

ALL OF THE LATE NEWS FROM YOUR OLD HOME STATE

LOUISIANA

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 13.—John Denison, a non-union machinist, died at the charity hospital today as a result of injuries received several weeks ago when attacked by men alleged to be striking machinists. He is said to have come to New Orleans from Washington or New York. No arrests have been made.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13.—About 2000 strike breakers were employed by the Illinois Central at the Stuyvesant docks loading cotton. The levee strikers, who now number about 10,000, remained away from the loading docks.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13.—About 2000 strike breakers were employed by the Illinois Central at the Stuyvesant docks loading cotton. The levee strikers, who now number about 10,000, remained away from the loading district.

SHREVEPORT.—The dead and mutilated body of George Hanson, aged 26, vice president of the Caucasian Land company of this city, was found under a band stand on Douglas island, which is separated from the city of Shreveport by a small bayou.

LAKE CHARLES.—Preparations are under way for the breaking up of the big prairie belonging to the Orange Land company, south of town, and its conversion into small farms.

SHREVEPORT.—The dead and mutilated body of George Hanson, aged 26, vice president of the Caucasian Land company of this city, was found under a band stand on Douglas island. He had been killed on the bank of a bayou with a heavy railroad wrench and the body dragged beneath the house.

LAKE CHARLES.—Passenger train No. 1, northbound on the Wabash, ran into an open switch at Houston, Miss. The engine and the baggage car were badly damaged and went into the ditch.

MAINE

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 13.—Crossing the Maine Central at Falmouth, a carriage occupied by Mrs. Elizabeth Beck and a party of this city, was found under a band stand on Douglas island. He had been killed on the bank of a bayou with a heavy railroad wrench and the body dragged beneath the house during the night.

AUGUSTA.—Harvey A. Seales, who shot and killed his wife at the Chesterville last summer, is still at the Maine state insane hospital here for observation. The trial has now been postponed until November 5.

BRUNSWICK.—The Christian association of Bowdoin college tendered its annual reception to the members of the Freshman class in Hubbard hall. The affair was informal and light refreshments were served.

BATH.—At a meeting of the wardens and vestry of Grace church (Episcopal) the Rev. Culbert McGay of Rumford Falls, Me., accepted a call to succeed the Rev. Evan A. Edwards, who resigned last winter to accept a call to Holy Trinity church of Baltimore, Md.

GARDNER.—Freeman Patten, a life-long citizen of this city and its mayor during 1899-1900, died suddenly of heart disease in his home, aged 61 years. He was president of the Gardner board of trade at his death and trustee of the Gardner, Randolph and Farmington water district and director of the Oakland National bank. He leaves a widow and an adopted daughter.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

NASHUA, N. H., Oct. 13.—With three cases of typhoid fever at the hospital and fifteen more reported in different sections of the city, physicians are busied preventing a general spread of the disease. A number of cases of typhoid pneumonia have also been reported.

MANCHESTER.—John W. Nye, proprietor of the Phoenix market, has made an assignment to Lawyer P. H. Sullivan for the benefit of his creditors. While he includes a number of Manchester, Boston and New York parties. His liabilities are said to be several thousand dollars and his assets small.

LACONIA.—At the closing session of the annual convention of the grand lodge of New Hampshire, International Order of Good Templars, in this city, the following officers were elected: Grand chief templar, Hiram R. Elliott; Laconia; grand counselor, J. Arthur Beaudouin; Concord; grand vice templar, Flora Elliott; Laconia; grand secretary, Gertrude P. Holmes; Manchester; grand treasurer, George W. Hazen; North Weare; grand marshal, Hiram H. Lincoln; Nashua; grand chaplain, Cyrus French; Wilton flat; past grand chief templar, Charles E. Wiggin; Portsmouth.

ONE CENT TO SHOW FOR FOUR YEARS' WORK

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—For his four-year service at the city hall as president of the fire board, George W. Gail, Jr., who will retire on Monday, has just 1 cent to show. Mr. Gail has given away all the remainder of his salary.

It came to light today that Mr. Gail has just divided between Mrs. Gail and Mrs. Gesswein, widows of firemen who were recently killed, his last month's salary as president of the fire board, which position pays $1000 a year. Mr. Gail made the gifts quietly, and they only became known through friends of the two widows.

Last December Mr. Gail, as a Christmas present for certain members of the department, whose salaries had not been raised by the board of estimates along with the salaries of other members of the department, turned over to these men what amounted to four years' salary of $1000 a year. The sum distributed was close to $4000.

NEW JERSEY

BEVERLY, N. J., Oct. 13.—A car crushing under his weight, Joshua Fenimore fell at the dinner table and received a fractured hip.

BORDENTOWN.—The nineteenth annual convention of the Trenton District Epworth league will be held in Trinity Methodist Episcopal church here Thursday.

HAMMONTON.—William H. French, a draftsman, while assisting to carry a barrel of flour at Anderson's storage house, slipped and fell into a cellar, breaking his left arm and badly cutting and bruising his head.

GLOUCESTER.—Earl T. Eisenhart of this city and Miss Emma R. Hall of Tintin, Pa., were married Thursday night by the Rev. George E. Faber, rector of the Church of the Ascension.

BRIDGTON.—The forty-ninth annual convention of the Cumberland County Sunday School association will be held in the Methodist church at Newport on Thursday, October 24.

WILLVILLE.—The state board of education re-elected John N. Campbell superintendent of the Cumberland county public schools for the fifth term. Salem County Superintendent Wentzell was chosen for the second term.

COLLINGSWOOD.—The corner stone of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Haddon and Woodlawn avenues, will be laid today at 4 p. m. The pastor, the Rev. J. M. Hanly, will be assisted by the Rev. S. D. Doughty of Philadelphia.

BRIDGETON.—James Camm, 65 years old, a night watchman for a local basket factory, was found murdered at his post. His head had been crushed with an ax.

NORTH CAROLINA

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 13.—The city bloodhound was called out again to give chase to an unidentified negro who attacked Miss Gracie Cook, a pretty 15-year-old girl, while out walking on a Beaumont mountain. The negro was lying in ambush. He threw a heavy stone at the girl and made a leap from the bushes for her.

She fled down the mountain, screaming as she ran. The negro was chased by a posse of officers, led by the city's bloodhound, into the mountains, where the trail was lost.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 13.—Dr. D. S. Rowland and Lilly Rowland, his wife, were acquitted of the charge of murdering her first husband, J. W. Strange.

CONNECTICUT

WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 13.—During the Republican rally in the North End Athletic club room the floor collapsed, precipitating 150 men into the cellar of a lamp the building was set on fire and the crowd of men struggled in the flames and debris almost helplessly.

The fire was extinguished within an hour and when the men were rescued from the cellar it was found that one, Harry Dean, a well known Republican worker, was perhaps fatally injured.

HARTFORD.—Engineer Jerome Wilson and Conductor David C. Maroney, charged with manslaughter, were found guilty in the criminal superior court and sentenced to nine months each in jail.

Wilson and Maroney were in charge of the passenger train which on June 25 collided with a work train in this city, killing ten persons and injuring forty.

MILFORD.—An automobile owned and driven by Dr. C. E. Backer of this place and carrying five others was struck by a trolley car at Bay View crossing and carried for a distance of 125 feet on the fender before the car was brought to a stop. All the occupants were injured. Dr. Backer the most seriously. A big gash was cut in his head, but it is believed that he will recover. The others in the automobile were Mr. and Mrs. J. Kahn of Meriden, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fleucher of New Haven and Joseph Fouché. They were all badly cut and bruised.

COLORADO

GREELEY, Col., Oct. 13.—Mrs. Mabel Brink of Orchard has the distinction of being the only woman employed by the Great Western Sugar company outside its office force. She has the responsible position of weighmaster at Orchard station, where thousands of tons of Weldon valley sugar beets are handled. She is the daughter of C. Giradot, a pioneer of the Weldon valley.

COLORADO SPRINGS.—The city attorney will confer with the Victor city attorney here over a settlement out of court of the water litigation instituted against Colorado Springs by Victor several years ago. If the two cities reach an understanding they will unite in opposing the claims of Beaver creek ranchmen for more water from that source.

DENVER.—E. T. Osburn, a book-keeper of the Green Canon Coal company, was shot and instantly killed by E. L. Pierce, a claim accountant for the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. Samuel C. Wood of the Colorado Sporting Goods company was in court to show why he should not pay his wife, who has sued for divorce, $20 a week in alimony while his case is on the docket. The court ordered him to pay that amount, but Mrs. Wood was requested to live in the same house with her husband.

PUEBLO.—An assignment lease was filed here transferring the Earle theater and site from Edward Ackerman and William Weston to the Crystal Theater company. This company already controls houses in Pueblo, Denver, St. Joseph and other places throughout the west.

NEW YORK

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Frank E. Xavier, editor of the Yonkers Herald, was found guilty by a jury of criminal libel against District Attorney W. T. Jerome. Counsel for Mr. Xavier asked the court to set aside the verdict as being against the evidence, and Judge Platt said he would hear arguments on that point next week.

ITHACA.—To draw a crowd "Cyclone" Smith, a Prohibition orator, sent in a fire alarm for the city hall, which brought the department and several thousand people to the scene in short order. When they arrived he commenced to harangue them from the steps of a bank, telling how a local resident who died this week was murdered by the liquor traffic. The police gathered him in.

NEW YORK.—H. H. Vreeland tendered his resignation as manager for the receivers of the Metropolitan Street Railway company, and the New York City Railway company.

GOOD GROUND.—Marjorie, the 8-year-old daughter of Horace Lane of this village, died at her home here, the result of a most unusual accident, occurring in the public school. The little girl in a spirit of fun was running around a corner to bump into Stanley Penny, 11 years old, who was playing in a game, and their heads struck. Marjorie was knocked to the ground unconscious.

NEWBURGH.—Oliver Wendell Barnes, third, arrived at the home of his grandfather in Fiehlkill, with Edna Browning McGoon Barnes, his chorus girl bride. They came from New York in an automobile, and were met at the residence of his wealthy grandfather, to whom he introduced his bride.

DELAWARE

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 13.—Forty of forty-three defendants in the government suit to dissolve the so-called Dupont powder trust have entered an appearance in the United States court here. In addition to companies throughout the country, including the E. I. Dupont-De Nemours Powder company of New Jersey, the holding company, the defendants include Senator Henry A. Dupont, President T. Coleman Dupont and numerous other individuals.

Federal Judge Archibald of Scranton, Pa., probably will preside at the trial. The defendants have until November 4 to file answers.

DOVER.—Two serious accidents occurred in Dover within the same block, and Homer Wilson, a son of C. R. Wilson, and Mrs. Edward E. Clements, wife of a prominent citizen, have been taken away for hospital treatment.

Young Wilson was crushed in a stall by a horse which he was stabilizing. The animal surged against the boy and crushed the bones of his arm through the skin.

Mrs. Clements fell down stairs, fracturing and splintering her right knee. Her brother-in-law, Dr. T. O. Clements, administered temporarily to the injured limb, but ordered the patient's removal to a Philadelphia hospital for an operation.

MILFORD.—Miss Hettie Latchum is visiting in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bishop and John T. Crouch of Milton were Milford visitors last week.

Harry Thaw returned last week from his summer vacation in the Pocono mountains. Miss Jennie Stanton left for Boston, Mass., where she has entered college.

WANTED WIFE TO PAY FOR HONEYMOON

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 13.—"He wanted me to pay my board while we were on our wedding trip," was one of the many startling statements made on the witness stand in the circuit court No. 2 by Mrs. Caroline M. Schnepfe, 1907 West Baltimore street, in her testimony against her husband, John Henry Schnepfe, from whom she is endeavoring to obtain a divorce.

Mrs. Schnepfe, who is past the three-score mark in life, as is also her husband, occupied the witness stand for nearly two hours, during which she laid bare in a highly entertaining manner events tending to show that she was cruelly treated by her husband, on which grounds she is seeking divorce.

The proceedings grew out of a petition of Mr. Schnepfe to have the court dismiss his wife's bill of complaint, and Mrs. Schnepfe was placed on the stand to substantiate the allegations of her bill. "We were at Atlantic City on a wedding trip two months," she told the court, "and at the end of that time I brought enough money with me to pay my own board." Mrs. Schnepfe stated that the same spirit of meanness characterized Mr. Schnepfe's conduct during the next two years of their married life.

IOWA

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 13.—Cruel flat owners in Des Moines have gone the limit. They have agreed that hereafter they will lease their flats to no one unless the tenant agrees absolutely never to cook cabbage or onions in his apartments.

KEOKUK.—Petitions were filed yesterday against seventy-seven saloon keepers of Keokuk and Lee county asking that they be enjoined from selling liquors and asking that the saloons be declared nuisances.

BURLINGTON.—The funeral of Jack Hawley, the boy who was burned to death, was held. The theory is now generally accepted that the boy set fire to his clothing by accident.

August Hubner, business man, 59 years old, is dead here.

DAVENPORT.—The arrest and suicide of James H. Farrand, superintendent of delivery at the Davenport postoffice, created a sensation. He was charged with opening registered mail. Thieves from mail at the Davenport postoffice have puzzled the authorities for several years. Detectives have been working on the case for the past month. Farrand had been bound over to the federal grand jury. He gave bail and was found dead in bed later, having suicided himself with chloroform.

SIoux CITY.—Resting the claim of Rachael Johnson Beck, his youthful stepmother, to a widow's one-third share in the $50,000 estate of the late William Beck of Holstein, Iowa. Amiel J. Beck of Sioux City, executor of the estate, has filed the sensational charge that the alleged marriage by which she became Mrs. Beck was null and void.

KENTUCKY

W. TESBURG, Ky., Oct. 13.—Two men were killed and three more or less severely wounded in a free-for-all fight here at the Davenport postoffice near Hemlock, a hamlet on the Pike-Letcoer border. The opposing factions were members of the Martin-Ferrell-Hall families, most of whom have been waging a feud for several months. Andy Ferrell and Alex Martin, Jr., were killed outright while David Martin, John Ferrell and Mannon Hall were seriously wounded. Two others of the factionists received more or less serious wounds.

At Laurel Fork, a hamlet near here, Joseph Mullins, aged 30, formerly of Jefferson City, Mo., was married to Mrs. Mary Ann Short, aged 76, making their first marriage age, Elder Wilson Church officiating.

PADUCAH.—Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for governor, is using with effect the pardon record of Governor J. C. W. Beckham, and recites actual figures to which no defense is attempted.

OWENSBORO.—Miss Nina Bruns, a 15-year-old girl, known at the skating rink, where she was a belle, as "Miss Fluffy Ruffles," attempted to end her life by drinking half an ounce of laudanum. She gave no cause for her act. A physician attended her for four hours and she was finally revived. She announced that she would make another attempt to end her life.

FLORIDA

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 12.—Austin Griffin shot and killed his wife at the breakfast table then committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

MARIETTA.—Mrs. James L. Wall of Belmont is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Lane.

T. N. McCormick has purchased a neat little home about four miles north of Marietta.

Lillian Eva Laurimore is still ill. Mrs. A. Pickett of Jacksonville is visiting her father.

PLANT CITY.—Miss Minnie E. Neal of Jacksonville, president of the W. C. C. of Florida, gave the local league here two meetings.

ILLINOIS

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 13.—Drum Major Dick Mueller is back from Cairo, where he had charge of the Campaign band during the visit of the president.

Mrs. Roy West has gone to Des Moines, Iowa, to visit friends.

Mrs. William S. Ennis has gone to Chicago for a week.

October 19 the first anniversary of the Y. M. C. A. campaign for 500 new members will be celebrated by a repetition of the effort.

Oscar Kolp of Elwin was instantly killed while putting a fuse in a box on the street car line. His index finger came in contact with a copper-lined box while completing a circuit through which 23,000 volts passed. Kolp was dead before falling from the pole on which he was working.

NASHVILLE.—John Longlitz and Mrs. Carrie Longlitz of Mascoutah, who were divorced in the St. Clair county court less than a year ago, were married here by Judge Lewis Brenner. The young people were divorced last October, yet the time was a few days short of a year. The bride is a daughter of Phillip Elling, a contractor at Ashley.

Warren E. Kuhl has entered into a separation agreement with his wife, Mrs. Lillian Kuhl. The peculiar part of the agreement is the provision in the agreement that he is to allow her $5 less if she goes to work while the agreement is in effect.

Harry Gewe has gone to Springfield, Mo., for a week's visit with relatives.

SPRINGFIELD.—State Treasurer Smull turned into the state treasury the sum of $30,072, being the interest on the state's money for the quarter ending September 30. The total amount which he has deposited with the treasury for the past nine months amounts to $70,000.

MONTANA

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 13.—Robert Brownlee, a member of the state legislature from Sweet Grass county, committed a crime of twelve hours in the county jail for illegally fencing the public domains.

HELENA.—William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the president, accompanied by United States Senator Thomas H. Carter and Harry W. Child, president of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company, has left Helena for the Yellowstone section, where the party will spend one month in hunting bears and fishing.

INDIANA

FRANKFORT, Ind., Oct. 13.—While enacting the role of Romeo, Roscoe Douglas, 21 years old, was shot by Benjamin Martin, a city patrolman, and is dying in Dr. Farmer's hospital. In an ante-mortem statement young Douglas said that while he stood beneath Miss Martin's window he was surprised by her father and ran, whereupon Martin fired two shots. Patrolman Martin asserts that he thought Douglas was a burglar.

FORT WAYNE.—Mrs. Mary Holden has been granted a divorce from "Rev." Edward F. Holden. She testified that she was the thirteenth wife of Holden, who is doing time in Columbus, O., for forgery. He married her last October and left in forty days. She says she has located at least twelve other wives and that several bigamy charges will be pending against him when he has served his six years.

TERRE HAUTE.—Agnes Black, 10 years old, was killed by Willie Bennett, her 10-year-old nephew, at Shelburn when he was playing with a target rifle.

KOKOMO.—E. D. Sweeney, president of the Globe Steel Range company and a widely known horseman, died here.

LAPORTE.—Charles Rogers, whose confession resulted in the conviction of five citizens of New Carlisle for violation of the fish law, has become a maniac.

RICHMOND.—Wilfred Jessup, Republican, has announced himself a candidate for congress in the Sixth district.

MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 13.—William Frost of Sherman county, Kas., is a much-disappointed man. He answered an advertisement in a matrimonial paper, it is said, after due correspondence and paying the paper's fees, came to Anoka, this state, and secured a license to wed Mrs. Hanna Wearer, a comely widow. He made a few inquiries and found out enough to convince him he was not making any mistake, so he went to the house to be married. Today on the clerk of court's desk rests the license with the pathetic inscription: "This license is null and void. She has changed her mind. Frost."

DULUTH.—Claiming that the United States Steel corporation and Sheriff Bates entered into a conspiracy to deputeize guards during the recent strike, who were not citizens and not responsible persons, John Moser of Chisholm has brought suit against both the sheriff and the company for $5000 damages.

MINNEAPOLIS.—As a result of its investigation of the so-called "little black look," the federal grand jury returned nineteen indictments against well-known lumbermen and officers of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, charging a conspiracy to defraud by the use of the mails.

BLIND MAN WALKS TWO THOUSAND MILES

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 13.—Aberteden has a citizen who has the unique record of having walked between 2000 and 3000 miles without going outside his own dooryard. The man is Chas. Cork of 304 Terrace avenue, an aged man, who is almost blind.

An Englishman, Mr. Cork is a firm believer in plenty of exercise, and has taken his daily walk in all kinds of weather by pacing up and down boards on his own premises. He knows just how many of these laps make a mile, and keeps a daily record. He announced that he had walked 229 miles since a year ago last May. His health, which has been very poor for a long time, is now improving, and he bids fair to finish the biblical span of three score years and ten.

RHODE ISLAND

CUMBERLAND, R. I., Oct. 13.—The funeral of Michael Gorman, one of the best known residents of Berkeley, took place from the home of his brother, William Gorman, on Mendon road. A high mass of requiem was sung at St. Joseph's church by Rev. J. W. Buggett. Burial was in the family lot at St. Joseph's cemetery, Berkeley. The bearers were William Galloway, Dennis McGuire, Michael Landy, James Whalen, Samuel Meehan and James Owens.

PAWTUCKET.—A new feature will be added to the work of St. Paul's Episcopal church in the near future, if the present plans are carried out. This is to hire medical aid for the indigent of the parish and to support a physician and nurse to look after those who are ill, but who, through unforeseen circumstances, are unable to see doctors' bills. The arrangement for such work are not as yet complete.

WOONSOCKET.—The Perseverance Worsted company, on a site adjoining its present plant on River street, will start construction as soon as contracts can be let, upon a new three-story brick weaving mill of 120 looms capacity. The present plant, which will continue in operation, has eighty-one looms.

MICHIGAN

BATTLE CREEK.—The regular annual convention of the National Citizens Industrial association opened here with about fifty of the expected 200 delegates present. President C. W. Post of this city made an address strongly opposing unions and the closed shop.

DETROIT.—Impelled, it is believed, by mother love and a desire to shield and save her son, Mrs. Minnie Chadwick has made a remarkable confession in the little village of Atlanta. She says she shot and killed her husband, Charles E. Chadwick, a mill foreman whose body was found in the road near his home. Footprints near the body and other circumstances led to Chadwick's son, Eugene, being suspected of the killing, and he is under arrest.

DETROIT.—Representative Charles E. Ward of Bancroft was held for trial in the recorder's court charged with being a party to an act which led to the death in a maternity hospital last April of Edith Freesley, a profruder in the legislative printing office.

SOUTH DAKOTA

MITCHELL, S. D., Oct. 13.—The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train over the Sioux City and Dakota division crashed into a switch engine working out on the main track within the yard limits. Engineer Denny Sumner and Fireman Welland were both killed.

SIoux FALLS.—Isaac L. Gill, steward of the Sioux Falls penitentiary, who a few days ago was stabbed three or four times in a maternity hospital last April of Edith Freesley, a profruder in the legislative printing office, now is gaining ground.

PIERRE.—The reports of fire chiefs and town blazes to the fire marshal for the first quarter since the law went into effect show that 107 fires occurred in the state for that time.

HURON.—South Dakota Congregationalists will be represented at the annual council in session this week in Columbus, O., by Rev. F. W. Long of this city as delegate and Dr. W. H. Thrall, superintendent of congregational missions for South Dakota.

MISSOURI

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 13.—While the family of George W. Dulany were away from home attending the street fair Friday night, thieves entered the residence and stole jewelry valued at $1000.

The Hannibal harvest festival, after a five days' season of success, closed last Saturday night. Hon. H. D. Hughes, instructor in agronomy in the Missouri state university, determined the best grain in the corn contest. Ralls county product was awarded the premium.

MOBERLY.—The herd of cattle at Cairo belonging to James Owings and John Gooding was discovered last week to have Texas fever. Every precaution has been taken to stop the spread of the disease. The Randolph county tax books show a larger total than any year in the history of the county.

MARYLAND

BOYDS, Md., Oct. 13.—Miss Margaret Jennings, aged 25, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jennings, who lives near Clarksville, died there. She was a former resident of Dawsonville, this county. Besides her parents, one sister, Mrs. Wright of Washington Grove, survives.

CUMBERLAND.—August Baker, the city patrolman who was shot by William Burns, a negro desperado while the former was in the act of arresting him for disorderly conduct, died at the Allegheny hospital. Coroner Martz held an inquest, the jury rendering a verdict that Officer Baker came to his death by a bullet wound at the hands of William Burns. There was no testimony to implicate Jesse Page in the murder and he was released.

Mr. John Turner, aged 53 years, of Lonaconing died at his home of Bright's disease. He leaves three sisters.

ANNAPOLIS.—The navy coaches are much pleased with the showing of Lange, both in the game yesterday and practice, and believe that they have a worthy successor to the veteran Norton, who graduated last year.

BALTIMORE.—The various Democratic candidates for the United States senatorship discussed among themselves for several hours the terms of an agreement by which they are to be bound in the senatorial primary. Those present were Gov. Whittle, Senator William Pinkney Whyte, Representative J. Fred C. Talbot, former Representative Joshua W. Mills, former Gov. Frank Brown, former Attorney General John F. Poe, and Senator Blair Lee of Montgomery county. Former Gov. E. E. Jackson sent a letter saying that a business engagement prevented his attendance.

CUMBERLAND.—August Baker, one of the veterans of the Cumberland police force, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded on Winslow street, near the canal wharf, by William Burns, a young mulatto, who came here from Delaplane, Farquar county, Va.

HYATTSVILLE.—Mr. George W. Coldenroth, president of the recently established Kenilworth club of Hladsburg, announced that he had secured several hundred Democrats when the campaign in Prince George's county was formally opened. Messrs. J. Enos, Jr., T. Howard Duckett and S. Marvin Peach, candidates for the legislature, made brief addresses.

HAGERSTOWN.—Five cars of a Western Maryland freight train were derailed, three being thrown down an embankment, on the Baltimore & Harpersburg division, a few miles west of Emory Grove.

NEBRASKA

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Oct. 13.—The board of education has added the third teacher in the high school. Beaver City now has twelve grades and a good equipment of apparatus. Prof. W. T. Davis has done much to prepare the school to do normal training. As a result the school has been made the normal training school of this district.

BEATRICE.—Alvin F. Sherrill, arrested here for stealing two grip from Conductor A. L. Duval at DeWitt, was bound over to the district court at Wilbur at his preliminary hearing. In default of $500 bond he was remanded to jail.

GENEVA.—There was some frost this morning, the thermometer getting down to 34 degrees.

PLATTSBURGH.—Joseph Kohoutek and Miss Frances L. Svoboda, both of Plattsmouth, were united in marriage by Father Bartek in the Bohemian church Monday.

The impressive ritual service of the Woodmen of the World was used in the unveiling of the monument of the late Edward Grassman Sunday afternoon. The city council granted a ten years' franchise to Earle Wescott Monday evening to establish an electric light plant. The power for the same is to be furnished in Omaha.

PAPILLION.—Charles Secotter, aged 35 years, died of lockjaw. He was balling hay when the fork handle slipped and struck him on the side of his head. Lockjaw set in, from which he died.

PENNSYLVANIA

YORK, Pa., Oct. 13.—While he was preparing for his wedding, Alexander Berry of South Queen street, this city, was arrested by Detective Flicks on the charge of the larceny of a bicycle.

WILKES-BARRE.—Members of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union regiment of this city have induced the Sisters of Mercy to open a night school in St. Mary's school building. This is to be started on November 1.

SHAMOKIN.—Tired of living alone H. Legge shot himself with a revolver. When found he said he did not want to live any longer, before he lost consciousness. There are no hopes for his recovery. During a storm lightning wrecked the home of John Strausser of Ferndale, near here. A child in a cradle was fatally injured.

COATESVILLE.—The same old story, "did not know it was loaded," resulted in Edward Wilson, aged 14 years, being shot in the mouth by a 32-caliber revolver in the hands of August Coppe here.

SCRANTON.—Helen Kresge, 3 years old, daughter of James Kresge of Parr street