

Out of Town Society

(Continued from Page Two.)
Flinn was married Monday morning at the home of the bride on Burton court by Dr. A. W. Lamport.

LONG BEACH

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Ebell club Monday the following new members were elected: Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, Miss Cora K. Hoffman, Mrs. J. D. Graham, Mrs. A. Lang, Mrs. A. F. Hamman and Mrs. T. G. Schulz.

Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Ball entertained Monday at a family dinner at their home, corner of Hill and Perkins streets. Their guests were Mrs. M. Lynn E. DeWolfe, Mrs. M. A. Ball, Mrs. Mary Ball and Mr. Alkier of Riverside.

Mrs. Charles Pease and children returned early last week from a delightful visit in the New England states. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newcombe of Silver City came to Long Beach last week for a six weeks' stay.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds, who have been touring the old world, will be expected to return to New York today. They will return to Long Beach after a two months' visit in several of the eastern states.

Mrs. Gertrude Thomas and Arthur Lorn were married Saturday afternoon at 522 Olive avenue in the pretty cottage where they will make their home after their wedding journey is over. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Dell Johnstone. Mrs. M. C. Brown, R. M. Brown were bridesmaid and best man.

In the near future Mrs. E. J. Sanders and her daughter will sail for Europe. Miss Sanders goes to complete her medical education in Germany. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Foster of Kansas City are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Day of East Fifth street. Mrs. Foster is a sister of Mrs. Day and is a bride of less than a fortnight.

Cousess Morzeska who have lived in retirement in Long Beach for three months, left Saturday night for San Diego, where she will make her home. She will be joined by her husband, the count, after a tour of his large interests in Rhyolite. Countess Morzeska wrote several short stories while here which will be published soon. Her amanuensis and traveling companion accompanied her to San Diego. The countess starts a party at dinner at the Alexandria and at a box party at the Mason theater on the eve of her departure.

Mrs. A. N. Wheelock of Riverside, with her son and daughter, her guests at the home of Mrs. Frank Gray, 323 Cedar street. The Wheelocks spent the summer at East Newport.

Mrs. Joe Drew and Mrs. Abbie Gatch of Riverside are house guests of Mrs. R. H. Chittenden, 626 West Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stoker, 627 West Fourth street, celebrated Wednesday for the first time a family wedding, which occurred in Bowling Green, Ind. One month after their marriage they joined a prairie schooner train of eight wagons and moved to Kansas, coming to California three years ago. On the day of their wedding anniversary they invited a number of friends to join them in a picnic dinner.

Mrs. Goldstein formerly a wealthy young leader in the San Francisco society now of Ocean Park, entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at dinner at Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, and later at a skating party at the majestic rink in this city.

The G. G. club were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Ella Abbott of Ninth street.

Mrs. Frank Parrott has returned to her home in Carroll Park after visiting several months with relatives in the north.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hamlin, 402 East Third street, who left Thursday for a visit in Kansas, were tendered a genuine and a delightful surprise party by a number of friends Tuesday night.

Miss Ruth Kingman and Miss Nina Sedgwick of Malto are visiting in this city.

The whist club of the Women of the Crafts was entertained Tuesday afternoon in their hall by Miss Georgia Lanphere and Mrs. Claypool.

Rev. W. F. Lusk and Mrs. Lusk received a large number of friends at their home Tuesday night in honor of their home guest, Miss Campbell of Santa Ana.

Miss Mary Flickenger and her sister, Mrs. Emily White of Los Angeles, have returned from an extended stay at Idyllwild.

The Knights and Ladies of Security elected officers Tuesday night. Mrs. Mary E. Conrad was chosen president.

REDLANDS

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lusk, 13 Stillman avenue. The contracting parties were Glenn F. Parkins and Miss Myrtle Van Leuven, both of this city. At 8 o'clock Miss Jean Strachan played the wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Humphrey, the young people taking the vow under a canopy of ferns and roses. A light supper was served directly after the ceremony, and the bride and groom disappeared. Even their friends at the point of destination. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk and she wore a blue going-away suit.

About forty near friends and relatives were present, those from out of the city being Miss Alice Fay of Los Angeles, a niece of the bride, and Mrs. O. F. Van Leuven of San Jacinto. Mr. and Mrs. Parkins will make their home in Redlands and will be at home to their friends about September 25.

A number of the lay friends of Mrs. H. W. Tebbutt executed a very pleasant surprise on her Wednesday, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Tebbutt. The parlor and dining room of Mrs. Tebbutt's home were prettily decorated with ferns and flowers. Those present were Mrs. Cooper, Carter, McDonald, Hatch, Galloway, Iveson, Fine and McCartney and Miss Butts.

The marriage of Miss Clara Killey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Killey, 527 Orange street, to G. A. Shope was solemnized Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. J. F. Humphrey officiating. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Humphrey.

The bride was attended by Miss Bertha Fredrick as bridesmaid and the groom by Fredrick Diebel. The bride was gowned in lined with ivy, and as a background for the bridal couple a portiere of ivy vines and white geraniums hung in the opening between the auditorium and lecture room.

Announcement is made of a forthcoming wedding, the contracting parties being Florence Helene McManill and B. Alexander Rife of Redlands, and Miss Julia Alice McManill and Guy Ralph Prior of Hemet. Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. McManill for the double wedding to take place at the First Methodist church on Friday evening, September 20, at 8 o'clock. Rev. E. J. Inwood will be the officiating clergyman.

Monday at high noon C. Moore Waite and Miss Elizabeth Pierce were united in marriage at Trinity church. Rev. Angus M. Porter performed the ceremony which made them man and wife, using the regular Episcopal ceremony. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride was assisted in the ceremony by her mother, Mrs. C. Moore Waite, and her sister, Mrs. A. R. May of Santa Ana.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Pierce of East Highlands, and the groom is connected with the Southern Pacific company at Los Angeles. The bride was attired in a traveling costume of white shirt waist with a fawn colored skirt, light straw hat and brown veil. In her hair she wore a high silver tiara. Those present were her grandmother and mother at their weddings.

At the Episcopal church at 3 o'clock Wednesday Drew L. Gilliland of Moorpark and Miss Adeline Latham of Somis were united in marriage by Rev. George Robinson. The ceremony was a quiet one, being witnessed by only a few of the intimate friends of the parties. Fred Hooker acted as best man and Miss Edith Bannister as bridesmaid. The bride was given by her father, Mr. Charles Dorn. There were present Mrs. Robert Bell, Robert Bell, Jr., of Somis, Mrs. A. O. B. Brown of Ventura and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dorn and son. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hibbs; Misses Madge Battee, Edith Ellis, Beuna Williams and Guy Thompson, Charles Nafel, Charles Bennett, J. Wilson Kemp, Mr. Fritz and Ray H. Smith by way of proxy. The father of Prof. E. C. Houdyshell, and family have arrived to make their home in Pomona. Mr. Houdyshell was here two years ago, and at that time owned property on West Fifth Fifth avenue. On returning to the east he sold his property, but returns now to make his permanent residence.

W. H. Schureman left on Thursday afternoon over the Southern Pacific route for his former home in St. Louis, going by way of New Orleans. On his return he will spend a few days at San Francisco.

Friends of Mrs. E. Alva Lawrence gave a delightful birthday surprise party in her honor at the home of Miss Edith Houdyshell, 27 West Street on Monday evening. There were invited Messrs. Harris, Frank C. Eells, G. W. Taylor, J. W. Powers, L. B. Johnson, Bauman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parkhurst; Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Margery Burke, Stella Childs, Stella A. Washburn, Ellen Cannon, Mabelle Crawford, Florence Linnell; Messrs. Ransom Casey, Almon T. Richardson, Albert Crawford, Edgar Kellogg.

Frank C. Eells, Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Mrs. Charles Harris and Clarence H. Lee formed an automobile party to Los Angeles on Wednesday. They accompanied the Kellogg-Pearson wedding in Los Angeles.

Edgar H. Kellogg, formerly of this city, now residing in San Francisco, and Miss Georgia Parsons of San Francisco were married in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. E. Alva Lawrence, 27 West Street on Monday evening. There were invited Messrs. Harris, Frank C. Eells, G. W. Taylor, J. W. Powers, L. B. Johnson, Bauman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parkhurst; Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Margery Burke, Stella Childs, Stella A. Washburn, Ellen Cannon, Mabelle Crawford, Florence Linnell; Messrs. Ransom Casey, Almon T. Richardson, Albert Crawford, Edgar Kellogg.

Misses Joella and Leotali Vein entertained in their home Saturday evening, September 7. Those present were Misses Leslie Wilde, Marguerite Hearne, Gladys Riley, Mary Sherman, Benetta Williams, Frances Barlow, Beulah Neel, Anna Comstock, Bernice McGuire, Irene Clark, Freda Butler, Joyce Waid, Olive Chaffee, Dacy Wadleigh, Genevieve Bogart.

Last Friday afternoon the mothers of Oxnard gave a reception at the Oxnard grammar school to the teachers of that school. Out of 120 invitations sent to the mothers of the city of Oxnard over ninety responded with their presence and were entertained with a good program and served delicious refreshments.

During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Albert Ross, Mrs. Millin, Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel. Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel rendered piano solos. Mrs. C. J. Elliott entertained the ladies with the history of an American flag that played an interesting part in the story of the Johnstown flood.

With all the impressive grandeur of the Catholic ritual Robert Henry McGrath and Miss Margaret Salome Laubacher were solemnly united in marriage Wednesday morning in Santa Clara church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Laubacher, a brother of the bride, who sang the solemn nuptial mass following the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. John Pujol, the venerable rector of Santa Clara church, deacon, and Rev. Philip G. Sober of Santa Barbara sub-deacon. Rev. Clement Molony of St. Agnes' church, Los Angeles, acted as master of ceremonies. The Gregorian mass of the sixth tone was rendered by Rev. C. M. G. of St. Vincent's church and Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and Emil Pia of Oxnard, Rev. Thomas F. Fahey of Holy Cross church, Los Angeles, presided at the organ. The offertory was a baritone solo, Gounod's Ave Marie, by Mr. Pia.

Five hundred people gathered at the home of Juan Camarillo near the town of the family name on Monday and enjoyed to the utmost the hospitality of native California. The hospitality that here made the Golden State famous from the time of statehood, and existed long before the inauguration of the new form of government in this fair virgin country and the ceasing of the ships that brought to Pacific shores the memorials of the sea.

City Councilman A. S. Reel, with his wife and daughter, Miss Evara Reel, were visitors during the week at Pasadena.

Rev. J. D. H. Browne and Mrs. Browne are at Santa Barbara. Mr. Browne's work is being looked after by the Rev. Mr. Thursty of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wilcox of Seventh street are enjoying a visit from their son, Edward N. Wilcox, of Riverside.

A pleasant two weeks' camping trip in Carbone canyon has just been completed by George Henry, William Harrison and Ward Conway.

Miss Shirley Henry of Fourth street was the guest of friends at Artesia during a short vacation just ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales of 124 Grand avenue are entertaining S. Schmidt and C. R. Jones of Goldfield, Nevada, who are enjoying the change to a sea-breeze climate. The visitors have large mining interests in the Goldfield district.

Manager H. H. Kliney and Foreman S. E. Glover of the Pomona Times made a pleasant visit at the beach during the week.

J. F. Smith, a Goldfield, Nev., capitalist, is enjoying a vacation at Santa Monica.

Sanville's first annual community picnic will be held on September 19. The Soldier city folks are planning to take in the Balloon Route excursion, and to make stops at each of the beaches. At Playa del Rey a luncheon will be served and a program of field and swimming events carried out.

The local lodge of Lady Macabees enjoyed a pleasant social session two weeks last afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

A quiet and pretty wedding occurred at 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis H. Mayhew in East D street, when their eldest daughter, Helen Nina, was united in marriage to Roy Carlisle Holbrook. The ring service was used, the Rev. Charles H. Secombe of the Bethel Congregational church performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives only from Ontario, Los Angeles, Riverside and other cities. The house was artistically festooned with roses and smilax. The bride was handsome in a most becoming going-away gown of dark blue Panama cloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bright roses. Following the ceremony which united the happy couple, congratulations were received and a sumptuous wedding breakfast partaken of by those present. Many handsome and useful presents were the gifts of friends.

The Ramona Round-up club gave a delightful luncheon Thursday evening at the Masonic banquet hall for three of their members who leave this week for Los Angeles. The guests of honor were Misses Grace and Josephine Harwood and Blanche Robertson. The three honored young ladies were called upon for speeches and each responded in a very entertaining manner, after which the table was cleared away and a jolly evening was spent with music and dancing. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Olive Draper, Bertha and Dot Graber, Mabel Gray, Grace and Josephine Harwood, Mrs. Hole, Ethel Leeke, Elizabeth Moore, Grace Morgan, Mrs. Packard, Mary Felleck, Opal and Blanche Robertson, Grace Smythe, Mrs. Stone and Agnes Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox entertained at a basket-dinner Tuesday afternoon at U-bita. Those who were seated around the well laden board were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fouch, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. Langdon, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Messrs. G. Fouch, Ben Buxton and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. De Berry, who will soon leave for their future home in Arizona. The table will be lavishly decorated with great scarlet carnations and smilax. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. De Berry, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Ben Buxton, Carl Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey.

Miss Agnes Morgan was the happy hostess of the Miras girls Tuesday afternoon at her home in B street. The usual business session was held and the officers for the ensuing year elected. They are as follows: President, Miss Jeanette Herketh; vice president, Miss Agnes Morgan; treasurer, Miss Carrie Johnson; secretary, Miss Viola Byers.

Edgar H. Kellogg, formerly of this city, now residing in San Francisco, and Miss Georgia Parsons of San Francisco were married in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. E. Alva Lawrence, 27 West Street on Monday evening. There were invited Messrs. Harris, Frank C. Eells, G. W. Taylor, J. W. Powers, L. B. Johnson, Bauman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parkhurst; Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Margery Burke, Stella Childs, Stella A. Washburn, Ellen Cannon, Mabelle Crawford, Florence Linnell; Messrs. Ransom Casey, Almon T. Richardson, Albert Crawford, Edgar Kellogg.

Misses Joella and Leotali Vein entertained in their home Saturday evening, September 7. Those present were Misses Leslie Wilde, Marguerite Hearne, Gladys Riley, Mary Sherman, Benetta Williams, Frances Barlow, Beulah Neel, Anna Comstock, Bernice McGuire, Irene Clark, Freda Butler, Joyce Waid, Olive Chaffee, Dacy Wadleigh, Genevieve Bogart.

Last Friday afternoon the mothers of Oxnard gave a reception at the Oxnard grammar school to the teachers of that school. Out of 120 invitations sent to the mothers of the city of Oxnard over ninety responded with their presence and were entertained with a good program and served delicious refreshments.

During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Albert Ross, Mrs. Millin, Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel. Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel rendered piano solos. Mrs. C. J. Elliott entertained the ladies with the history of an American flag that played an interesting part in the story of the Johnstown flood.

With all the impressive grandeur of the Catholic ritual Robert Henry McGrath and Miss Margaret Salome Laubacher were solemnly united in marriage Wednesday morning in Santa Clara church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Laubacher, a brother of the bride, who sang the solemn nuptial mass following the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. John Pujol, the venerable rector of Santa Clara church, deacon, and Rev. Philip G. Sober of Santa Barbara sub-deacon. Rev. Clement Molony of St. Agnes' church, Los Angeles, acted as master of ceremonies. The Gregorian mass of the sixth tone was rendered by Rev. C. M. G. of St. Vincent's church and Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and Emil Pia of Oxnard, Rev. Thomas F. Fahey of Holy Cross church, Los Angeles, presided at the organ. The offertory was a baritone solo, Gounod's Ave Marie, by Mr. Pia.

Five hundred people gathered at the home of Juan Camarillo near the town of the family name on Monday and enjoyed to the utmost the hospitality of native California. The hospitality that here made the Golden State famous from the time of statehood, and existed long before the inauguration of the new form of government in this fair virgin country and the ceasing of the ships that brought to Pacific shores the memorials of the sea.

City Councilman A. S. Reel, with his wife and daughter, Miss Evara Reel, were visitors during the week at Pasadena.

Rev. J. D. H. Browne and Mrs. Browne are at Santa Barbara. Mr. Browne's work is being looked after by the Rev. Mr. Thursty of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wilcox of Seventh street are enjoying a visit from their son, Edward N. Wilcox, of Riverside.

A pleasant two weeks' camping trip in Carbone canyon has just been completed by George Henry, William Harrison and Ward Conway.

Miss Shirley Henry of Fourth street was the guest of friends at Artesia during a short vacation just ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales of 124 Grand avenue are entertaining S. Schmidt and C. R. Jones of Goldfield, Nevada, who are enjoying the change to a sea-breeze climate. The visitors have large mining interests in the Goldfield district.

Manager H. H. Kliney and Foreman S. E. Glover of the Pomona Times made a pleasant visit at the beach during the week.

J. F. Smith, a Goldfield, Nev., capitalist, is enjoying a vacation at Santa Monica.

Sanville's first annual community picnic will be held on September 19. The Soldier city folks are planning to take in the Balloon Route excursion, and to make stops at each of the beaches. At Playa del Rey a luncheon will be served and a program of field and swimming events carried out.

The local lodge of Lady Macabees enjoyed a pleasant social session two weeks last afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

A quiet and pretty wedding occurred at 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis H. Mayhew in East D street, when their eldest daughter, Helen Nina, was united in marriage to Roy Carlisle Holbrook. The ring service was used, the Rev. Charles H. Secombe of the Bethel Congregational church performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives only from Ontario, Los Angeles, Riverside and other cities. The house was artistically festooned with roses and smilax. The bride was handsome in a most becoming going-away gown of dark blue Panama cloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bright roses. Following the ceremony which united the happy couple, congratulations were received and a sumptuous wedding breakfast partaken of by those present. Many handsome and useful presents were the gifts of friends.

The Ramona Round-up club gave a delightful luncheon Thursday evening at the Masonic banquet hall for three of their members who leave this week for Los Angeles. The guests of honor were Misses Grace and Josephine Harwood and Blanche Robertson. The three honored young ladies were called upon for speeches and each responded in a very entertaining manner, after which the table was cleared away and a jolly evening was spent with music and dancing. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Olive Draper, Bertha and Dot Graber, Mabel Gray, Grace and Josephine Harwood, Mrs. Hole, Ethel Leeke, Elizabeth Moore, Grace Morgan, Mrs. Packard, Mary Felleck, Opal and Blanche Robertson, Grace Smythe, Mrs. Stone and Agnes Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox entertained at a basket-dinner Tuesday afternoon at U-bita. Those who were seated around the well laden board were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fouch, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. Langdon, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Messrs. G. Fouch, Ben Buxton and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. De Berry, who will soon leave for their future home in Arizona. The table will be lavishly decorated with great scarlet carnations and smilax. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. De Berry, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Ben Buxton, Carl Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey.

Miss Agnes Morgan was the happy hostess of the Miras girls Tuesday afternoon at her home in B street. The usual business session was held and the officers for the ensuing year elected. They are as follows: President, Miss Jeanette Herketh; vice president, Miss Agnes Morgan; treasurer, Miss Carrie Johnson; secretary, Miss Viola Byers.

Edgar H. Kellogg, formerly of this city, now residing in San Francisco, and Miss Georgia Parsons of San Francisco were married in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. E. Alva Lawrence, 27 West Street on Monday evening. There were invited Messrs. Harris, Frank C. Eells, G. W. Taylor, J. W. Powers, L. B. Johnson, Bauman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parkhurst; Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Margery Burke, Stella Childs, Stella A. Washburn, Ellen Cannon, Mabelle Crawford, Florence Linnell; Messrs. Ransom Casey, Almon T. Richardson, Albert Crawford, Edgar Kellogg.

Misses Joella and Leotali Vein entertained in their home Saturday evening, September 7. Those present were Misses Leslie Wilde, Marguerite Hearne, Gladys Riley, Mary Sherman, Benetta Williams, Frances Barlow, Beulah Neel, Anna Comstock, Bernice McGuire, Irene Clark, Freda Butler, Joyce Waid, Olive Chaffee, Dacy Wadleigh, Genevieve Bogart.

Last Friday afternoon the mothers of Oxnard gave a reception at the Oxnard grammar school to the teachers of that school. Out of 120 invitations sent to the mothers of the city of Oxnard over ninety responded with their presence and were entertained with a good program and served delicious refreshments.

During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Albert Ross, Mrs. Millin, Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel. Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel rendered piano solos. Mrs. C. J. Elliott entertained the ladies with the history of an American flag that played an interesting part in the story of the Johnstown flood.

With all the impressive grandeur of the Catholic ritual Robert Henry McGrath and Miss Margaret Salome Laubacher were solemnly united in marriage Wednesday morning in Santa Clara church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Laubacher, a brother of the bride, who sang the solemn nuptial mass following the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. John Pujol, the venerable rector of Santa Clara church, deacon, and Rev. Philip G. Sober of Santa Barbara sub-deacon. Rev. Clement Molony of St. Agnes' church, Los Angeles, acted as master of ceremonies. The Gregorian mass of the sixth tone was rendered by Rev. C. M. G. of St. Vincent's church and Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and Emil Pia of Oxnard, Rev. Thomas F. Fahey of Holy Cross church, Los Angeles, presided at the organ. The offertory was a baritone solo, Gounod's Ave Marie, by Mr. Pia.

Five hundred people gathered at the home of Juan Camarillo near the town of the family name on Monday and enjoyed to the utmost the hospitality of native California. The hospitality that here made the Golden State famous from the time of statehood, and existed long before the inauguration of the new form of government in this fair virgin country and the ceasing of the ships that brought to Pacific shores the memorials of the sea.

City Councilman A. S. Reel, with his wife and daughter, Miss Evara Reel, were visitors during the week at Pasadena.

Rev. J. D. H. Browne and Mrs. Browne are at Santa Barbara. Mr. Browne's work is being looked after by the Rev. Mr. Thursty of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wilcox of Seventh street are enjoying a visit from their son, Edward N. Wilcox, of Riverside.

A pleasant two weeks' camping trip in Carbone canyon has just been completed by George Henry, William Harrison and Ward Conway.

Miss Shirley Henry of Fourth street was the guest of friends at Artesia during a short vacation just ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales of 124 Grand avenue are entertaining S. Schmidt and C. R. Jones of Goldfield, Nevada, who are enjoying the change to a sea-breeze climate. The visitors have large mining interests in the Goldfield district.

Manager H. H. Kliney and Foreman S. E. Glover of the Pomona Times made a pleasant visit at the beach during the week.

J. F. Smith, a Goldfield, Nev., capitalist, is enjoying a vacation at Santa Monica.

Sanville's first annual community picnic will be held on September 19. The Soldier city folks are planning to take in the Balloon Route excursion, and to make stops at each of the beaches. At Playa del Rey a luncheon will be served and a program of field and swimming events carried out.

The local lodge of Lady Macabees enjoyed a pleasant social session two weeks last afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

A quiet and pretty wedding occurred at 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis H. Mayhew in East D street, when their eldest daughter, Helen Nina, was united in marriage to Roy Carlisle Holbrook. The ring service was used, the Rev. Charles H. Secombe of the Bethel Congregational church performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives only from Ontario, Los Angeles, Riverside and other cities. The house was artistically festooned with roses and smilax. The bride was handsome in a most becoming going-away gown of dark blue Panama cloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bright roses. Following the ceremony which united the happy couple, congratulations were received and a sumptuous wedding breakfast partaken of by those present. Many handsome and useful presents were the gifts of friends.

The Ramona Round-up club gave a delightful luncheon Thursday evening at the Masonic banquet hall for three of their members who leave this week for Los Angeles. The guests of honor were Misses Grace and Josephine Harwood and Blanche Robertson. The three honored young ladies were called upon for speeches and each responded in a very entertaining manner, after which the table was cleared away and a jolly evening was spent with music and dancing. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Olive Draper, Bertha and Dot Graber, Mabel Gray, Grace and Josephine Harwood, Mrs. Hole, Ethel Leeke, Elizabeth Moore, Grace Morgan, Mrs. Packard, Mary Felleck, Opal and Blanche Robertson, Grace Smythe, Mrs. Stone and Agnes Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox entertained at a basket-dinner Tuesday afternoon at U-bita. Those who were seated around the well laden board were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fouch, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. Langdon, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Messrs. G. Fouch, Ben Buxton and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. De Berry, who will soon leave for their future home in Arizona. The table will be lavishly decorated with great scarlet carnations and smilax. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. De Berry, Misses Alma Weir, Bessie Shorey, Ben Buxton, Carl Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shorey.

Miss Agnes Morgan was the happy hostess of the Miras girls Tuesday afternoon at her home in B street. The usual business session was held and the officers for the ensuing year elected. They are as follows: President, Miss Jeanette Herketh; vice president, Miss Agnes Morgan; treasurer, Miss Carrie Johnson; secretary, Miss Viola Byers.

Edgar H. Kellogg, formerly of this city, now residing in San Francisco, and Miss Georgia Parsons of San Francisco were married in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. E. Alva Lawrence, 27 West Street on Monday evening. There were invited Messrs. Harris, Frank C. Eells, G. W. Taylor, J. W. Powers, L. B. Johnson, Bauman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parkhurst; Misses Maria and Elizabeth Eells, Margery Burke, Stella Childs, Stella A. Washburn, Ellen Cannon, Mabelle Crawford, Florence Linnell; Messrs. Ransom Casey, Almon T. Richardson, Albert Crawford, Edgar Kellogg.

Misses Joella and Leotali Vein entertained in their home Saturday evening, September 7. Those present were Misses Leslie Wilde, Marguerite Hearne, Gladys Riley, Mary Sherman, Benetta Williams, Frances Barlow, Beulah Neel, Anna Comstock, Bernice McGuire, Irene Clark, Freda Butler, Joyce Waid, Olive Chaffee, Dacy Wadleigh, Genevieve Bogart.

Last Friday afternoon the mothers of Oxnard gave a reception at the Oxnard grammar school to the teachers of that school. Out of 120 invitations sent to the mothers of the city of Oxnard over ninety responded with their presence and were entertained with a good program and served delicious refreshments.

During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Albert Ross, Mrs. Millin, Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel. Miss Olive Thatcher and Miss Leona Creel rendered piano solos. Mrs. C. J. Elliott entertained the ladies with the history of an American flag that played an interesting part in the story of the Johnstown flood.

With all the impressive grandeur of the Catholic ritual Robert Henry McGrath and Miss Margaret Salome Laubacher were solemnly united in marriage Wednesday morning in Santa Clara church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Laubacher, a brother of the bride, who sang the solemn nuptial mass following the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. John Pujol, the venerable rector of Santa Clara church, deacon, and Rev. Philip G. Sober of Santa Barbara sub-deacon. Rev. Clement Molony of St. Agnes' church, Los Angeles, acted as master of ceremonies. The Gregorian mass of the sixth tone was rendered by Rev. C. M. G. of St. Vincent's church and Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and Emil Pia of Oxnard, Rev. Thomas F. Fahey of Holy Cross church, Los Angeles, presided at the organ. The offertory was a baritone solo, Gounod's Ave Marie, by Mr. Pia.

Five hundred people gathered at the home of Juan Camarillo near the town of the family name on Monday and enjoyed to the utmost the hospitality of native California. The hospitality that here made the Golden State famous from the time of statehood, and existed long before the inauguration of the new form of government in this fair virgin country and the ceasing of the ships that brought to Pacific shores the memorials of the sea.

City Councilman A. S. Reel, with his wife and daughter, Miss Evara Reel, were visitors during the week at Pasadena.

Rev. J. D. H. Browne and Mrs. Browne are at Santa Barbara. Mr. Browne's work is being looked after by the Rev. Mr. Thursty of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wilcox of Seventh street are enjoying a visit from their son, Edward N. Wilcox, of Riverside.

A pleasant two weeks' camping trip in Carbone canyon has just been completed by George Henry, William Harrison and Ward Conway.

Miss Shirley Henry of Fourth street was the guest of friends at Artesia during a short vacation just ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales of 124 Grand avenue are entertaining S. Schmidt and C. R. Jones of Goldfield, Nevada, who are enjoying the change to a sea-breeze climate. The visitors have large mining interests in the Goldfield district.

Manager H. H. Kliney and Foreman S. E. Glover of the Pomona Times made a pleasant visit at the beach during the week.

J. F. Smith, a Goldfield, Nev., capitalist, is enjoying a vacation at Santa Monica.

Sanville's first annual community picnic will be held on September 19. The Soldier city folks are planning to take in the Balloon Route excursion, and to make stops at each of the beaches. At Playa del Rey a luncheon will be served and a program of field and swimming events carried out.

The local lodge of Lady Macabees enjoyed a pleasant social session two weeks last afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

A quiet and pretty wedding occurred at