony by his wife, aged 20, charged that a wealthy corporation in the electric business ruined him.

"My wife told me that this concern was financing her divorce case," said he. Mrs. Milloy had her husband arrested about three months ago, charged with choking her. In police court he was discharged.

"She told me before marriage," said Milloy, "that she would come into a fortune of $250,000 on July 10." Judge Strimple ordered him to pay $1 a day to his wife. As she was leaving the court room he rushed after her.

"Here's your dollar," he yelled, interrupting the proceedings in another case.

GIRL IN BATTLE WITH DOG

Animal Attacks Young Woman, Then Several Men, and Is Shot by a State Senator

Special to The Herald. DERBY, Conn., April 28.—With a large Newfoundland dog snapping at her and her horse, Miss May Doolan drove into Seymour today in terror. The dog had met her a mile away and tried to jump into the carriage. Twice the brute fastened its teeth in the horse's leg, only to be beaten back by the animal's heels.

In front of the Seymour brass mill the dog attacked the horse of Jacob Sunheim, who with workmen fought it off with pitchforks. The dog then sprang upon John W. Pilling, superintendent, and tore off his coat.

At his risk of hitting Pilling, State Senator W. H. Wooster, head of the rifle, opening the window of his office, killed the dog with a shotgun. Miss Doolan, whose horse ran away, was caught and she was taken home in hysterics.

VOLUNTEER TO ACT AS OFFICERS

STRICKEN CITY DIVIDED INTO THIRTY DISTRICTS

San Francisco Citizens Offer to Guard Homes Without Compensation and Are Handed Stars Forthwith

By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Nearly four hundred men were sworn in as special police officers by Circuit Judge Hoamer this afternoon.

The city has been divided into thirty districts and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and number with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority.

These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community.

No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

Patrol Not Recognized. At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Finnan and Capt. Burkett state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police and soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in nor was anything said to them about pay.

They are being told by the officers of the organization to get instructions from their captains and are given to understand that service will begin at once.

It is said that the swearing in of men will continue tomorrow and until 2500 men have been listed in the service.

FUN WITH THE SODA CLERK

Man Has It Proving That There's No Corrosive Sublimite in Lithia Tablets

Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, April 28.—A despondent-looking man rolled into a Times Square drug store yesterday afternoon and calling for a glass of water pulled from a pocket a small bottle, extracting a tablet which he dropped into the glass. Holding the water on a level with his eyes, he looked thoughtfully at the tablet slowly dissolved. Then, with a sigh, he turned to the young soda clerk, who was watching him narrowly.

"It's a hard life," he remarked gloomily; "we'd best be out of it." "What's that you put in the glass?" asked the boy nervously.

"Now, Willie," answered the other, "you're a sweet young thing, all right, but I'd advise you to go back to the patchouli department for more."

The boy reached over to examine the potion the man was arranging. "None o' that," growled the disconsolate one. "That's corrosive sublimite, and it's my flesh, see!"

Then he raised the glass and drank its contents. The boy jumped over the counter and ran out, yelling. He brought back a policeman and a crowd.

"What's all this?" demanded the policeman. "Oh, just the mere trifle of the finish of a man who's tired," answered the rolling one indifferently.

The policeman stuck his hand into the man's pocket and brought forth a bottle labeled: FIVE-GRAIN LITHIA TABLETS.

"What the devil d'ye mean by throwing us this sort of a scare?" demanded the policeman. "That's all right," responded the unsteady one, shambling out. "I just wanted to teach that squab over there not to be so darned new; that's all."

Then he walked out with a chuckle.

LOVE LETTER TO UNCLE SAM

Man Sends His Best to the Government for Finding Cash Lost in Mails

Special to The Herald. WASHINGTON, April 28.—A letter has just been received at the postoffice department from a man who recovered through the dead letter office a small sum of money that had been lost in the mails. The letter, addressed to "My Dear Government," is subscribed "Loyally yours." It reads as follows:

"I received your favor of the 11th instant and thank you very much. This is not the first sign of loyalty our government has shown me. I wish I could tell you how dear our government is to me. Our forefathers fought in the Revolution and their spirit has descended to their children and will remain till the end of time. I think I have had four or five losses of money returned from the dead letter office in the past. I send many thanks and much love."

DUFFY SEES THE PLAY

But as it is Chinese He Has Trouble Bringing It to Court

Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, April 28.—The Chinese Melpomene, which is the Tragic Muse, and the majesty of American law, as represented by Ireland, wrestled in the Center street court before Magistrate Wahle, whose name tells his Teutonic extraction. Melpomene won on points.

Patrick Duffy, known in the Eldridge street police station as one of the most eloquent and aesthetic members of the force, was called to the stand in the Sunday-closing case against John Cavanaugh, manager of the Chinese theater.

"What was the nature of the performance?" asked Magistrate Wahle. "The nature of the performance was noise. It wuz somethin' terrible. You see these black rings under me eyes? OI couldn't slape fer three nights."

"Was it a comedy?" "It wuz not. There wuz no fun in the house."

"Was it a tragedy?" "It wuz the awfulest tragedy that iver happened."

"Well, did the principal die as the victim of fate after an enthralling fight against adverse circumstances?" "Most all died at one time, 'mother. Every now an' then a fat Chink 'ud die o' the cramps."

"Maybe it was an oratorio?" suggested Magistrate Wahle delicately. "It might 'a' bin."

"Perhaps a cantata?" "OI have not the Chinese tongue. They might 'a' bin callin' everybody all the names, or they might 'a' bin askin' each other out to a saloon fer a schooner o' beer. Be the looks o' their faces OI think they wuz cussin'. Cantata? I guess it was a cancan."

"What kind of musical instruments did they use?" "Yer honor, they used no musical instruments at all. They bought out a junk shop, an' each feller had two pieces o' junk which he slambang together an' hollered. But the haythin injured it, but ivry man to his likes, says OI."

"Officer Duffy" called out Magistrate Wahle in a mock passion of anger, "do you mean to say, sir, that you arrested Mr. Cavanaugh here without knowing what you arrested him for? Were there any violations—that's what this court wants to know—were there any violations?"

"Well, yer honor, OI pinched him in the first place because the cap'n told me to. An' in the second place it wuz safe. Be the way the Chinks talked an' cut up on the stage there must 'a' bin a hundred violations."

Nevertheless Cavanaugh was discharged.

TOWN IN MAD DOG CASE

Claims Husband of Woman Victim Has Money in Bank and Demands He Reimbursed

Special to The Herald. GREAT BARRINGTON, April 28.—Because Antonio Pezzi considered that he had turned a clever business stroke when he allowed the town of Sheffield to help defray the expenses of his wife at the Pasteur institute after she had been severely bitten by a mad dog some weeks ago, he could not keep it to himself, but went about informing everybody that he had a bank account and making so much noise about it that the town officials conducted an investigation, discovered $600 in a Great Barrington bank and on Saturday brought suit against him for $125.75.

Mrs. Pezzi was one of the most seriously injured of all those who were bitten by maddened dogs in this section late in January, and owing to her supposed poverty her case excited considerable attention and sympathy, particularly among the wealthy residents. Steps were taken to raise a fund for the purpose of securing the best treatment possible, and when all the money was in it was discovered that there still lacked over $125 of enough to provide for her.

The contention is that in accepting the town's money for her maintenance Mrs. Pezzi conceived a town charge, the statute forbidding the extension of town charity to anyone possessed of real estate or a bank account.

Pezzi has taken no steps to fight the case as yet, but it was given out that he would make preparations to do so today, he maintaining that neither he nor Mrs. Pezzi asked for the town's assistance, that it was rendered voluntarily and without their acquiescence, and that furthermore the bank account belongs to him and not his wife. The writ is returnable on Thursday in the Great Barrington court.

"STONE" A STICK OF DYNAMITE

Collector Found a "Girocity" in the Roadway and Placed it in His Basket

Special to The Herald. WINSTED, Conn., April 28.—John Butler, who lives in West Torrington, saw what he thought was a queer stone in the middle of the highway leading from West Torrington to Goshen, picked it up, took it home and placed it in a basket of stones he had collected.

A member of the family later identified the new stone as a half stick of dynamite. Several teams passed over the dynamite before Butler reached it, but fortunately none of the horses or wagon wheels struck it.

TALK-O-PHONE

Talk Is Cheap So Are The TALKING MACHINES Which We Offer to Give You Absolutely Free

Do you like music? If you had one of these Talking Machines do you know what it would mean to you and your family? Imagine yourself on Broadway; everybody is craning his neck to catch a sign of the procession about to pass. It's coming—hear that? That's the incomparable Sousa; see the drum major. Can you hear the trombone solo, and now the full band again? Now let us turn down this side street—there's a street faker spinning his yarn. What's that he's saying? Oh, he's telling the story about the patent medicine man (Record 2065). You stop and listen—your sides shake with laughter. Now you go to Coney island; the first thing to attract you is the vaudeville show; record after record of coon songs, Irish love songs and banjo solos, "The Man Who Spent Three Weeks in the Insurance Business," quartets, medleys and a lot more. You have passed an hour and a half and didn't know where the time had gone. Then there's the record of the dog fight (Record 860). Now let us take a trip in the opposite direction. Mind you, it's the machine which is taking us to the opera tonight, but the seats are not five or ten dollars each, and we don't need to put on a dress suit either. Such a program—Caruso, Melba, Sembrich, Gadski, Tamagno, Calve, Eames, Scotti and a host of others; and now after several hours we are ready to retire, that old ballad "Ben Bolt" brings back the odor of roses in a village cottage years ago, and you leave the machine and seek your bed, after having forgotten your troubles, and your dreams are sweeter because of the old memories which have been recalled.
