FRENCH ALLIANCE ENTERTAINS MANY

Mlle. Boffa's violin solos well received. An interesting program was given by the French alliance last evening at Robinson auditorium.

Mlle. De Longpre was heard to advantage, as were others on the program—M. Auclair is congratulated.

An interesting program was given by the French alliance last evening at Robinson auditorium. The numbers on the program were well rendered and interesting, special mention being made of Mme. Charlotia Boffa, who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria" with much feeling, and also Mlle. Bertina Boffa, who gave two well rendered violin solos.

The play was interesting and held the auditors with marked attention to the end. Mlle. de Longpre was heard to advantage in the part of Henriette while Mlle. Crot illuminated the part of Stephanie.

The alliance is under the leadership of Jacquard Auclair, who must be congratulated for his painstaking and effective efforts. Mme. Jones of Santa Monica is the president and Mme. Modjeska is the honorary president.

Following is the program: Les Sylphes, pour piano (Theodore Ritter), Par Mlle. Marie Lebeaud; La Robe. Poeme (Manuel) DIT par Mme. J. Auclair; Ave Maria de Gounod (Gounod) chanté par Mme. Charlotia Boffa, avec accompagnement de violon et de piano; Les Prunes (Alphonse Daudet), Triolets dits par J. Auclair; nocturne de Chopin, pour violon (Chopin), Par Mlle. Bertina Boffa, accompagnement de piano par Jean de Chauvenet; Le Ramasseur de Bouts de Cigares (Cocquelin Cadet), DIT par Andre Roussevier; Le Chapeau d'un Horloger (piece en un acte). Amedee (doneslique), Andre Roussevier; Gonzalez, A. de Rostaing; Rodrigues, A. Rostenrody; le portier, E. Mazy, Jr.; Henriette, Mlle. Blanche de Longpre; Stephanie, Mlle. Marguerite Crot.

Hurry and Worry

Hurry, like a cyclone, whirls you along at a rate that quickly exhausts your energy, and leaves you a nervous, wretched, broken-down physical wreck.

Worry accomplishes the same results in another way. It drags you through the dark, gloomy tunnel of forodings, wrecks your nerves and breaks down the constitution.

Then don't hurry; don't worry. But you will; and your nervous, exhausted condition brings headaches, neuralgia, heart, stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The thing to do is: Strengthen the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerveine.

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, a cough, couldn't stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and began to improve before I had finished the first bottle, and to-day I am entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER, 224 Hudson St., Timm, O. Dr. Miles' Nerveine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

MESTAYER JOINS BELASCO FORGES

TO PRODUCE BERNARD SHAW AND IBSEN PLAYS

First Appearance Will Be as a Co-Star With Amelia Gardner—Tom Oberle Will Also Be Seen

Harry Mestayer, the well-known actor whose devotion to the Ibsen cause has brought him considerable recognition in the theatrical world, is to transfer his efforts from the stage of the Burbank theater to that of the Belasco, and will be seen in a series of special matinees.

Mr. Mestayer's first appearance at the Belasco will be as a co-star with Amelia Gardner on Tuesday afternoon, July 17, when either one of Ibsen's better known plays or one of George Bernard Shaw's works will be the offering.

WILL LECTURE ON TALMUD

Rabbi Meyers Hopes to Remove Race Prejudice Which He Says Exists

In order that the Jewish race may be judged less by the individual members thereof and more by the literature of the race, Rabbi Isidore Myers, B. A., will deliver a lecture upon the subject of "The Talmud" at Simpson auditorium Thursday evening, June 28, at 8 o'clock.

The lecture which Rabbi Myers will give has received the highest praise from prominent churchmen of all creeds in America and England. His purpose in giving the lecture, as stated yesterday, is to bring the races more closely in touch with one another.

A great deal of the prejudice which exists is the result of an imperfect knowledge regarding the Jewish race, and to remedy that condition so far as is in his power, Rabbi Myers will deliver the lecture.

In order that church members of all denominations may be able to attend the lecture tickets have been distributed among the pastors of the different churches and any one wishing to attend may secure tickets in that manner.

All public school teachers may secure tickets through the principals of their schools.

SAYS STACKPOLE'S CONVICTION SURE

District Attorney Fleming Says Detectives Have Secured Much Additional and Damaging Evidence

"Yes, we will convict Ernest G. Stackpole of the murder of Joel Scheck," said Deputy District Attorney Fleming last night when questioned as to the outcome of the approaching trial. "I made this statement soon after the arrest and I am more firm in my belief now than ever."

"I would not have made this statement if I had not been sure of the grounds upon which I was standing. I am willing to stake my reputation as an attorney that the man will be convicted. We are daily getting more evidence and the case is becoming stronger."

Replies to letters sent to eastern cities regarding the past of Stackpole are being received by those who are handling the case. These indicate, it is said, that the prisoner has been in the toils several times before on serious charges.

Set Preliminary Hearing Stackpole will be taken into court this afternoon and the time for his preliminary examination will be set. Mrs. Seghek will at the same time be arraigned.

Mr. Fleming said last night that he would not introduce all the evidence in his possession at the preliminary examination, for he says he does not believe this procedure will be necessary in order to hold the man on the murder charge.

Capt. Flammer said yesterday he had received dispatches stating that Stackpole was sentenced to the penitentiary at Salt Lake City under the name of Harry Poole December 12, 1902, being convicted of robbery. He was pardoned May 21, 1905. Capt. Flammer also said that Stackpole, previous to that time, had served three years at San Quentin.

BEGAN EARLY IN LIFE HIS CAREER AS A CRIMINAL

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. TWENTY BRIDGES, Mont., June 21.—The young man who is being held in Los Angeles on the charge of murdering Joel Scheck, is well known in this section, having been raised at Silver Star, in Madison county. His record as a criminal began about twelve years ago when he attempted to levy blackmail on one of the principal banks in Butte. On account of his youth and family connections he escaped punishment.

After his trouble in Butte he went to California and was mixed up in a highway robbery, convicted and sentenced to San Quentin, and here again powerful influences were brought to bear on the governor of California and after a short stay in the penitentiary, Stackpole was pardoned.

WILL NOW BEGIN LIFE'S REAL WORK

FORTY RECEIVE DIPLOMAS FROM J. S. C.

Rev. Robert McIntyre Addresses Seniors on "The Battle of Life" and Outlines Their Future Course

Twenty maids and the same number of men donned the cap and gown of the senior last evening and assembled at Simpson auditorium to receive diplomas at the twenty-third annual commencement of the University of Southern California.

They were the members of the senior class of the college of liberal arts, music and oratory. The auditorium was brightened with the cardinal and gold of the university and the platform was banked high with the baskets of blossoms and other floral tributes presented to the graduates.

Seated on the platform were President George F. Bovard, Dean F. M. Porter of the college of law, Dean Walter F. Skeels of the college of music, Dean W. L. Judson of the college of fine arts, Dean Beulah Wright of the college of oratory, the members of the faculty and the speakers of the evening. Bishop Hamilton pronounced the invocation.

President Confers Degrees A quartet composed of Misses Harrison and Kelly and Messrs. Chick and Walker sang "All Praise to God" from "Lohengrin," and later sang "Gypsy Life." The degrees were conferred by Dr. George F. Bovard and Rev. Robert McIntyre gave the address to the graduates.

"The Battle of Life" was his subject, and he pointed out the obligation of each person to make some good use of his opportunities.

"God does not want me to be a cipher with the rim rubbed out," said he. "He has fashioned the life of each one of us in a different mold and he has destroyed the mold of each."

"Always intend to be something. Have the higher selfishness. The first battle that must be won is the battle for self. The higher selfishness is noble, honorable, divine."

"Brother, you are as unique and original a creation as Adam. Sister, you are as unique and original as Eve. Give God a chance to justify himself for every life, and if you do not justify this plan it will be wasted."

"Be yourself. Let him work out his life plan for you."

Changes Former Ideas "I used to think that I should like to have everyone think as I thought, dress as I dressed, act as I acted, live as I lived, but oh, how much this has changed. I went into a place called a crystal palace, where there were hundreds of mirrors. I saw 135 men that looked just as I looked, moved just as I moved and acted just as I acted. I almost went crazy. I have heard of people being tired to death, but I should have been McIntyre to death had I stayed in that place an hour."

"Never since have I wanted people to be just like me."

"The battle is on and you must fight. It rages around you and you dare not stay out of the strife. Always be on one side or the other and fight the fight in a way that will reflect credit on your maker."

The degrees and those upon whom they were conferred were: Master of Arts—Marshall Morgan Cloud, Charles Edwin Locke, Delbert Brunton.

Bachelor of Arts—Bertha Hirsch Baruch, Esther Carver Boardman, Emil William Breittrentz, Marie Ladd Carter, Emma Atlanta Casner, Mamie Ethel Chandler, James Duncan Ferguson, Edwin R. Haeley, Mildred Elizabeth Hill, Edward Alexander Henderson, Wealthy Aimee Hollingworth, John King Hubbard, Walter John Lennon, Roy Malcolm, Joseph Elbert Pottinger, Wilhelmina Margereta Rodenberg, Martha Pomfret Sharp, Corliss R. Thornton, Harry LaVerne Twining, Royal Arthur Weaver, Lella Ione Webster, Mary Harriet Willett, Harold King Vann.

Bachelor of Law—Lewis Bailey Blinford, William Albert Gaines, Archibald

Twelve Osteopaths Graduate Commencement exercises of the Pacific College of Osteopathy were held last evening at the Woman's club house on South Figueroa street and degrees were awarded to twelve.

The evening's program opened with music by Miss Tillie Burns and Harry S. Richardson and the invocation was offered by Rev. Bert Estes Howard. Frank Forbes sang the opening address and the address to the graduating class was delivered by Dr. Dain L. Tasker. Dr. Clement A. Whiting presented the class and Dr. John O. Hunt conferred the degrees.

The club house was beautifully decorated and the graduates received quantities of beautiful flowers. The commencement exercises concluded four days of closing week festivities at the college.

All society will give a three-act prophetic drama, entitled "A New Woman; or the Spirit of 1906." The play is to be localized, and the young people who are in the cast are doing all they can to make it a success. The play will be preceded by a Japanese lantern drill and a musical program. The club is a business women's organization. The members meet every Thursday evening. They are trying to raise money for a club house. The entertainment is under the management of Miss Amy N. Dunn.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary

The birthday anniversary of Miss Mary Fitzgerald was celebrated on Wednesday evening, when she entertained a large company of friends at the home of Miss Freda Cof, 2827 Hobart boulevard. Smilax, ferns and American Beauty roses composed the artistic decorations and a musical program and guessing games helped to pass the hours merrily away.

Among those present were the Misses Marie Carter, Mary Bodkin, Flossie Donnelly, Catherine Nolan, Susie Gordon, Freda Cof, Grace Donnelly, Mamie Whaling and Mabel Cof; Henry Bohrmann, Charles von Eute, Thomas Whaling, Guy Vincent Cof, B. F. Valentinos, Oscar Lamb, W. Joseph Ford and William Early.

Music and Dancing

A musical and informal dancing party was given Tuesday evening by members of the Knights of Columbus under the direction of M. J. McGarry. The program included a clarinet solo by Felix Nole, vocal solos by Frank Carr, Gabriel Durnerin and James Smith, selections by a quartet, several numbers by an orchestra, a vaudeville turn by Walter Goldsmith, readings by Albert Frohman and Edwin Mcurdy, and an exhibition of fancy dancing by Eddie Kelly. The evening closed with an informal reception and dancing.

surgeons at the receiving hospital say that her chances for recovery are slight. Lost All in Fire Mrs. Kitting left her husband two years ago because they quarreled frequently. It is said, she kept a rooming house in San Francisco and was left destitute by the fire. She then came to Los Angeles and lived with her sister, Mrs. O'Day, in an apartment on the upper floor of a house at 128 East Thirty-second street.

Makes Murderous Attack on Wife, Sister-in-Law and Two Sons and Then Cuts His Throat Frenzied with the lust for human blood, William F. Kitting, a carpenter living at 128 Thirty-second street, who shot and wounded his wife, her sister, Mrs. Bessie O'Day, and his two sons, Edwin and Gordon, committed suicide early yesterday morning by cutting his throat with a pocket knife.

The women now live in the Clara Barton hospital. The dead man lies on a slab in Breese Bros.' undertaking establishment.

The two sons, who, though shot at, escaped with little or no hurt, are at the bedside of their mother. Domestic trouble and the suspicion that his wife was too familiar with other men are said to be responsible for the bloody deed.

The women were treated at the receiving hospital and later removed to the Clara Barton hospital. Mrs. Vera Kitting has a bullet imbedded in the back of her head and was shot through the right wrist. Doctors at the receiving hospital say that she has a good chance of recovery.

Mrs. O'Day was shot in the right breast, the bullet piercing one lung, and also through the right shoulder. The

When the man's person was searched an unsigned affidavit was found. It was to the effect that the person whose name was not signed to the instrument had lived with other men in Omaha and other places and related other immoral facts.
