

COLONEL JACK CAPTURES THE DERBY RACE Wins Feature Without Effort

Laughrey Throws Jockey Dugan as Horses Enter Stretch—Judges Impose Well Merited Fines for Rough Riding

With the largest crowd of the season to witness his effort, good Colonel Jack performed as expected yesterday and won the Ascot Derby with ridiculous ease from Livius which finished fifteen lengths in front of Arimo.

The Colonel's performance proved another sample of what may be expected when it is known that race horses are to run on their merits. It was very safe to wager upon the Colonel yesterday and although the bookies were rather stingy with their prices they had a perfect right to be.

Excitement attendant upon the Derby was punctuated with a quiver of uncertainty when J. R. Laughrey came tearing down to the stand riderless just before having thrown Jockey Dugan just before entering the stretch. The word soon buzzed to the grandstand, however, that Dugan had not suffered from the fall.

Colonel Jack opened at 7 to 10, but receded to 4 to 5 in 10 to 15 in some hands. Arimo was fairly well liked and stood at second choice, 2 to 1. The Walthaus pair were backed from 10 to 1 to 7 to 1 before post time.

J. R. Laughrey opened at 5 to 1 but shot toward Livius and points as a brisk play followed the others.

After the usual parade and cheering the field of five cantered up to the starting place, where a short delay was caused by the fractious tactics of Ed-ward Fryer.

Holtman got them away well with Colonel Jack the first to show, Arimo and Laughrey coming fast. Passing the stand Arimo held the lead by a length with Laughrey two lengths to the fore and Colonel Jack.

The six furlong pole Arimo held the advantage, while Knapp slipped through on the rail to even the going with Laughrey. Arimo stopped suddenly as though shot while passing the five furlong pole, evidently finding a hole which caused him to lame.

Time is Good. Laughrey took the lead as far as the three furlong pole, when Colonel Jack passed him. With Jack a brace of lengths in front of Laughrey rounding to the stretch the latter stumbled and the Jockey Dugan from the saddle.

Colonel Jack came on and won pulled up in the time of 2:04 1/2, which is considered fast in view of the slow track and weight up.

Livius moved up fast after entering the stretch and easily took the place from Arimo, with Fryer plugging behind. Along with the others Laughrey turned and trotted up to the judges' stand as they placed a wreath around Colonel Jack.

Colonel Jack. Favorites Win. Four favorites won and the crowd, besides seeing good sport and close finishes, gave the bookies a bad rubbing as horses ran strictly to form in four of the events and the other two went to two heavily backed 6 to 1 shots.

Don Domo, at the nice odds of 7 to 10, made his field look cheap by winning the first race in a romp as far as his rider pleased. Bryan and Ampedo ran head and head the first half, when gray ghost came on. Ampedo easily disposed of Bryan for the place.

The others were beaten off by W. Davis, the one time premier rider in this country, received an ovation on the way to the post, as it was his first mount here this season. Davis is too heavy to ride, as he cannot make less than 120 pounds.

The Carman entry, Martha Jane and Magazine, finished one, two in the colt race. They broke in front and Creston joined Magazine and ran head and head until the paddock gate, where Magazine drew away and looked to be winning easily. Martha Jane, with Jockey Moriarty riding hard, beat out Magazine in the last few jumps. The others were beaten off. Radtke was fined $100 by the judges for carrying Creston wide.

Oriente and Moseley had the handicap between them all the way. Moseley set the pace a length in front of Oriente till the head of the stretch, where the latter moved up on easy terms with the pacer and in a hard drive outgamed him to the wire. Moseley was fined $100 by the judges for breach of discipline in not keeping his horse straight in the stretch.

This was the Acimo offense of the afternoon, as Radtke received the same fine on Magazine in the second race. Judge Hamilton will not tolerate any bumping or rough riding and will fine the offenders hereafter.

Susanna stopped badly in the fifth race with Bankara second and Dordom third. They ran in this order till the eighth pole, when both McDanel and Illusion, passed the leader and Banlada was hard ridden to win by a length from Illusion.

Susanna stopped badly the final sixteenth and Dordom beat her out for show. Bankara stopped at the head of the stretch. King Ahab quit when the pacer came after running prominently all the way.

The sixth event brought a hair-raising finish between Search Me, Blue Bottle and Susie Christian, and the public did not realize how they finished until 41-42 called the numbers drop.
