

SCANDAL FOR THE REVELATIONS

WAS HOHENLOHE'S BOOK THAT OF ANTI-MONARCHISTS?

Effect of Publication of the Recollections is to Discredit Personal Rule in Germany—France is Stirred

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 13.—The revelations resulting from the publication in Germany of the late Chancellor Von Hohenlohe's "Recollections" continue to make a great stir in France on account of the sidelights thrown upon German policies toward the republic, and today, in connection with the centenary tomorrow of the battle of Jena, which opened the gates of Berlin to the victorious French army, the newspapers here are filled with articles on the subject.

The general verdict is that Emperor William's determination for dismissing Prince Bismarck for counseling infidelity to Germany's ally, Austria, was highly honorable to the emperor, but nevertheless entailed grave consequences. The Republique Francaise points out that Bismarck's object was to repair the bad effects of his policy at the Berlin congress by insisting on the renewal of the secret "reinsurance" arrangement with Russia previously existing, despite the Austrian alliance.

Emperor William, the paper adds, threw Russia into the arms of France, thus becoming responsible for the diplomatic situation of which he now complains and which he vainly attempted to modify by his bold stroke of policy at Tanager.

The prevailing opinion here is that there is some important secret behind the publication of Prince Hohenlohe's "Recollections," but there is a disposition to attribute it less to court intrigue than to a maneuver to advance the anti-monarchical movement by discrediting personal rule in Germany.

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped

Sample Package Mailed Free. Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning—that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. You've had onions, or "You've been eating cabbage," or "Of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gas and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour breath and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet at the source of its origin. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines all the impurities there massed together and which cause the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and most laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, purer, sweeter, fresher, your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "easier" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address P. A. Stuart & Co., 60 Stuart building, Marshall, Mich.

HAS SEVERELY FOUGHT AGAINST THE MACHINE

GEORGE M. GIFFEN

Candidate Selected by Non-Partisan County Committee as Candidate for Senate From the Thirty-Eighth District Is One of Best Known Men in the County

For ten years George M. Giffen has been fighting machine politics in Los Angeles, and for this reason, among others, he was chosen by the non-partisan county committee as its candidate for the senate from the Thirty-eighth district.

Mr. Giffen did not seek the nomination, but he was tendered the candidacy of the non-partisan committee. Being in sympathy with the movement, he decided to enter the campaign, although it will be at a loss to him in a business way.

He will have as his opponent H. S. G. McCartney, who is an acknowledged machine man.

Mr. Giffen is one of the best known Republicans in Los Angeles county. He is now a member of the board of education by the largest majority ever given in the Fourth ward up to that time. His nomination for this position was unsolicited.

Mr. Giffen is a native son of California, having been born near Placerville, Eldorado county, in 1863. He came to Los Angeles in 1893. Mr. Giffen, with his wife and four children, two boys and two girls, lives at 1625 Toberman street.

That worked in some cases where a Mexican of an extremely poor man or woman was dealt with, but all who had any possible chance to fight a case refused even to give their names to the claim agents.

Yesterday when information was sought by anxious relatives at the Pacific Electric building where many of the victims had been taken, they were met with rebuff and no information was given. In the temporary hospital rooms of the company the examinations were made by company physicians and the relatives were left in doubt as to the extent of injuries of their loved ones until the claim agents had a chance to get in their work.

Requests from newspaper men for names of victims so that the public might know of the accident were met with a cold reception by physicians and officials. Many employes practically admitted that they had been instructed to conceal the details of the accident as well as the names of the injured.

A petition to the claim agents department brought forth an uncalled for humor on the part of the railway officials.

Copied Papers List. They had been requested to give up the names of the injured, and departing from their usual rule they promised to give out a list. In the afternoon, at the afternoon they did give out a list of injured, but by comparison it was learned that the list had evidently been copied from evening papers' lists, for trivial mistakes in the spelling of names appeared in both lists.

According to the statement of one police officer, he placed five badly injured men aboard a car and ordered the car to go to First and Broadway, where the patients could be rushed to medical attention at the receiving hospital. At Temple street, according to his statements, an inspector boarded the car and ordered the car to proceed to the company's offices and hospital at the Pacific Electric building, where the victims could be interviewed by the claim agents.

The officer did not fully appreciate his authority and allowed the car with its suffering freight to be slowly taken through the network of city traffic to the wreck occurred at 7 o'clock yesterday morning just east of Macy and Bridge streets. Time after time it has been petitioned that the dangerous spot of track on Brooklyn avenue be patched up or fixed. In the center of a steep grade on Brooklyn avenue the tracks, so arranged because of the construction of the street, curve and twist in a way that is known as the goose-neck curve, while below is a full curve.

Car is Crowded. Yesterday morning car 118, westbound and crowded with early morning passengers, topped the incline. There were about sixty passengers registered and both platforms were crowded and all standing room taken.

Taft Informs Delegation Separation Is Remote

By Associated Press. HAVANA, Oct. 13.—Secretary Taft has received President Clark of the Isle of Pines association and informed him positively that the provisional government could not consider any movement in the direction of an secession of the island from Cuban sovereignty.

Mr. Taft added that the matter of the internal government of the island had been referred to Mr. Magdon, who succeeds Mr. Taft.

A formal statement declared that "it is absolutely impossible for the provisional government of Cuba to recognize the separation of the island as a republic, as it would be a violation of the provisions of the provisional government as part of the republic of Cuba."

The statement further says: "While the fact that the majority of the residents of the Isle of Pines are Americans is a fact, it is not a justification for the secession of the island from the national government, any of the three bases mentioned in the Isle of Pines association's communication involving the separation of the island is wholly inadmissible, as it would be a violation of the provisions of the provisional government as part of the republic of Cuba."

Mr. Taft has ordered one officer and twenty-five marines to the Isle of Pines, explaining that he does not anticipate any trouble there, but that the marines are sent to promote a feeling of security.

"As the car left the track and dashed into the telegraph pole right on the brink of the arroyo, I thought that it was lost and that the car had gone into the ditch.

"I ran as fast as I could and managed to reach my niece. She was stunned, but I got her away from the wreck and took her home. As for the others, they lay about on the ground, many of them frightfully cut and bleeding. The mass beneath the car which had once been a man was awful to look upon. I hope I may never see such another sight."
