

SENSATIONS IN SAN FRANCISCO WILL CONTINUE

Grand Jury's Labors Only Begun

Probing of Municipal Graft, Now Well Under Way, to Be Carried on Relentlessly by the Prosecution

By Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The coming week promises to be as productive as the past one in sensations relating to the investigation of municipal corruption that is being prosecuted by a grand jury.

It is expected that a decision will be rendered tomorrow by the United States supreme court on the petition of Abraham Ruef for a writ of error. If Ruef's petition is refused the prosecution will proceed in Superior Judge Dunne's court Thursday with the impanelment of a jury to try Ruef on the charge of extortion, in what is known as the French restaurant cases.

If it is granted the trial of Ruef will be postponed a while. Tomorrow afternoon the grand jury will resume its probing into the alleged bribing of the board of supervisors by the telephone and other public service corporations.

Will Intercept Halsey It is announced that the prosecution has retained an attorney to proceed to Honolulu and intercept Theodore V. Halsey, who has been indicted on the charge of bribery, for the purpose of endeavoring to persuade Halsey to appear before the grand jury on his arrival here.

Halsey is now en route from Manila in charge of a detective.

The prosecution is momentarily expecting to hear of the arrest of Louis Glass, former manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company and Abram K. Detweiler of Toledo, Ohio, against whom indictments for bribery were returned yesterday. In addition to the revelations coming from the grand jury room, public interest is directed toward the moral regeneration of the city in view of the alleged confessions of corruption by the members of the board of supervisors.

One story is to the effect that the supervisors before appearing before the grand jury secured pledges from the prosecuting officials that they would neither be prosecuted nor removed from office in return for evidence.

An intimation that those back of the prosecution were planning to assume control of municipal affairs by virtue of their power over the supervisors was denied at the district attorney's office.

Assistant District Attorney Heney said:

Supervisors Must Be Good "All we intend to do is to see that the supervisors behave themselves properly in their official positions.

"We do not intend to try to legislate through them for any purpose. We shall simply force them to do their duty and discharge the functions of their office to the best interests of the people.

"Personally, I believe it is right to give men a chance to rehabilitate themselves if possible, and I think that if the supervisors wish to become better men, as they have expressed a desire to be, they should have a chance."

As to the prosecution controlling the municipal commissions and other departments of the government through the finance committee of the board of supervisors, Heney declared that there will be no attempt to do this.

Those who favor a reorganization of the municipal government recognize that it will be a lengthy process to bring it about through the courts, but are hopeful that public opinion will force wholesale resignations, thus solving an embarrassing question.

These arrangements are expected in the near future.

FRENCH PAPER URGES RADICAL MEASURES

By Associated Press. PARIS, March 24.—Public opinion is greatly aroused over the assassination at Morocco city of Dr. Mauchamp, who was connected with the French geodesic mission, which it is regarded should be the signal for a total change in the French policy in North Africa. The Temps urges the abandonment of the "flabby police" in Morocco. The paper rehearses a long list of outrages on Frenchmen, reparation for which, it says, was never exacted.

RAILROADS ARE DEFENDED BY GROVER

By Associated Press. PRINCETON, N. J., March 24.—"There is much of the nature of delirium," said former President Grover Cleveland, in an interview yesterday, "in the popular outcry against railroad corporations. We shall all be ashamed of it by and by.

"There is much that is not only groundless, but wrong in the off-hand attack made on the railroads by thoughtless people. We should reflect that the railroads are vitally related to our prosperity and that to attack them needlessly is but to attack ourselves. It is not the stock of soulless millionaires, but the property of citizens, of widows and orphans whose savings are invested in railroads, that is being damaged.

"We shall recall what the railroads have been and still are to be in the development of our country and this craze will pass. Of course there must be some form of governmental supervision, but it should be planned in a quiet hour, not in one of angry excitement. Popular emotions follow peculiar laws."

Discussing the political situation, Mr. Cleveland said:

"It behooves Democrats to lose no time in bringing to the front the issue of tariff reform and in focusing the attention of the country upon it. Tariff reform is the issue that will clarify the atmosphere, solidify the friends of democracy and bring victory to the party."

BURTON RECEIVES HEARTY WELCOME

Citizens of Abilene, Kansas, Meet Him at the Depot, Accompanied by a Brass Band

By Associated Press. ABILENE, Kas., March 24.—Former Senator J. R. Burton received an enthusiastic welcome when he returned to his home city after his imprisonment.

A crowd of several hundred persons, with the town band, met him at the depot at 6 o'clock and many persons were wearing badges on which was inscribed "Welcome, Burton."

The former senator rode from the depot to his home in an open carriage and his progress through the streets was in the nature of a triumphal procession.

The sidewalks were lined with people, who lifted their hats as Mr. Burton passed. After an informal reception at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Burton were entertained at dinner by County Treasurer Schneider, after which they went to the theater, where the senator made his expected speech on the subject, "Why I Was Prosecuted."

The senator was much affected at times and once he broke down entirely and wept. On two other occasions during the speech he was overcome by his emotions. His wife, who sat on the stage, was the only woman in the audience.

Mr. Burton modified some of his statements he intended to make about President Roosevelt, fearing, it is said, that friends of the president might manifest their displeasure.

BONILLA FLEES, END OF WAR IS NOW IN SIGHT

Fall of Tegucigalpa Expected

Cablegram Received at Washington from the Secretary of Foreign Affairs Tells of Capture of Choluteca

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 24.—President Bonilla has fled from the battlefield and the Central American war has practically ended, according to cable dispatches received in Washington today by the Nicaraguan minister, Mr. Corea. The fall of the Honduran capital, Tegucigalpa, tomorrow, is predicted by the Nicaraguan secretary of foreign affairs, Mr. Gamez.

The cable of the secretary of foreign affairs follows: "Choluteca taken. Salvadorean and Honduran combined armies defeated. President Bonilla hidden in San Lorenzo with 200 men. Sent steamers to capture them. Tegucigalpa will be taken tomorrow."

"It is my opinion that the war is terminated. Bonilla has fled from Choluteca to sail."

Intervention Necessary

When shown the Associated Press dispatch tonight stating that President Bonilla had fled from Honduras, Minister Corea said he believed the fugitive president would go to Salvador and again recruit his army for a second attack upon Nicaragua, unless the United States and Mexico exercise their good offices to the extent of insisting that Salvador and Guatemala maintain neutrality.

If this is done, Mr. Corea says, the war is ended, otherwise he is firmly convinced that it will only be a question of a short time until hostilities are again resumed.

The Nicaraguan minister tomorrow will ask Secretary Root and the Mexican ambassador, Mr. Creel, to take some step to force Salvador and Guatemala to keep their neutrality pledge.

MURDERER MAN IS FINALLY FOUND

By Associated Press. PHOENIX, Ariz., March 24.—This afternoon searchers found the body of John Leicht, for whom an unremitting search has been kept up since he disappeared last Sunday.

The body was found near the north bank of the Arizona canal, a short distance from Central avenue, eight miles north of Phoenix, badly decomposed, yet recognizable.

No valuables were found in the pockets, although it had been supposed he had about $150. The body was viewed by a coroner's jury, which will meet again tomorrow morning. There can be no doubt that Leicht was murdered by Louis V. Eyttinger, who had been his associate while driving last Sunday from which Eyttinger returned alone.

Eyttinger said he left Leicht at a friend's residence in Phoenix, but this statement later was shown to be false. Eyttinger left Sunday night, March 16. He was seen at Maricopa that night and is believed to have started west. He told an acquaintance at Maricopa by whom he was followed to Phoenix, where he was to marry a rich widow.

The sheriff mailed descriptions broadcast, but absolutely no clew seems to have come of his whereabouts. There is doubt concerning the manner in which death was inflicted.

On the face was found a handkerchief and near by a corked vial of chloroform, seemingly intended to indicate suicide.

A short distance away was a pint can marked chloroform, as well as three cartridge shells of a caliber of revolver known to belong to Eyttinger.

It is assumed that the man was dragged, then thrown from the buggy and shot in his way to California, where he was to marry a rich widow. He later arrived from Sheboygan, Wis. He was about 28 years old. Eyttinger was a nephew of Actress Rose Eyttinger. He came on the same train with Leicht, though not previously acquainted with him. It has been found that he had been released only lately from an Ohio penitentiary, where he had served a term for forgery. Several small checks forged by him have materialized.

FAMINE CAUSES ALARM IN CHINA

DYNASTY AFRAID OF RESULTS NOW APPARENT

Opportunity Given Seditious Societies to Enlist Converts to Their Cause—Spread of Hysteria Feared

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 24.—From Shanghai advices received at the state department it appears that the dynasty in China is seriously alarmed over the effect of the spread of famine through the country and the opportunity it offers to seditious societies to enlist converts to their cause directed against the government.

The government's inability to relieve suffering, it is said, has been magnified and the hardships of the people attributed to lack of sympathy by the government for the poor classes.

The information indicates that a propaganda has been organized to further the circulation of stories of the character outlined and it is said that spread of hysteria may engender a general uprising. If such should be the case there is danger that the government might not be able to control the situation. American and other foreign interests could then be jeopardized.

So great is the concern that diplomatic and consular officers in China have been instructed to keep Washington advised of every turn.

Danger Is Recognized

That the Chinese government recognizes the danger is shown by the fact that Viceroy Tuan Fang has memorialized the throne for $1,000,000 to purchase East Indian rice to feed his people. Undoubtedly this step was taken to offset the work of the seditious societies as well as to relieve the immediate suffering.

In taking his action the viceroy predicted a general uprising in the famine-stricken districts unless prompt relief is provided, but he did not refer to the trouble that has been stirred up by the anti-government parties.

An extra effort will be made in the United States to broaden the scope of the movement to find relief for the Chinese.

Already there have been large sums of money collected and dispatched to China to be used in the purchase of food, and in the near future the transport Buford will sail for San Francisco with a shipload of provisions given by Louis Klopsch, editor of the Christian Herald.

A general movement throughout the civilized world to aid the sufferers, it is believed, will enable the Chinese government to strengthen itself and possibly suppress uprisings and riots.

"That any movement threatening the overthrow of the present dynasty in China gives alarm to the United States and every European nation which has interests in China is not denied. The life of every white person in China is believed by officials of the state department to depend upon the continuance of the Chinese government as it stands."

ENGINEER SAYS HE FAILED TO READ ORDERS

Did Not Know Overland Was Held

Coroner's Inquest Will Fix Blame for Accident, and Indictments for Manslaughter May Be Issued

No further deaths have been reported as a result of the collision on the Santa Fe at the Buena Vista street bridge Saturday night in which four passengers were killed and a score injured.

A number of those who were injured are still suffering greatly and it is feared the results may prove fatal in several cases.

The coroner's inquest on those who lost their lives will be held at Breese's undertaking establishment Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All yesterday deputies from the coroner's office were engaged in investigating the causes which led up to the wreck and it is probable witnesses will be called at the inquest who will be able to fix the responsibility for the collision. If it is found that orders were disobeyed and that in consequence of this disobedience the collision occurred, warrants charging the guilty ones with manslaughter will be issued at once, according to statements made by employees at the coroner's office yesterday afternoon.

Admits Disobeying Orders

According to passengers on the train and W. R. Kelly, the engineer on the outbound train, written instructions had been given him to wait at the switch at lower No. 1, 200 yards from the collision in bushes, and until after the special from Claremont had passed. Had these instructions been obeyed the wreck would not have occurred.

Kelly's only reason for not obeying the orders were that he was in a hurry and did not have time to read them. The engineer on the special had been notified that his train had the right of way and thinking he had a clear track to the depot, was crowding on all steam and going at a high rate of speed.

Several railroad employees who were on the trains at the time of the accident have been subpoenaed and will be required to appear at the inquest and testify.

The wreckage was cleared away by the railway employees early yesterday morning. It was reported three bodies were beneath the broken cab of the engine, and the men who had been sent to the scene, assisted by volunteers, worked with might and main to clear away the debris. When it was clear at last clear it was found that the report of bodies being there was false.

Heartrending scenes were frequent at Breese's undertaking establishment yesterday. Hundreds of friends of the young college men who had lost their lives in the frightful disaster visited the place during the day and wept over the bodies of the dead boys. College men who Saturday raised their voices with songs and shouts of gold cheer talked in hushed tones, and with downcast eyes walked to and fro in the still death chamber at the morgue, overcome with the great grief which had fallen on them, their friends and their colleges.

Early in the morning beautiful wreaths began to arrive at the undertaking establishment until at noon the place was filled with the fragrance of the flowers.

May Dismiss Schools

With hearts wrung with grief the relatives of the young men have as yet been unable to make funeral arrangements, but these will be announced today. It was said yesterday that the president of the Santa Fe Normal school, as well as the Los Angeles high school, the institutions of which the dead and injured were members, would probably dismiss school the day of the funerals as a tribute to the young men who lost their lives.

T. J. Cutting, the conductor on the special, is at the Santa Fe hospital, suffering from internal injuries and a fractured skull. He also is resting comfortably.

H. H. Beal, the fireman on the special, and Fred Walker, the engineer, are both at the Santa Fe hospital and are said to be suffering more from the shock than from any other injuries received. A Grossman of Philadelphia, who was also injured, was able to leave the hospital yesterday. He was considerably bruised about the body.

Thomas Brown of Huckerby, Ariz., one of the passengers on the Overland, was also considerably injured and is now at the Santa Fe hospital.

FRIENDS OF INJURED COMPLAIN OF TREATMENT AT RECEIVING HOSPITAL

Relatives of those who were injured in the collision between the Overland train and the special at Buena Vista street bridge have many complaints to make in regard to the service at the receiving hospital which was given the injured.

When the victims were taken to the hospital it was found there was only one physician present and he was in no way connected with the city. A street railway physician was there, but he was engaged with an unidentified train which had been struck by a Southern Pacific train at Mojave.

The body of C. Jones, a street car victim, who had just died, was on one of the couches and it was necessary to put this body into a death basket in order to make room for the victims of the collision.

DEPUTY CATCHES BURGLAR AT WORK

he nervous, so waiting until he was not looking he ran up the steps. Attracted by a light Matheson crept quietly forward and saw the man picking up the lock of a desk. "Hands up," said Matheson, and the astonished burglar turned to find himself looking into the muzzle of a gun. Matheson told him to turn his back and then to put his hands behind him. He attempted to put handcuffs on the robber. Then ensued a struggle, the result of which for a few moments was doubtful. Matheson finally succeeded in handcuffing the man and led him to the stairway.

The confederate seeing the two men coming down, his friend a captive, fled and after a short chase the pursuit was given up.

Matheson took his prisoner to the county jail and turned him over to the sheriff. A quantity of skeleton keys and other burglar's tools were found in Eddie's possession, and the police think it probable the man is a safe-cracker. Eddie had put a box of cigars and a few medical instruments into a bag, preparing to carry them off.

Matheson gave a good description of the man who escaped. He describes him as being 35 years of age, smooth faced with brown hair. He was dressed in dark brown with a black soft hat.
