

ATTORNEYS FIGHT OVER STATEMENT

SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES WITH FISTS

One Demands Apology and the Other Refuses it, with the Result That Some Fur Files

An argument over a remark made in Justice Pierce's court, to which Attorney Hubert T. Morrow of the H. W. Hellman building took exception, resulted in a fight between Morrow and Attorney J. C. Calhain in the clerk's department, adjoining the court room, yesterday morning.

Saturday morning is generally set aside for the hearing of supplementary proceedings and for the settlement of arguments and disagreements regarding judgments made during the week. Yesterday Attorney Morrow, a fine looking, athletic young man, appeared before Justice Pierce to argue proceedings in contempt of court in the case of C. H. Stewart. Morrow as attorney for plaintiffs in a case earlier in the week had filed a charge against Stewart, alleging contempt of court, and a warrant had been issued by Justice Pierce. Attorney Calhain appeared for Stewart and entered a motion to dismiss the contempt proceedings, alleging that Attorney Morrow had attempted to fool the court into issuing the warrant. Morrow instantly resented the remark, rising and asking the court to exact an apology from Calhain for such remarks in court.

"Mr. Calhain, such remarks are out of place in this court room and you must curb your tongue," remarked Justice Pierce.

Demands Apology "Yes, and he'll have to answer to me outside this court room for that remark," said Attorney Morrow.

The case was disposed of and both attorneys stepped to the next room, where Constable Cleveland and Clerk John Torrey were attending in detail to the work of the calendar.

"You'll have to apologize to me for that remark," said Attorney Morrow, while the clerk was attending to the settlement of the case.

"I'll not apologize for that remark, and I'll repeat it if I have a mind to," Attorney Calhain is alleged to have said, whereupon, according to the statement of witnesses, Attorney Morrow slapped Calhain's face.

The men are both six feet tall or over and when they clinched things became lively. Calhain is reported to have aimed several kicks at the shins of his younger opponent, who dexterously avoided them, and before the affair could proceed further Deputy Constable Jim Cannon got between the men and separated them.

When the two attorneys left the court room headed in opposite directions neither bore any marks of the encounter.

PRETTY WOMAN EXPLAINS THEFT

Mrs. Olive Kuhn, San Jose Refugee, Tells Court She Needed Clothes, So She Stole Two Silk Shirt Waists

"I did not steal them because I wanted to wear fine clothes, but because I needed them. We lost nearly all our things in the San Jose earthquake, and I haven't many clothes," was the reason Mrs. Olive Kuhn gave in court yesterday for taking two silk shirt waists belonging to Mrs. Fanny Barteo, 638 South Olive street.

Mrs. Kuhn was arraigned before Police Justice Fredrickson yesterday morning, and with her pretty gray eyes full of tears pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny.

Mrs. Kuhn was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Barteo, who said that Mrs. Kuhn had taken two shirt waists from her room. At the time of her arrest Mrs. Kuhn was living at the Valdemar hotel, 632 West Sixth street.

When she heard the judge pronounce her sentence, $40 or forty days in jail, she broke into tears and cried as if her heart was broken.

Mrs. Kuhn's father, C. F. Blake, paid the fine and said that he was going to take his daughter with him to his home in Elinore.

NEGRO INJURED IN FIGHT OVER GAME OF CARDS

As the result of an altercation over some question which arose in a card game yesterday morning John Wright, a negro, is bruised and cut about the head so severely that his injuries may prove fatal.

The game was in the tent of a grading camp at First and Rampart streets. It is said there were three men playing, Wright being one of them. The injured man was found alone in the tent when the police arrived. The others had left the place and could not be found.

When taken to the receiving hospital it was found Wright's head was a mass of bruises and cuts, which had caused concussion of the brain. Wright was unconscious, continually muttering the name Brown and the police think probable that a man of that name is able to give some information in regard to the affair.
