

EDUCATORS RECEPTION GUEST PRESIDENT NICHOLAS BUTLER ENTERTAINED Crown City Tutors Gather to Do Honor to Columbia University's Head at Dinner Given by Dr. and Mrs. Edwards

PASADENA, March 15.—President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia college and Mrs. Butler were the guests of honor at a reception given this evening at the Hotel Maryland by Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Edwards.

After the banquet an informal reception was given at the hotel, and during the conclusion of the reception program President Butler introduced Dr. Butler to the guests at the next morning, scheduling him for a speech. The address was full of praise for the Crown City and for its charming environs.

Will Give Reception and Inspect Building Special to The Herald. SANTA MONICA, March 15.—Proud of their achievement the members of the Santa Monica Bay Woman's club, who by circulating petitions aroused interest that resulted in the board of education conferring on the city its $25,000 school house, will tomorrow hold a reception to the public at the school when a chance to inspect the building will be had under the guidance of the teaching faculty and the work of the classes will be explained by student committees.

MOTHER FINDS BOY AFTER LONG SEARCH Special to The Herald. SANTA MONICA, March 15.—After having for more than a week been in hiding at the home of a Mexican named Modesto on Fourteenth street, Carroll Mason, a 9-year-old incorrigible, was found late last night by his mother, Mrs. M. G. Tegler, who was attracted, could not much longer have continued her heart-breaking search for him.

STUDENTS CELEBRATE ST. PATRICK'S DAY Special to The Herald. SANTA MONICA, March 15.—The memory of St. Patrick was appropriately memorialized this afternoon at the Academy of the Holy Name, where a program by the scholars was rendered in honor of their patron saint. Father Patrick Howe, pastor of the local parish, was the specially invited guest of the academy. Artistic decorations of green ribbon and foliage were prominently arranged throughout the interior of the building.

MUST WATER COMPANY PAY BUSINESS LICENSE? Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—Must a water company pay for a business license? This question is being thoroughly investigated here by several different parties. The fact that the Long Beach Water company has not paid such a fee was commented upon at a meeting of the council recently. It was reported on good authority today that the Alamitos Water company would pull up its pipes if the license is enforced.

COMMITTEE ON SPORTS COMPLETES ITS PLANS Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—The committee on sports for Harbor jubilee day, March 22, has practically completed its arrangements for the program of races to be given on the strand in the afternoon. There will be one mile motorcycle race, three heats; free for all trot, free for all pace, free for all harness race, four-cylinder auto race, exhibition auto race. There will also be a number of exhibitions of horses, driven and ridden. A field day contest will also be on the program, says Y. M. C. A. contesting with the high school team.

Good Samaritan Port Wine So. California Wine Co. The Reliable Store Every home should have a wholesome tonic which is made in the purest. Here is the purest.

SALT LAKE RAILROAD WANTS STREET VACATED Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—The Salt Lake Railway company will ask the city council at its next meeting to retract from the stand taken regarding the West Long Beach streets. Four of the city trustees are said to be equally divided on the subject, while Trustee Oakford may favor the change.

SEE FIVE WHALES ON FISHING TRIP Barnacle-Covered Monsters of the Deep Follow Little Vessel Two Miles, but Do No Damage Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—Capt. W. H. Graves and six passengers in the fishing boat Tourist passed by five large, brown whales near Newport beach yesterday afternoon.

SUICIDE VERDICT IS BROUGHT IN BY JURY Special to The Herald. PASADENA, March 15.—"We, the coroner's jury, find that the deceased, Frank M. Washburn, came to his death by nitric acid poisoning, administered with suicidal intent." Thus closed the last chapter in the life of one of the Crown city's most prominent jewelers.

NOTES OF INTEREST FROM LONG BEACH Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—Tomorrow afternoon on the local high school court two games of basketball will be played between the Whittier school team and the Long Beach high school team. The Pomona team holds the Citrus league championship.

LONG BEACH WANTS MORE INTERURBAN CARS Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—The chamber of commerce meeting last night was devoted largely to a discussion of the Pacific electric car service between this city and Los Angeles.

COMMITTEE ON SPORTS COMPLETES ITS PLANS Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—The committee on sports for Harbor jubilee day, March 22, has practically completed its arrangements for the program of races to be given on the strand in the afternoon.

RESIDENCE TO BE MOVED; APARTMENTS TO BE BUILT Special to The Herald. LONG BEACH, March 15.—The large residence of Mrs. Emma, the widow of the late Hawaiian planter, whose death occurred here a few months ago, will be moved next week from the northeast corner at Elm and Ocean avenues to a point on the beach near Tenth place.

HIS TOMBSTONE SENT IN BALE OF HAY GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Thomas Newton, proprietor of a grocery in Greenwich and a valuable stock farm near this town, answered an emergency call to the farm. One of his employees had nonchalantly tied a bale of hay out of a freight car to his back, thinking to carry it to one of the Newton wagons for transportation to the farm, as he had carried many others.

SMOTHERED ANIMALS ARE RESTORED TO LIFE Medical Men Greatly Interested in the Invention; Works Like the Human Heart, Says Professor Poe Special to The Herald. NORFOLK, Va., March 15.—Almost sightless and semi-paralyzed, Professor George Poe, living the life of a recluse on a backwoods farm in Norfolk county, claims to have solved the problem of raising the dead by means of his "respirator," as he calls the machine which he has invented for the purpose.

FIFTY RATS FIGHT FARMER FOR HIS LIFE Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, March 15.—William Fisher, an old farmer of Richfield, has learned how ferociously a rat will fight for its life. He was attacked by fifty rats armed with a pitchfork, battled for an hour with fifty rats in his barn. He was victorious eventually, but he is nursing numerous lacerated wounds on his neck, hands and legs where the rats bit.

GIANT ICICLE CAUSES PANIC IN GOTHAM HOTEL Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, March 15.—While sixteen families in the Sterling place apartment hotel at Underhill avenue and Sterling place, Brooklyn, were at luncheon yesterday they were thrown into a panic when a icicle twenty feet long and five feet thick crashed through the skylight near the dining room.

STUDENT LUNCHEON ON HER HAT PLUME Special to The Herald. NEW YORK, March 15.—His classmates at the Theta Delta Chi fraternity house made dinner a very miserable meal for young D. H. T. Miller last night and all because of his bad habit of stealing snacks between meals.

RABBIT BREATHES NATURALLY Special to The Herald. The rabbit was put on the table and one of the doctors injected two grains of morphine into its leg, after which four ounces of ether was given.

Autos Prove Expensive Owning an automobile is not all unalloyed joy, according to some of the guests at the Alexandria hotel. Many of the tourists who have come here for the winter and have brought their touring cars with them are realizing that a touring car is an expensive luxury when Ben E. Ward learns of its existence. There was a formidable

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up the stairs and told the doctor they wanted to get married.

ROLLS ON FLOOR AND EXTINGUISHES BLAZE PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PROMPT ANSWER TO ALARM SAVES HOUSE PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

PASADENA, March 15.—Because she had the presence of mind to roll on the floor and quench the flames that were turning her clothes to cinders Miss Genevieve Babcock of 246 North Fair Oaks avenue is alive and suffering from only slight injuries instead of being perhaps fatally burned. This morning while leaning over a flame she caught her clothing on fire. She promptly extinguished the flames in the manner described.

PASADENA, March 15.—Fire this evening threatened the home of P. J. Richardson at 1048 Summit avenue. An exploding gasoline can communicated the flames to the walls of the kitchen and for a time it looked as if the house must go up in flames. A prompt answer to the fire alarm, however, soon saw several uniformed fire ladders working at the blaze, which was promptly extinguished without any particular damage to the property.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Only in 2 Days

HEARD AROUND THE CORRIDORS BY THE EAVESDROPPER GUEST DRESSES HURRIEDLY AND FORGETS—O! SHOCKING! The next time Walter R. Dinmore, a San Francisco and Los Angeles man of prominence, has occasion to answer a long-distance call in the early hours he will look well to his personal appearance before leaving his room.

Revived Young Sister This encouraged Prof. Poe, and he redoubled his efforts to ascertain the exact moment when life ends. His inquiries were attended to by a woman that a young sister who had been pronounced dead from typhoid fever and placed in her coffin had revived within two hours of the time set for a burial and lived to be a mother of a family.

Couple Delays Banquet While Preacher Ties Knot Banquets or no banquets, young people will get married when they make up their minds to it, as was proven last night at the Angelus hotel. The church and the girl friends enjoyed a banquet last night. They were all gathered in the reception room above stairs awaiting a signal from Dr. Robert McIntyre, when an automobile backed up to the door of the hotel and a man and a maid, both of them very much in a hurry, rushed up