Philadelphia Woman Is Accused of Poisoning

Husband, Children and Two Adults Are Victims

Mrs. Carey Collected Insurance in Each Case, Which Resulted in Coroner Ordering an Analysis

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—The most remarkable case of wholesale poisoning of persons to secure insurance money that has ever been unearthed in this city is charged against Bridget Carey, who was arrested tonight.

The woman, who is 32 years of age, is charged with having poisoned her husband, Patrick; her two children, Mary, aged 8 years, and Annie, aged 6, who died a week ago, and Patrick and Cecilia Cook, tenants in the Carey house, 1942 Hamilton street.

All of the alleged victims died within eleven months, and the police allege that Mrs. Carey benefited by their deaths to the extent of $1000, through the collection of insurance.

The woman's arrest followed an investigation made into the deaths of her two children, which occurred last week. It was said at the time that their deaths were caused by eating poisoned candy that contained deleterious substances.

An analysis of candy such as the children are said to have purchased showed that it contained no poisonous substance, and when Coroner's Physician Wadsworth made an analysis of the stomachs of the children he found the little girls had died from arsenic poisoning.

According to Captain of Detectives Donohy, it was learned that the children were insured for $125 each and that Mrs. Carey collected this amount after their deaths.

The police officials say they learned that the woman had secured such poison, and further investigation showed that Patrick and Cecilia Cook, brother and sister, who lived with Mrs. Carey, had died within a few months under suspicious circumstances.

Brother and Sister Die The police officials say that Miss Cook was insured for $200 in favor of Patrick Cook, her brother, and that on August 13 she died. Patrick had been insured for $500 in favor of his sister.

LARIAT THROWER LASSES A FUGITIVE

REVEALS BRIBERY SCANDAL

Arrests in Pittsburg Lay Bare Story of Graft

Sixty-Five Councilmen Are Under Police Surveillance

Broker Sues for $70,000 Boodle He Loaned to Railroad President and Exposure Follows

PITTSBURG, Nov. 27.—With the arrest of C. S. Cameron, president of the Tube City railroad, and Common Councilman William A. Martin on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the railroad out of $70,000—this time the police authorities being the prosecutors—and their subsequent release on $10,000 bail each, the alleged councilman bribery scandal is to be thoroughly and publicly ventilated.

The hearing in the case has been set for Saturday. Mayor George W. Guthrie has taken personal charge of the case, directing the police investigation and reiterates emphatically that every person found to be implicated—either councilman or railroad officials—in the distribution of the $70,000 graft money will be arrested and prosecuted.

More arrests are to follow those of Cameron and Martin, it is said, and in each case the charge will be bribery.

All Under Surveillance Forty members of select council and twenty-five members of common council are said to be implicated in the conspiracy. The police have the names of these men and are keeping them under surveillance.

Any attempt by any to leave the city will mean their immediate arrest, according to the evidence said to have been gathered by the police and now in the possession of Mayor Guthrie, the councilmen were to act favorably on Tube City railroad.

The position taken by C. R. Richardson, who entered the first suit against Cameron and Martin for conspiracy, was that of a broker. Richardson has made a statement to the police alleging that he loaned Cameron $70,000 at the legal rate of interest. Cameron was to deposit the money in the bank after showing it to a committee of councilmen. The money disappeared mysteriously and Richardson, believing a conspiracy was on to beat him out of the money, entered suit.

Richardson's action disclosed several suspicious details, and the case was taken up by Mayor Guthrie, with the result that evidence has been gathered. It is said, revealing to the police one of the most gigantic councilman bribery scandals ever known in Pittsburg.

John S. Robb Jr., assistant district attorney, arrived from the east today on a summons of District Attorney Stewart. It is possible that a special session of the grand jury will be called to investigate the scandal.
