MOTHER SOBS FOR HER MISSING BABY

ALLEGES HUSBAND KIDNAPED CHILD

Says He Has Been Cruel to Her, and Wants Work in Order to Care for Herself and Baby

Bareheaded and sobbing, Mrs. W. R. Augustine on 1641 Cortez street rushed into the office of Captain of Police Broadhead yesterday morning and told a pitiful tale of the loss of her 15-month-old baby and of cruel treatment by her husband and sister-in-law.

According to the story of Mrs. Augustine, her husband went for a walk with the baby Friday night, saying he was going to Echo park and would be back shortly. When night came he did not appear and she started out alone to search for them. Her sister-in-law, she says, would not help her in the search for her baby. Worn out and exhausted she had to give up, and has not seen her baby since.

Mrs. Augustine charges her husband with kidnaping the child. She says he has not been kind to her since they came to Los Angeles a year and a half ago. Her husband, she alleges, sold their home on 1333 Illinois street, and took the proceeds, leaving her destitute. Since then she has been boarding with her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Register, 1641 Cortez street, and the board and lodging were all the support her husband had provided for her.

Locked and Nailed House
Mrs. Augustine alleges that while she was visiting neighbors last Monday night her husband and sister-in-law locked and nailed the house up so she could not get in to sleep or get her clothes. She was compelled, she says, to stay at the home of a neighbor over night.

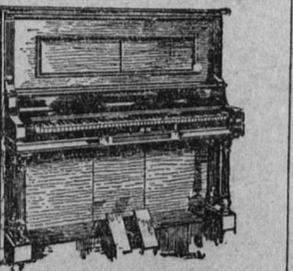

Yesterday she again tried to get in the house but it was locked and she came to the police to get help to find her child. She says she does not want her husband back because he has been cruel to her since they came to Los Angeles, but she is desperate over the loss of her baby. After leaving the police station she went in search of work to provide support for herself and for her baby when it is found.

Mrs. Augustine states she was married in Randsburg, Cal., three years ago when she was 19 years of age. She says her husband treated her kindly until they moved to Los Angeles, when a change came over him which she attributes to his sister-in-law's influence.

Mr. Augustine was employed until Friday night as stationary engineer of the Blinn-Robinson company. Mrs. Augustine thinks her husband may have taken the child to Seattle. Detectives who are working on the case believe Mr. Augustine's sister can give information regarding the whereabouts of the husband and child.

A WEDDING of more than usual importance and interest, due to the social prominence of the contracting parties, will take place at noon today when Miss Maude Brown Kay, niece of Mrs. John C. Brown of Lemon Grove, Hollywood, will give her hand in marriage to Dr. Elmer Rose Pascoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pascoe of Hotel Fremont.

The ceremony will take place at Lemon Grove at the home of Mrs. L. W. Myers, a cousin of the bride, and will be witnessed by close friends only, owing to a recent family bereavement. The bride, who is a young lady of great personal charm, was formerly a resident of Saginaw, Mich.

Rev. Bert Estes Howard will impose the vows and tiny three-year-old Elizabeth Myers, attired in fluffy white organdie, will attend her cousin, bearing a big basket of roses. The bride will wear a gown of blue chiffon broadcloth made over corn colored taffeta, and will carry a white bouquet of violets. A blue hat and gloves will complete the costume. The going away suit is of gray.

The ceremony will take place in front of the fireplace in the reception room, where an artistic arrangement of white tallow vine ferns and potted plants, relieved by pink asters, has transfixed the spot into a fairy altar. Other decorations are in keeping.

Dr. Pascoe, who is a dentist, will take his bride to reside at the Fremont, where Mrs. Pascoe will be home after November 1.

After reaching New York a short time was spent there, and brief visits were also made to Boston and Toronto. Mrs. Ruddy, who is one of the most active among the club women of the city, and is president of two of the most up-to-date organizations, has returned full of enthusiasm for the year's work.

The Musical World

By Geneva Johnstone-Bishop

The latest De Fachmann anecdote comes from the remote wilds of the Catskill region, where Adimir De Fachmann is spending a few quiet months in a modest farmer's cottage before beginning his farewell American tour early this fall.

The great pianist was strolling through the small village near which he lives, when he passed an open window and heard someone playing Chopin's Fantasia-Impromptu very badly indeed. He placed up and saw a sign affixed to the house, "Piano Lessons, Terms 5c." Imbued with a kindly thought, De Fachmann rang the bell. The playing stopped and the teacher herself appeared on the threshold. Recognizing her visitor (for all the village knew his identity) the poor young woman turned scarlet, and said: "Oh, you must have heard how badly I played."

"I did, indeed," replied De Fachmann, "and I've taken a notion to help you play that piece better. I'm going to point out a few of the errors you make." He did so, and spent an hour or more in suggestions and helpful hints that constituted a lesson for which the recipient could hardly find strong enough expressions of gratitude when her distinguished instructor departed.

A few days later De Fachmann chanced to be driving through the streets in which the young teacher lived. Remembering his adventure he glanced at the house in passing. His astonishment may be better imagined than described when he better the brand new sign displayed: "Piano Lessons; Pupil of De Fachmann. Terms 5c."

De Fachmann is to play with the Thomas orchestra in November at their opening concert, the Chopin concerto.

Albert Labarthe is a new pianist to we Americans. He makes his debut in Chicago at the Auditorium, October 5, in a recital.

Swedish journals announce that Christine Nilsson (now Countess of Casamiranda), discovered a new "Swedish nightingale" in her native country this summer. She is a young country girl by the name of Reseda Nyström, and the countess will educate her.

Abraham Miller, considered one of the leading tenors of Los Angeles and the coast, has just taken charge of the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church in Pasadena.

George Ade's new "Artie" is filling the Studebaker theater to the doors in Chicago, and they say the audiences are very enthusiastic over it.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chick have returned from Coronado. Mr. Chick will be the basso at Christ church this coming year.

Henry Edmond Earl is in New York City, and will return about September 15.

Mr. Griffin will preach a special sermon for business men and their families next Thursday and Friday nights. His topic on Thursday night will be "The Battle of the Great Giants;" Friday night, "The Dry Bones in the Valley."

A call is made for a good musician to play the organ, two cornet and violin players for these special meetings.

It is expected that several attorneys and their friends will attend the services. Thirty jubilee singers will sing plantation songs.
