

BIG GUSHER IS EXPECTED

ONE OIL FIRM REPORTS A NEW STRIKE MACHINERY AND MULES SENT TO UTAH

Rush to Virgin Valley Begins When Supplies and Derricks Are Sent North by Special Train

Mayor A. C. Harper's oil syndicate is preparing to ship by special freight train additional derricks, boilers, machinery, well casing, supplies, building material and mules to the Southwestern Utah oil fields.

George Montgomery of the Los Angeles syndicate of five, which has formed a $1,000,000 company, left last night for Virgin river to look after the interests of the Los Angeles-Utah Oil company and Samuel Schenk can join him.

Clampitt on Ground Early The fact leaked out yesterday that D. L. Clampitt, a brother of Councilman E. A. Clampitt, started for Virgin river quietly last Friday.

Most of the sessions of the city board of equalization and the fire Saturday among Councilman Clampitt's wells here, he will probably be unable to go to Utah until Thursday night.

The purchase of mules was decided on yesterday because the heavy machinery, including one 200-horse boiler, will have to be hauled overland sixty miles. It will cost at least $10,000 each to drill the three wells, which will be sunk at once.

The Rhyolite company, which has a fine well on the Virgin river tract across the river near where the Harper-Schenk-Montgomery holdings lie, heard good news yesterday from Utah.

"Quit Selling Stock" John Taylor of Taylor, Henick & Co., which firm exploited these lands and formed the Rhyolite company, has been in Los Angeles several days, but immediately on receipt of the telegram telling him to "stop sales of stock, that another big strike had been made," hurried at once to Utah.

It is believed here that a gusher, or the next thing to it, has been uncovered somewhere on the company's holdings. These lands are adjacent to those of the Harper syndicate.

The Rhyolite people, mostly rich miners, control thousands of acres of land near St. George, having been the first to sink a well. It was on their property that the 75-barrel flow was encountered, which volume has since been reported heavily increased.

All day yesterday men and women trekked into the mayor's office to get information concerning the Utah proposition, while nearby the city hall, the Bank of Commerce building at Broadway and First street, where Attorney Schenk has established headquarters for the Los Angeles company.

Most of these persons brought cash and checks with them, stating that they intended to invest their money in the new company.

The mayor's secretary, Herbert D. Kennedy, gave receipts to those who insisted on leaving the city hall.

He says he is doing a land office business. Most of the city officials are becoming financially interested in the Los Angeles-Utah company.

As a result of the Utah proposition, those who have not had their vacation plans planning to go to Utah for a week late this month to look over the ground for themselves.

At the Salt Lake road offices it is said the sales of tickets to Moapa and Lund have increased remarkably the last few days.

Before starting away last night Prospector Montgomery said:

Carries Many Commissions "I have enough orders to get acreage to take in the whole valley and mesa. The people seem to be thoroughly worked up over the oil discoveries.

"I have long been looking for a rush far bigger than Beaumont some day, for I have known of these underlying fields for years. I think the proposition is far greater than Beaumont's."

"Geologists say the field extends over 100 square miles, so that there need be no danger of overcrowding. If the oil is not as near the surface as at Virgin river in all places it is there, all right, a little deeper; you may rely on that.

"We are going at it in a systematic way. We are chartering a train and besides our machinery will send live stock down there and lots of supplies.

"Many of the ranchers in that country need their stock and it may be pretty expensive to hire horses now with a rush on."

OBJECTORS PUT QUIETUS ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC SPUR

Objectors to the widening of Jackson street yesterday succeeded in putting quietus to a proposed spur for the Southern Pacific line on that thoroughfare.

Michael Collins, representing the property owners, succeeded on legal points in inducing the city council to order the widening proceedings abandoned. The protests represented 2525 feet. Collins argued that not only the front of a corner lot but the sides as well should be covered, and in this he was sustained by the city attorney.

DIMPLED BRUNETTE INVADES COURTROOM

DEMANDS SATISFACTION FROM NAUGHTY REPAIRMAN

Repairman and His Sisters and His Cousins and His Aunts Declare That It Isn't True

Was it a silk parasol valued at $8 that Miss Frances Kingery took to S. G. Gorwit's repair shop, or was it just a cheap linen affair with little or no intrinsic value?

This was the casus belli that disturbed the tranquillity of Justice Selph's court yesterday, while outside a July sun enhanced the value of most any kind of a parasol.

Miss Kingery, a pretty dimpled brunette, swept into court, accompanied by an admiring bevy of friends and relations, all of whom subsequently vowed that the shabby affair introduced in evidence was by any means a magnificent creation, fashioned by the fair plaintiff's own dainty hands, which she says she took to the defendant to have the handle repaired.

Gorwit, not to be outdone in the matter of numerous relatives, was attended by his wife, her sister and his cousins and his aunts and nearly a dozen others whose relations could not be clearly established even after the most persistent questioning.

Gorwit took the witness stand first for the defense and swore that Miss Kingery came to his repair shop, not on July 5, as was stated in the plaintiff's complaint, but June 21, and left the flimsy linen affair to have the handle repaired.

"When she came next day," said Gorwit, "she no say dis not the right one, she say I make cover dirty, and I say 'You pick out any linen cover in my store and I put him on.'"

Then, he asserted, Miss Kingery selected a new cover and he had it put on the frame she had brought One at a time, and altogether, did Gorwit's relatives corroborate his testimony.

In vain did Justice Selph call them to order, while the plaintiff and her friends pointed at such unseemly proceeding.

Finally it became too much for the court and the matter was taken under advisement until today, when a decision will be rendered.

JUDGE SMITH'S NAMESAKE RECEIVES LONG SENTENCE

Joseph Smith Must Serve Five Years at San Quentin on Conviction of Assault with Intent to Rob

Joseph Smith, who was last week convicted of assault with intent to commit robbery, was sentenced by Judge Smith yesterday to serve five years' imprisonment at San Quentin.

Joseph was the second Smith to be arraigned yesterday, and Judge Smith could not treat his namesakes too lightly.

"Bring in the Smiths," he said in a manner that made every one in the court room laugh.

"It's hard," continued the judge. "Here is a man evidently of Indian descent. I think he told me that his mother was an Indian, but from his name I should think his father was a white man."

After asking the prisoner where he would like to go the San Quentin sentence was imposed.

JAPANESE CHANGES MIND; JUDGE CHANGES CHARGE

Kitchen Helper Pleads Guilty to Assault with Deadly Weapon and Is Sentenced to Two Years in Prison

K. Tanimura, a Japanese kitchen helper, who on May 9 attacked S. E. Thomas, a painter at the Angelus hotel, was placed on trial yesterday in the superior court before Judge Smith, charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

After the jury had been drawn the prisoner expressed a willingness to plead guilty to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The district attorney consented and the jury was discharged.

Tanimura waived time for sentence and Judge Smith sent him to San Quentin for two years.

Had he been convicted of the former charge the minimum sentence would have been fourteen years in state's prison.

NEW JAIL PROJECT MAKES PROGRESS

COUNCIL OPENS BUILDING SITE BIDS Awards Are Laid Over and Decision on Establishing Workhouse Back of Calvary Cemetery Is Also Delayed

The new jail and workhouse projects are before the city council and final action may be expected next Monday.

The council yesterday heard from the police commissioners their report reflecting the Hewitt street plan of renting an old church into a temporary jail. It is declared impracticable because of the cost.

The council land committee's report urging the establishment of a workhouse on city lands on Bishop street, near Calvary cemetery, was laid over because of the protest from the Second ward.

This workhouse, if built, will be the future home of the chain gang. This will greatly relieve the congestion at the First street jail, and besides the unfortunates will be able to get nightly rest, which is now impossible in the crowded quarters.

Open New Jail Site Bids Bids were opened yesterday for the purchase of ground for a new site for jail and police headquarters. They are all within a few blocks of the present headquarters.

The bids and locations are: Moyer & Gilbert, lots 8 and 9, block A, of the Fort Hill tract, 120x100 feet on Buena Vista street, for $22,000.

Bryan & Bradford, lot 100x178.3 feet on west side of San Pedro street, commencing 120 feet north of Third, containing 17,822 square feet, upon which there is a one-story warehouse. Price, $300 per foot, or $5,346.70. Terms, one-third cash, balance one and two years at 6 per cent.

Sherwood & Koyer, property known as 115 to 127 South Los Angeles street, with improvements, for $150,000. Property is 142 x 175 feet.

Bryan & Bradford, on east side of San Pedro street, formerly Wilmington, and about 100 feet north of First street, for $425 per foot, or $5,250.

O. P. Benson, lots 33 and 34 in Orchard tract, 50x121 feet, northeast corner Fourth and Wall streets. Price $300 per front foot.

Offer a Corner Wright & Callender company, southwest corner of Buena Vista and Alpine streets, fronting 240 feet on Buena Vista and having a depth of 165 feet on Alpine, for $50,000, either cash or $15,000 cash, balance on or before five years at 6 per cent.

W. I. Hollingsworth, lots 5, 6, A, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the Orchard tract, 170 feet frontage on Boyd street, 100 feet frontage on Wall street, an irregular depth on south side of 200 feet, ninety feet of which fronts on a fifteen-foot alley, and a depth on the west of 110 feet, for $72,000; also lots A, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the Orchard tract, situated as follows: 120 feet on Boyd street, 154 feet frontage on a fifteen-foot alley on south side, 170 feet on Wall street and a depth on the west side of 125 feet running south from Boyd street, for $80,000.

Near County Jail Wilbur C. Cate, 182.25 feet on the west side of New High street, between Temple and Republic, and 100 feet deep, for $83,500 on following terms: $15,000 cash, $33,500 on or before December 1, 1907, and $30,000 on or before February 8, 1911, deferred payments at 6 per cent. The price per front foot is $458. Also offer the 50x100 feet adjoining the 132 feet on the west for $25,000; $2500 cash and the balance, $22,500, on or before December 15, 1907. Price per front foot $500. Also the twenty-five feet on the east end of the 132 feet for $15,000; $1500 cash, and the balance, $13,500, on or before December 15, 1907. Price per front foot is $600. Total area is about 25,700 square feet with frontage of 257 feet on New High street, and at an average price of about $484 per foot.

Bryan & Bradford proposed: Proposition No. 1, containing 19,122 square feet, comprising lots 2 and 3, block 4, Pryor tract, and lot 34, Requena tract, 100 feet facing Central avenue, average depth of 150 feet with a 25-foot L facing on Jackson street, for $50,000. Terms to suit.

Proposition No. 2 contains 26,521 square feet and comprises lots 38 to 42 inclusive, Requena tract, beginning ninety-seven feet north of First street on the east side of San Pedro street; has 130 feet frontage and an average depth of 219 feet; $425 per front foot or $5,250.

The bids were all referred to the council committee of the whole.

FIFTH STREET ALLEY PRESENTS LEGAL TANGLE

Finding No Offer of Dedication on Record City's Law Department Will Bring Suit to Quiet Title

Petition No. 403, from M. E. Richards et al., asking that the city accept for alley purposes a certain strip of land lying south of Fifth street, between Spring street and Broadway, being a portion of lots 4 and 9, block 13, of Ord's survey, was recently referred by the board of public works to the city attorney, as there are certain questions of dedication relating to portions of the said alley.

The city engineer reported to the city attorney that certain deeds executed in 1883 and 1884 by Herman W. Hellman apparently attempted to dedicate a strip of land for alley purposes, which strip lies within the limits of the alley hereinabove referred to and as to which some disputes have arisen; but the report further states that the record does not disclose any formal offer of dedication, nor does any acceptance by the city of the said strip appear of record, although the petition states that the strip has been used as a public alley for a period of twenty-three years.

The city attorney advises that in order for the city to obtain an absolute, unencumbered title to this strip it will be necessary to commence an action to quiet title to the same.

The city attorney further advises this board that should it be deemed advisable for the city's title to be determined it will be proper for the board to request the council to direct the city attorney to commence an action to quiet title to the strip of land and for the council at the same time to direct the city engineer to furnish the city attorney with the necessary descriptions.

The board yesterday returned the petition, together with a map showing the said alley, and recommended that the city engineer be instructed to furnish the city attorney the necessary descriptions, and that when the same have been received by the city attorney he be directed to commence an action to quiet title to the said strip of land. The council concurred.

MAY USE STOCKTON WAY TO CHECK FREIGHT CARRYING Arguing that if Stockton can maintain suits against street railways carrying freight Los Angeles ought to be able to do likewise, City Attorney Leslie R. Hewitt has decided to institute suit against such railroads as are carrying freight through the public streets without the necessary franchise.

Recent court decisions have sustained the Stockton authorities in a fight which is similar to the one now on here, and the law department has sent to Stockton for copies of the papers bearing on the case.

So far the police have been unable to stop the practice in Los Angeles.
