The officers of the institution asked the general to produce a medical certificate showing that his health required services of a servant.

She Has Hysterics

Mrs. Steppacher's first flip bug party was a success. Mrs. Molly Hodgkins began to win steadily at the start and kept her lead until the flip bug jumped over the board and through the pattern of her peck-a-boo waist. Then Mrs. Hodgkins went into hysterics and the game was delayed. Mamie Champlin played steadily on "legs back," a safe, conservative game with chances even, and she won.

WOMEN NAMED AS LETTER CARRIERS

Special to The Herald. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—It seems strange that in Oklahoma, where the men are supposed to be so strenuous, the postoffice department should have to appoint women to be letter carriers in that new state. Today, however, it was announced at the postoffice department that after an examination at Mutual, a town in Oklahoma, no man was found to appoint as rural letter carrier or substitute, and, therefore, the department has selected two women for the place. The successful ones who have won the appointments are Miss Lulu B. Russell, who was appointed carrier, and Miss Hattie Russell, the substitute. These ladies will have to deliver the mails over the routes in suitable and rain, snow and blizzards while the men smoke their pipes and loaf at home, waiting for the females to bring their mails. The postoffice department, from experience, has found that women have proven among the best of the carriers appointed in the rural free delivery service. It is seldom that a woman is selected as carrier, as in the case at Mutual, Okla., for generally the husband gets the job and has his wife appointed as substitute, and reports have shown that when the husband is too tired or too lazy to go out on his route he makes his wife deliver the mail. One of the reports to the department from one of the far northwestern states shows that the women rural carriers, during the heaviest and stormiest weather, last winter, made their trips regularly while many of the men carriers reported that they were unable to get over their routes. It is for this reason the department is always anxious to appoint women to the rural service.

GIRLS AT LEAPFROG IN SLEEPING ATTIRE

Special to The Herald. APPLETON, Wis., Nov. 6.—Four girls are threatened with expulsion from Lawrence university as a result of their escapade in Ormsby hall, when the preceptress went away and left the matron temporarily in charge. Two who are daughters of well-known Wisconsin clergymen incited fifty young ladies to a rousing game of leapfrog in the reception room on the third floor. The fun was fast and furious, and when the matron, Miss Leola Wayne, attempted to put a stop to it the girls rushed her to the stairway in a body and refused to stop their play until she had been smothered. It is generally conceded that it is impossible to play leapfrog attired in long skirts, but the girls blushing refuse to say in what costume they enjoyed the fascinating sport. The fair students had been living very quietly in their hall for almost a month, and were brimming over for some kind of sport. When the preceptress left the hall on her opportunity and girls who had retired were pulled from their beds and made to enter into the sport. Nothing loath, they joined in, until fifty leaping and stooping girls made a chain of "frogs" that circled the reception room. President Plantz had the case of the ring-leaders under consideration, and the punishment may be moderated to severe censure and suspension from the school for a week.

FOUR-LEGGED GHOST IN FROG HOLLOW CEMETERY

Special to The Herald. MANCHESTER, Conn., Nov. 6.—Consternation reigns in Frog Hollow over a four-legged ghost which has been reported seen in the Jones cemetery by persons who cut across the burial grounds to reach the village. Miss Mabel Willis, who saw the ghost, has not been able to leave the house since her experience. Matthew Moriarty placed little credence on the report until last night when it became dark he told his friends in the village grocery store that he was going through the cemetery. As Moriarty reached the center of the cemetery he heard a noise like that made by horses' hoofs, accompanied by the clashing of chains. He was terror stricken. The clattering came from one of the roads in the cemetery and continued until it reached a spot near the receiving vault. Moriarty saw a white object emerge from the vault and, as it came toward him, he noticed it had four legs. He started on a dead run and never looked behind him until he had reached the store.

MILIONAIRE WAITER TO WED

Scion of Rich Greek Family, Learning English in a Hotel, Wins Him a Wife. Special to The Herald. SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 6.—A millionaire, the scion of a wealthy Greek family, who is head waiter at the Cafe Scranon in this city, is to marry a Scranon girl. Alexander Vappas is the young man in question, and the bride-to-be is Orvetta Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Haupt of South Scranon. The father of Vappas is the mayor of Thebes, in Greece, and is a millionaire several times over. Vappas is here to learn the English language and has selected the unique position of being a waiter in a restaurant to do so. He has previously filled similar positions in New York restaurants.

CATCH A TOM THE PEEPER

Shoots Two Men After They Detect Him and Prove to Be Wealthy Business Man. Special to The Herald. FREMONT, Ohio, Nov. 6.—The identity of the "Tom the Peeper," who shot Louis Johnson and John Keeler last Thursday night after they had detected him peering through a window of Johnson's home, was established today by the arrest and confession of W. A. Cox, proprietor of a large flour mill and grain elevator. He is charged with having shot with intent to kill. Cox has been strangely reticent of late, his friends say, to worry over business affairs. It is said also that he and Johnson had had trouble. It was not until Cox had been "awakened" by Chief of Police Heister, one day before his arrest, that he confessed to a $1000 bond.

GREEN-EYED GIRL MAY GET THE JOB

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—There is a green-eyed girl up in the air, and the city service commissioners are anxious to see. She recently took an examination for a place in the public service, but while her mark is not up to the standard the chances are she will get an appointment. Her name is not given, but she is described as a young woman of average height and her physical characteristics contained in her papers. "I weigh 145 pounds," she wrote, "am 5 feet 4 inches high. I have green eyes and a fair complexion." Commissioner Green and Black have the case under consideration. On account of the colors Commissioner Cooley will not interfere with the action of his colleagues.

WORKING A NEW GRAFT

How "Nestors" Get Free Use of Indian Lands from Ignorant Redskins. Special to The Herald. MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 6.—After several months of investigation, there have been prosecutions brought in the courts against one hundred lessees in the Chickasaw nation and squatted on land. They built houses and cultivated the land. No one objected, because there was more land than any one wanted it. There are thousands and thousands of acres of land here now by these same persons, whose sole claim is that they saw it first. It has been allotted, but the Indians and fullbloods live in another part of the nation, never saw the land, and were allotted by grafter who paid their expenses to the land office and home again in order to get them to file on the land they wanted to lease. In some instances the nestor and the grafter are one and the same.

"VIGILANTES" SO THEATRIC THAT BURGLARS ESCAPE

WINSTED, Conn., Nov. 6.—Heavily armed, all the farmers of Still River, near New Milford, participated in what they supposed was a burglar hunt Thursday night. Some one had seen lights in the school house and surmised that burglars were preparing to assault the postoffice. Men and women, too, were quickly routed out of bed and each, carrying a "shooting iron" of some description, marched silently upon the school house. "Bill" Reuter, "Sam" Jones and William Stevens made a bold dash for the door, which, under the impact, gave way, carrying locks and casing with it. As the three braves landed inside the order was given "Hands up!" and instantly up went the hands of every brave on the outside with a lantern in one hand and a gun in the other, supposing that the order was meant for them. The burglars or tramps escaped in the confusion, none of the "vigilantes" firing a shot.

GIRLS AFTER EDITOR'S SCALP

His Charge That They'll Not Only "Spoon" but Help the Game Along Starts Rumpus in Urbana. Special to The Herald. URBANA, Ill., Nov. 6.—A printed declaration that nearly all Urbana girls were willing to "spoon," but were willing to assist the young man desirous of such entertainment has raised a tumult in this city with Editor Pinkerton of the Courier-Herald as the storm center. The young women hotly deny the accusation and say that the unhappy editor will have to take it back or else there will be trouble. The Urbana Cooking club, the leading girls' organization of girls, will hold a meeting to pass resolutions condemning the statement and declaring that "spooning" is frowned on rather than encouraged.

Illinois Woman Sends Back to Son a Watch Borrowed from His Father. Special to The Herald. WILKESBARE, Pa., Nov. 6.—Frank D. Hess of Nanticoke, a small town near here, today received from Lena, Ill., a silver watch which had been borrowed from his father fifty-five years ago.

Will Increase Wages

By Associated Press. READING, Pa., Nov. 6.—The Reading Iron company will soon increase the wages of 3000 of its employees. "I say, mamma," asked little Tommy, "do fairy tales always begin with 'Once upon a time'?" "No, dear, not always," replied mamma, "they sometimes begin with 'My love, I have been detained at the office tonight.'"—Glasgow News.

THIS PASTOR IS PUGNACIOUS

Kicks Picture Agent Who Insulted His Wife Off His Premises In Good Style. Special to The Herald. MARION, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Rev. E. S. W. Stelhorn, pastor of the German Lutheran church, not only kicked John Glowasky of Toledo off his premises today, but also caused his arrest. Glowasky, a picture agent, is alleged to have insulted the pastor's wife, and Stelhorn, a former college athlete, who was in an adjoining room, made for him. Glowasky was fined $25.

Happiness in a Tablet

Perfect Health for Every One Procured at Small Cost. How many times have you sat down at your meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat? How many times have you sat down at your meals without the trace of an appetite, but just because it was "time to eat"? How many times have you felt a gnawing, unsatisfied, "still-hungry" feeling in your stomach, after you were through eating? How many times have you felt that "jump of lead" on your stomach after eating, whether your meal was well cooked or not? And how many times have you suffered a whole lot of other things from your stomach that you couldn't explain, but that made you grouchy, miserable, out-of-sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything? It is safe to say you couldn't tell. You don't keep track of these things, of course, but you know you've suffered them. You probably have had them for so long that they've become a habit with you, and you have come to the conclusion that your fate is to suffer them indefinitely and perhaps forever. And so men, much like horses, standing unhitched at the hitching post, think they're tied, and so their habit makes them prisoners. But no one need have dyspepsia, nor indigestion, nor loss of appetite, "rash, irritation, burning sensations, heartburn, nausea, eructations, bad memory, loss of vim and vigor and the happiness that comes from a healthy stomach and a good appetite" will only leave his old hitching post and tie himself to a new one that will hold him to health, joy, ambition and a clear mind and memory and the sunshine that goes with them. That indeed is Heaven! And you can get it in a little tablet already prepared for the purpose, in Stuart's "Dyspepsia Tablets," those little cherubs of health and delight found in thousands of homes today. Listen—One ingredient of one of these precious little tablets will digest for you 3000 grains of food. This gives your stomach the necessary work of digesting until your stomach can get strong and healthy again. Your stomach has been overworked and abused. It's fagged out. It needs a rest. Let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work of your stomach. You will be surprised how fine you'll feel after eating, and how lusciously good everything will taste to you. That's because the Tablets are thoroughly digesting the food which your stomach couldn't digest before. Have these tablets on your dining table and take one or two after every meal without fail. Then you will realize as never before that the human stomach decides for every man whether he will go forward or backward—and besides, you forget you ever had a stomach to torment you.
