MAN IS INJURED, HORSE KILLED IN RUNAWAY

DOG CATCHER'S WAGON IN A SMASHUP

Frightened Animals Dash Down Central Avenue and Collide With Car and Light Rig Driven by Resident of Downey

T. T. Tobler of Downey was seriously injured and his driving horse was killed in a runaway accident at Seventh and Central avenue at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

While the dog catchers were in pursuit of an unlicensed and elusive canine at Sixth street and Central avenue the horses attached to the cage wagon became frightened at a passing car and ran away. The animals dashed down Central avenue and at the intersection of Seventh street there was a triple collision between an electric car, the dog catchers' wagon and Mr. Tobler's rig.

The pole of the heavy wagon struck Tobler's horse and so injured the animal that it died within a few minutes. Mr. Tobler was thrown to the street and rendered unconscious by the fall. His face and parts of his body were badly bruised.

George B. Vacher, owner of the city pound wagon, said his horses were properly weighted and he did not know how they could have run away. Mr. Vacher, while he accepted no responsibility for the accident, gave Tobler a horse to replace the animal which had been killed. Tobler was able to proceed to his home at Downey.

Moore-McCauley Wedding

Miss Bessie Eloise McCauley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCauley, 928 Westlake avenue, and Harry Edwin Moore were married at the home of the bride last evening. A grand orchestra played softly while Rev. John L. Pittner performed the ceremony. Canopies and festoons of Shasta daisies made a charming nook of the living room and pink sweet peas gave forth their fragrances in the dining room, where supper was served. Matranga poppies decorated the bridal table, while pink shaded candelabra cast a delicate glow over the room. Miss Harriet Davidson of Toledo, Ohio, who attended the bride as maid of honor wore a gown of pink and white silk gauze and lace and she carried pink sweet peas. The bride wore a handsome imported gown of white crepe de chine and rose point lace. She wore the conventional veil and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Little Eleanor Warren, who acted as flower girl, wore a dainty white swiss gown, trimmed with lace. Robert Richards stood with the bridegroom and Master Junior Hadley, who carried the ring, was dressed in a white embroidered suit. Mr. McCauley was attired in white pompadour silk. After September 1 the couple will be at home at 1670 Winfield street.

ARREST BOLD DAYLIGHT CHINESE HIGHWAYMAN

Lone Robber Who Has Been Constant Menace to Countrymen Is Captured, but Goes Free From Lack of Evidence

The bold daylight Chinese highwayman has at last been arrested, according to the police, but owing to lack of evidence sufficient to convict him, has been forced to leave Los Angeles.

For several weeks the man has caused terror in Chinatown. Alone he held up his fellow countrymen at the point of a gun. In several instances he secured a large sum of money.

Ah Chung, whom the police say is the highwayman, was arrested in Chinatown Sunday night by Officer Willett. He was booked at the police station on suspicion. Chinese will not testify against one of their countrymen unless it is a question of life and death.

On this account the officers could not work up a case on which they could convict the man. Chung's cousin came to the station yesterday and endeavored to have the man released. The police officers told them if they would put up the money to get the man out of town he would be released. The man was placed on a northbound Southern Pacific train last night.

Our Predictions Verified

The Southern Pacific Railroad obtained yesterday from the city the land which was required to form the entrance into the New Union Depot.

What does it mean? It means that the largest Union Depot west of St. Louis will be built at the foot of Fifth Street.

It means that the erection of this building will be electrical in its effect upon realty values in the great commercial district east of Main.

It means that OUR PREDICTIONS HAVE BEEN VERIFIED.

We have exclusive sale of the choicest buys on Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Central—also the best buys on all the cross streets.

Now you KNOW the TRUTH. Now is the time to buy. Call on us today.
