

JUDGE ON STAND IN REBELLE DAMAGE SUIT BEGUN BEFORE JURY

Story of Cartoon and Verses in Evening Paper Relating to Lane Case Again Aired in Court

Judge B. N. Smith of department one, the criminal department of the superior court, yesterday took the stand before a jury in Judge James' court in stating his contention in his suit for $50,000 libel against the Evening News company.

The suit is the outgrowth of the Lane case, wherein a young man, convicted of manslaughter, was placed under five years' parole. When Lane received his liberty he made insinuating remarks and was promptly re-arrested and sentenced him to spend the next ten years of his existence in the state penitentiary.

That evening in the publication of the News Editor Clough had a cartoon representing the figure of justice pointing out of a door, while a figure representing Judge Smith was represented as leaving the hall of justice, and a few lines of poetry underneath made a statement about justice and justice, which Judge Smith held as contempt of court and injury to his dignity as well as to his name.

After a hard fight, Judge Bledsoe found Editor Clough guilty of contempt of court and fined him $100.

Files Damage Suit
Just prior to that time Judge Smith had filed suit for damages amounting to $50,000 against the newspaper, alleging libel, and the case came to trial yesterday with Attorneys Earl Rogers and Anderson for the judge and Judge McKinley for the defense.

The remarkable scene of a superior court judge on the witness stand came early in the trial, when Judge Smith took the stand and stated his side of the case. He told the jury that he had been an attorney for forty years, having served as county judge in Illinois for five years and having served in California on the superior bench for the past sixteen years besides his interim of regular practice before the bar.

He stated further that having had hundreds of juries in his court, he was well acquainted throughout the county and that an attack upon his justice and honesty not only made him ridiculous before these acquaintances but cast an unfavorable light on all the decisions he had made.

The judge had just been called upon to give his statement regarding the Lane case and the details preceding the publication of the cartoon when an adjournment was taken and the case will be resumed this morning.

PACIFIC SQUADRON MAY AID FIESTA

War Vessels Will Be in Long Beach Harbor and May Be Prevalled Upon to Stay Some Time

A delightful change may be in store for the officers and men of the Pacific squadron, which has been engaged in target practice at Magdalena Bay. Instead of hastening to Central America and awing into peaceful respect the warring republics, the fleet may be ordered to spend a week in San Pedro bay while Los Angeles is engaged in celebrating the Fiesta and entertaining the delegates to the imperial council of the Mystic Shrine.

It is already known that the squadron, consisting of several cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers under command of Rear Admiral Swinburne will probably visit the harbor during the early part of May, and to make assurance doubly sure the committee of Shriners are endeavoring to have the secretary of war permit the fleet to arrive in time for the Fiesta and remain throughout the celebration. United States Senator Frank Flint has been reached by telegram and will add his influence and invitations have been sent to the officers of the squadron. It is also hoped that the blue jackets and marines will be permitted to participate in one or more of the parades.

To people from the interior states who have never before smelled salt water the war vessels will be an unparalleled attraction, and the day at Long Beach already scheduled will become doubly popular.

It was announced yesterday that a place on the official program had been assigned to Hollywood at the request of citizens of that place who were desirous of having a part in entertainment of the Shriners. A reception will be held during several hours on Wednesday, May 8. The gardens and home of Paul de Longpre will be thrown open to the visiting nobles, the women will serve refreshments and a band will render a concert.

ARREST SAN JOSE MAN ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

J. D. Nairne, who is wanted in San Jose on a charge of embezzlement, was arrested in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon by Detectives Murray and Moore and placed in jail to await the arrival of an officer from the north to take him back.
The warrant on which Nairne was arrested was sworn out by W. M. Eggen, a San Jose attorney, and the amount alleged to have been stolen is a large one. A deputy sheriff left San Jose last night to take the prisoner back.

Ministers Discuss Handling Foreign Element in America and Women's Power in Molding Alien Residents

The handling of the foreign element in this country and the building of character were the principal features of the Los Angeles Ministerial union meeting yesterday at the Central Presbyterian church.

Rev. A. B. Prichard read a paper replete with facts and figures regarding the foreign element coming to this country, and notwithstanding the great influx, the speaker expressed a hopeful view generally of the situation, taking the stand that the religious influences of the Protestant churches should open the field of Christian usefulness for the foreigners that come within our gates. But his array of figures with reference to the great influx of people from many portions of the foreign countries did not strike all the ministers with favor and led to some discussion.

Dr. J. Myers of New York, a missionary among the Jews, spoke of the lack of interest among the Protestant churches in working with the Jews; that the great increase of the Jews and Judaism in this country were sources of much anxiety with the Christian churches of the country.

Talks of Women's Influence

Rev. E. E. Clough, formerly conference missionary for the Black hills, expressed himself plainly that the women in American homes have much to do in molding the ideas of the foreign element in this country with the influences of the public schools. Rev. Mr. Clough in speaking of the Scandinavian emigrants, said: "The women of America are in many cases overlooking a grave responsibility. Scandinavian young women come to this country and take situations as house servants in order that they may learn American ways before taking charge of their own homes in this country. They have heard much about the ideal American home, and they generally accept what they find as being the approved American style of home life. "Nevertheless, the mistress often looks upon the servant's place in her household from a selfish standpoint, and sends out a foreign woman to build another home life according to anything but true American ideals."

On Liquor Restriction

With regard to the action being placed before the people with reference to the liquor zone, Presiding Elder Adkinson introduced the following resolution, which was adopted: "Resolved, That the Ministerial union of Los Angeles urges all those who desire to have the liquor traffic in this city restricted to begin at once to use every means and so expert all their influence with members of the city council to secure the immediate passage of an ordinance confining the wholesale liquor business and giving those in the wholesale business outside of said saloon district not more than six months in which to transfer or close their business."

WANT CAR FENDER CASE TO GO TO THE COUNCIL

The Pacific Electric railway and various interurban connections will be given a hearing in the council rooms May 4 in regard to the question of fenders on cars which carry passengers beyond the city limits.

Railway attorneys have been busy for some time endeavoring to show that interurban cars are not subject to all the regulations under which city ordinances compel local cars to operate. The managers of the different branches controlled by Mr. Huntington will all be in the council chambers on the date set and will endeavor to convince the city fathers that the fender ordinance is not meant for their lines.
Although the cases against the railway companies, which were set for hearing in the criminal court, are scheduled for tomorrow it is not expected that there will be any action taken in the matter. The railroads will ask that the cases be held over until after the meeting with the council, and in all probability their petition will be granted.

Has Nature Made a Mistake? or Are We Guilty of Criminal Neglect?

When we consider the importance of the teeth in singing and speaking, their beauty effect upon the face, the charm they give to expression, their great importance to growth and health, and how necessary they are to preserve the shape and beauty of the features, it would seem to be a positive duty for everyone to try to avoid the causes which prematurely destroy them. From the fact that three-quarters of their length is rooted in solid bone, and only one-quarter extends above ground, that their exposed portion is composed of the hardest substance in our bodies, and that each tooth is a keystone to expand the head and face in harmony with the growing body, nature must have intended us to carry a full set of sound teeth to our graves. This is not an impossible undertaking, nor even a difficult task; it requires only a little effort to establish a habit of ordinary cleanliness in the mouth; for where cleanliness reigns, decay cannot exist. Two minutes spent each day in carefully brushing the teeth two or three times with DENTALON tooth powder will keep them in a state of preservation afforded by no other means. DENTALON is a simple VEGETABLE tooth powder that gives the mouth and teeth a regular Dutch cleaning, without a particle of scratching. It is very popular with dentists and physicians. You must try it yourself to appreciate its high qualities and the charm of its delicious flavor. All druggists keep it.

The Interior Decorator

—and his part in home beautifying

IT IS THE BACKGROUND, the setting, that creates the atmosphere in the home. The windows, the walls, the floors, and the way they are treated—these are the things that bring comfort and refinement—or the reverse. It is the mission of the "California" to elevate the art of home beautifying to a higher plane.

Our drapery department is replete with hints and suggestions for the edification of the "home beautiful."

In lace curtains we are showing some very elaborate, specially designed, hand-made Arabian curtains, and an extensive selection of the newest ideas in Italian Fillet, Brussels Point, Venise, Arabian and Cluny effects.

Cotton and wool figured tapestries in verdure and modern art designs, suitable for wall hangings and upholstering, are shown in great variety. Many are reproductions of rare examples of antiques.

Tapestry friezes with velour and other plain materials to match are also shown.

Not least in importance is the display of English and French chintzes and cretonnes, and fancy linens in block prints suitable for bedrooms and summer draperies.

We call your attention to our window display of draperies this week, which will give you an inkling of what is to be seen in the drapery department.
