Later in the day the owner was located by the police and Smith was again arrested, and when searched at the station Smith was found to have a number of articles in his pockets which lead the officers to believe he did some stealing as soon as he was dismissed from custody.

CONSIDERATION IS POSTPONED

Every Precaution Being Taken to Prevent Giving Opponents Desired Opportunity of Making Trouble

Owing to necessary delay in comparing the names of signers of the petition asking the city council to call a special election on the question of consolidation between Los Angeles and San Pedro, action by the council has been postponed until next Monday.

At that time the petition will be in proper shape. City Attorney Hewitt will have prepared the necessary ordinance, and the action of the council in calling a special election will be a mere matter of form.

Deputies of the city clerk have compared the names of the petitioners, bearing 3703 names, and after eliminating 600 names of signers who were found not to be qualified electors, there remains 3043. At this ratio the 8000 signatures obtained by canvassers will net about 6500, compared with 8725 necessary to make the call for the election legal.

The commission is aware that opponents of consolidation are looking for flaws in the proceedings, and it is their desire to give enemies of consolidation no opportunity to make trouble.

New Consolidation Storm Center

Huntington Park is in the throes of a consolidation agitation.

The town, which adjoins Los Angeles on the southeast, is divided in sentiment between those who favor incorporation as a city of the sixth class and those who believe that the hope of future prosperity and a relief from heavy taxation and indebtedness lies in consolidating with Los Angeles.

The latter class of residents are said to be in a majority and it is their declared intention, within the next two weeks, to begin the circulation of petitions asking the calling of a special election on the question of consolidating with Los Angeles.

A delegation composed of leading business men of Wilmington yesterday came to Los Angeles for the purpose of conferring with members of the city and county consolidation commission.

Now that the consolidation of Los Angeles and San Pedro is assured, residents of Wilmington are more than ever anxious to come into the sisterhood of cities.

It is the announced intention of the commission, however, to effect the consolidation with San Pedro before seriously taking up the work affecting other cities and districts.

Members of the commission tomorrow afternoon, if it is a clear day, will inspect the work done by the Los Angeles Dock and Terminal company, and hold a meeting in Wilmington in the evening.

CITY TO REPAVE SIXTH AND COLLECT THE BILLS

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS GETS COUNCIL'S CONSENT

Storm Sewer Construction Brings About Chaotic Conditions Which Will Be Remedied as Speedily as Possible for Property Owners

Because of conditions brought about by the rains the city has decided to take personal charge of repaving Sixth street in the heart of the business center and yesterday the council passed an urgent request of the board of public works.

The recommendation of the board, which was promptly acted on, was as follows:

"The board respectfully requests your honorable body to adopt the accompanying resolution of authorization for the repaving of the south side of Sixth street, between Hill street and Main street.

"This portion of Sixth street is in very bad condition owing to the construction of a storm sewer therein, and also other excavations done by different companies.

"It is intended that the property owners, the storm sewer contractor and the Los Angeles Gas and Electric company will pay the expenses of this work, except that the city shall pay necessary for the cutting of the pavement by order of the city authorities in making the necessary changes in existing pipe lines which were in the way of the storm drain.

"The repaving being of an urgent nature, however, the board desires to contract to have the work done and will collect from the property owners, the contractor and the lighting company above named their proportionate share of the expense and return this amount to the city treasurer."

CITY BUYS OWENS RIVER LAND

Council Approves Negotiations for Acquisition of Water Rights in Inyo County

As fast as it can be done the city is acquiring property and water rights in the Owens river country for its gigantic aqueduct.

The council yesterday accepted the recommendation of the board of public works by which two propositions are accepted, the recommendations being as follows:

It is recommended by the board that the city accept and exercise immediately a certain option procured from Ed Walker to purchase on or before February 2, 1907, for the sum of $3000, certain lands in the county of Inyo, state of California, described in the accompanying resolution of authorization, which your honorable body is requested to adopt.

"There is herewith presented the draft of an agreement between the board of water commissioners of the city of Los Angeles, first party, and Irving Fisher of New Haven, Connecticut, second party, by which agreement certain adverse claims as to waters of a certain natural stream known as Cottonwood creek in Inyo county, are compromised and settled. The board of public works has approved the draft as presented and recommends that your honorable body by resolution authorize the board of water commissioners of the city to enter into the same on behalf of the city."

TO BUILD MANY BOULEVARDS

PASADENA COMMITTEE CONDUCTS ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Members Visit Los Angeles and Report Great Progress in Plan to Bond County for $3,000,000 for Good Roads

F. S. Wallace, T. Earley and others of the committee appointed by the Pasadena board of trade to inquire into the feasibility of proceeding at once to improve the roads of Los Angeles county, were in the city yesterday conferring with Angelenos.

The committee has made rapid progress since its appointment two weeks ago, and finds itself now in position to report a practical method of procedure.

Mr. Wallace said yesterday:

"We have sent out 6000 cards in Pasadena and vicinity outlining our plan and asking for an expression of opinion. The result is about 16 to 1 in favor of the project.

"The question of a bond issue by the county for good roads will not be permitted to interfere between Los Angeles and the Owens river water bond enterprise. We are in favor of the Owens river project and would not do anything to interfere with its success. We are simply suggesting a plan by which we may later reach an agreement with respect to road construction and we are surprised and pleased with the county expression, which is thus far highly favorable.

Explained in a Circular

The circular letter sent out by the committee reads as follows:

"Dear Sir—The Pasadena board of trade, always looking for an opportunity to advance the interests and welfare of the people of Southern California, and especially Pasadena and vicinity, have appointed the undersigned committee to solicit your opinion as to the advisability of bonding the county for three million dollars to build boulevards connecting the following cities: Los Angeles, Pasadena, South Pasadena, Long Beach, Santa Monica, Ocean Park, Venice, Redondo Beach, San Pedro, Hollywood, Alhambra, San Gabriel, Mission, Norwalk, Rivers, Whittier, Monrovia, Azusa, Glendora, Lodi, Pomona and Claremont.

"The bond issue is not large, considering the great good it will do, and the size of our county, with a total assessed valuation of over $300,000,000. The tax to provide interest and sinking fund for a twenty-year bond issue would be less than 90 cents per year on each $1000 dollars of taxable property.

"Each year the tax would be reduced as the bonds were paid off. With a first class system of boulevards our population would increase rapidly, property would advance in value, many new homes would be built and there would be much employment for labor.

To Draw Home-seekers

"We would recommend that the boulevard have a space in the center for trees and be macadamized fifteen to twenty feet wide on each side with No. 1 hard rock or crushed cobblestones, finished with clean sand and oil; one side to be used for horse, carriages and wagons, the other side for automobiles, thereby avoiding accidents.

"The greatest needed improvement to this country is good roads, and if we want to draw the home-seekers to our community we should have our roads as good or better than they have in other localities that we have to compete with, such as Florida, France, Italy and elsewhere.

"The cost to the individual would be small, the returns great. Please sign

GIRL SENTENCED FOR THEFT

Police Find Stolen Watch in Young Man's Pocket and Arrest Follows

Rita Lanna was given thirty days in jail by Police Justice Frederickson yesterday on a charge of petty larceny. Rita is the young woman who is said to have gone to the house of H. A. Leonard on Twenty-fifth street and applied for a room. When she was being shown through the house she is said to have stolen a valuable watch which she gave to Earl Low.

When arrested Low had the watch on his person. He was also charged with petty larceny. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and his case was set for February 12. He was released under $50 bonds.

YOUNG FORGER GIVEN SENTENCE

Yields to Temptation in Order to Raise Money to Bet on Races and His Downfall Follows

Lure of the race track and love of betting his money on the ponies caused the downfall of J. D. Evans, a bright appearing, well dressed young man, who yesterday paid the penalty for his forgery in department one of the superior court, when Judge Smith sentenced him to serve the next two years of his life in San Quentin penitentiary.

Evans told the court that he had relatives in New York state, eminently respectable old people who thought the world and all of their son, but he stated that he had not written to them of his dilemma.

He came west several months ago and became a bookkeeper for a local hotel company. When the racing season opened he began to place a small bet now and then on the ponies.

The visitors at the hotel, many of them race track men, occasionally stopped by to give him a sure tip. Some times he won a small amount, at other times he lost. Later, when he was unable to go to the track he would send money out by a friend to back certain horses with. Finally he received a good tip and put all he could get on it and lost.

It was then that ruin stared him in the face and, according to his confession in court yesterday, he forged two checks, each for $30, to cover his losses.

Yesterday he received sentence and he made no plea for mercy.
